JERRY D. MCMORRIS

CHAIRMAN

On January 26, 1993, Jerry D. McMorris officially took over the role of Chairman, President and CEO of the Colorado Rockies.

One decade later, the Rockies have drawn over 35 million in home attendance, more than any other team in baseball. Although the club has not generated the consistent on-field success that it desired, Colorado's 740-817 (.475) all-time record still stands as the third best mark of any expansion team after 10 years.

In October of 2001, McMorris passed on the reigns of club president to Keli McGregor but continued his role as chairman. He enters his 11th season in that capacity with the Rockies.

McMorris' involvement in baseball began as a limited partner of the upstart franchise awarded to Denver on July 5, 1991, but it escalated to full-time duty when McMorris' group purchased controlling interests in the club on Sept. 2, 1992. Less than a month after taking over the team, McMorris was in Tucson, Ariz., watching the first group of Rockies gather at Hi Corbett Field.

In the Rockies' first season of baseball in 1993, the club set major league records for highest attendance in a single game, night game, three-game series and single season. Colorado led the majors in attendance in each of its first seven seasons of existence (1993-99) and exceeded the 3 million fan mark in its first nine years, the only team in major league history to do so.

Throughout it all, the fans have been the top priority of McMorris and the Rockies ownership group. McMorris himself, along with Charlie and Dick Monfort, can be found sitting with the fans at almost every game near the home dugout. They also sit in the seats for spring training games in Tucson, never refusing to chat with anyone about the game they all love.

It is because of this that McMorris insisted on making Coors Field a traditional throw-back ballpark built entirely for the great fans of the Rocky Mountain Region. In 1995, the first year of Coors, the Rockies eclipsed 11,000,000 in home attendance, faster than any team in history. With the clubs' key signings of Larry Walker, Bill Swift and bringing in Bret Saberhagen near the trade deadline, the Rockies became the first expansion team in major league history to participate in the postseason in fewer than eight seasons.

Coors Field is continuously voted as one of the best stadiums in the game, despite new ballparks popping up nearly every year.

Writes Roger Thurow of The Wall Street Journal: "Once in the park, the customers, true to Mr. McMorris' philosophy, are relentlessly pampered. The aisles are wide; the concession stands unclogged, the bathrooms plentiful. And there is a battalion of 'greeters' deployed throughout the crowd. They sincerely say 'hello have a nice game' when you arrive at the park and 'goodbye, thanks for coming' when you leave."

All-time Coors attendance surpassed the 25 million mark on April 11, 2002 in just its eighth season. Attendance research by ballpark is unavailable so to put it into perspective, of the current 29 other teams in baseball, no club reached 25 million in under 10 seasons. Los Angeles reached 25 million in their 12th year.

McMorris is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Finance and Compensation Committee, and also chairs MLB's Legislative Committee.

A 1962 graduate of the University of Colorado's School of Business, he was named the 1993 Colorado Business Leader of the Year and the 1992 Master Entrepreneur of the Year. He's also heavily involved with the National Western Stock Show as vice chairman and works on the NWSS Executive Committee. He owns Timnath Farms and the Red Mountain and Belvoir Ranches, with interests based in Northern Colorado and Wyoming. A member of the Institute of American Entrepreneurs, he's one of the state's most sought-after public speakers.

Jerry and his wife, Mary, reside in Timnath, Colo. They have two married children, Kelly and Scott, and five grandchildren. Kelly and her husband Michael Dorvillier have two kids, Madeline and Blake, and Scott and his wife, Rachel, have three, Samantha, Dade and Zane.

Charles K. Monfort

Vice Chairman

An original Colorado Rockies founder, Charlie Monfort enters his 11th season as Vice Chairman of the club. He, along with Jerry McMorris, acquired the expansion team's controlling interests on Sept. 2, 1992.

Monfort's family has operated a major cattle feeding operation for three generations, and introduced fabrication of beef products in 1959. Based in Greeley, Colo., the company was operated by the Monforts since the 1930s. Charlie became president of Monfort International Sales Corp. in 1988 and under his guidance the corporation became one of the largest beef exporters in the world, and the leading exporter of beef products to Asia. Monfort opened company offices in Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Beijing, Moscow, Mexico City and Rio. Those international ties were pivotal in the Rockies' ability to sign RHP Chin-hui Tsao, the best prospect ever produced by Taiwan.

Monfort, 43, in 1996 became president of ConAgra Refrigerated Foods International, Inc., which consolidated his company with all of ConAgra's refrigerated foods international companies. In order to concentrate on his leadership role in the Rockies, Charlie resigned as president in late 1998.

Born Oct. 30, 1959, Charlie and his wife, Venessa, along with his two children, Kenny and Ciara, reside in Greeley. He has a bachelor's degree in marketing and business management from the University of Utah ('82) and served as president of Kappa Sigma fraternity in college. He also sits on the Special Olympics Board of Directors.

Richard L. Monfort

Vice Chairman

Dick Monfort became a vice chairman of the Colorado Rockies Dec. 8, 1997, joining his brother in the club's leadership.

Monfort, 48, spent 25 years in the cattle business, primarily with his family's company. He became president of Monfort of Colorado, Inc. in 1987 and then joined ConAgra Red Meats in 1991 as President & CEO. Today, Monfort owns the Hyatt Grand Champions Hotel in Palm Springs, Calif., the Hilltop Steak House in Boston, and interests in various commercial real estate ventures in Denver and Greeley, Colo. Monfort helped to launch the Montera Cattle Co. in 1996 and, one year later, the first Brett Favre Steak House in Milwaukee. He has since opened a second Brett Favre Steak House in Green Bay.

In addition, Monfort is the Chairman of the University of Northern Colorado Board of Trustees and the 2000 Chairman of United Way of Weld County. He also sits on several area boards, including the Board of Directors of Denver's University Hospital and the Colorado Economic Development Board.

Born April 27, 1954, the Colorado native lives in Greeley with his wife Christine and their three children. A 1976 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Dick has a bachelor's degree in business management.

Cary Teraji

Cary Teraji was involved in the effort to bring major league baseball to Denver since the very beginning.

After becoming involved with John Dikeou and the AAA Denver Zephyrs, Teraji filed an application for an expansion franchise. The two applications were merged through negotiations spearheaded by then-Governor Roy Romer. Cary became one of the original general partners with John and Jack Antonucci and Nate and Mickey Monus.

Teraji has been working with computer software since 1970, having formed his own company in 1981. He is semi-retired.

KELI S. MCGREGOR

PRESIDENT

Keli McGregor is in his second season as club president, being named to that role on October 18, 2001. This year marks his 10th as a member of the Rockies organization.

McGregor, 41, guided the club's business operations for six years prior to assuming his role as president. He began working with the Rockies in October of 1993 as Senior Director of Operations and was then promoted to Senior Vice President in 1996 and then Executive Vice President in 1998. For nine years he has built the Rockies' business around the precedent of outstanding customer service.

"Our people are our greatest resources," Rockies Chairman Jerry McMorris said at the time of McGregor's promotion. "The timing is perfect to create our own continuity within the Rockies organization and the Rocky Mountain Region. Keli's experience and leadership skills make him the right choice at the right time."

McGregor joined the Rockies after a four-year stint as an associate athletic director at the University of Arkansas. The Razorbacks won 11 national championships in that time span.

Prior to that, he coached football at the University of Florida for two seasons, 1988-89. While at Florida, he also earned his master's degree in Education with an athletic administration emphasis.

McGregor currently sits on the board of the Colorado chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. And, in memory of his friend Michael McMorris, who lost his life to cystic fibrosis before the 1996 season, McGregor co-founded the Reaching Out to Youth (ROY) Foundation to assist the battle against the disease.

A two-time All-American tight end at Colorado State, McGregor was drafted by the Broncos in the fourth round (110th overall) of the 1985 NFL draft. He played for Denver, Indianapolis and Seattle before retiring. Keli still holds CSU's single-season reception record (69) and stands third on the all-time reception list with 153. He was voted to the school's All-Century Team in 1992 and gained membership into the CSU's Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born Jan. 23, 1962 in Primgahr, Iowa, Keli and his wife, Lori, live in Golden, Colo., and have four children: daughters Jordan, Taylor and Landri and son Logan.

Denver Broncos/Clarkson & Associates

After attending games at Mile High for more than 20 years, McGregor played one season (1985) for the Denver Broncos.

Daniel J. O'Dowd

Executive Vice President, General Manager

Dan O'Dowd begins his fourth season as the Rockies Executive Vice President, General Manager, continuing to build a farm system that has steadily improved itself over the past four years.

USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Rockies' minor league system sixth in its 2002 Organizational Power Rankings. In its month-by-month rankings during the season, that publication tabbed Colorado's farm system as the best in the majors for July, two spots up after finishing third in May.

Through the draft, O'Dowd and his staff have stockpiled not only the Rockies arms of the future but also some of the better position players in the minor leagues.

Since O'Dowd arrived in September of 1999, the club has produced some of its best drafts in team history. Heading into spring training, four players from the 2000 draft appear on the 40-man roster led by Garrett Atkins and Brad Hawpe, the last two Rockies Minor League Players of the Year respectively.

At some point this year, Colorado's starting rotation could feature three or perhaps even four former draft choices: Jason Jennings, Aaron Cook, Shawn Chacon and Jason Young. In 2002, rookie starters combined for 29 of the team's 73 wins, the first NL staff to do that since the 1975 San Francisco Giants.

As good as this young crop of Rockies are, there's more waiting in the wings.

The 2002 draft may turn out to be the team's most successful yet. Not only did they snag highly touted southpaw Jeff Francis in the first round but also drafted and signed two players many felt should have been first rounders, RHP Mike Esposito from Arizona State and 3B Jeff Baker out of Clemson.

But of course, building within the organization can only do so much. Quality clubs must be able to acquire players through trades and free agent signings, something O'Dowd has made a living in.

One of the youngest GMs in the business, O'Dowd made nine trades in 2002 and all-in-all, has made 44 deals since being hired on Sept. 20, 1999.

But deals have been in the blueprints since Day One. Following the 1999 World Series, the Rockies added 15 players to the major league roster. O'Dowd made five trades involving 23 players, including the first four-team transaction since 1985. Only six players remained on Colorado's 25-man Opening Day rosters between 1999 to 2000, believed to be the largest turnover in baseball history.

Guiding the most active front office in the majors, O'Dowd made some redirections during the 2000 season. He completed seven more trades, touching 22 players. In his first 16 months on the job, O'Dowd completed 16 trades involving 56 players.

Prior to joining the Rockies, O'Dowd served the Indians front office for 11 years, from 1988-98, most recently as the Vice President of Baseball Operations and Assistant General Manager. During his tenure in Cleveland, the Indians won four straight AL Central pennants (1995-98) and advanced to the World Series in 1995 and 1997. He spent his first five seasons (1988-92) as Cleveland's Director of Player Development, cultivating future All-Stars such as Charles Nagy, Manny Ramirez, Jeff Shaw and Jim Thome. Indians president Hank Peters promoted O'Dowd after Baseball America named Cleveland its 1992 Organization of the Year. O'Dowd spent six seasons as Assistant GM and directly oversaw the player development and scouting departments. From 1988-92, O'Dowd oversaw the Colorado Springs Sky Sox, Cleveland's Triple-A Pacific Coast League affiliate. During that period, the farm team advanced to the PCL playoffs four straight seasons (1989-92) and won the league championship in 1992.

Before joining the Indians, O'Dowd worked five years for the Orioles. He left Baltimore after two and-a-half seasons as Assistant Director of Player Development and Scouting. O'Dowd also worked in Baltimore's broadcasting and marketing departments.

Born Sept. 6, 1959, Dan and his wife, Jackie, have three children and make their home in Cherry Hills Village. He is a graduate of Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla.

Greg Feasel

Sr. Vice President – Business Operations

Greg Feasel enters his eighth year with the Rockies and second as Senior Vice President, being promoted to his new position on November 13, 2001. He oversees ticketing operations and sales, corporate sales, publications, broadcasting, community affairs, merchandising, promotions, special events, suites, information systems and all operations at Coors Field.

Feasel joined the Rockies before the 1996 season after serving as a division director of sales and marketing for Coca-Cola Enterprises from 1988-95.

A 1981 graduate of Abilene Christian, Feasel played three seasons for the USFL's Denver Gold. He also played for the Green Bay Packers and San Diego Chargers.

In the off-seasons throughout his football career, he worked in the real estate and automotive industries and as an educator.

He currently serves as a Foundation Board Member for the Denver Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau (DMCVB). He has chaired several organizations, including Grocery Sales Managers of Colorado and the Career Tech Prep. Committee. He's also served as a chairman of Colorado community colleges and their occupational education system, and as past president of the Colorado chapter of the NFL Alumni Association.

Greg's wife, Lynn, recently gave birth to the couple's first child, daughter Zoie on Dec. 15, 2002. The family resides in Denver.

Hal Roth

Sr. Vice President – CFO & General Counsel

Hal Roth has served as the Rockies' Chief Financial Officer since August, 1993 and General Counsel since the summer of 2000. He begins his 11th year with the organization.

Roth, 52, is responsible for all the financial and legal functions of the club, including accounting, banking, insurance, contracts and litigation.

Prior to joining the club, Hal was a partner with the public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand for 19 years, 1975-93, where he specialized in taxation.

Roth holds a bachelor's degree from Albion College, an M.B.A. and J.D. from the University of Denver and an L.L.M (in taxation) from New York University. He is also a certified public accountant.

Hal and his wife, Connie, and sons, Reilly (21, who attends the University of Arizona) and Rory (19, who attends Colorado State), reside in Englewood. He currently serves on the board of the Colorado Neurological Institute, and has served on the boards of the Colorado Children's Chorale and Seniors, Inc.

A Michigan native, Hal likes to play golf and climb Colorado's 14,000-foot peaks during the summer. In the winter, he can be found on the state's ski slopes.

Kevin Kahn

Vice President – Ballpark Operations

Kevin Kahn begins his 10th season with the Rockies and second as Vice President, being named to that position on Nov. 13, 2001.

He directs all of the ballpark operations at Coors Field, including the club's partnership with Aramark, the food service provider at Coors.

Prior to being named Vice President, Kahn, 38, was Senior Director of Coors Field Operations from 1997-2000. He was the Director of Stadium Services his first three seasons.

Overall, Kahn has been involved with professional baseball for 22 years, as he previously served for the Oakland Athletics from 1981 to 1993. He started as an operations assistant and was then named Director of Stadium Operations in 1987. He spent his last seven seasons with the A's in that capacity, including three consecutive World Series appearances (1988-90) and the 1987 All-Star game.

The Oakland, Calif., native graduated from Bishop O'Dowd High School. He received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from California State-University Hayward.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Haley (3) and Kyle (1). Kevin currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Police Activities League of Denver.

Michael Kent

Vice President – Finance

One of the original members of the officer roster, Michael Kent joined the Rockies in January, 1992, and enters his 12th year with the club.

Kent, 45, is in contact with every department in the organization, assisting them in financial planning and budgeting. He also is responsible for financial reporting, cash management, club insurance and benefits.

Michael came to Colorado after a decade with the Philadelphia Phillies (1982-91). He served as Controller at the time of his move West. Prior to joining the Phillies, he worked in the Long Island, N.Y., office of Deloitte Haskins & Sells, providing accounting services to small and growing businesses.

He and his wife, Mary, have four children: Jonathan, Laura, Timothy and Bryan. The family resides in Highlands Ranch. Kent attended Villanova University and graduated with a degree in accounting in 1979.

Sue Ann McClaren

Vice President – Ticket Sales, Operations & Services

Sue Ann McClaren joined the Rockies in the fall of 1992 and enters her 11th season with the club, her 26th year in Major League Baseball.

McClaren oversees one of baseball's busiest ticket departments, which has sold more seats for one game and one season than any big-league club in history. On Dec. 1, 1995, with the addition of vice president to her title, she became the Colorado Rockies first female officer.

Sue Ann joined Colorado after 15 years with the St. Louis Cardinals, who won three NL pennants and one World Series title during that time. She joined the Cardinals in their sales department, then worked her way up to Director of Ticket Sales before departing for the expansion Rockies.

A 1977 graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, Mo., McClaren is single and lives in Denver.

Jay Alves

Sr. Director – Communications / Public Relations

Jay Alves begins his sixth season as the Rockies PR Director, his 21st in baseball. He originally joined the Rockies Oct. 1, 1997 and was then promoted to Senior Director after the 1999 season.

Alves, 48, entered the game in 1981 with the Oakland A's, where he served three years in marketing (1981-83) and three years as the Assistant Director of Scouting (1984-1986). Then, during his nine years (1987-95) as the Director of Baseball Information, the A's hosted the 1987 All-Star Game and earned post-season berths four times, including three straight World Series (1988-90). He also worked on Oakland's radio broadcast team (1993-95) and hosted pre- and postgame talk shows. From 1996-97, he served as SportsChannel Pacific's Director of Public Relations.

Born Feb. 15, 1955 in Half Moon Bay, Calif., Jay and his wife Doreen make their home in Littleton with their three sons, Andrew, Scott and Jake. Alves graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in radio-television ('77). From 1978-80, he was an anchor and sports reporter at Tucson's KGUN-TV.

Bill Geivett

Director – Player Personnel

Bill Geivett takes on an additional role this season, as he will now oversee the Minor League Operations Department as well as retaining his current role as Director of Player Personnel. Geivett begins his third season with Colorado and 17th in professional baseball. He joined the Rockies Nov. 10, 2000.

Geivett, 39, will serve as the club's Farm Director and assist Dan O'Dowd with major league player and roster evaluations.

He came to Colorado from the Dodgers where he had worked since September of 1998, most recently as the team's Assistant General Manager (2000). Prior to that, he was the Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. From 1994-96, he headed the Montreal Farm System, which garnered the coveted Topps Organization of the Year honors in 1996. He broke into the major leagues with the Yankees as a scout and organizational instructor in 1991. He coached collegiately at Loyola Marymount (1989) and Long Beach State (1990).

Geivett played four seasons of professional baseball in the California Angels organization until sustaining a career-ending knee injury while running out a ground ball with Midland (AA) in 1988. As a collegian, the third baseman received All-America accolades at the University of California-Santa Barbara. He also attended Sacramento City College and was drafted four times overall during the early 1980s.

Born July 25, 1963, Geivett has a master's in education from Azusa Pacific University (1991). He and his wife, Bonnie, make their home in Yorba Linda, Calif., with their children Rachel (7) and Sam (5).

Bill Schmidt

Director – Scouting

Bill Schmidt began his direction of the Rockies scouting department on Oct. 1, 1999. He is the second scouting director in club history.

Schmidt, 43, joined the Rockies from the Indians, where he served four seasons (September, 1995 – October, 1999) as the organization's only national cross checker. Before his time in Cleveland, Schmidt supervised the Southern California, Arizona and Nevada regions for the Yankees (1988-95). He worked for the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau from 1987-88, and launched his scouting career as an associate with the Reds (1982-84). All told, he has 17 years of scouting experience.

His first job out of college was as head baseball coach at his alma mater, Magnolia High School in Anaheim, Calif. He also assisted at Santa Ana Junior College (1982-84) and Arizona State (1985). Professionally, he coached in the Pioneer League for the Reds (1984) and Brewers (1986) before his three seasons (1991-93) coaching the Yankees' New York-Penn League club.

Born Aug. 22, 1959, he and his wife, Linda, have two sons: Andrew (8) and Matthew (6). Bill has a master's degree from Azusa Pacific ('87) and a bachelor's from Cal State-Long Beach.

Paul Egins

Director – Major League Operations

Paul Egins accepted his position with the Rockies in September of 1991 and officially joined the club on Oct. 30, 1991. 'Egs' is one of the last original hires left in the Rox organization.

Egins, 39, coordinates the Rockies spring training operations, major league team travel duties, player relations and has special scouting assignments.

The Columbus, Ga., native was promoted to Director of Major League Operations Nov. 16, 2000 after serving as Director of Player Development from Sept. 9, 1997 through the end of the 1999 campaign. He's also held the titles of Assistant Director of Player Development, Assistant Director of Player Personnel, and Assistant Director of Scouting.

Egs worked for the Braves from 1988-91, most recently as the Assistant to the Director of Player Development and Scouting. He first joined the Braves as Assistant Director of Player Development.

Prior to his arrival in Atlanta, Egins spent two seasons as the team trainer of the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League. He also worked in a similar role at both the University of Georgia and Florida A&M.

Born Sept. 22, 1963, Egs received a bachelor's degree in biology from Georgia in 1986. Paul's graduate work at Florida A&M was in sports administration. He is single and resides in Denver.

Thad Levine

Director – Baseball Administration

Thad Levine begins his fourth season with the Rockies and second as Director of Baseball Administration, being promoted to that position Feb. 1, 2002.

Levine, 31, assists Dan O'Dowd in baseball operations, including contract negotiations, player transactions, payroll management and financial and statistical analysis. He joined the Rockies Oct. 11, 1999 and spent his first two years as Assistant Director of Baseball Administration.

Levine came to the Rockies from Los Angeles, where he worked one season for the Dodgers (business development) and earned an MBA from UCLA ('99). He has marketing experience with Coca-Cola, the Rockport Company and Reebok, Ltd.

Born Nov. 12, 1971 in Alexandria, Va., Thad has a bachelor's degree from Haverford College ('94), where he played baseball. Levine fulfilled some of his graduate work abroad at Cape Town, South Africa, and has volunteered with the Special Olympics. He is single and makes his home in Denver.

Pat Daugherty

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Pat Daugherty joined the Rockies in September of 1991 and served as the club's first scouting director until 1999. He moved into his current role in 2000. This year marks his 31st season in professional baseball.

As scouting director, Daugherty's staffs helped draft current Rockies such as three-time all-star Todd Helton and 2002 NL Rookie of the Year Jason Jennings.

Pat came to Colorado after six seasons as Montreal's scouting supervisor. In 1990, he also managed for the club's affiliate in Jamestown of the New York-Penn League. He was the head coach at Indian Hills Community College in Centerville, Iowa, for 17 years but spent 10 of those working with the Expos Farm System as a manager or coach. In 1981, the Montreal Expos named him Field Director of Player Development. His collegiate coaching career began in 1965 and Pat won more than 500 games at IHCC, and the school's diamond is named after him. His pro baseball career began in 1972 as manager at Cocoa Beach in the Gulf Coast League.

In 1998, the American Baseball Coaches Association inducted him into its Hall of Fame. He's also a member of the Simpson College Hall of Fame, the Iowa Coaches Hall of Fame and the National Junior College Hall of Fame. Daugherty has a degree from Simpson and a master's from Drake University. He and his wife, JoAnn, have four children: Mary Beth, Ann, Peggy and Mike.

Marcel Lachemann

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Marcel Lachemann enters his fourth season with the Rockies, his second as an assistant to General Manager Dan O'Dowd. He was the club's major league pitching coach in 2000 and 2001.

This year will mark Lachemann's 36th in professional baseball. Marcel has been a pitching coach for all or parts of 24 seasons, 15 at the major league level.

The Los Angeles native came to Colorado from the Anaheim Angels, where he served for 17 years, including three seasons (1994-96) as the full-time or interim manager of the big league club. In 1992, he left the Angels to become the first pitching coach in Marlins history, joining his brother, Rene, who managed the club. The next season, Marcel returned to the Angels and was named manager on May 17, 1994. He went 160-170 in parts of three seasons guiding California, including a second place finish in the AL West in 1995. He resigned Aug. 6, 1996. 'Lache' began his coaching career with Montreal, 1973-75, and then worked as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Southern California before joining the Angels in 1982.

Lachemann lettered at USC from 1960-62, helping the Trojans to the 1961 College World Series title. He pitched in parts of three seasons with Oakland (1969-71), going 7-4 with a 3.44 ERA in 70 ML games.

Marcel and his wife, Suzi, have two grown sons, Brett and Brad. He and his brother, Rene, in 1994 became the first brothers to manage at the same time in the majors since Harry and George Wright in 1879. Rene is the bench coach with the Mariners. Their brother, Bill, is the AAA hitting coach for Anaheim.

Kasey McKeon

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Kasey McKeon begins his first season with the Rockies, joining the organization on Nov. 11, 2002.

McKeon, 35, spent the last four seasons with the Cincinnati Reds, including the last two years as Director of Scouting (2001) and Director of Amateur Scouting (2002). He was a national cross-checker for the Reds in 1999 and 2000. The son of former big league manager Jack McKeon, Kasey enters his 13th season in professional baseball. Prior to joining Cincinnati, he worked five years (1993-98) in the Indians front office alongside Rockies GM Dan O'Dowd and former assistant GM Josh Byrnes.

After finishing his collegiate career at San Diego State, Kasey was drafted by the Tigers in 1989 as a catcher. He played two years in the Tigers Farm System before retiring to accept a position as a hitting coach for Reno in 1991. That fall, he began his scouting career with the Padres and spent two years as an area scout before moving on to Cleveland. Kasey and his wife, Melissa, reside in Stoney Creek, N.C.

Coley Brannon

Assistant Director – Scouting

Coley Brannon joined the Rockies in May of 1992 and started his current position July 28, 1997. He's worked in four areas throughout the club.

Brannon, 33, coordinates the daily operations of the Scouting Department. He is responsible for maintaining comprehensive knowledge on the other 29 Major League organization's talent base. He also organizes the First-Year Player Draft in June, evaluates amateur talent in the state and supervises and administers all scouting personnel throughout the year.

He worked in customer service for four months in 1992, then he became the chief assistant in the public relations department later that year. In August, 1996, Brannon moved to marketing and served as an account executive.

He has a degree in business administration with a marketing major from the University of Iowa. His two brothers nicknamed him after Coley O'Brien, a Notre Dame quarterback during the 1960s. His grandfather was a backup halfback for Coach Knute Rockne in 1928.

Born April 13, 1969 in Stamford, Conn., Coley is single and resides in Littleton. He was raised in Lake Forest, Ill., where he played baseball and basketball in high school.

Marc Gustafson

Assistant Director – Player Development

Marc Gustafson, who joined the organization in 1993, took over his current responsibilities Oct. 20, 1997. Prior to joining the front office, he was a Rockies organizational trainer for five years.

Gus, 33, manages the day-to-day operations of the minor league system and spring training. He also handles all visa requirements for major and minor-league players, and assists in the budgeting and operation of all the minor-league affiliates, including camps in the Dominican Republic and Venezuela.

A 1992 graduate of Colorado State University (exercise and sports science), Marc worked as a student trainer for CSU's football and basketball teams (1989-1992). He then served the Rockies as a trainer at rookie-level Chandler (1993), Single A Asheville (1994) and Double A New Haven (1995-97).

Marc's wife, Amy, gave birth to the couple's first child, Jack, this past December. The family makes their home in Westminster. Born Sept. 14, 1969, Gus lettered in football, baseball and basketball at Eaton (Colo.) High School. His great grandparents immigrated to Eaton and his family has lived there four generations. He played baseball at Doane College in Crete, Neb., before transferring to CSU.

Roger Bailey

Baseball Operations Assistant

A member of the franchise's first draft class in 1992, former Rockies pitcher Roger Bailey begins his third season with the club's front office. Bailey works closely with Clint Hurdle and the coaching staff in compiling advance scouting information.

Bailey, 32, spent the better parts of three seasons with the Rockies (1995-97), compiling an 18-19, 4.90 record in 92 games, 46 starts. His only full season in the big leagues came in 1997, when he was 9-10, 4.29 ERA with five complete games and a club-record two shutouts. He tossed complete-games in back-to-back starts on two different occasions that year, the only player in team history to accomplish the feat. His career was cut short after injuring his neck and back in an auto accident during the 1998 spring training.

Bailey is certainly a big part of the Rockies history, as not only was he a member of the first draft class in 1992 but he also pitched for the franchise's first minor league team that summer, the Bend Rockies of the short-season Northwest League.

Roger, his wife, Andrea, and their daughters, Ariel and Isabelle, reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo.

Adele Armagost

Asst. to the Executive VP, General Manager

Adele Armagost is now in her 11th season as a member of the Rockies front office. She took over her current role in August of 2002.

Armagost, 42, joined the club in April of 1993 and spent her first seven years as a team travel assistant and coordinator of player relations. She spent the last three seasons as an executive assistant to the Rockies Ownership Group. The Colorado native has continued to be involved in all aspects of the club's spring training since 1993.

For five years before joining the Rockies, Armagost worked in the housing development industry.

Adele volunteers for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of America (CCFA). She attended the University of Northern Colorado and resides in Denver.

Jody Ross

Assistant to the Director – Player Personnel

Jody Ross is in her 11th season with the Rockies. She began her current position Nov. 1, 1999, her birthday. She's also served the club part-time in guest relations (1993-98) and full-time in ballpark operations (1998-99).

Ross completes all minor-league contracts, maintains personnel files, handles organizational travel and assists in the administration of all transactions.

She worked previously as a legal secretary for attorney Joseph Archuleta and in the attendance office of the Cherry Creek School District (1993-97). The Denver native owns a medical assistant degree from Capitol City Tech in Austin, Texas (1977). She is a graduate of Denver East High School.

Jody and her husband, Kent, have two children, Christopher and Anne. The family resides in Aurora.

CLINT HURDLE 13

★ MANAGER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 210 Age: 45 (46 on July 30)
Born: July 30, 1957 in Big Rapids, Mich.
Residence: Highlands Ranch, Colo.
Major League Managing Experience: 140 Games

MANAGERIAL CAREER: Clint Hurdle enters his first full season as a major league manager...led Colorado to a 67-73 (.479) record last year after taking over for Buddy Bell on April 26...Clint managed six seasons in the Mets' minor league system from 1988-93 before joining the Rockies organization in 1994...the 2003 season marks his 10th with the franchise...is just the fourth skipper in Rockies history, joining Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Bell...Clint's .479 winning percentage already ranks second to only Baylor's .484 (440-469)...the Rockies are 44-27 (.620) at Coors Field under Hurdle, the best home record of any Colorado manager based on winning percentage.

ROCKIES MANAGERS BY RECORD

Manager	Record	Pct.
Don Baylor	440-469	.484
Clint Hurdle	67-73	.479
Buddy Bell	161-185	.465
Jim Leyland	72-90	.444

ROCKIES MANAGERS AT HOME

Manager	Record	Pct.
Clint Hurdle	44-27	.620
Don Baylor	252-201	.556
Buddy Bell	92-80	.535
Jim Leyland	39-42	.481

2002: Clint Hurdle was named the club's fourth manager on April 26, then agreed to a two-year contract extension on Aug. 7...the 2002 season marked his ninth in the Rockies organization...Colorado finished the year 67-73 (.479) with the new skipper at the helm, 44-27 at home and 23-46 on the road...the Hurdle Era officially began the night of April 26th in a 4-1 victory over the Phillies at Coors Field...Colorado went 6-0 in its first six games under Hurdle, tied for the sixth best winning streak following a mid-season managerial change in major league history...Joe Morgan holds the record when his Red Sox won their first 12 games, July 15-25, 1988 (see box below)...the Rox used that 6-0 homestand to propel it to one of the best stretches in club history...Rockies went 21-9 (.700) in Clint's first 30 games, matching the best 30-game stretch in franchise annals...from April 26 to May 26, Colorado was 20-8 (.714), the best record in the NL over that span and second best in the majors to only Anaheim (21-5, .808)...under Hurdle, the Rox posted a 19-10 record during the month of May, setting a new club mark for most wins in a single calendar month...with a win on June 1, the Rockies were 30-26, just four-and-a-half games out of first place...the team would go just 43-63 the rest of the year to close out Hurdle's first year as a major league skipper...recorded career win No. 25 with an 8-6 victory over Los Angeles on June 5 and then win No. 50 on Aug. 13 at Florida (5-4).

As Rockies Hitting Instructor: Hurdle was a month into his sixth season as the Rockies hitting coach when he was named manager...in five-plus years tutoring the Rockies hitters, the club compiled the NL's top two averages in 70 years (.294 in 2000 and .292 in 2001) and the league's most base hits since 1930 (1,664 in 2000)...in 2001 alone, the club established a major league record for total bases (2,748) and the NL mark for extra-base hits (598)...Hurdle, who doubled as the club's first-base coach from 1997-98, remained on the coaching staff under three different managers, Baylor, Leyland and Bell...prior to becoming hitting coach in 1997, Clint served as minor-league hitting instructor from 1994-96.

MARK STRITTMATTER #56

BULLPEN CATCHER

A member of the franchise's first June draft in 1992, Mark Strittmatter begins his first season as the Rockies bullpen catcher, being named to his position on Oct. 15, 2002.

Strittmatter, 33, becomes the fourth bullpen catcher in team history, following Mike Shepard (1993-94), Todd Maulding (1995-99) and Nilson Robledo (2000-02).

The former catcher spent almost his entire nine-year career in the Rockies minor league system from 1992 until halfway through the 2000 season. He then finished off the last few months of his career with San Diego's Triple A affiliate before retiring. His only big league action came as a September call-up in 1998, appearing in four games for the Rockies (0-for-4). The Huntington, N.Y., native hit .246 in 556 games as a minor leaguer with 27 homers and 207 RBI.

While in the Rockies chain, Mark came to Coors Field during the 1998 All-Star festivities to serve as the catcher in the NL bullpen.

Born, April 4, 1969, Mark and his wife, Katie, make their home in Highlands Ranch. He played baseball at Morris County Junior College in Randolph, N.J., for two years before transferring to Virginia Commonwealth University where he helped lead VCU to the Metro Conference Championship in 1992.

Chico McGinn

Clubhouse & Equipment Manager

Dan "Chico" McGinn is in his 11th season managing the Rockies' clubhouse and equipment. He is the only individual ever to hold that position.

McGinn, 36, joined the Rockies from the Twins, where he spent nine seasons (1984-92). With the Twins, Chico served as the assistant clubhouse manager for the World Series champions in 1987 and '91. He was also a bat boy at the 1985 All-Star Game at the Metrodome.

His responsibilities include ordering every piece of equipment and handling players' needs in shoes, bats and uniforms. McGinn also handles all the club's equipment transportation, both to spring training and on road trips. In addition, he assembles the players' postgame meals.

Born Oct. 4, 1966, Chico, his wife, Annetta, and their daughter, Stella, make their home in Golden.

Walt Weiss #22

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Walt Weiss is in his second season on the Rockies staff. The former big league shortstop dresses for each home game and assists in a variety of aspects for manager Clint Hurdle.

Walt spent 14 years in the majors from 1988-2000, compiling a .258 (1207-for-4686) career average with 182 doubles, 31 triples, 25 home runs and 386 RBI in 1,495 games. The Tuxedo, NY, native was a member of four World Series teams, including the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's. The 1988 AL Rookie of the Year, Walt played five seasons with the A's (1988-92), one year with the expansion Marlins (1993), four years with the Rockies (1994-97) and three with the Braves (1998-2000). He earned his lone All-Star berth with Atlanta in 1998.

The 39-year old was a key member in the Rockies' Wild Card season of 1995, batting .300 during the final month of the season to help the Rox get into the playoffs.

He and his wife, Terri, and four sons, Blake, Brody, Bo and Brock reside in Aurora, Colo.

Goose Gossage #54

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Richard "Goose" Gossage, one of only 16 members of Major League Baseball's 300-saves club, joined the Rockies staff this past January. The Colorado Springs native will assist with the major league players and in all levels of the farm system.

A nine-time All-Star, Gossage's 310 saves rank 13th in MLB history. He led the league in saves on three different occasions, 1975 with the White Sox (26) and 1978 (25) and 1981 (33) with the Yankees. The right-hander compiled a 124-107 career record with a 3.01 ERA and 1,502 strikeouts, including an NL relief-record 151 K's in 1977. He pitched on three league-championship teams and the 1978 World Champion Yankees. Gossage played on nine different teams throughout his career until retiring with Seattle in 1994.

Born July 5, 1951, Goose attended Wasson High School in Colorado Springs and the University of Southern Colorado in Pueblo.

Tom Probst

Head Athletic Trainer

Tom Probst is in his 12th season with the Rockies. An original hire when the team began minor-league play in 1992, he was named the second head trainer in franchise history on Oct. 27, 1998.

Probst, along with San Francisco Giants trainer, Barney Nugent, will be the National League trainers at the 2003 All-Star Game in Chicago.

'TP' currently serves on the Executive Board of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He was the NL representative for PBATS in 2002 and will again be in 2003.

Tom served as the trainer for the franchise's first group of draftees, during a June, 1992, mini-camp. Later that year, he was the trainer of the first team in organizational history, Bend in the Northwest League.

The '92 campaign marked a return to pro baseball for Probst, who spent five years in the Montreal organization dating back to 1981.

Probst has two degrees: one in physical education from Mankato State University ('81) and a B.S. in physical therapy from Florida International University ('88).

He and his wife, Gina, reside in Littleton with their three sons, Daniel, Nicholas and Christopher.

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Keith Dugger begins his fifth season as Colorado's top assistant in the major league training room. The 2002 campaign marks his 14th year in pro baseball, his 11th in the Rockies organization. He began his current duties Nov. 1, 1998.

Dugger, 37, assists in all areas of the club's day-to-day training regimen. He works with players during every month of the year.

Before coming to Coors Field, Keith worked at three levels of the Rockies' minor-league system: Bend (A), New Haven (AA) and Colorado Springs (AAA). He joined Colorado after three years (1990-92) as a trainer in the Padres chain.

Keith and his wife, Shannon, reside in Littleton with their daughter, Tianna Cherie (3). He has a bachelor's degree from San Diego State ('88).

Chris Rasnake

Assistant Clubhouse & Equipment Manager

Chris Rasnake begins his 10th season with the Rockies, and his 19th in pro baseball. He began his current position Jan. 1, 2000.

Rasnake, 32, has assisted the Rockies in spring training every year except 1998, when he served as the Arizona Diamondbacks' minor league equipment manager. "Snake" had worked for the Tucson Triple-A club as visiting clubhouse manager, assistant clubhouse manager and bat boy.

Born July 21, 1970, Chris graduated from Tucson's Catalina High School.

Keith Schulz

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

Keith Schulz has managed the visiting clubhouse for the Rockies since their inaugural season. He's now in his 11th year with the club.

Schulz, 40, joined the Rockies after serving as equipment manager for both the AAA Denver Zephyrs and Metro State College from 1988-92.

A former infielder, "Schulzey" played one season for Pat Daugherty at Indian Hills Community College, then transferred to Metro State College of Denver, where he earned all-conference honors as a shortstop.

Born Feb. 24, 1963 in Denver, Schulz and his wife, Melinda, and son, Aaron, live in Highlands Ranch with their two boxer dogs. He has a degree in psychology from Metro State ('86).

BRIAN JONES
ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR

Brian Jones enters his second season with the Rockies, being hired to his position in January of 2002.

A native of Stillwater, Okla., the 23-year-old is a recent graduate of Oklahoma State University, where he earned his bachelors degree in Management Information Systems. While a student at OSU, Jones worked in the Athletic Department all four years, helping with coaches' video for the Cowboy baseball, basketball and football teams.

He is single and currently resides in Denver.

MARK RAZUM
HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Mark Razum is in his ninth season as Coors Field's head groundskeeper, his 26th year in the profession. Razum and his staff has built one of the top surfaces in professional sports at the corner of 20th and Blake Street.

Razum's peers named him the 1998 Turf/Grass Professional of the Year, an award presented by the Rocky Mountain Turf/Grass Association. He won the honor partly because of an incredible star design he and his staff cut into the grass during the '98 All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Rockies in October of 1994, "Razz" served six years at the reins of the Athletics' grounds crew at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, where players voted his surface the best in the AL for three straight seasons (1992-94). He spent seven years in charge of spring surfaces for Oakland (1984-89) and the Angels (1982-84). His groundskeeping career began in 1978 at old Municipal Stadium in his native Cleveland.

Mark and his wife, Katherine, make their home in Aurora.

DR. RICHARD J. HAWKINS
MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. Richard Hawkins is known throughout professional and college sports as one of the leading minds in his field.

Dr. Hawkins, along with J. Richard Steadman, co-founded the Steadman Hawkins Clinics in Denver and Vail, Colo., which are world renowned for treating athletic injuries.

A founding member of the American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons Association, Dr. Hawkins was recently listed as one of the United States' 100 premiere physicians. He's been honored in the "Who's Who" national directory of Executives and Professionals. He also serves as the Head Team Physician for the Denver Broncos.

Born in Canada, Hawkins has presided over the Canadian Academy of Sports Medicine and served as Team Canada's physician during the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary. He received both his undergraduate (1965) and medical degree (1969) from the University of Western Ontario.

Dr. Shawn Caldwell is in his fifth season as the Rockies chiropractor. He adjusts major league players at Coors Field and at the spring training site in Tucson, Ariz.

In addition to his Rockies duties, Dr. Caldwell operates a private practice in Wheat Ridge, Colo., called Applewood Chiropractic.

A 1981 graduate of Pomona High School, Caldwell played football at Fort Lewis College in Durango. He shared the quarterback duties as a freshman in 1981, completing 24-of-80 passes for 430 yards, with five interceptions and three touchdowns. He was the full-time starter as a sophomore in 1982 under Gary Barnett in what was Barnett's first-ever head coaching position. Caldwell that year was 50-of-147 for 782 yards, five TD and six INT.

He graduated cum laude from Life Chiropractic College in Atlanta ('87). In addition to his post-graduate work, he also served as the team chiropractor from the Colorado School of Mines in Golden.

Shawn and his wife, Laura, have four children, Davis (14), Jordan (11), Gunnar (7) and Brooke (6).

Mike Allen

Physical Therapist

Residence: Irvine, Calif.
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the fifth round of the 2000 June draft.

CAREER: The Rockies' 2001 Organizational Player-of-the-Year, Atkins makes his first appearance in a major league camp...drafted by Colorado in June of 2000, Garrett went on to be named Co-MVP of the Northwest League that summer...started his minor league career at first base but switched over to third with AA-Carolina in 2002...the former UCLA star saw action at both positions in college and has now played 172 games (52%) at first and 138 (42%) at third as a minor leaguer...has gotten off to hot starts in each of his three professional seasons, batting a combined .355 (72-for-203) in his first month of play...is coming off a great showing in the Arizona Fall League, as he finished fourth in the league with a .353 average.

2002: Atkins moved to third base in his first season at Double A, playing 119 of his 138 games at the hot corner...fell below the .300 mark for the first time as a professional, but still hit .271 (138-for-510) with 12 homers and 61 RBI for Carolina...was 4-for-7 in the season opener at Huntsville and went on to post a .301 (28-for-93) average in the month of April, hitting safely in 15 of the 22 contests with seven multi-hit games...cooled off to hit .242 combined in the months of May and June before rebounding with a .310 ledger in July...from July 17-Aug. 8, Garrett hit .378 (31-for-82) with 5 of his 12 home runs...was named Southern League Player of the Week to finish off that stretch, Aug. 2-8...batted .385 (10-for-26) with 3 HR and 6 RBI to take home the honors...had his second career multi-homer game on Aug. 8 at Tennessee, going 4-for-6...belted a grand slam on Aug. 26 vs. Jacksonville...led the team and ranked sixth in the Southern League with a .294 (5-for-17) postseason average (min. 18 PA)...in the Arizona Fall League, Garrett led the Mesa Solar Sox with a .353 (41-for-116) average, which ranked him fourth in the league.

2001: Named the Organizational Player-of-the-Year, Garrett led all Rockies minor leaguers with a .325 (151-for-465) average, falling just short of the Carolina League batting title (Victor Martinez, .329)...led the league in doubles (43), on-base percentage (.421) and intentional walks (10)...finished second in hits (151), walks (74) and slugging (.471) and fourth in RBI (67)...his 43 doubles set a club record at the High A level...was named a mid-season and postseason Carolina League All-Star...Salem's starting first-baseman out of spring camp, Atkins got off to a torrid pace, batting .395 (34-for-86) in the month of April with 10 multi-hit games...collected his first professional 5-hit game on June 13 vs. Potomac, a 5-for-5 effort with 4 runs scored...drove in 25 runs in 28 games during the month of August...tabbed as the Rockies' third best prospect by Baseball America following the season.

2000: Garrett was named Co-MVP of the Northwest League in his first professional season...led Portland with a .303 (76-for-251) average, good for seventh in the league...ranked second in the circuit in RBI (47), third in on-base percentage (.411) and fifth in hits (76)...honored as a Short Season Class A All-Star by Baseball America...was also the league's all-star first baseman...went 10-for-24 (.417) to start the year, then hit safely in 50 of his 69 games throughout the year.

COLLEGE: Was the first-ever three-time UCLA All-American, and second player in school history to earn all-Pac 10 honors three years in a row...on the all-time UCLA charts, he finished his career second in batting average (.369) and hits (276) and third in doubles (56)...his .383 average as a freshman in 1998 was the eighth highest in Bruins history...compiled a school record 33-game hitting streak during that freshman campaign, Feb. 22-April 26, 1998...started every game of his three-year career.

PERSONAL: Garrett Bernard Atkins...signed by Bo Hughes.

SELECTED in the 10th round of the 2000 June draft.

CAREER: One of the club's top prospects at the shortstop position, Clint Barmes makes his first appearance in a major league camp...enjoyed a breakout season in 2002, earning mid-season and post-season honors from the Southern League.

2002: Named a mid-season and post-season All-Star by the Southern League, Barmes hit .272 (119-for-438) with 15 homers and 60 RBI in his first season with Carolina (AA)...his 15 homers and 60 RBI were not only single-season bests but also surpassed his career totals entering the year of 7 HR and 53 RBI...the 15 long balls actually wound up leading the club...the team's everyday shortstop and primary leadoff man, Clint played 102 of Carolina's 136 games at short in helping the Mudcats to the Southern League playoffs...finished with 34 multi-hit games, including 10 contests with three or more hits...after a slow start in April (.214), Barmes came back with a .288 (32-for-111) mark in May and then an outstanding .349 (37-for-106) average in June...compiled a 17-game hitting streak from May 31 to June 21, batting .397 (31-for-78) throughout the streak with eight multi-hit games...was the Southern League's "Hitter of the Week," from June 7-13 (.441, 15-for-34)...his hot June raised his average over .30 points from .252 to .284...he and Choo Freeman represented Carolina in the Double A All-Star game on July 10 at Norwich, Conn. (0-for-4)...Clint later played with the major league club at the Hall-of-Fame exhibition game in Cooperstown, NY, on July 29...went 2-for-5 with a double in the contest...was forced to miss the last three weeks of the season with a fractured left hand...officially on the disabled list from Aug. 8 to Sept. 17, Clint was not able to participate in the postseason series against Jacksonville...did come back and played for the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League, batting .229 (22-for-96) with one HR and 5 RBI in 27 games.

2001: Barmes began the year on the disabled list from April 5-30 following left hand surgery...still played 74 games at shortstop for Asheville (A), batting .260 (74-for-285)...posted a .319 (30-for-94) average in the month of June...promoted to Salem on July 23 and made his High A debut on that day vs. Frederick, going 2-for-4...hit .248 (30-for-121) in 38 games with the Avalanche, all at shortstop.

2000: Opened his professional career with Portland (A-short season) before finishing the year at Asheville (A)...his 4 triples with Portland ranked fourth in the Northwest League...went 9-for-25 (.360) in his first five games and went on to hit safely in 33 of his 45 games in short-season action...hit his first home run on June 21 at Boise...promoted to Single A on Aug. 9, Clint struggled in the South Atlantic League, batting just .173 (14-for-81) with no homers and 4 RBI.

COLLEGE: Played one season (2000) for Indiana State University after transferring in from junior college...was named the 2000 Newcomer of the Year in the Missouri Valley Conference as well as being named its first team all-conference shortstop...named as a first team selection of the (ABCA)/Rawlings All-Midwest Region Team...led the MVC in runs (60), triples (7) and total bases (146)...compiled a school record-tying 30-game hitting streak, the third longest in Division I baseball at year's end.

PERSONAL: Clint H. Barmes...signed by Ty Coslow...name pronounced BAR-mess

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180 B/T: R/R Age: 25
Born: Feb. 11, 1978 in Laurinburg, N.C.
Residence: Laurinburg, N.C.
Major League Service: 1.060
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from St. Louis Cardinals along with RHPs Manny Aybar, Rick Croushore and Jose Jimenez for RHPs Darryl Kile, Dave Veres and Luther Hackman, Nov. 16, 1999.

CAREER: Butler enters spring training looking to earn the club's starting nod at second base...either way, Brent can play three infield positions (2B, 3B, SS) and thus is a valuable option on any given day for manager Clint Hurdle...earned his chance to be an everyday player in the second half of 2002, starting 48 of the teams final 74 contests at second base.

2002: Selected to his first Opening Day roster out of spring training, Brent saw action in 113 games for the Rockies, despite being optioned to AAA-Colorado Springs on two separate occasions...the club's primary second baseman after the All-Star Break, Butler started at second in 48 of the teams final 74 contests...on the year, he made 72 appearances at second, 67 starts, also seeing time at both positions on the left side of the diamond (33 games at 3B and 13 at SS)...set offensive highs in virtually every offensive category, including hits (89), doubles (18), triples (4), homers (9) and RBI (42)...had the fourth highest average w/RISP on the team (min. 50 AB)...only Walker (.360), Pierre (.336) and Helton (.333) had higher RISP averages than Butler's .329 clip...in 727.1 innings of defensive work, committed only 9 errors in 358 total defensive chances...made only two errors in his last 41 games, converting 68 of 70 chances...was added to the Rox 25-man roster the day before the season opener in St. Louis to fill the spot vacated by an injured Justin Speier...played in only two games before being optioned to Triple A on April 8...re-joined the club May 10 in New York and would make his first start five days later vs. Florida, going 0-for-5...made five starts in that second stint, seeing action in 20 games...went 3-for-5 with a run scored and a pair of triples on May 28 vs. San Diego...it was only the ninth time in franchise history a Rockie player hit two triples in the same contest...the 3 hits tied a career high for Brent and was the first of eight 3-hit outings...was optioned to the Sky Sox for the third and final time June 5, but only spent 10 games at AAA before being recalled June 16th...made the start that day against Cleveland, going 1-for-5 to begin a career-best six-game hitting streak (12-for-32, 2 doubles, 3 homers)...on June 18 vs. the Yankees, Butler went 3-for-5 with 2 home runs off Mike Mussina for his first career multi-homer game...also set a career high with 10 total bases...in the three-game series with the Yankees, he was 6-for-15 with with 2 doubles, 2 homers and knocked in 4 runs...in the final game of the hit streak, June 22 vs. Tampa Bay, he was the lead act in back-to-back-to-back home runs involving Larry Walker and Todd Helton...it was just the fifth time in franchise history that back-to-back-to-back had been accomplished, first since June 7, 1997...again hit safely in six straight games, July 20-26 (7-for-26)...knocked in 3 runs on three separate occasions, tying his career high in RBI...his final 3 RBI contest came Sept. 29 in Arizona when he connected on his ninth homer of the season, a three-run shot off Curt Schilling...on Sept. 25 at Bank One, Brent was ejected for the first time in his career...the early departure came in the seventh inning by homeplate umpire Joe West when Brent was called out on strikes...played in 24 games for the Sky Sox, hitting .333 (35-for-105) with 2 HR with 17 RBI.

2001: Saw action in 53 games for the Rockies after being recalled from Colorado Springs on July 3...made his major league debut the following day in San Diego (July 4) and notched his first career hit and RBI off Sterling Hitchcock...hit his first ML homer on August 8 in Chicago off Tom Gordon...the solo shot broke up a shutout in the ninth...on Sept. 21 in Montreal, Butler set then career highs by going 3-for-5 with 2 doubles, 2 RBI and 2 runs scored...made 26 starts, 19 at second base...made one start at third base (Aug. 15 vs. Atlanta)...started at shortstop on six occasions, but saw action in 10 games...as a shortstop, he batted .350 (7-for-20) with his lone homer of the season and 4 RBI...started in seven consecutive games at second base after the Todd Walker trade to Cincinnati on July 19...over that stretch he batted .333 (7-for-21) and scored 4 runs with 5 RBI.

2000: Made his Triple A debut and played the full season with Colorado Springs...a shortstop most of his career, he played 100 games at second base...his .292 average ranked sixth among Triple A second basemen...that average, runs (73), doubles (35), walks (44), slugging (.432) and on-base percentage (.356) were all his highest totals since 1997, his first full season in the pros...selected to the US Olympic squad but missed the competition after sustaining a fractured hamate bone in his left hand in August.

1999: Spent the season at Arkansas (AA) of the Texas League...the organization named him Player of the Month in June (.325, 3 homers, 12 RBI)...played 22 consecutive games, June 20 to July 13, without committing an error...fanned only once every 12.02 plate appearances...went 18 games (67 at-bats) without a strikeout from June 26 to July 17.

1998: A Carolina League All-Star, Brent hit .286 with 11 homers and 76 RBI...played 116 games at shortstop, 12 at third and one at second...at the end of the '98 season, Baseball America rated Butler the third-best prospect in the St. Louis organization, behind OF J.D. Drew and LHP Rich Ankiel.

1997: An all-star at Peoria, he led the league with 220 putouts from his shortstop position, and led the club with 129 games played and a .306 average...also tied for the club and organizational lead with 81 runs scored, led the team and finished third in the system with 147 hits and led the entire chain with 37 doubles.

1996: In his first pro season, led the Appy League with 85 hits and a .946 fielding percentage at shortstop...also led the club with 50 RBI...his .343 average was fifth-best in the system...named an all-star.

PERSONAL: Justin Brent Butler...starred at Scotland High School in Laurinburg, N.C....still resides in the town, located near the South Carolina border...signed by Randy Benson of the Cardinals.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 173 B/T: R/R Age: 25 (26 on Sept. 13)
Born: Sept. 13, 1977 in North Adams, Mass.
Residence: Williamstown, Mass.
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the 11th round of the 1998 June draft.

CAREER: Cameron possesses an excellent changeup that he's used to strikeout hitters at every level...for his career, he is averaging 9.5 strikeouts per nine innings (457.1 ip, 485 K) and over 2 strikeouts per every walk (229 BB)...led the Carolina League with 168 strikeouts in 2000 and finished second in the Southern League with 139 a year ago...has worked as both a starter and reliever in his career...the former 11th round pick makes his first appearance in a major league camp.

2002: One of AA-Carolina's key pitchers in its drive to the playoffs, Cameron made 15 starts with 22 appearances out of the bullpen...finished with just a 5-7 record overall but posted a 3.26 ERA (118.2 ip, 43 er), seventh best in the Southern League...struck out 139 batters, second in the league...as a starter, Ryan was 3-6 with a 3.45 ERA (78.1 ip, 30 er) but was even better as a reliever, going 2-1, 2.90 ERA (40.1 ip, 13 er) and allowing just a .181 average against, fourth best among league relievers...was bumped up to Triple A for a spot start on May 11 vs. Sacramento but was hit hard, allowing 8 of 10 batters to reach base in just .2 ip (4 h, 8 r, 8 er, 3 bb, 1 K, 1 HB)...made eight consecutive starts from May 20-June 25 and was 2-3, 3.66 ERA (46.2 ip, 19 er) in that span...named Rockies Minor League Pitcher of the Month for July...the righty went 1-0 with a 2.19 ERA (24.2 ip, 6 er) in eight games, three starts, allowing 18 hits and 6 walks with 37 strikeouts...joined the major league club for the Hall of Fame Exhibition Game in Cooperstown, NY, on July 29...worked 2.0 innings, allowing 2 runs, both earned, on 2 hits with a pair of strikeouts...made a season-high nine consecutive relief appearances, July 30-Aug. 18...started Game Two of the Mudcats' playoff series vs. Jacksonville...suffered a tough 3-0 loss despite a solid outing (6.1 ip, 5 h, 3 er)...made 17 relief appearances in the Arizona Fall League, going 1-3, 3.58 ERA with 45 K's in 27.2 ip.

2001: Was limited to 20 games as right shoulder inflammation kept him on the disabled list from July 7-Aug. 30...spent most of the season at Double A, except for two starts with High A Salem in mid-April...worked mostly in a starting role, making 13 starts as opposed to just five relief appearances...allowed the opposition to hit .302 against him (112-for-371)...best month came in May when he was 3-2 with a 3.99 ERA.

2000: Ryan compiled as good a season as any in the Rockies system during the 2000 campaign, leading the Carolina League with 168 strikeouts, while ranking fourth with 13 victories...also finished fourth with 160.1 innings...struck out 7 or more in 15 of his 26 starts, including a 10-strikeout game on May 5 at Myrtle Beach and a career-best 11 strikeout affair Aug. 17 vs. Kinston.

1999: Began the year with Portland before moving up to Asheville (A) after four strong performances...with the Tourists, he ranked fourth among South Atlantic League relievers by allowing a .149 average against...had a 1.32 ERA (34.0 ip, 5 er) until allowing 5 runs in his final outing, Sept. 5 vs. Hickory (.2 ip).

1999: Opened his pro career with Portland of the Northwest League, losing all six decisions.

COLLEGE: Was a reliever for the University of Massachusetts-Amherst from 1996-98...compiled a 10-3 career record and his .769 winning percentage still ranks seventh in school history...appeared in 16 games in 1997, the fifth most in school history at the time.

SHAWN CHACON 34

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 212 B/T: R/R Age: 25
Born: Dec. 23, 1977 in Anchorage, Alaska
Residence: Greeley, Colo.
Major League Service: 1.140
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the third round of the 1996 June draft.

CAREER: Chacon looks to regain his spot in the rotation after an inconsistent 2002 that eventually landed him back in Triple A...the first player to be drafted by the Rockies directly out of a Colorado High School, Chacon was the Rockies Rookie of the Year in 2001 but experienced what some might call a "sophomore slump" a year ago...one thing's for sure, the 25-year old right-hander has some of the best stuff of any pitcher on the staff; great movement on his fastball, complimented by a strong breaking ball...strikes out his share of hitters–as evidenced by his club rookie record 134 in 2001–but is looking to improve in the walks category (4.7 career walks per nine innings)...enters his eighth season in professional baseball.

2002: Chacon made his first Opening Day roster and would go on to start 21 games for the Rockies before being optioned to Triple A on Aug. 23...was 5-11 with a 5.73 ERA (119.1 ip, 76 er) but struggled down the stretch, going 2-5 with a 7.00 ERA (45.0 ip, 35 er) in eight starts after the All-Star Break...also spent a month on the disabled list with a strained right pectoral muscle...was 3-4 with a 6.47 ERA (57.0 ip, 41 er) at Coors Field, just 2-7, 5.05 (62.1 ip, 35 er) on the road...the Rockies, 7-14 in his 21 starts...like the rest of his fellow starters, Chacon also hit the ball well in 2002, batting .257 (9-for-35) with 3 runs and 2 RBI...entered the season as the No. 4 starter in the Rox rotation...after a difficult 2002 debut, April 5 at Los Angeles (3.2 ip, 5 h, 8 er), Shawn picked up the win April 10 vs. Houston, allowing just one run over 6.1 innings...the win, his first since July 24, 2001, snapping a six-game losing streak...also ended an 0-for-21 streak at the plate with a third inning single off Dave Mlicki...lost his next two starts to go to 1-3 on the season before getting the win on April 27 vs. the Phillies (5.1 ip, 5 h, 3 r, 2 er, 5 bb, 5 k)...was 1-1 in two May starts, the final at Montreal May 8 where he held the Expos scoreless through 6.0 ip until leaving the game with a strained right pectoral muscle that would eventually sideline the righthander...was placed on the 15-day DL on May 10 (retroactive to May 9) with the pec injury...went on a rehab assignment with AAA Colorado Springs, where in two starts he was 1-0 with a 4.15 ERA (8.2 ip, 4 er)...activated June 7 and got the start June 9 at Toronto...held the Blue Jays to just 1 run on 1 hit over 6.0 ip but received a no decision as the Jays won 3-2...posted a 3.71 ERA (17.0 ip, 7 er) in his three interleague outings but no wins to show for it...on June 26 vs. LA, Shawn had his longest outing since coming off the DL (7.0 ip, 7 h, 5 r, 4 er) but wound up with the loss in a 5-3 Dodgers win...suffered a tough losing decision in the last game before the break, July 7 vs. San Diego at Coors Field...Chacon was solid (5.2 ip, 3 er) but the San Diego rookie Oliver Perez was spectacular, striking out 13 and limiting the Rockies to just one hit over 6.2 innings...notched back-to-back wins to open the second half...in his first start after the break, July 14th at Pac Bell, Shawn turned in perhaps his finest career outing...used only 82 pitches in 7.0 ip of work, allowing 3 hits and 1 unearned run in an eventual 5-3 victory over the Giants...retired his first 11 hitters until a Jeff Kent single with two outs in the fourth...carried a shutout into the seventh inning until a Barry Bonds single scored Kent, who had reached second on an error...lowered his career ERA at Pac Bell to 1.00 (27.0 ip, 3 er) in four starts...posted his second win in as many outings with a 9-5 victory over the Brewers July 19 at Coors...helped himself in the win, recording his first career multi-hit game, 2-for-3 with an RBI double...but from that point on, the righty would lose five games in six starts, including four straight to close out the year...after the July 19th win, Shawn did not pitch past the fifth inning in three of his next four starts, allowing 20 runs in 19.2 ip...following a loss on Aug. 16 at Atlanta–in which he did not strike out a batter for the first time in his career–Chacon made his final start Aug. 21 vs. Montreal...lost his career-high fifth consecutive decision and was sent to Colorado Springs two days later...including his rehab assignment, Chacon was 2-0, 4.79 (20.2 ip, 11 er) in four games at the Triple A level.

2001: Completed his first season at the big league level and emerged as one of the top rookie pitchers in the major leagues...began the year in Triple A before being called up on April 29...was placed in the rotation that day vs. the Reds when Mike Hampton missed a start and Chacon never went back...started 27 games, posting a 6-9 record, 5.06 ERA (160.0 ip, 90 er) with 87 walks and 134 strikeouts en route to being named Rockies Rookie of the Year by the local chapter of the BBWAA...the 134 strikeouts set a new Rockies single-season rookie record, besting the 117 fanned by Armando Reynoso in 1993...it was the sixth most by a Colorado pitcher in a season....ranked second among NL rookies and third among all major league rookies in strikeouts, trailing only Roy Oswalt (144) in the NL and Oswalt and C.C. Sabathia (171) in the majors...was one of the most active first year hurlers, as his innings pitched and starts ranked second among NL rookies...only Cincinnati's Chris Reitsma started more games (29) and threw more innings (182.0)...made his ML debut April 29 and struggled in his first start, allowing 9 hits and 7 earned runs over 5.1 innings against the Reds...won his first ML game in an excellent effort on May 10 vs. New York Mets...threw only 87 pitches in 8.0 innings of work, allowing just 4 hits and 1 unearned run to score...recorded his first RBI on a suicide squeeze May 26 at San Francisco...struck out 13 batters on June 7 vs. Houston, the second most in club history behind only Darryl Kile's 14 on Aug. 20, 1998 at Montreal...it was the most strikeouts for a Colorado pitcher at either Coors Field or Mile High Stadium and the most by a rookie pitcher in the majors in 2001...recorded his first hit June 14 vs. Seattle (single)...tied a club record by allowing 11 earned runs and 5 homers to Anaheim in his final start before the All-Star Break, July 8...issued a career-high 7 walks on Aug. 16 vs. Atlanta...was 0-1, 2.52 ERA (25.0 ip, 7 er) in September but left all three outings tied or in the lead.

2000: In his first season at Double-A , the right-hander's 3.16 ERA led the Carolina rotation and marked his lowest career mark over a full season...ranked second among all Double A pitchers with 172 strikeouts...fanned 8.91 per nine innings, the best mark in the system, third in the league and sixth in all of Double A...his 3 shutouts tied for tops in the organization.

1999: Spent the entire season at Salem (A) of the Carolina League...the league hit only .251 against Shawn, and of 316 batters faced, he gave up only 3 home runs...dominated left-handed hitters, allowing only two extra-base hits all season (both doubles) and holding them to a .235 mark (23-for-98)...right-handers hit .260 off him...Carolina League leadoff batters struggled even more; they hit .169 (11-for-65).

1998: Chacon struggled to find his groove over the season's first two months, before encountering injury...on May 26 in his 10th start, Shawn strained his elbow's ulnar collateral ligament and missed the next two months...returned July 19, but the elbow flared up again seven days later...Colorado then flew him home in order to rest the elbow before Arizona Instructional League play.

1997: Chacon shined on an Asheville team that finished 14 games below .500...went 11-7 and led the rotation with 149 strikeouts and a 3.89 ERA.

1996: At 18 in his first pro season, Chacon won the Arizona Rookie League's ERA championship (1.60), despite finishing the season at Portland.

PERSONAL: Shawn A. Chacon...resides in Greeley, Colo....has a one-year old son, Andre (9/24/01)...chose the Rockies over a college career at Arizona State...led his summer Legion club, Greeley GoJo Sports, to three consecutive state titles...attended Greeley Central High School...during his senior season, he went 10-0 with a 1.51 ERA and two saves, guiding the Wildcats to the state championship game...almost won as many games (10) as earned runs allowed (14)...in January of 2002, Greeley Central retired Chacon's jersey number...he is only the second athlete to have his jersey retired in the 123-year history of the school...signed by Rockies scout Mike Ericson.

J.D. CLOSSER 58

★ CATCHER ★

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 176 B/T: S/R Age: 23
Born: Jan. 15, 1980 in Beech Grove, Ind.
Residence: Alexandria, Ind.
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Arizona along with OF Jack Cust for LHP Mike Myers, Jan. 7, 2002.

CAREER: The club's top catching prospect, Closser enters his sixth season of professional baseball, his second in the Rockies' system...the switch-hitting catcher has been an all-star at three levels, short-season A (1999), High A (2001) and Double A (2002)...came to spring training last year as a non-roster invitee after being acquired from Arizona but makes his first appearance on a 40-man roster.

2002: Closser and Jason Dewey split the catching duties for AA-Carolina, with both backstoppers being named to the Southern League's mid-season all-star team...J.D. played 64 of his 95 games at catcher, 18 as the club's DH and 14 as a pinch hitter...for the year, he batted .283 (89-for-315) with 13 homers and 62 RBI...hit .304 in April (14-for-46), then cooled down in May (.234) before coming back with a .348 (16-for-46) average in June...hit safely in 17 of his 25 games for the month, including eight multi-hit contests...collected a season-high 4 hits on three occasions, July 17 vs. Tennessee, Aug. 1 at West Tenn and Aug. 7 at Tennessee...was hitting .319 as late as Aug. 7 but struggled over the final three weeks, recording just 8 hits in his final 61 at-bats (.131)...in Carolina's playoff series against Jacksonville, Closser was 1-for-7 with a double and an RBI...hit .203 (15-for-25) with 2 homers and 11 RBI for the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League.

2001: In his fourth season with the Diamondbacks organization, Closser was a California League All-Star for Lancaster (High A)...his 87 RBI were the fourth most among Arizona minor leaguers and his 21 homers tied for fourth...represented the California League when Lancaster hosted the California/Carolina League All-Star game...batted .333 in the month of April with seven multi-hit games, including four straight multi-hit affairs, April 19-22 (10-for-16, .625)...included in that stretch was a 5-RBI performance on April 20 vs. Visalia...had a career-best 13-game hitting streak, July 17-Aug. 1 (.346, 18-for-52)...went 5-for-5 on Aug. 9 vs. Rancho Cucamonga...hit safely in 10 of his last 11 games to close out the year.

2000: Playing for South Bend (A), he ranked fourth on the team with 8 home runs and his 60 walks were the second most for the Silver Hawks...primarily the team's starting catcher, J.D. was also the DH for 24 games and saw action in three games at first base...had a nine-game hitting streak at the end of the year, Aug. 19-Aug. 28 (.414, 12-for-29).

1999: Named to the Topps Class A-Short Season/Rookie League and Pioneer League postseason all-star teams for Missoula (A)...led the Pioneer League in walks (71) and on-base percentage (.458) and was second in runs (73) and fourth in doubles (22)...began the year with South Bend (A), where he hit .327 (16-for-49) in April but then batted only .235 (20-for-85) in May and .150 (6-for-40) in June before being sent to Missoula...got at least a hit in 59 of his 76 games with the Osprey...had 11 multi-hit games in August...drove in 4 runs on just 1 hit, Aug. 10 vs. Butte.

1998: Spent most of his first pro season with Tucson (R), where he had a team-best 47 hits, 13 doubles, 37 walks, 4 home runs and 21 RBI...his walks and .453 on-base percentage ranked third in the Arizona League...moved on to play four games with Single A South Bend.

PERSONAL: J.D. Closser...attended Alexandria Monroe High School in Alexandria, Ind...named 1998 Mr. Baseball by the Indiana High School Baseball Coaches Association...signed by Scott Jaster.

AARON COOK 28

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R Age: 24
Born: Feb. 8, 1979 in Ft. Campbell, Ky.
Residence: Hamilton, Ohio
Major League Service: 0.052
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the second round of the 1997 June draft.

CAREER: Colorado's top prospect according to Baseball America, Aaron Cook has the inside track for a spot on the Rockies starting rotation...the former second round selection was named the club's Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2002, a season in which he debuted and excelled at the top three levels of the organization...the right-hander's fastball has been clocked in the mid-90's, and Baseball America called his control the best in the Southern League last year...did not exceed the 50.0 innings mark a year ago and thus will retain his rookie status for 2003.

2002: Cook made a successful debut at each of the top three levels of baseball in 2002...began the year in Double A, was promoted to Triple A by mid-June and cracked the big leagues by the beginning of August...the right-hander's quick rise to the top earned him Rockies Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors...after beginning his major league career with four relief appearances, Cook moved into the rotation and became one of Colorado's best pitchers down the stretch...in nine games, five starts, Aaron was 2-1 with a 4.54 ERA (35.2 ip, 18 er) but did not exceed the rookie minimum of 50.0 innings...his two wins, combined with Jason Jennings' 16 and Denny Stark's 11, made the Rockies only the third NL team since 1975 to have rookie starters combine for 29 or more victories ('84 Mets, '75 Giants)...allowed 4 runs in 5.2 ip relief innings (6.35), then went 2-1, 4.20 (30.0 ip, 14 er) as a starter...at Coors Field, the righty compiled a 1-0, 4.98 (21.2 ip, 12 er) record, while going 1-1 with a 3.86 ERA (14.0 ip, 6 er) on the road...worked at least 6.0 innings in four of his five starts, including a pair of 7.0 ip outings...the Rockies, 2-3 in his five starts...batted .091 (1-for-11) with an RBI single...Cook opened the year with the Carolina Mudcats of the Southern League (AA)...in 14 starts, was 7-2, 1.42 ERA, with 19 walks and 58 strikeouts in 95.0 innings...named a mid-season all-star by the league but was unable to participate as he was promoted to AAA-Colorado Springs on June 17...for the Sky Sox, Aaron went 4-4 with a 3.78 ERA (64.1 ip, 27 er) in 10 starts...recalled from Triple A by the Rockies on Aug. 9, Cook made his major league debut the next day, Aug. 10 vs. the Cubs...gave up a home run to his first batter faced, Moises Alou (0-2 pitch), but then settled down to retire seven of his next eight...after three more appearances, he moved into the rotation when Shawn Chacon was optioned on Aug. 23 and the right-hander never looked back...made his first major league start on Aug. 26 vs. San Francisco, the 21st player in club history to make his first career start in a Rockies uniform...worked 6.0 innings, allowing 3 runs on 9 hits with 4 walks and no strikeouts but did not factor into the decision...was able to pitch out of jams, inducing 4 groundball doubleplays...suffered his first major league defeat despite a solid outing in a 3-0 loss at San Diego on Aug. 31 (7.0 ip, 9 h, 3 r, 3 er, 0 bb, 2 k)...then recorded his first ML victory with 7.0 strong innings (5 h, 1 er) Sept. 6 vs. SD...a four-run fourth by Colorado put the game away as Cook allowed just one runner as far as third base over his first 5.0 ip...earned his second win in as many starts, Sept. 11 at Houston...gave up 3 runs on 7 hits over 6.0 innings with Rox holding on to win 8-6...was aided by a five-run fifth inning in which he recorded his first career hit and RBI, a run-scoring single off Kirk Saarloos...made his final start Sept. 17 vs. St. Louis, a no decision in his shortest outing (4.0 ip)...was then rested for the remainder of the season by Clint Hurdle, as the youngster combined to throw 195.0 innings between the three levels...at Double A, Cook worked at least 7.0 ip in 10 of his 14 outings, including six starts in which he went 8.0 ip or more...tossed back-to-back 3-hit shutouts in his last two starts, June 8 at Tennessee and June 13 at Greenville...was named the "Best Pitching Prospect" in the Southern League by Baseball America...at Triple A, went 4-1 in his first six outings before losing his last three decisions over four starts...earned the victory in his Sky Sox debut on June 18 vs. Tacoma, allowing 3 runs on 7 hits in 6.2 ip...combined with Carolina and Colorado Springs, Aaron was 11-6 with a 2.37 ERA (159.1 ip, 42 er)...led all Rockies minor leaguers with 2 shutouts and 3 complete games...also participated in the All-Star Futures Game at Miller Park in Milwaukee on July 7 but it was by no means a memorable moment for the right-hander...took the loss in relief, allowing all 5 runs in just .1 ip in the World's 5-1 win over the U.S.

2001: Cook spent the entire season with Salem (A-Advanced), the 2001 Carolina League

Champions...was 11-11 on the year, with the 11 wins the most on the team and tied for the second most at any one level in the Colorado farm system...Diogenes Gomez had 12 wins and Scott Dohmann had 11, both with Asheville...the 11 wins tied for fourth in the Carolina League...his 3.08 ERA was seventh best in the league...Aaron also led the Avalanche in starts (27), innings pitched (155.0) and was second with 122 strikeouts...allowed just 4 home runs in 596 at-bats (one per 149 AB)...in the Carolina League playoffs, he threw 17 shutout innings, including a 4-hitter in the finals against Wilmington.

2000: Opened the season where he finished 1999, at Asheville (A)...but by season's end, the organization promoted him to High-A Salem...pitched a combined 185.2 innings, more than any other pitcher in Single-A and second in the organization (Jason Jennings, 187.0)...won 11 games, more than his previous three seasons and combined to post a 3.54 ERA with the two clubs...walked one batter for every 4.43 he fanned and issued only 1.7 passes per 9.0 innings...with Asheville, Cook compiled an outstanding 1.45 walks per 9.0 ip ratio (23 BB, 142.2 ip)...a South Atlantic League all-star, his 2.96 ERA ranked eighth in the league and he finished first in shutouts (2) and second in complete games (4)...earned the circuit's Pitcher of the Week honors, July 14-20...on July 27, the Rockies promoted him to Salem in the Carolina League, where he closed the season...Baseball America rated Cook the fourth-best prospect in the organization.

1999: The right-hander spent the entire season in Asheville's South Atlantic League rotation...from April 23-June 9, he missed a month-and-a-half on the DL with right shoulder tendinitis...still made 25 starts, more than his first two seasons combined (23), and pitched 2 complete games, tying for the staff lead.

1998: Cook opened the season at extended spring training in Tucson...moved to Portland when Northwest League play began in June and finished the season in the Portland rotation...he earned NWL Pitcher of the Week, Aug. 10-16...his 15 starts ranked third in the league.

1997: At age 18, Cook launched his pro career in the Arizona Rookie League...his 3.13 ERA led the staff and ranked fifth in the circuit.

PERSONAL: Aaron Lane Cook...received all-conference recognition both his junior and senior seasons at Hamilton (Ohio) High School (1996-97)...starred on a Hamilton squad that won the Ohio state baseball championship...a college football fan of the 2002 National Champion Ohio State Buckeyes but lists Cincinnati as his favorite college basketball squad...signed by Ed Santa.

NOW PITCHING...

The Rockies have had two position players pitch in a game in franchise history.

◆ BRENT MAYNE, Aug. 22, 2000 vs. Atlanta

Mayne, who'd never pitched an organized game in his life, was the first Colorado position player to pitch and did so in historic fashion...became the first position player to win a game since the Yankees' Rocky Colavito defeated the Tigers, Aug. 25, 1968 at Yankee Stadium, in Game 1 of a doubleheader...became the first NL position player to win since Pittsburgh second baseman Johnny O'Brien beat the Phillies, July 3, 1956...Mayne offered to take the ball in the top of the 12th inning after the Rockies had used all of their pitchers...got his first two batters, PH Tom Glavine and Walt Weiss, then gave up a Rafael Furcal single...after walking Andruw Jones, he retired the NL MVP Chipper Jones with two out and two on...the Rockies won the contest on an Adam Melhuse single in the bottom of the 12th...Mayne's cap and a ball from the game went on to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.

◆ TODD ZEILE, Sept. 14, 2002 vs. Los Angeles

Zeile made his debut as a pitcher in the ninth inning of a 16-3 blowout by the Dodgers on Sept. 14, 2002 at Coors Field...after a leadoff single by Cesar Izturis, Zeile got Chad Krueter to ground into a 6-4-3 doubleplay and then struckout Wilkin Ruan swinging.

JACK CUST 21

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 225 B/T: L/R Age: 24
Born: Jan. 7, 1979 in Flemington, N.J.
Residence: Flemington, N.J.
Major League Service: 0.086
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Arizona along with C J.D. Closser for LHP Mike Myers, Jan. 7, 2002.

CAREER: The left-handed power hitter enters his seventh season as a professional, looking to make his first Opening Day roster...Cust, who's father runs a hitting clinic in the offseason, has been an all-star at every stop in the minors since his inaugural pro season of 1997...was called-up by the Diamondbacks late in the 2001 season and then again by the Rockies in early August of last year...in his 618-game minor league career, Cust has belted 116 home runs and drawn 520 walks but also struckout 706 times...he's led three different leagues in walks, two different leagues in on-base percentage and two leagues in strikeouts.

* - major league debut

2002: After peppering the Pacific Coast League for 23 homers and being named Most Valuable Player in the Triple A All-Star game, Jack was recalled by the Rockies on Aug. 2...penciled in as the starting leftfielder that afternoon at Wrigley, Cust turned in one of the more memorable debuts in club history...trailing 4-2 in the ninth, the 23-year old hit a game-tying 2-run homer to left off Cubs closer Antonio Alfonseca...it was his first career home run and RBI coming in his first career start...became one of only six players to go deep in a Rockies debut, joining Jay Gainer (May 14, 1993 at Cincinnati), Ellis Burks (April 4, 1994 vs. Philadelphia), Todd Helton (Aug. 2, 1997 at Pittsburgh), Greg Colbrunn (April 2, 1998 at Arizona) and Jason Jennings (Aug. 23, 2001 at New York-NL)...unfortunately, the Rockies would go on to lose the game 6-4 in the 12th...with Colorado, he saw action in 35 games, batting .169 (11-for-65) with an HR and 8 RBI...made 15 starts, all coming in leftfield...in the pinch, Jack was 3-for-16 with one RBI, but finished with a .350 on-base percentage after drawing 4 walks...hit .206 (7-for-34) at Coors, and six of his eight RBI came in Denver as well...committed only one error in 121.1 innings of defense, finishing with a .960 fielding percentage (24/25)...struck out 11 times in his first five games with Colorado and in six straight contests from Aug. 13-21...only struck out seven times for all of September, in contrast to his 25 punchouts in August...hit safely in two consecutive games against the Reds, August 6th and 8th...matched his career high with 2 RBI on Aug. 21 vs. Montreal, via a sac fly and a bases-loaded walk...batted .238 (5-for-21) in the final month to raise his average from .136 (6-for-44) to .169 (11-for-65)...posted his first career multi-hit game Sept. 13 vs. LA, going 2-for-3 with a pair of singles...played in 105 games with AAA Colorado Springs, batting .265 (95-for-359) with 24 doubles, 23 home runs and 55 RBI...his 23 HR were an organizational high...was named MVP of the Triple A All-Star game on July 10, breaking a scoreless tie with a pinch hit, 2-run single in the sixth inning...would later add a solo home run to lead the PCL to a 5-0 victory...collected a pair of homers May 5 at Tucson...set a season high with 4 RBI during his last game in Triple A, July 30 against Salt Lake City.

2001: Opened the season at AAA-Tucson, seeing his first career action above the Double A level...was named to the All-Pacific Coast League team as an outfielder at season's end...was also named to the Triple A mid-season all-star team...ranked first in the PCL in walks (102), third in games played (135) and on-base percentage (.415) and fourth in home runs (27)...had a season high 10-game hit streak from April 20-May 5 (19-for-38, .500)...the 10-gamer saw his average raise from .319 to .395...in the cleanup spot for Tucson, Cust was a .280 (77-for-275) hitter with 14 doubles, 2 triples and 19 homers...Jack was called up in September by the Diamondbacks, making his major league debut Sept. 26 vs. Milwaukee when he drew a walk as a pinch hitter...appeared in only three games for Arizona, but did notch his first career hit in the season finale on Oct. 7 at Milwaukee, a single off Mark Leiter.

2000: Jack reached AA-El Paso in only his fourth professional season...was named a Texas League All-Star as an outfielder and also played in the Futures All-Star game held in Atlanta...with El Paso, he led the league in walks (117) and strikeouts (150), finished second in on-base pct. (.440) and fourth in runs

(100)...reached base in 115 of the 129 games he saw action in...was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for April, hitting .373 (25-for-67) with 7 homers and 21 RBI...earned Texas League Player-of-the-Week honors for his performance from June 26-July 2 when he hit .529 (9-for-17) with 4 doubles, a triple, homer and 8 RBI in only five contests...in the playoffs vs. Round Rock, Cust went 4-for-14, a .286 average, with 4 RBI and 2 homers.

1999: Jack was named Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Year as well as a California League All-Star for his efforts at High Desert (A)...led the league in homers (32), on-base (.450) and slugging percentage (.651)...finished second in average (.334), extra-base hits (77), runs (107) and total bases (296)...his home run per AB ratio was also the highest in the league at one homer per every 14.22 at-bats.

1998: Opened the season at South Bend (A), but was sent to Lethbridge after 16 games...with Lethbridge, he led the Pioneer League in walks (86), on-base percentage (.530) and runs (75) en route to being named a league all-star...was also named to the Topps Class A Short Season/Rookie League All-Star team....was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month in July (.404, 7 HR, 30 RBI).

1997: His first professional season saw Cust lead the Rookie League Diamondbacks with a .488 slugging percentage, second best in the Arizona League.

PERSONAL: John Joseph (Jack) Cust III....he and his wife, Jennifer, were married on Nov. 9, 2002...was a 1997 graduate of Somerville (NJ) Immaculata High School...his brother, Kevin, plays in the Braves organization...his father, Jack Jr., was an outfielder at Seton Hall and he along with his sons spend the off-season operating a baseball school for Little League players through the top levels of youth baseball in Flemington...Jack Jr., an accountant by trade, converted a warehouse into an indoor hitting facility, built an artificial turf field and conducts hitting classes throughout the winter months.

KEVIN EBERWEIN 55

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R Age: 26
Born: March 30, 1977 in Tacoma, Wash.
Residence: Las Vegas, Nev.
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

CLAIMED off waivers from the San Diego Padres, Jan. 6, 2003.

CAREER: Eberwein enters his fifth professional season, his first with the Rockies organization...injuries have forced him to miss significant action in each of the past three years.

2002: Kevin went to spring training on the Padres' 40-man roster before being optioned to AAA-Portland on March 25 where he would remain the majority of the season...missed over a month of action from May 11-June 14 after undergoing ulnar decompression surgery on his right hand...played four different positions for Portland (3B, 1B, LF, RF) and hit .209 (67-for-320) with 12 homers and 36 RBI in 90 games...struck out a team-high 101 times...batted .259 (21-for-81) in April, which actually turned out to be his best month offensively...began to warm up later in the month, as he hit .378 (14-for-37) during a two-week stretch from April 17 to May 1...then went just 1-for-his-next-11 before being placed on the disabled list with the hand injury on May 11...activated June 14 and immediately transferred to AA Lake Elsinore of the California League...played two games with Lake Elsinore (0-for-8) before being sent back to Triple A on June 16...the injury clearly bothered him, as he batted only .170 (9-for-53) in June, .198 (16-for-81) in July and .179 (15-for-84) in August...did hit 5 home runs in 10 games from July 15-25, including a 3-for-5 night with a homer and 4 RBI on July 24 at Calgary...recalled not to report by San Diego on Sept. 4.

2001: Played only 36 games between Single-A Lake Elsinore and Triple-A Portland due to left ankle and right wrist injuries...combined to bat .282 (35-for-124) with 5 homers and 15 RBI at the two stops...18 of his 35 hits (51%) went for extra bases...began the year on the disabled list after sustaining the ankle injury during spring training...underwent arthroscopic surgery on the ankle performed by Dr. Jan Fronek at Scripps Green Hospital in La Jolla on February 27...first reported to Lake Elsinore, where over his last six games, he was 8-for-20 with 4 doubles, 2 homers and 4 RBI...promoted to Triple A on May 9, he played in 27 games before a right wrist injury ended his season on June 21...the wrist did not require surgery.

2000: Named Co-Most Valuable Player with Sean Burroughs for Double A Mobile despite seeing his season end July 31 due to a strained left ankle and a fractured rib...selected to play in both the Double-A and Southern League All-Star games...his 18 homers tied for second in the Padres organization...injured his left ankle in a collision at first base on July 5 at Birmingham.....on the disabled list July 6-14...went back on the DL Aug. 1 and sustained a season-ending rib fracture while rehabbing from the ankle injury...named the best power hitter in the organization by Baseball America.

1999: Began the year at Rancho Cucamonga (A) but was promoted to Mobile (AA) April 10...played 10 games before returning to Rancho on April 26...overall, he tied for third in the organization with a career-high 19 homers...hit .333 (6-for-18) with 2 2B, 2 HR and 5 RBI in Cal League playoffs vs. San Bernardino.

1998: Made his professional debut with Clinton of the Midwest League (A).

COLLEGE: Played at UNLV, where he batted .359 with 34 homers and 150 RBI in 166 games over three seasons with the Rebels...named a Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America in 1996...was a Baseball America third-team preseason All-American in 1998.

PERSONAL: Kevin M. Eberwein...a 1995 graduate of Green Valley High School in Las Vegas, he helped the Gators win three consecutive state titles...named all-conference as a senior, after batting .493 and going 5-1 with a 2.10 ERA...drafted out of high school by the Indians in the 53rd round in 1995.

SCOTT ELARTON 50

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-8 Wt: 240 B/T: R/R Age: 27
Born: Feb. 23, 1976 in Lamar, Colo.
Residence: Denver, Colo.
Major League Service: 4.100
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Houston, along with a player to be named (Garrett Gentry–9/27/01) in exchange for RHP Pedro Astacio and cash considerations, July 31, 2001...re-signed Dec. 20, 2002.

CAREER: The tall right-hander is attempting to overcome a shoulder injury that sidelined him the entire 2002 season...after an intense offseason of rehab, Elarton should be full-go this spring as he looks to win a spot in the starting rotation...now in his 10th professional season, the Lamar, Colo., native has 124 major league games to his credit, including 71 starts...the former 17-game winner has not made a big league appearance since Oct. 6, 2001...has not earned a victory since May 6, 2001, going 0-7 in his last 17 starts.

2002: Elarton did not pitch in 2002 due to a shoulder injury...underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder March 8...Rockies team Medical Director, Dr. Richard Hawkins, performed the operation at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, Colo....during the procedure, Dr. Hawkins repaired a small portion of the labrum that was detached with suture anchors and also mildly tightened the shoulder capsule...officially placed on the 60-day DL March 12.

2001: Overall in 2001, Elarton was 4-10 with a 7.06 ERA (132.2 ip, 104 er) in 24 starts for both Colorado and Houston...the 10 losses were a career high, three more than the seven games he lost in 2000...surrendered 34 home runs, tied for the fifth most in the National League...made four starts for the Rockies after being acquired at the trade deadline and was 0-2 with a 6.65 ERA (23.0 ip, 17 er)...Rox were 1-3 in his four starts...lost his last seven decisions of the season from May 22 to Sept. 22, a career long losing streak...made his Rockies debut on Sept. 9 vs. San Francisco and gave up 3 home runs in a no decision...suffered his first loss as a Rockie in a strong outing Sept. 22 at Montreal (7.0 ip, 1 h, 2 er), as he allowed just two Expos to reach base...made his final start on Oct. 6 at San Diego, his 10th loss of the year...in 20 starts for the Astros, Elarton was 4-8 with a 7.14 ERA (87 er, 109.2 ip) ...began the season 3-1 over his first four starts (April 3-May 6) posting a 2.70 ERA (6 er, 20 ip) in the three victories...was the first Astros Opening Day starter other than Shane Reynolds since 1995...became the first Houston pitcher to win his first Opening Day start since Mike Scott in 1987, claiming an 11-3 win over Milwaukee on April 3...the day after his 20th start, July 17, he went on Houston's disabled list for right biceps tendinitis and was on the DL when the trade was completed to Colorado...after four weeks of rehabilitation with the Rockies training staff, Scott was sent to Colorado Springs (AAA) August 29 on a medical rehab assignment...made two starts for the Sky Sox (0-1, 7.04 ERA, 7.2 ip, 6 er) and was then reinstated from his rehab assignment and activated Sept. 4.

2000: Voted Astros Pitcher of the Year by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA, after going 17-7 with a 4.81 ERA in 30 starts...his 17 victories tied for sixth in the National League and his .708 winning percentage ranked third in the circuit...was Houston's only pitcher to record double digit victories...became the fourth different pitcher to lead the club in victories over the past four years...posted a 3.19 day ERA, eighth in the NL...started the 2000 season on the disabled list and made three rehab starts, going 2-0 with a 1.47 ERA...made his first start of the year on April 23 vs. San Diego (no decision)...won his first game on May 4 at Wrigley Field...had the shortest stint of his career (1.1 ip, 6 h, 9 r) in a 13-3 loss at San Diego on June 10...compiled a five-game winning streak from June 22 to July 16...had that snapped in his July 21st start vs. St. Louis, his first loss at home...then began his career-best six-game winning streak in his very next start on July 26 Cincinnati...won five starts in August (one no decision) before the streak ended with an 8-6 defeat to the Braves, Sept. 2...threw a 4-hitter on Aug. 6 vs. Montreal, his first major league complete game...earned Co-NL Player of the Week honors for the week of July 31-Aug. 6 (Will Clark) after going 2-0 with a 2.08 ERA...struck out a season-high 9 on Aug. 11 at Philadelphia.

1999: Began the year in the bullpen before entering the starting rotation prior to the All-Star break...as a starter, Scott was 4-2 with a 3.40 ERA (82.0 ip, 32 er)...made his first start of the season on July 3 at Cincinnati after having pitched the most innings (39.1) and made the most appearances (27) of any Astros reliever through the first three months of the season...his last relief outing came on June 29 vs. St.

Louis...defeated the Cardinals despite allowing two inherited runners to score...earned his first victory as a starter with a 10-4 win over the Cubs on Aug. 7...struck out a career-high 10 batters on Sept. 15 vs. Philadelphia...underwent surgery following the season on Oct. 21, 1999 to repair a stretched right rotator cuff (Dr. Bill Bryan).

1998: Began the season at Triple A New Orleans and made 14 starts before being recalled by Houston on June 20...he would remain with the Astros for the rest of the year...made his first major league start on June 20 in the Astrodome vs. Cincinnati in place of Mike Hampton who went on the 15-day DL...threw 6.1 innings, allowing 5 hits and 4 runs with 9 strikeouts and departed with a lead that the bullpen failed to hold...earned the first save of his professional career on July 29 against Florida (3.0 ip, 0 er)...recorded his second save in his next appearance, Aug. 2 at Pittsburgh...recorded his first ML victory on Aug. 10 vs. Milwaukee (1.0 ip, 0 h)...prior to spring training, he pitched a no-hitter in his final winter league start for Santurce of the Puerto Rican winter league on Dec. 14 against Caguas...faced just two over the minimum as he walked 2 and struckout 8.

1997: Opened the year at Double A Jackson before being promoted to AAA New Orleans in July...in the first two months of the season, he was 3-1 with a 3.18 ERA and a league-best 77 strikeouts...started the July 7 Double A All-Star game, pitching one perfect inning with 2 strikeouts...was leading the league with 124 K's at the break...had a 3-hit, 2-1 complete game victory over Wichita on July 10, his last start before being promoted to New Orleans...made nine starts at the AAA level and was 4-4 with a 5.33 ERA.

1996: In 27 starts at Kissimmee (A), he led the club in wins (12), strikeouts (130) and innings pitched with 172.1...had three complete games, tied for fourth in the Florida State League...he was also fourth in strikeouts and third in innings pitched.

1995: Went 13-7 at Quad City of the Midwest League, with his 13 victories first on the team and tied for fourth in the circuit.

1994: He was a combined 8-1 at Gulf Coast and Quad City...allowed no runs and just 9 hits in his first five professional starts (28.0 innings) after being selected in the first round by the Astros...rated by Baseball America as the 16th best pitcher (27th-best overall) available in the June 1994 draft.

PERSONAL: Vincent Scott Elarton...he and his wife, Laurie, make their home in Denver...attended Lamar High School in Lamar, Colo....at 6'8", he is the tallest Rockie in club history (previous: Marvin Freeman, 6'7").

CHOO FREEMAN 60

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R Age: 23
Born: Oct. 20, 1979 in Pine Bluff, Ark.
Residence: Dallas, Texas
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED 36th overall as a "sandwich" pick between the first and second rounds of the 1998 June draft (compensation from Atlanta for free agent Andres Galarraga).

CAREER: A three-sport star in high school, Choo decided on a professional baseball career instead of a football scholarship at Texas A&M...coming off perhaps his best pro season in 2002, the athletic Freeman makes his first appearance on a major league 40-man roster...recently tabbed as the fifth best prospect in the Rockies system by Baseball America.

2002: The talented outfielder enjoyed a breakout season in 2002, being named a mid-season and postseason All-Star by the Southern League, as well as Carolina's Team MVP...hit .291 (125-for-430) with 12 homers and 64 RBI in his first season at the Double A level...tied for second in the Southern League with 6 triples and his .400 on-base percentage ranked fourth in the league...was among the league leaders in batting average for most of the year, hitting .334 (101-for-302) as late as July 19...but struggled over the last six weeks of the season, posting a .188 (24-for-128) average in his final 38 games...for the year, he batted .352 (82-for-233) on the road but just .218 (43-for-197) at home...Carolina's starting centerfielder, Choo tore up the circuit out of the gates, going 12-for-his-first-22 (.545) and then 29-for-71 (.408)...honored as the Rockies' Minor League Co-Player of the Month for April, hitting .392 (31-for-79) with 3 homers and 14 RBI...he and Clint Barmes represented the Southern League at the Double A All-Star game in Norwich, Conn., on July 10 (1-for-2, single)...later joined the major league club for the Hall of Fame Exhibition Game in Cooperstown, NY, on July 29...went 1-for-4 in the contest with 2 runs and 2 RBI...hit just .188 (3-for-16) in Carolina's postseason series against Jacksonville...played for Mesa in the Arizona Fall League following the season but also struggled with a .202 (18-for-98) average, no homers and 12 RBI.

2001: Was a member of the 2001 Carolina League Champions, playing 132 games for High A Salem...set a career high with 19 stolen bases in 26 attempts...was the Avalanche's centerfielder for 119 games...compiled a 12-game hitting streak, May 2-13 (.354, 17-for-48)...hit .337 (34-for-101) in June, the only month he posted a .260 average or better...had five straight 2-hit games, Aug. 19-24.

2000: Freeman batted .266 in his first season at the High A level...his 7 triples ranked third in the Carolina League...all 127 games came in CF...went his first 169 at-bats without a home run until finally going deep on May 28 vs. Lynchburg...posted a .312 (29-for-93) average with 3 HR in the month of August...Baseball America named Freeman the top prospect in the organization entering the 2000 season.

1999: Set career highs in runs (82), hits (133), doubles (22), homers (14) and RBI (66)...also struck out a career-high 132 times...hit safely in 95 of his 131 games...belted home runs in his last two games of the year vs. Hickory, including a grand slam in the season finale, Sept. 6.

1998: Ranked ninth in the Arizona League (R) with a .320 average, while his 6 triples finished third...scored at least a run in 12 straight games, tied for the fourth longest streak in minor league baseball.

PERSONAL: Raphael (Choo) Freeman...was a three-sport letterman for Dallas Christian High School and played a role in six state championships...in his senior year of 1998, DCHS won the Texas state baseball title, while Freeman was named district MVP...was also all-state in basketball...a three-time all-state football player, Choo caught more touchdowns (50) than any player in Texas prep history and his 3,300-plus receiving yards ranked fourth in state annals...signed a letter-of-intent to play football at Texas A&M before the Rockies drafted him...signed by Rockies scout Dar Cox.

Brian Fuentes 40

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 220 B/T: L/L Age: 27 (28 on Aug. 9)
Born: Aug. 9, 1975 in Merced, Calif.
Residence: Merced, Calif.
Major League Service: 0.125
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Seattle, along with RHPs Jose Paniagua and Denny Stark for INF Jeff Cirillo, Dec. 15, 2001.

CAREER: Entering his eighth professional season, Fuentes is in position to make his first big league Opening Day roster…opens camp as Colorado's top left-handed reliever after a strong showing down the stretch in 2002…possesses a funky delivery that he's used to strikeout 713 batters in 602.2 professional innings (10.6 K's per 9 ip)…owns a strikeout-to-walks ratio of 2-to-1 as a pro (713:347)…has posted a 3.00 career ERA (18.0 ip, 6 er) in 19 games at Coors Field…the southpaw is tougher on right-handers, holding major league righties to a .173 (13-for-75) average, as opposed to a .300 (18-for-60) mark by lefties.

2002: After bouncing back-and-forth between Triple A and the big leagues for much of the season, Fuentes got his fourth and final recall in late August, and emerged as Colorado's top left-handed reliever down the stretch…in four stints with the Rockies, the southpaw was 2-0 with a 4.73 ERA (26.2 ip, 14 er) and no saves…struckout 38 in his 26.2 ip of work, averaging 12.8 strikeouts per nine innings…recorded 11 multi-strikeout games and posted a strikeout to walks ratio of almost exactly 3 to 1 (38:13)…struggled a bit in his first three stints with the club but was perhaps the team's most consistent reliever after his final recall…from Aug. 23 to Sept. 26, Fuentes yielded just 3 earned runs in 16.2 ip, a 1.62 ERA…was unscored upon in 18 of his last 22 appearances, allowing 7 runs in 22.0 innings (2.86 ERA)…that number is a bit misleading, though, as he gave up 4 of the 7 runs in his final two outings…therefore, in 20 games from July 17 to Sept. 26, Fuentes saw only 3 opponents cross the plate in 20.0 innings (1.35 ERA)…for the year, the left-handed specialist retired 20 of 31 first batters faced…allowed only 5 of 16 inherited runners to score and all five came in bases-loaded situations…pitched better at Coors Field, posting a 3.31 ERA (16.1 ip, 6 er) at home versus a 6.97 ERA on the road (10.1 ip, 8 er)…limited righties to a .155 (9-for-58) average but lefties hit .381 (16-for-42)…opened the season with AAA-Colorado Springs, appearing in 28 games before being recalled on May 29…after three games with the Rockies (2.0 ip, 2 h, 1 er), Brian was optioned to Colorado Springs on June 5…recalled just two days later on June 7 to replace an injured Kent Mercker…saw action in four interleague games (2.0 ip, 2 h, 1 r, 1 er, 3 bb, 3 k) before again being optioned back to Triple A on June 18…called-up for the third time on July 5…in his first game back, July 7 vs. San Diego, the lefty faced four batters, allowing 2 hits with 2 hit batsmen…charged with 3 runs without recording an out…then gave up 2 runs on 3 hits in .2 ip of his next outing, July 13 at San Francisco, letting five of seven Giants reach safely…rebounded to work five straight scoreless appearances (3.1 ip) before being sent down July 30…recalled for a fourth and final time Aug. 23 and was stellar the rest of the year…extended his scoreless streak to a career-best 11 appearances and 8.1 innings before finally allowing a run on Sept. 8 vs. San Diego…after giving up one run on Sept. 14 vs. LA, the southpaw posted an 8.0 scoreless innings streak covering six appearances with 12 strikeouts…recorded wins in back-to-back games, Sept. 21 and 22 vs. the Diamondbacks…worked a season-high 2.0 ip in both victories, allowing 1 hit with no runs and no walks with 7 K's…first Rockie to win two straight games since Justin Speier, Sept. 23-24, 2001…tied a club record by striking out five consecutive batters in that Sept. 21st game vs. Arizona…sat down Williams, Finley, Grace, Miller and Jose…it was the seventh time that a Rockies hurler has fanned five straight, last done by Speier over three outings, June 18-21, 2001…the 5 k's, a new career high for Fuentes and a 2002 season high by a Rockies reliever…was touched for 3 runs and 2 homers in his final outing, Sept. 28 at Arizona…for AAA-Colorado Springs, was 3-3 with a 3.70 ERA (48.2 ip, 20 er) and one save in 41 relief appearances.

2001: Spent most of the season at Triple A Tacoma with two stints at the major league level…recalled from Tacoma May 31…made his ML debut June 2 vs. Tampa Bay in relief (0.2 ip)…made three more relief appearances, earning his first win on June 12 at Colorado…optioned to Tacoma on June 15 and recalled June 23…collected two strikeouts June 27 vs. Oakland (1.0 ip) and added another two strikeout effort June 28 vs. Oakland (1.1 ip)…overall, Fuentes began his ML career with a scoreless streak of 5.2 innings from June 2 thru June 28…produced 3 Ks in 2.0 innings of relief July 19 at Kansas City…optioned to Tacoma July 20 where he remained for the rest of the year…went on Tacoma's DL with a left shoulder strain on Aug. 26 and was reinstated Sept. 17…at Triple A, he struck out 70 batters in 52.0 innings (12.11 strikeouts per 9.0 IP).

2000: Remained at New Haven (AA) for the second straight season…led Eastern League starters with 9.80 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...was second in league with 152 strikeouts...ranked third in losses and fifth in walks...went 0-3, 8.44 in four April starts, before going 3-3, 2.56 in May...tossed a 2-hitter Aug. 3 at Akron, his first career complete game...was 3-2, with a 2.39 ERA in seven starts after the end of July (49.0 ip, 13 er)...helped the Raves win the Eastern League title, going 2-0 with a 2.45 ERA in two postseason starts (11.0 ip, 8 h, 3 r, 3 er, 4 BB, 17 K).

1999: Spent all of 1999 at the Double-A level with New Haven...recorded a season-high 10 strikeouts on April 21 at Trenton (6.0 ip)...won back-to-back starts, April 21 at Trenton and April 27 at New Britain...on disabled list June 5-Aug. 21...only relief appearance was first outing off the DL...tossed 2.0 innings in relief on Aug. 22 at Harrisburg...did not throw more than 2.0 innings in any of his final four appearances.

1998: Began the year on the disabled list (April 2-20) with left shoulder tendinitis...rebounded to start 22 games for Lancaster (High-A) with two relief appearances...finished second in the Cal League in walks (81) and third in strikeouts per 9.0 ip (10.56)...struck out 12 in a 3-1 win vs. High Desert May 16 (7.0 ip, 3 h) and then again July 7 vs. Visalia...retired the first nine batters he faced–five by strikeout–at Rancho Cucamonga Aug. 8, finishing with 10 K's in 7.2 ip...struck out 12 for the third time, Aug. 19 vs. San Bernardino, fanning the side in the first and third.

1997: Spent 1997 with Wisconsin, starting 22 games...struck out 153 in 118.2 innings...beat Quad City 1-0 on July 28, striking out 12 in 8.0 ip...retired the first 12 batters and had faced the minimum 20 hitters before allowing a single with two outs in the seventh (8.0 ip, 1 h, 12 K).

1996: Started his career with Everett...struck out 26 in 26.2 innings pitched.

PERSONAL: Brian Christopher Fuentes...was a two-time all-league performer at Merced Junior College...graduated from Merced J.C. in 1996...signed by Mariners scout Rodney Davis.

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 200 B/T: L/L Age: 23 (24 on June 22)
Born: June 22, 1979 in Fort Worth, Texas
Residence: Fort Worth, Texas
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the 11th round of the 2000 June draft.

CAREER: Brad Hawpe begins his fourth professional season, looking to build on what was a spectacular 2002...in last year alone, the former LSU star was the Doug Million Award winner (organizational player of the year), Carolina League MVP, a first team Baseball America minor league all-star and came within two weeks of becoming the second player ever to win the Carolina League triple crown...the southpaw makes his first appearance on a major league 40-man roster...has hit 22 home runs in each of his last two seasons, averaging a homer every 19 at-bats...is batting .305 (320-1048) in three seasons of minor league baseball...rated as the 10th best prospect in the Rockies system by Baseball America.

2002: Hawpe compiled one of the finest seasons ever by a Rockies minor leaguer en route to earning the Doug Million Award as organizational player of the year...named Carolina League MVP, just the fifth player in franchise history to garner league MVP honors...Baseball America named Hawpe to its first team Minor League All-Star Team following the season...that publication also selected him to its High A All-Star squad...Brad's outstanding season saw him come within two weeks of becoming the second player ever–and first since 1951–to win the triple crown in the Carolina League...led in all three categories as late as Aug. 17 (.345-21-83)...the southpaw won the league batting title, hitting .347 (156-for-450), the second highest average in all of minor league baseball to only Triple A Salt Lake's Rick Short (.356)...wound up finishing third in home runs (22) and second in RBI (97)...did win the percentage triple crown, leading the CL in on-base (.447) and slugging percentage (.587), both of which ranked third among all minor leaguers...the mid-season and postseason Carolina League All-Star led the circuit in total bases (264) and walks (81), was second in runs (87) and extra-base hits (62), third in doubles (38) and fifth in hits (156)...had 47 multi-hit games and recorded at least one hit in 94 of his 122 contests...named Colorado's Minor League Co-Player of the Month for April after batting .375 (36-for-96) with 5 HR and 23 RBI...then hit .411 (23-for-56) in May and .381 (37-for-97) in June...earned Carolina League "Hitter of the Week" honors three times, April 11-17 (.400-1-9), May 2-8 (.500-4-11) and June 28-July 3 (.600-2-11)...missed a little over a week (May 23-June 1) with a right wrist strain...was bumped up to Double A for Carolina's postseason series against Jacksonville and hit .211 (4-for-19) with 5 RBI...left winter ball in Venezuela early due to a rib strain.

2001: Started strong in his first season with Asheville (A), batting .318 (47-for-148) through the first two months...but then hit just .237 (58-for-245) in the final three months to finish his average at .267 (105-for-393)...belted 22 home runs, averaging one every 17.86 at bats, fifth best in the South Atlantic League...played 52 games at first base, 54 in right field and five as the team's DH.

2000: Brad was a Northwest League All-Star in his first year of professional baseball at short-season Portland...ranked second in the league in doubles (19) and third in both extra-base hits (28) and slugging percentage (.502)...recorded his first career multi-homer game June 26 at Everett.

COLLEGE: Hawpe was the College World Series MVP with Louisiana State in 2000, leading the Tigers to the National Championship...hit a crucial 3-run homer off USC's Mark Prior to propel LSU into the national semi-final round...earned second team all-America honors from Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball...led the nation with 36 doubles in 2000, tying an NCAA record...played rightfield for the Tigers as a sophomore in 1998 and junior in 1999...originally attended Navarro (TX) Junior College.

PERSONAL: Bradley Bonte Hawpe...makes his offseason home in Fort Worth, Texas, with his wife, Kim...while at Boswell High School in Texas, Hawpe lettered three years in baseball and helped his team win the Texas 4A State Championship...signed by Damon Ianelli.

TODD HELTON 17

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 204 B/T: L/L Age: 29 (30 on Aug. 20)
Born: Aug. 20, 1973 in Knoxville, Tenn.
Residence: Thornton, Colo.
Major League Service: 5.059
Contract: Signed through 2011 (2012 club option)

SELECTED in the first round (eighth overall) of the 1995 June draft.

CAREER: Todd Helton and Joe DiMaggio are the only players in major league history to hit at least .315 with 25 home runs and 95 RBI in each of their first five complete seasons...DiMaggio actually did it his first six seasons and thus Helton will attempt to tie Joltin' Joe's major league record in 2003...over the last five years, Helton has averaged 189 hits, 46 doubles, 36 homers and 122 RBI per season...the Rockies' first round selection in the 1995 June draft (eighth overall), Helton enters the 2003 campaign with the highest career batting average (.333) and slugging percentage (.613) among all active major leaguers...in fact, he is the only active player with a slugging percentage over .600...since 1999, only Derek Jeter (802) has recorded more hits than Todd's 780...in that same time span, only Larry Walker (.346) and Nomar Garciaparra (.342) have a higher batting average than Helton's .339 mark...over the last four years, only Helton, Carlos Delgado, Jason Giambi, Sammy Sosa and Vladimir Guerrero have hit at least 30 home runs with 100 runs, 100 RBI and 300 total bases in each season...since 1999, Todd has the most doubles (191) in the majors, third most runs (491) and fourth most RBI (515)...in 2000-01, Helton became the first player in history to record 100 extra-base hits in back-to-back seasons, just the fourth player to ever total 400 bases in consecutive seasons and the seventh to hit 50 doubles two straight years...in 2000 alone, he became only the fifth player ever–the first in 63 years–and the first ever in the National League with at least 200 hits, 40 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 runs, 100 extra-base hits and 100 walks...that same year, he won his first batting title with a .372 average, the seventh highest average by a first baseman in ML history...Todd was hitting .400 on Aug. 21, 2000, the first player to touch the .400 mark that late in a season in 20 years...a three-time All-Star, Helton has been voted as the NL's starting first baseman each of the past two years...he also recorded the franchise's first RBI in a Midsummer Classic last July...is coming off consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves (2001-02) and has committed only 32 errors in 7,134 total chances at first base...his .995514 career fielding percentage is the sixth highest by a first baseman in major league history and second best among active first basemen (J.T. Snow, .995539)...enters this year with 973 hits, just 27 shy of becoming the fourth Rockie to surpass the 1,000 hit plateau...with 186 career home runs, he also needs just 14 clouts to become the fourth member of the Rockies 200-home run club...trails only Larry Walker in average, slugging and on-base percentages (.419) in club history...on the all-time franchise charts, Helton currently ranks third in runs (582), doubles (230) and extra-base hits (431), and fourth in hits, games (821), at-bats (2921), total bases (1791) and multi-hit games (283)...is the career record-holder with 69 intentional walks and his 429 walks overall rank second...Helton is the fastest active player to reach 500 RBI, doing so in his 651st game...is the eighth fastest player to reach 800 hits...winner of three consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Awards, Todd has posted a .300 average or higher in 26 of the 35 months that he's hit in since coming to majors in August of 1997...since the beginning of the 2000 season, he has missed

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Todd Helton and Joe DiMaggio are the only players in major league history to hit at least .315 with 25 home runs and 95 RBI in each of their first five complete seasons.

the .300 mark only three times in 20 months of baseball action...leads all active players in batting average in the month of May (.366) and August (.386)...he actually blows away the field in both categories, as the next closest May average is .335 by Edgar Martinez (.31 points behind) and the next closest August mark is .353 by Rusty Greer (.33 points behind)...May is also by far his best power month, now accounting for 43 of his 186 career homers (23%)...the former Tennessee All-American enters his ninth season of professional baseball.

2002: The lone Rockie All-Star for the 2002 season, Todd again proved to be a cornerstone at first base for the club, winning his third consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Award and second straight Rawlings Gold Glove...finished fourth in the NL with a .329 average and racked up over 30 home runs, 100 runs, 100 RBI and 300 total bases for the fourth consecutive campaign...only Helton, Carlos Delgado, Jason Giambi, Sammy Sosa and Vladimir Guerrero have done that each of the last four seasons...Guerrero and Sosa are the only players to do it the last five years...is the first player in franchise history to score 100 or more runs in four consecutive seasons...Todd's final numbers saw the lefty hit 30 homers, score 107 times, knock in 109 runs and total 319 bases...named an All-Star for the third time in his career and second straight as the NL's starting first baseman...went 1-for-2 in the Midsummer Classic at Miller Park in Milwaukee with a run scored and an RBI...that RBI, the first-ever by a Rockies player in All-Star history...drove in Jimmy Rollins with a single up the middle and then scored on a Barry Bonds home run...in voting by his peers, was named to The Sporting News' post-season All-Star team...in the field, the Gold Glover committed only seven errors in 1477 chances...his .995 fielding percentage was tied for the third best in the NL and his 1357 putouts were the most in the majors among first basemen...went error-free the last 55 games he saw action in, a total of 523 chances without a miscue...had 182 hits, his lowest amount since 1998 (167)...although his hits total was not up to the standard he's set in the past, it still ranked seventh in the NL...the 2002 season marked the first time since '99 that Helton has had under 50 doubles, connecting on 39 two-baggers...now has 191 doubles over the last four years, the most among any player in the majors...the 30 homers marked his lowest amount since 1998 when he hit 25...his 30th bomb came in the Rox final home game, Sept. 22 vs. Arizona, a two-run shot that gave the Rockies an 8-6 lead en route to a 11-7 win over the Diamondbacks...Helton's first homer of 2002 came vs. Los Angeles April 15...it took him 47 at-bats to notch his first dinger...later, he went 80 AB's without an HR, a stint spanning from June 22-July 24, the longest homerless stretch of Todd's 821-game career...finished the season with 57 multi-hit games, third most in the NL...had 45 two-hit contests, 10 three-hitters and and a pair of four-hit games...walked 99 times, the second most of his career (103 in 2000)...drew 21 intentional free passes, one short of his career high of 22 set during the 2000 season...the IBB's were more than half of the team's 40 free passes and now give him the most in franchise history (69)...batted above .300 in every month except for July (.260)...it was the first time since April of 2001 (.274) that Helton has batted under .300 in a calendar month...started the season by going 2-for-4 in St. Louis on Opening Day, but then failed to notch a hit in his next 19 at-bats...that 0-for-19 hitless spell was the longest of his career, as he had gone 13 ABs without a hit on two other occasions in 2000 (May 23-26 and June 22-26)...snapped the slump in the Rockies' home opener April 8 vs. Houston when he singled in the eighth inning...parlayed that into a 12-game hit streak, batting .395 (17-for-43) with 3 doubles, a pair of triples and homers, knocked in 12 runs and scored 14...the streak fell two games short of his career long 14-gamer set in 2000 and would prove to be Todd's longest streak of the season...recorded his 800th career hit April 12 vs. Arizona, becoming the eighth fastest active player to reach the 800 plateau (676 games)...the quickest to reach the 800 mark among active players was Nomar Garciaparra who did in 587 games...tied a franchise record when he smacked 2 triples in Arizona April 19, now done nine times...hit 10 home runs in May, the second most clouts in a calendar month for his career (11 in May of 2000)...the 10 homers earned Helton NL Player of the Month...during the month, he batted .347 (35-for-101) with 6 doubles, a triple, 10 homers and 28 RBI...his lone multi-homer game of the season came on May 10 in New York vs. the Mets, the 21st of his career...also scored Baltimore's Roberto Alomar in Sept. 1997 and Colorado's Larry Walker in Sept. 1998...in August, he batted .476 (50-for-105) with 7 homers and 32 RBI...the NL named Helton Player of the Week May 8-14, and he earned co-honors July 16-23 and Aug. 14-20...walked 103 times, more than any player in club annals (Walt Weiss, 99 in 1995), tying for fourth in the NL...was issued a club-record 22 intentional passes...posted his 500th career hit, July 18 vs. Oakland...got his 1,000th career total base Aug. 28 at Veterans Stadium...on Sept. 15 at Dodger Stadium, he recorded career HR No. 100...compiled four hitting streaks of at least 10 games during the season...from Aug. 10-22, hit safely in 14 straight games (28-for-51, .549), a new personal best...with hits in his first 10 games of the year, Todd registered the franchise's second longest streak ever to open a regular season (Ellis Burks, 14, 1994)...received the Walter Fenner "Buck" Leonard Legacy Award, presented by Buck O'Neil and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum and MLB honored Todd with the Rockies' Roberto Clemente Man of Year, for his community contributions in Eastern Tennessee.

1999: Improved in almost every offensive category after his stellar rookie season...bolstered his batting average from .315 to .320, as well as home runs (25 to 35), RBI (97 to 113), on-base percentage (.380 to .395) and slugging percentage (.530 to .587)...hit nearly 100 points better in Rockies wins than in Rockies losses, and 23 of his 35 homers, and 75 of his 113 RBI, came in Colorado victories....opened May with a season-long 10-game hitting streak...on June 18 vs. Florida, Todd was 3-for-5, tied a career-high with 5 RBI and homered twice, the second of which was his first career game-ending home run...one night later, on June 19, Helton doubled, singled and homered; in his fourth trip, knowing he needed his first triple since May of 1998, he drove a pitch off the right-field wall and slid into third, posting the third cycle in club history...he capped the week with a homer and two more RBI and ran away with the NL Player of the Week...at one point during the Marlins series, he'd reached base in eight straight trips...amazingly, Helton's first four hits after his cycle were a homer, single, double and triple...fell one hit shy of a second cycle on four occasions...only one player since 1900 (Brooklyn's Babe Herman in 1931) cycled twice in a season...broke out of a July slump with another incredible August...Helton, who in 1998 led the majors with a .398 August average, hit .364 during the month in '99, with 8 homers and 28 RBI...strung together three significant hitting streaks over the season's final two months...from August 11-15, he posted five consecutive multi-hit games (.480, 12-for-25, 4 HR, 10 RBI)...from August 29 to September 1, he had four straight multi-hit games (11-for-18, .611, triple, 3 HR, 8 RBI)...finally, from September 8-13, Helton posted multiple hits in five straight (.545, 12-for-22, 3 doubles, 3 HR, 8 RBI).

1998: In the closest balloting in 16 years, Todd finished second in the NL Rookie of the Year race, despite leading all major-league rookies in average (.315), homers (25), RBI (97), multi-hit games (49), total bases (281), slugging percentage (.530) and extra-base hits (63)...among NL rookies, he was first in runs (78), hits (167), and on-base percentage (.380)...since 1972, only Mike Piazza (35), David Justice (28), and Darryl Strawberry (26) had hit more homers as an NL rookie, and only Piazza had more RBI (112)...on May 10 at Montreal Todd registered his first career multi-homer game...led the majors in August with a .398 average, hitting safely in 24 of his 29 games with 29 RBI...went 5-for-8 in an August 18th doubleheader at New York, pushing his average past .300, where it would remain the rest of the year...had at least one RBI in seven consecutive games August 22-28 (13 total) and finished second to Jeff Kent in the NL-Player of the Month balloting...a sprained right wrist, suffered during an at-bat Sept.13 at San Francisco, kept him out of action during the Los Angeles series, September 14-16...on Sept. 23 vs. Arizona, he was 3-for-5 with a double, 2 homers and a career-high 5 RBI...his 25th and final homer was a three-run blast in the season finale, Sept. 27 vs. San Francisco...the homer played a key role in helping the Rockies erase a seven-run deficit to beat the Giants...on the year, 12 of Helton's 25 long balls either tied the game or put the Rockies in front...his club leading .386 average with men in scoring position was fourth in the NL.

1997: Todd opened the season at Triple-A, where he was hitting .352 upon his Aug. 1 recall...made a memorable major league debut Aug. 2 at Pittsburgh...batting fifth and starting in left, he flied out in his first at-bat but singled in his second trip off the Bucs' Francisco Cordova for his first career hit...after a walk, he belted his first big-league homer, a solo shot off Marc Wilkins...joined Jay Gainer (May 14, 1993) as the only Rockies to ever hit a home run in their major league debut...the next day at Three Rivers, he picked up two more hits and his second homer...Helton hit safely in his first four games in the majors (7-for-16)...on the season he made 14 starts in the outfield (13 in left and one in right) and posted two assists...he also started seven games at first base.

1996: Helton began his first full pro season with Double-A New Haven, but moved to Triple-A July 30, going 3-for-4 in his debut at that level...after three consecutive hitless games in early April. Todd did not go more than two straight games without a hit, including his stint in Triple A...named the best defensive first baseman in the Eastern League...had a single and a home run in the Double A All-Star game on July 8.

1995: Debuted as a pro career at Asheville (A)...batted .254 with one home run and 15 RBI...Todd also played winter ball for the Maui Stingrays.

COLLEGE: Helton capped an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Tennessee by being named Baseball America's 1995 College Player of the Year, the SEC's Player of the Year, the Mizuno/Collegiate Baseball Co-National Player of the Year and was named All-America for the third straight season...the southpaw set 19 school records in his three years in Knoxville...for his career, he batted .370 (280-for-756) with 199 runs, 65 doubles, 38 home runs and 238 RBI...on the mound, he was 19-5 with a 2.24 ERA (193.0 ip, 48 er) and 23 saves...walked 49 while striking out 172...as a senior in 1995, Todd led the Vols to the College World Series, both at the plate and on the hill...he narrowly missed the '95 SEC triple crown, posting the second-best average (.407), while leading in homers (20) and RBI (92)...as a hurler in '95, Helton was 8-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 12 saves...he made four starts on the mound, each a complete-game victory...was also a quarterback for the Tennessee football team, starting three games during the '94 season in place of an injured Jerry Colquitt.

PERSONAL: Todd Lynn Helton...his wife, Christy, gave birth to the couple's first child, Tierney Faith, on Sept. 24, 2002...the family resides in Thornton, Colo., along with their chocolate lab, Abby...a '92 graduate of Knox Central (Tenn.) High School, he lettered in baseball and football...was a Baseball America prep All-American during his senior season of '92, batting .655 (51-for-78)...in 2002, was the recipient of the Rockies' "Roberto Clemente Award," as the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and contribution to his team...was one of the finalists for the national award...his Rockies teammates named him their club player representative in 1998, the first time the Rockies have named a rookie to that role...following his rookie season, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame named him its 1998 Professional Athlete of the Year...signed by Ty Coslow.

ROCKY TOP TENNESSEE

As many know by now, Todd Helton was not just a baseball star at the University of Tennessee, he was also a quarterback for the gridiron Vols...but simply calling him "Peyton Manning's backup" is a mistake...in fact, Helton beat out Manning and another highly touted freshman, Branndon Stewart, for the No. 2 quarterback job behind Jerry Colquitt out of fall camp in 1994...when Colquitt suffered a season-ending knee injury in the '94 opener at UCLA on Sept. 3, Helton saw the bulk of the playing time that afternoon in relief but Tennessee still lost 25-23...Helton then made his first collegiate start the following week at Georgia, and led the Vols to a 41-23 victory over the Bulldogs...the southpaw started two more games, a 31-0 loss to Florida on Sept. 17 and then a 24-21 loss at Mississippi State on Sept. 24...in that Sept. 24th game, Todd suffered a sprained Medial Collateral Ligament in the first half and did not return...Manning took over from there and became Tennessee's all-time passing leader...Stewart transferred to Texas A&M...Helton's final appearance as a quarterback came late in UT's 65-0 drubbing of Vanderbilt on Nov. 26...he went on to be named Baseball America's Collegiate Player of the Year on the baseball diamond the following spring and was drafted by the Colorado Rockies as the eighth overall selection that June.

JOSE HERNANDEZ 18

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 188 B/T: R/R Age: 33 (34 on July 14)
Born: July 14, 1969 in Vega Alta, Puerto Rico
Residence: Dorado, Puerto Rico
Major League Service: 9.069
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED to a free agent contract, Jan. 23, 2003.

CAREER: In the past two seasons, only four major league shortstops have hit more home runs than Hernandez's 49...among National League shortstops, only Rich Aurilia (52) has connected on more long balls the last two years...Jose belted 25 homers in 2001 and then 24 in 2002, becoming the only Brewer shortstop to hit 20 clouts in consecutive seasons...the 33-year-old opens camp at third base but will see action at short as well...for his career, he's played 737 games at SS and 306 at 3B...can also play first base, second base and all three outfield positions...is coming off his first All-Star campaign in which he set career highs in average (.288) and hits (151)...enters his 10th season in the majors, his 17th in professional baseball and joins his sixth different organization...has led the NL in strikeouts each of the last two seasons, and his 188 a year ago fell just one shy of tying Bobby Bonds' major league record set in 1970...the .255 lifetime hitter has four career grand slams.

HOME RUNS BY SHORTSTOPS LAST TWO YEARS (2001-02)

Alex Rodriguez	109
Miguel Tejada	65
Jose Valentin	53
Rich Aurilia	52
Derek Jeter	39

2002: Hernandez was named to his first All-Star team, setting career highs with a .288 average and 151 hits...played in 152 games, tying his personal best of a year ago...led all National League shortstops in home runs (24) and ranked second to St. Louis' Edgar Renteria (83) in RBI with 73...set a Brewers franchise record with 188 strikeouts, falling just one shy of tying Bobby Bonds' major league record set in 1970...was 5-for-12 (.417) with 9 RBI with the bases loaded...hit .287 with 13 homers and 40 RBI over the first half of the season en route to earning his first All-Star nod...went 0-for-3 with a pair of strikeouts in the Mid-Summer Classic at his home ballpark in Milwaukee...posted a .289 (68-235) average with 11 home runs and 31 RBI after the Break...batted over .300 in two different months, including a season-best .321 mark in April...recorded his fifth career multi-homer game on May 9 at Wrigley Field...tied his career best with 4 hits on June 4 vs. the Cubs and then again Aug. 24 vs. Pittsburgh...on his 33rd birthday, July 14 vs. Pittsburgh, Jose belted 2 home runs with 4 RBI (sixth career multi-HR game)...on July 30 at Atlanta, he became the first Brewers shortstop to hit 20 or more home runs in consecutive seasons (25 in 2001)...tied his career high with a 10-game hitting streak, Aug. 10-21...hit .417 (15-for-36) over the streak with 3 doubles, 3 homers and 7 RBI...broke Rob Deer's franchise record with his 188th strikeout on Sept. 18 vs. Houston...Deer fanned 187 times in 1987...played in only three of Milwaukee's final 11 games.

2001: Set career highs in games (152), at-bats (542), doubles (26), home runs (25) and RBI (78)...his 25 clouts ranked second among National League shortstops (Aurilia 37) and tied for the second most ever by a Brewers shortstop (Dale Sveum 1987)...Jose's 78 RBI trailed only Aurilia (97) and Orlando Cabrera (96) among senior circuit shortstops...led the majors with 185 strikeouts, two shy of Rob Deer's club record...tied a franchise record with 7 RBI on April 12 vs. Houston, equaling Ted Kubiak's mark set on July 19, 1970 at Boston...posted his third career multi-homer game during that record-setting afternoon, including his fourth career grand slam off Nelson Cruz...the slam, his third in a Brewers uniform, tying for third in team annals with Sixto Lezcano, Don Money, Darrell Porter, Devon White and Robin Yount...belted his 100th career home run on July 7 at San Francisco off Ryan Vogelsong...tied the club record with 5 strikeouts in a 13-inning contest July 8 at Pac Bell.

2000: Was Milwaukee's starting third baseman for most of the season, playing 95 of his 124 games at the hot corner...battled back problems that slowed him during the second half...posted his 500th career hit on April 4 at Cincinnati with a run-scoring single off Scott Sullivan...blasted his second career grand slam on May 20 vs. San Francisco off Mark Gardner...homered in three straight games, May 20 through game one of a doubleheader on May 22...hit his third career grand slam, second of the season, on May 23 vs. Atlanta off Kevin Millwood...became the first Brewer to hit multiple grand slams in the same season since 1995 when John Jaha (three) and Matt Mieske (two) accomplished the feat...with the bases loaded, he was 8-for-15 (.533) with 2 HR, 23 RBI and a .933 slugging...placed on the 15-day disabled list Aug. 14, retroactive to Aug. 10, with a strained lower back...activated Sept. 1 and hit just .241 the rest of the month.

1999: Split the season between the Chicago Cubs and the Atlanta Braves...stole a career-high 11 bases between the two teams...hit 18 of his 19 home runs as a shortstop and one as a centerfielder...tied his career high by hitting safely in 10 straight games, May 20-30, batting .317 during this stretch...went 3-for-4 with a home run and 5 RBI on July 31 vs the Mets, his final game as a Cub...was then dealt to Atlanta at the deadline. Postseason: Had a two-run pinch-hit single in the sixth inning of Game Six of the National League Championship Series against New York...that hit at Shea Stadium helped Atlanta pull out a 10-9, 11-inning victory over the Mets, securing themselves a spot in the World Series.

1998: Saw action at seven different positions during the course of the season with the Cubs... played in 72 games at third base (54 starts), 45 games at shortstop (37 starts), 31 games in left field, 31 games in center field (25 starts), three games at first base (two starts), two games at second base (one start) and two games in right field...belted his second career pinch hit homer on April 24 at Los Angeles off Ismael Valdes...homered in three straight games June 6-8, driving in 9 runs...had a career-high 10-game hitting streak from June 12-21 (.372)...recorded his second career multi-homer game on June 17 vs Milwaukee...had his second career 4-hit game on Aug.18 vs St. Louis. Postseason: In his first career playoff action, he went 2-for-7 in the Division Series against Atlanta.

1997: Became the first Cub to start at all four infield positions in a decade, seeing action in 121 overall contests...the last Cub to start at all four infield positions in one season was Manny Trillo in 1987...made 12 starts at third base, five at shortstop, 10 at second base, one start at first base and one start in left field...overall, he played in 47 games at third base, 21 at shortstop, 20 at second base, six in left field and one at first base...recorded his first pinch-hit home run on July 13 off St. Louis' Todd Stottlemyre at Wrigley.

1996: Jose was Chicago's Opening Day third baseman but went on to play more games (87) at shortstop then he did at third (43)...made his first Opening Day start on April 1 against San Diego...entered the June 3rd contest vs Philadelphia as a defensive replacement at shortstop for the injured Rey Sanchez and hit a game-ending home run off Ken Ryan...went on to start the next 33 games at short...notched a career-high 4 hits and scored the winning run in the Cubs' 16-inning 9-6 victory at San Diego June 22.

1995: Played in 93 games during his second full season in the big leagues...of his 60 hits, 28 went for extra bases...averaged a home run every 18.9 at-bats and one RBI every 6.1 at-bats...recorded his first career multi-homer game on Aug. 31 at Florida, including a grand slam off Buddy Groom.

1994: Hit .242 in his first full season in the majors, appearing in 28 games at third base (nine starts), 21 games at shortstop (13 starts), eight games at second base (two starts) and one game in center field...hit his first major league home run on May 12 off St. Louis' Tom Urbani at Busch Stadium.

1993: Began the season with Canton-Akron, the Double A affiliate of the Cleveland Indians...was assigned to Orlando, Double A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs, after being traded on June 1...had a 22-game hitting streak July 30-Aug. 23 (.359)...received a late season promotion to Triple A Iowa on Aug. 30.

1992: Claimed off waivers by Cleveland on April 3...played in 130 games for Canton-Akron, the Eastern League champs...played in three games for Cleveland after being recalled Sept. 25 (0-for-4).

1991: Spent most of the year with AA Tulsa in the Rangers' system, composing a Texas League best .968 fielding pct. at shortstop...recalled by the Rangers on Aug. 9, Jose appeared in 45 games in his first major league action...had 4 hits and a walk in his first 5 plate appearances, including a single off Milwaukee's Chris Bosio in his first big league at bat Aug. 9...began his ML career hitting .333 in his first 12 games...fractured his left collarbone and shoulder blade in a collision with teammate Kevin Reimer Oct. 4.

1989: Saw action at third base, shortstop, second base and outfield at Class A Gastonia.

1988: Led Gulf Coast League third basemen in fielding (.950), putouts (47) and double plays (11).

1987: Began his professional career at Gulf Coast appearing in 24 games.

PERSONAL: Jose Antonio Hernandez...is married (Melanie), and has two children, daughter Jolanie and son Jose Orlando...graduated from Maestro Ladi High School in Vega Alta, Puerto Rico in 1987...played baseball, basketball and volleyball...attended Interamerica University in Bayamon, Puerto Rico...his cousin, Luis Figueroa, saw big league action with the Pirates and Mets...set a Puerto Rico Winter League record with 20 home runs for Mayaguez during the 1997-98 winter ball campaign.

Born: Jan. 15, 1980 in Stillwater, Okla.
Residence: Chico, Texas
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the seventh round of the 1998 June draft.

CAREER: Holliday enters his sixth professional season, all in the Rockies' organization...in his short five-year professional career, Matt has been a member of two championship teams, the Rockies' Rookie league affiliate in 1998 and High A Salem in 2001...moved from third base to left field in 2001 and played that position each of his last two seasons...has increased his batting average every year since 1999...recently rated by Baseball America as the 15th best prospect in the Rockies organization.

2002: Increased his average for the fourth straight year, batting .276 (128-for-463) with 10 home runs and 64 RBI in his first year at AA-Carolina...named a mid-season all-star by the Southern League...ranked fifth in the league with 79 runs scored...set a career high and led the Mudcats with 16 stolen bases...got hot halfway through the year as he hit .327 (39-for-119) in a five-week stretch from May 30 to July 4...was the Southern League's "Hitter of the Week," June 21-27, going 9-for-24 (.375) with a homer and 8 RBI...earned weekly honors again July 12-18, when he scored 7 runs and drove in 10...included in that stretch, a career-best 6-RBI game on July 14 vs. Birmingham...collected a season-high 4 hits on June 7 at Tennessee and July 21 at Tennessee, the later of which he scored 5 runs in...batted .235 in Carolina's playoff series against Jacksonville with 2 RBI.

2001: In his second season with Salem, Holliday played in 72 games before having season-ending elbow surgery in July...his final appearance of the year came on June 27 when he walked once as the designated hitter...named Carolina League Player of the Month for June, batting .324 (22-for-68) with 3 doubles, 7 homers, 22 RBI and 15 runs...saw his first career action as an outfielder, appearing in 30 games in leftfield without an error (35 total chances)...served as the club's DH in 42 contests.

2000: Of the 123 games Holliday saw action in, 112 came at third base for Salem...at the hot corner, Matt finished the season with an .893 fielding percentage, committing 32 errors in 300 total chances, but turned a personal high of 13 double plays...with the bat, he set career highs in RBI (72) and hits (126) and tied his career high with 28 doubles...hit a grand slam on July 4 at Frederick.

1999: Belted a career-best 16 home runs in his first season at the Single A level...with the bases loaded, he was 3-for-9 with 11 RBI, including a grand slam on May 22 vs. Hagerstown...on the year at third base, he had a fielding percentage of .871 with 57 putouts.

1998: In his inaugural campaign as a professional, Matt helped lead Colorado's Rookie league affiliate to a 42-14 record and Arizona League Championship...saw action in 32 games and batted .342 (40-for-17) with 4 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 23 RBI...the 5 homers were the third most in the league.

PERSONAL: Matthew Thomas Holliday...is married (Leslie)...son of Oklahoma State baseball head coach Tom Holliday and the nephew of Rockies Special Assignment Scout Dave Holliday...Matt was recruited out of high school to play quarterback at OSU, but signed with Colorado after the draft (Pat Daugherty, July 24, 1998)...his senior year at Stillwater High School, he earned All-American honors in football and baseball and also earned his region's Gatorade Player of the Year award in both sports.

JASON JENNINGS 32

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 245 B/T: L/R Age: 24 (25 on July 17)
Born: July 17, 1978 in Dallas, Texas
Residence: Rockwall, Texas
Major League Service: 1.039
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the first round (16th overall) of the 1999 June draft.

CAREER: Jason Jennings is the only player in major league history to throw a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his ML debut, Aug. 23, 2001…since that historic night at Shea Stadium, only six other pitchers have won more games in the National League…the 2002 NL Rookie of the Year enters this season with a 20-9 (.690) career record, 9-5 at Coors Field and 11-4 on the road…is just the fifth big league pitcher since 1976 to record 20 career victories in 35 or less starts, accomplishing the feat on Sept. 8, 2002 vs. San Diego…with a win in his first decision of '03, Jason can become only the 15th active pitcher to go 21-9 or better in his first 30 decisions…in Jennings' 39 career starts overall, the Rockies as a team are 25-14 (.641), 13-6 (.684) at home…the right-hander has never lost consecutive starts and only twice has he ever lost consecutive decisions…his award-winning 2002 season was not only one for the Rockies record books but also one of the finer campaigns by an NL rookie in almost 20 years…his 16 wins led all major league rookies and were the most by an NL rookie since Tom Browning won 20 games in 1985…entering his fifth professional season, Jason has worked at least 6.0 innings in 23 of his 39 major league starts, going 7.0 ip or more on 11 occasions…the former Baylor All-American holds the club record for hitless innings to begin a game, 6.2 ip on Aug. 1, 2002 at Pittsburgh…also took a no-hitter for 6.1 innings on May 31, 2002 at San Francisco…with the bat, few pitchers have proved to be more dangerous…Jennings enters the season with a .299 (23-for-77) career batting average, tops among active pitchers with at least 75 at-bats…is a .364 hitter with runners in scoring position (8-for-22) …Jason's .306 (19-for-62) average in 2002 was the highest by a rookie hurler since Clint Hartung hit .309 for the 1947 New York Giants…was the first rookie pitcher to break .300 since Jim Perry did so for Cleveland in 1959…also drove in 11 runs, tied with Kevin Millwood for most RBI among pitchers…has hit safely in 20 of his 37 career starts at NL ballparks.

BEST SINCE AUG. 23, 2001

Since Jason Jennings made his historic debut on Aug. 23, 2001 at Shea Stadium, only six NL pitchers have won more games.

Kevin Millwood	22-10
Jason Jennings	20-9

2002: Jennings was named National League Rookie of the Year by the BBWAA, the first player in Rockies history to earn the honor…became the 18th pitcher to win the award since its inception in 1947 and only the sixth in the last 21 years, joining Dwight Gooden (New York '84), Todd Worrell (St. Louis '86), Hideo Nomo (Los Angeles '95), Kerry Wood (Chicago '98) and Scott Williamson (Cincinnati '99)…was the only player to appear on all 32 ballots, receiving 27 first-place votes and 5 second place for a total of 150 points…Montreal's Brad Wilkerson was second with 57…in voting by his peers, was named The Sporting News' NL Rookie Pitcher of the Year…also honored as the top NL rookie by Sports Illustrated, Baseball Digest and the Players' Choice Awards…the right-hander was 16-8 with a 4.52 ERA (185.1 ip, 93 er), leading the staff in starts (32), innings (185.1) and strikeouts (127)…his 16 wins led all major league rookies in 2002 and were the most by an NL rookie since Tom Browning won 20 games in 1985…since 1980, only Browning and Gooden (17 in 1984) have won more games among first-year hurlers in the NL…fell just one win shy of tying the Rockies single-season record of 17 shared by Pedro Astacio in 1999 and Kevin Ritz in 1996…Jason combined with Denny Stark (11) to produce 27 victories, the most by two rookie teammates in the NL since Browning (20) and Ron Robinson (7) won 27 for the 1985 Reds…among big league rookies in 2002, Jason ranked second in starts, tied for third in winning percentage (.667) and fourth in strikeouts…nine of his wins came at Coors Field, where the righty was 9-4 with a 5.65 ERA (94.0 ip, 59 er)…the 9 home wins tied for fourth in the NL and were the second most in franchise history behind only Gabe White's 10 in 2000…more importantly, the Rockies were 12-5 in his 17 home starts…Jennings compiled a 7-4, 3.35 (91.1 ip, 34 er) record on the road…left with the lead in five of his eight no-decisions...he led 2-1 on April 11 vs. Arizona–although it was after just 2.0 innings due to a right elbow contusion–led 5-4 in his June 23rd start vs. TB, 2-0 in his July 11th start at SF, 5-4 on July 27 at Milwaukee and then 2-1 in his final outing, Sept. 25 at LA...worked at least 6.0 innings in 19 of his 32 starting assignments, going 7.0+ on nine occasions...of those 19 starts, he allowed 3 or fewer runs in 13 of them...overall, the Rockies were 19-13 with Jennings on the hill, averaging 6.51 runs per game (second best run support in the NL)...at the plate, the former Baylor All-American produced one of the best hitting seasons by a rookie pitcher in over a half century...batted .306 (19-for-62), second among all pitchers to teammate Mike Hampton (.344)...that .306 average, the best by a rookie hurler since Clint Hartung hit .309 for the 1947 New York Giants...Hartung, however, also played 34 games in the outfield...therefore, Jennings became the first exclusive pitcher to hit .306 or better in his first year since Eddie Lopat for the 1944 White Sox (.309)...was the first rookie pitcher to break .300 since Jim Perry did so for Cleveland in 1959...drove in 11 runs, tied with Kevin Millwood for most RBI among pitchers...hit safely in 18 of his 30 NL starts...after a strong showing down the stretch in 2001, Jennings went to spring training in a battle for the fifth and final spot in the rotation...won the spot and made his first start of '02 in a losing decision, April 6 at Dodger Stadium (6.0 ip, 7 h, 3 er)...in his next start, April 11 vs. Arizona, was struck just above the right elbow by a line drive off the bat of Steve Finley...was forced to leave the game after 2.0 ip with a right elbow contusion...did not miss a turn, earning his first victory of the year April 16 vs. LA at Coors (6.0 ip, 9 h, 4 er, 0 bb, 3 k)...suffered a 3-2 loss April 23 at Cincinnati despite another quality outing (6.0 ip, 3 er)...then kicked off a career-best 7-game winning streak from April 28 through June 11, tied for the longest by a starter in club history...Bill Swift also won 7 straight decisions June 21-Sept. 20, 1995...it was the longest streak by a rookie in 2002 and tied for the fifth longest in the NL...the streak covered nine starts in which he went 7-0, 3.93 ERA (55.0 ip, 24 er), with 15 BB and 45 K...won four consecutive starts May 26-June 11...had a perfect game through 5.1 innings and a no hitter through 6.1 ip on May 31 at Pac Bell...retired the first 16 Giant hitters in order until walking Torrealba with one out in the sixth and didn't give up a hit until Bonds singled with one out in the seventh...recorded his sixth straight win on June 5 vs. LA and then extended that to seven with 7.0 scoreless innings June 11 at Boston...the streak was snapped by the Yankees on June 18 at Coors, his first loss since April 23...at the plate, compiled a 6-game hitting streak (7-for-13) from June 23 to July 27, the second longest by a pitcher in 2002 (Hampton 8 games)...earned the win in his final start of the first half, July 3 vs. SF, and in doing so became just the fourth pitcher in club history to have 9 wins at the All-Star Break...the franchise record is 10, done by Ritz in 1996...on July 21 vs. Milwaukee, Jason became just the second rookie in club history to win 10 games (Reynoso, 1993)...had a no decision at Miller Park in his next start July 27, but went 2-for-3 with a run scored for his first career multi-hit game...the former No. 1 pick really began to make a name for himself with a dominant August that saw him earn NL Rookie of the Month as well as Rockies Player of the Month...won five consecutive starts Aug. 1-23, only the fourth pitcher in team history to do so...in the five wins, Jennings allowed just 8 runs in 33.2 innings of work (2.14 ERA)...in six August starts overall, the righty was 5-1 with a 3.55 ERA (38.0 ip, 15 er)...opened the month with an outstanding 3-0 win on Aug. 1 at PNC Park, setting a club record with 6.2 hitless innings to start the game...with two outs in the seventh, the no-hit bid was erased by a Rob Mackowiak broken-bat, bloop single just out of the reach of Juan Uribe and Todd Zeile down the left field line...Jennings still allowed only one hit overall in 7.0 ip...won his second game in as many starts on Aug. 7 vs. Cincinnati, throwing a season-high 8.0 innings, while allowing 2 runs on 5 hits...won his third straight start on Aug. 12 at Florida, a 1-0 victory over A.J. Burnett...that win, his 13th, setting a new club rookie record (Armando Reynoso 12 in 1993)...then turned around and beat Maddux and the Braves on Aug. 18...held Atlanta to just 1-for-7 w/RISP...tied the club record with his fifth consecutive winning start on Aug. 23 vs. the Mets, exactly one year to the day of his major league debut in 2001...just like in his debut, Jason beat the Mets again, holding New York scoreless through 5.0 until allowing a pair of runs in both the sixth and seventh...with the win, he joined Brian Bohanon (April 8-May 3, 1999), Pedro Astacio (Aug. 28-Sept. 19, 1997) and Bill Swift (June 21-July 20, 1995) as the only pitchers to win five straight starts in the team's 10-year history...the victory marked his sixth consecutive winning decision and upped his record to 15-5 on the year...failed to become the first Rockie to ever win six straight starts, allowing a career-high 8 runs in a loss to San Francisco on Aug. 28...won his 20th career game in his 35th start on Sept. 2 at San Diego...with the win, he became just the fifth ML pitcher since 1976 to record his 20th career victory in 35 or less starts...Cal Eldred won 20 games in his first 30 career starts (1993), Scott Erickson (1991) and Mark Fidrych (1977) each won 20 in 34 starts and Steve Rogers (1974) won his 20th game in start No. 35...that win, however, would be his 16th and final of the season...went 0-2 in his last four attempts at that club-record tying 17th win...walked a team record 10 batters on Sept. 8 vs. the Padres, the most walks by a pitcher since Scott Ruffcorn issued 10 free passes for the Phillies on June 24, 1997 vs. Florida...made his last start on Sept. 25 at Dodger Stadium and was in line for the victory after yielding just 1 run on 5 hits over 6.0 innings...Rockies took a 2-1 lead into the ninth but LA rallied for two runs off Jimenez to win 3-2.

2001: After starting the year at Carolina (AA), Jennings was bumped up to AAA-Colorado Springs in late April...had his Triple A contract purchased by the Rockies on Aug. 23, the day he would take the mound and make history at Shea Stadium...in that Aug. 23 debut, he fired a complete-game, 5-hit shutout with 4 walks and 8 strikeouts...along with his shutout, he also went 3-for-5 at the plate with a home run and 2 RBI...in doing so, he became the first player in major league history to throw a complete-game shutout and hit a home run in his ML debut...Jason was the first big league pitcher to throw a complete-game shutout in his debut since the Rockies' own Mark Brownson blanked the Astros July 21, 1998 in Houston...became the 75th player in ML history to debut with a shutout and only the third since 1992, when Pedro Astacio (then of the Dodgers) shutout the Phillies on July 3, 1992...became the fifth Rockie to win his starting debut, joining Marcus Moore (7/9/93), Mark Thompson (7/26/94), Bryan Rekar (7/19/95) and Brownson (7/21/98)...it was just the 12th individual shutout in franchise history and one of only nine complete games by an NL rookie in 2001...the bat he used (Juan Uribe model) was sent to the Baseball Hall-of-Fame in Cooperstown, NY...Jason followed up his grand debut with two more wins in as many starts...his scoreless innings streak to begin his career reached 13.0 innings as he finally allowed his first run to score in the fifth inning of his second start on Aug. 29 at Los Angeles...the streak matched a club season high...pitched 6.0 innings in that second start, giving up 8 hits and 2 earned runs in getting his second straight win...won his third game in as many starts, beating the Giants at Pac Bell on Labor Day, Sept. 3...he joined Bryan Rekar (July 19-29, 1995) as the only pitchers in club history to win their first three big league starts...became just the sixth ML pitcher since 1993 to win his first three starts, most recently done by Philadelphia's Randy Wolf in 1999...fell short in his bid to become the first Rockie to win his first four starts, suffering his first career loss in his home debut, Sept. 8 vs. San Francisco (5.2 ip, 9 h, 4 er)...after beginning his career in brilliant fashion, 3-0, 1.23 ERA (22.0 ip, 3 er) in his first three games, Jennings struggled in his next three starts...in starts vs. SF (Sept. 8), at Montreal (Sept. 21) and vs. San Diego (Sept. 27), the righty allowed 18 earned runs in 11.1 innings (14.29 ERA)...then the 23-year old right-hander finished the year with a 4-0 combined shutout on Oct. 5 at Qualcomm...opened the 2001 season where he left off a year ago, at Carolina (AA)...after just four starts with 2 wins and a 2.98 ERA, was sent to Colorado Springs in late April...moved into the Sky Sox rotation and threw 4 complete games, second most in the Pacific Coast League.

2000: Was a non-roster invitee to the Rockies major league spring camp and then split his year between Salem (A) and Carolina (AA)...went 7-10 with a 3.47 ERA in 22 starts at Salem, with the first 3 complete games of his pro career...the 3 CG tied him for second in the Carolina League...was also third in runners/9IP (10.78) and fifth in walks per nine innings (2.51)...was moved to Carolina late in the season and in his Double A debut, made six starts for the Mudcats...combined at the two stops, he was 8-11 in 28 starts.

JOSE JIMENEZ 16

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 230 B/T: R/R Age: 29 (30 on July 7)
Born: July 7, 1973 in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic
Residence: Boca Chica, Dominican Republic
Major League Service: 4.011
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from the St. Louis Cardinals with RHP's Manny Aybar and Rick Croushore, and INF Brent Butler for RHP's Darryl Kile, Dave Veres and Luther Hackman, Nov. 16, 1999.

CAREER: The Rockies' career saves leader (82), Jose Jimenez begins his fourth season as the team's closer…has converted 82 of his 100 career save opportunities (82%), 82-of-99 (83%) with the Rockies organization…the right-hander set the single-season team record with 41 saves in 2002 and he now holds two of the top four save marks in franchise annals…Jimenez is the only Rockie to post two 20+ save seasons and also holds the franchise record for consecutive save opportunities converted with 17 (Sept. 23, 2001-June 1, 2002)…owns a 3.96 career ERA (116.0 ip, 51 er) at Coors Field, the third best of any active pitcher with at least 80.0 innings…only teammates Steve Reed (3.18) and Denny Stark (3.21) have better ERA's at Coors…Jose compiled a superb 2.90 mark at home in 2002…in three years with Colorado overall, Jimenez has posted a 3.57 ERA…his 202 appearances with the Rox already ranks sixth in club history…entering his 12th professional season, the Dominican native has thrown two no-hitters as a pro, including a big league no-hitter as a rookie on June 25, 1999 at Arizona.

2002: In his third year as the Rockies closer, Jimenez set a club record with 41 saves in 47 opportunities, shattering the previous mark of 31 set by Dave Veres in 1999…the 41 saves doubled his career total entering the season, making him the franchise's all-time leader with 82…appeared in a career-high 74 games, going 2-10 with a staff-best 3.56 ERA (73.1 ip, 29 er)…the 10 losses, a new club record for a reliever and the most by any major league relief pitcher in 2002…walked only 11 batters in 73.1 innings of work, a 1.35 walks-per-nine innings average…only Mike Timlin (1.27) walked fewer per 9.0 ip among National League relievers…on the NL leaderboard, Jose ranked sixth in saves, seventh in save percentage (.872) and led the circuit with 69 games finished…tied for ninth in the Rolaids Relief Man standings with 96 points…had seventeen 1-2-3 saves and one six-up, six-down save (Sept. 15 vs. LA)…posted a team-leading 2.90 ERA (40.1 ip, 13 er) at Coors Field to go with 23 saves…on the road, was 1-6 with a 4.36 ERA (33.0 ip, 16 er) and 18 saves…retired 55 of 74 first batters faced (.743) and allowed 6-of-12 inherited runners to score…began the season by converting his first 15 save opportunities from April 3-June 1…going back to last year, Jose converted 17 straight save opportunities from Sept. 23, 2001 to June 1, 2002 setting a new franchise record…broke the previous mark of 16 held by Darren Holmes from June 11-Aug. 28, 1993…saved all three wins in the Phillies series April 26-28…his save on April 27 was the 47th of his career, moving past Holmes for second place on the franchise charts…notched career save No. 50 on May 12 at New York-NL…did not allow an earned run at Coors Field from April 15-June 15, a streak covering 16 appearances and 15.2 innings…overall for the month of May, Jimenez gave up just 3 runs, 1 earned, in 13.2 ip (0.66 ERA)…did not walk a batter in 22 appearances from May 7 to June 23…recorded his first win on May 28 at Qualcomm, striking out a season-high 4 Padres in 2.0 ip…finally suffered his first blown save on June 3 vs. Los Angeles as he allowed two inherited runners to score and his own wild throw plated two more in an eventual 11-5 loss…gave up his first home run of '02 on June 18 vs. the Yankees, first HR allowed since Aug. 11, 2001 at Cincinnati…went 45 appearances and 45.2 ip without allowing a long ball…was 18-of-19 in the saves category until his second blown save June 20 vs. the Yankees…on June 24 at Dodger Stadium, Jose became the Rockies all-time franchise leader in career saves with 61, passing Bruce Ruffin…had a 2.83 ERA through the end of June but struggled in July, going 0-3 with a 7.00 ERA (9.0 ip, 11 h, 7 er)…when he plunked David Bell on July 1st, it marked his first hit-batsmen in 112 appearances and 115.1 ip dating back to Aug. 25, 2000…posted his career-high 25th save on July 20 vs. Milwaukee…recorded a save in seven straight appearances Aug. 1-18, just two shy of Holmes' club record of nine consecutive appearances with a save (Aug. 8-23, 1993)…Jose broke the single-season franchise record with his 32nd save on Aug. 13 at Florida…had 8 total saves in August, the most in any month of his career…closed out the year with a solid September, compiling a 1.98 ERA (13.2 ip, 3 er) in 13 games...became the first Rookie to surpass the 40-save plateau on Sept. 15 vs. LA...it was Jose's one and only 2.0 inning save of the year...notched his 41st and final save in a 1-0 victory on Sept. 24 at Chavez Ravine.

2001: Jimenez pitched in 56 games, recording 17 saves despite two stints on the disabled list for inflammation in his right shoulder...set a career high with 6 relief wins, tied for the sixth most in the National League...five of those victories came at Coors Field...converted 17 of 22 save opportunities...finished 49 games, 10th best in the National League...on April 14 vs. Arizona, Jimenez converted his 11th consecutive save opportunity dating back to Aug. 29, 2000...the streak established a then-career long, edging his 10-game streak, April 21-June 11, 2000...Jose's streak ended the very next night, April 15, blowing his first save since Aug. 22, 2000...did not allow a home run on the road from April 9 to June 17, a stretch of 37 appearances and 34.1 innings...placed on the 15-day DL on July 8 for right shoulder inflammation...reinstated July 23...pitched in career inning No. 300 on Aug. 14 against the Braves in recording his sixth win...posted his 200th career strikeout on Aug. 17 vs. Florida...placed on the disabled list again August 23 and activated prior to the Sept. 17 game vs. Arizona...all told, he missed 29 games on the DL...earned his 40th career save on Sept. 23 at Montreal, moving him into third place on the franchise's all-time saves list (Dave Veres, 39)...was the tail end in three combined shutouts, but did not earn a save in any of the three...finished off Mike Hampton's Opening-Day shutout on April 2 vs. St. Louis...faced one batter, inducing a game-ending double play...teamed with Denny Neagle, John Wasdin and Gabe White to shutout San Diego on April 19 (1.0 ip, 2 h, 2 K)...it was the second consecutive shutout for the Rockies pitching staff, a new franchise record...combined on another blanking of the Padres on the last weekend of the year, Oct. 5 at Qualcomm...Jason Jennings started off the outing and it was finished by Justin Speier, Jay Powell and then Jimenez who pitched a 1-2-3 ninth...on the season, he allowed 6 of 24 inherited runners to score and retired 40 of 56 first batters faced (.714).

2000: Recorded the first 24 saves of his major league career, tying for 10th in the NL...in 31 total save situations, he recorded 24 saves and two relief holds, and sustained six blown saves...finished eighth in the NL Rolaids Relief Man competition with 68 points...earned his first major league save on April 4 at Atlanta...pitched 3.0 innings in that game, tied for the longest relief outing of his career...had a career-long 5-game winning streak from April 8 to Aug. 5...won his season's first five games, and didn't receive a loss until Aug. 7 vs. Pittsburgh, in his 46th appearance...converted 10 consecutive save opportunities, April 21-June 11...went 15 appearances without walking a batter, May 3-June 11...the streak covered 13.0 innings and 60 batters faced, from April 30 until he intentionally walked Jeff Bagwell June 15 (he actually faced 61 consecutive hitters without an un-intentional walk)...saved consecutive Rockies games four times (April 21-22, May 29-31, July 2-3, Aug. 29-30 and Sept. 26-27)...picked up a save in all three wins over Houston, May 29-31 at Coors...later earned a save in all three victories during a four-game series at SD, June 30-July 3...over his final 10 save situations, he converted 9 saves and picked up a hold.

1999: On June 25 at Arizona, he became only the 23rd rookie to pitch a no-hitter...faced one batter over the minimum and fanned 8 in a 1-0 shutout over Randy Johnson (who allowed just 5 hits and fanned 14 in a CG loss)...Jose turned in another outstanding effort against the D'Backs on July 5 at Busch Stadium, a two-hit shutout...fanned a career-best 9 in that contests and again defeated Johnson, 1-0...overall, his run support (4.25) was the fourth lowest among NL starters...lost seven straight decisions (eight starts) April 28 to June 4...on July 21 at Cincinnati, he allowed only 3 hits in seven innings, but surrendered his first-ever home run to a right-handed batter (Pokey Reese), the difference in a 1-0 loss...on August 17, the Cardinals optioned him to Triple-A Memphis for a three-week stay...recalled Sept. 7, he made his season's only relief appearance Sept. 11 vs. Pittsburgh.

1998: In his first big-league season, the right-hander won all three of his starts and pitched once in relief after the Cards brought him up from Arkansas (A) Sept. 8...held major league righthanders to a .217 average...made his big-league debut Sept. 9 at Cincinnati and tossed 3.0 scoreless relief innings, retiring the first six batters he faced while allowing just one hit...on Sept. 14 vs. Pittsburgh, he made his first major league start...gave up 1 run and 4 hits in seven innings to earn his first major league victory...the Texas League Pitcher of the Year led the organization with 179.2 innings pitched...tossed his first of two no-hitters, Aug. 27 at Shreveport (his season's only complete game).

1997: At Prince William (A), was 9-7 in 22 starts...fired 2 complete games.

1996: At Peoria (A), he went 12-9 with a 2.92 ERA...walked only 2.7 per nine innings, and fanned 129.

1995: Led the Appalachian League in innings (90.1) for Johnson City (A)...walked only 2.5 per 9.0 ip...on Opening Day, Jimenez carried a no-hitter through five innings...finished with just 2 hits and a walk in a 3-0 win...fanned 16 batters in an 8-1 win on Aug. 11...opened the off-season in the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League.

1994: Pitching for the Cardinals' Dominican Summer League club, he went 3-9 with a 2.77 ERA...nine of his 19 appearances were starts.

1993: In his second year at Estadio Esqueya, he went 3-5 with a 3.52 ERA.

1992: Jose spent his first professional season pitching for Estadio Esqueya in the Dominican Summer League...he made two starts in 18 appearances.

PERSONAL: Jose Jimenez...signed by Cardinals scout Bobby Diaz.

CHARLES JOHNSON 23

★ CATCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 250 B/T: R/R Age: 31 (32 on July 20)
Born: July 20, 1971 in Fort Pierce, Fla.
Residence: Plantation Acres, Fla.
Major League Service: 8.005
Contract: Signed through 2005

ACQUIRED from Florida, along with OF Preston Wilson, LHP Vic Darensbourg and INF Pablo Ozuna in exchange for LHP Mike Hampton, OF Juan Pierre and cash considerations, Nov. 18, 2002.

CAREER: The veteran catcher enters his 11th season as a professional, his ninth in the big leagues…a four-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner, Charles holds or shares six major league records for fielding at the catcher position…owns ML catching marks for most consecutive errorless games overall–172 (June 24, 1996-Sept. 28, 1997), most consecutive errorless games in a season–123 (April 1, 1997-Sept. 28, 1997), most consecutive errorless chances accepted–1,294 (June 23, 1996-Sept. 28, 1997) and most consecutive errorless chances accepted in a season–973 (April 1, 1997-Sept. 28, 1997)…he and Chris Hoiles share two records they both set in 1997, fewest errors in a season by a catcher, minimum 600 chances (0) and highest fielding percentage (1.000)…his four Gold Glove Awards are tied for the sixth most by a catcher in major league history, trailing Johnny Bench (10), Ivan Rodriguez (10), Bob Boone (7), Jim Sundberg (6) and Bill Freehan (5)…only Bench has more Gold Gloves among catchers in National League history…has thrown out 40.4% of potential basestealers in his career (277-for-686)…caught all three no-hitters in Marlins history, which tied a major league record…is one of only 10 catchers in ML history to be behind the plate for three no-hitters…with 457 career RBI, he is 43 away from career No. 500…only six active catchers have driven in 500 or more runs: Mike Piazza (1073), Ivan Rodriguez (829), Todd Hundley (588), Javy Lopez (585), Darrin Fletcher (583) and Sandy Alomar Jr. (517).

MOST GOLD GLOVES BY CATCHERS

Catcher	No.	Years

Charles Johnson	4	1995-98
Del Crandall	4	1958-60, '62
Tony Peña	4	1983-85, '91

2002: Johnson struggled through an injury-plagued campaign, playing a career-low 83 games with two stints on the disabled list…hit .217 (53-for-244) with 6 home runs and 36 RBI…ranked fourth among National League catchers with a .994 fielding percentage, trailing Damian Miller (.997), Brad Ausmus (.997) and Benito Santiago (.995)…threw out 21-of-58 basestealers (36.2%)…began the year on the DL with a left thumb ligament sprain he injured during a spring training game on March 5th…Johnson's thumb was hit by Expos first baseman Joe Vitiello as he ran down the first base line as a 10th inning pinch-hitter…officially placed on the DL March 22 and missed the first six games of the season while on a rehab assignment at Jupiter…hit .500 (5-for-10) with 2 home runs and 3 RBI in the rehab stint before returning on April 8 for the home opener vs. the Expos…began the season hitless in his first eight at-bats and was just 5-for-34 (.147) in 12 games during the month of April…blasted his first home run of the year on May 5 at Milwaukee off Nelson Figueroa, his first homer since August 1, 2001, spanning 56 games and 189 at-bats…collected his first 3-hit game of the year on May 29 vs. Cincinnati, his first 3-hitter since Aug. 28, 2001…hit safely in a season-high six straight games, July 25-Aug. 21, with a stint on the DL in the middle…homered in back-to-back games, July 26 and 27 at Montreal, the first time he's gone deep in two straight games since April 24-25, 2001 at Arizona…went on the disabled list for a second time on Aug. 6 (retroactive to July 28) with a lower back strain…made two rehab starts at Jupiter before being activated Aug. 16…then missed the final eight games of the season due to recurring lower back pain…made his final start Sept. 20 at Atlanta.

2001: Returned to the Marlins after two-and-a-half years and was named to his second NL All-Star team…joined Gary Sheffield (1993, '96), Jeff Conine (1994, '95) and Kevin Brown (1996, '97) as the only Marlins to make multiple trips to the Midsummer Classic…played his sixth season with the club, tying Gary Sheffield (1993-98) and Luis Castillo (1996-2001) for most seasons in a Florida uniform…set a career high with 32 doubles, while his 75 RBI were the second most in his career (2000)…hit .285 with 16 homers and 56 RBI prior to the All-Star Break but just .226 with 2 HR and 19 RBI after the break…nabbed 41.6% of opposing baserunners attempting to steal (37 of 89)…hit 9 home runs in April, the fifth most in the majors for the month…recorded his eighth career multi-homer game on April 19 vs. Montreal and then his ninth on April 29 at Houston…went 4-for-4 on April 24 at Arizona, tying his career high in hits…it marked his first 4-hit game since Sept. 17, 1999…caught A.J. Burnett's no-hitter on May 12 at San Diego, which tied the major league record for most no-hitters caught in a career…hit the first two pinch-hit home runs of his career...belted a PH grand slam off Jay Witasick on May 13 at San Diego, the third pinch-hit slam in Marlins history...then hit a 2-run PH homer off Curtis Leskanic on Aug. 1 at Milwaukee...did not hit a home run in September, his first homerless month since July of 1999.

2000: Set career highs by hitting .304 with 31 home runs and 91 RBI for Baltimore and the White Sox...the 31 homers led all American League catchers...it ranked second to all big league catchers to only Mike Piazza's 38...threw out 20-of-72 (27.8%) baserunners attempting to steal, including 8-of-24 (33.3%) with Chicago and 12-of-48 (25.0%) with Baltimore....belted his 100th career home run on July 29 vs. Cleveland...hit a game-winning solo homer in the ninth inning on Aug. 1 at Texas in his first game with the White Sox...recorded his seventh career multi-homer contest in game one of a doubleheader on Aug. 8 vs. Seattle...drove in a career high 7 runs on Sept. 2 vs. Anaheim, the most by a Chicago player since Robin Ventura's 8 RBI on Sept. 4, 1995 at Texas...hit .366 (26-for-71) in September during the Sox's drive to the playoffs. Postseason: Batted .333 (3-for-9) in three games during the 2000 AL Division Series against Seattle.

1999: In his first season in the American League, Charles established career highs in games (135), hits (107) and runs (58)...threw out 37 of the 93 baserunners attempting to steal (39.8%) and only one runner attempted to steal off him in his final 16 games...had 4 hits in back-to-back games, Sept. 14th and 17th, matching his career high...recorded a hit in nine straight at-bats and reached base 10 straight times over a three-game span September 13-17...was one hit and three reaches shy of Baltimore's club records...recorded two multi-homer games, May 8 at Detroit and May 16 at Texas...had only three home runs after June 25 but two of those came in consecutive games, Aug. 5-6 vs. Detroit.

1998: Became the first catcher to win four consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Awards since Johnny Bench won 10 straight from 1968-77...was the first Dodgers catcher to earn the award since Johnny Roseboro in 1961 and 1966...tied Milwaukee's Del Crandall for second in National League history with four Gold Gloves, trailing only Bench (10)...tied for sixth in major league history with Crandall and Tony Peña, trailing Bench (10), Ivan Rodriguez (9), Bob Boone (7), Jim Sundberg (6) and Detroit's Bill Freehan (5)...ranked third among NL catchers with 131 games caught...hit 19 home runs for the second straight year, which ranked third among NL catchers, trailing Javy Lopez (34) and Mike Piazza (32)...saw his major league record for consecutive errorless games by a catcher end at 172 games when he committed a throwing error in the first inning on Opening Day (March 31) against the Chicago Cubs...the streak that began on June 23, 1996 also established a major league record 1,294 consecutive chances accepted without an error...played in 31 games for Florida before being traded to Los Angeles...went 1-for-3 in his Dodgers debut on May 16 but then went 0-for-35 in his next 10 games, a career-long hitless spell...snapped the hitless drought with a home run in his second at-bat in the fourth inning against Cincinnati on May 28, beginning a season-high nine-game hitting streak from May 28-June 7 (.417, 15-for-36)...went 87 at-bats without a homer until hitting a three-run shot in the second inning on July 2 at Texas.

1997: Won his third consecutive Gold Glove Award, setting a major league record for catchers with 172 consecutive errorless games...hadn't committed an error since June 23, 1996...also set the major league record for consecutive errorless games in a season with 123...handled a record 1,294 consecutive chances without an error heading into the 1998 season...also tied a big league record with his 1.000 fielding percentage, successfully converting all 973 chances...became first NL catcher to win three straight Gold Gloves since Benito Santiago (1988-90)...selected to his first career NL All-Star team...finished second in NL with a 44.6% caught stealing percentage, throwing out 50-of-112 runners attempting to steal....allowed his only passed ball on Sept. 19, snapping a streak of 133 consecutive games without a PB dating back to Sept. 2, 1996...tied a club record with 4 runs July 17 vs. Los Angeles...was on the receiving end of his second no-hitter, thrown by Kevin Brown on June 10 at San Francisco (also caught Al Leiter's no-hitter May 11, 1996)...recipient of Most Improved Marlin Award presented by the South Florida Chapter of the BBWAA...named USA Baseball Alumni Player of the Year. Postseason: Charles was a key member of the World Champion Marlins, leading the club with 10 hits in the World Series...batted .357 (10-for-28) in the Fall Classic with a home run and 3 RBI...homered in Game One of the World Series on October 18, an upper deck, solo shot off Cleveland's Orel Hershiser in the fourth inning to give the Marlins a 5-1 lead...Johnson's homer followed a Moises Alou 3-run shot making the blasts the first back-to-back homers in the World Series since Dwight Evans and Rich Gedman in Game 7 of the 1986 Series...scored the winning run in Game One of the Division Series vs. San Francisco on a single by shortstop Edgar Renteria September 30.

1996: Led National League catchers with a .995 fielding percentage en route to his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove...committed only four errors in 825 total chances...also led all NL catchers by throwing out 48.1% of would-be basestealers (38-for-79)...led all major league catchers with 12 double plays...named by Baseball America as the top defensive catcher in the NL...placed on the disabled list July 31 (retroactive to July 28) with a sprained ligament in the middle finger of his throwing hand...reinstated on Sept. 1.

1995: Johnson was named to the Topps All-Rookie Team and earned Marlins Rookie of the Year honors (Florida BBWAA)...won the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, throwing out 36-of-87 baserunners, for a league-leading 41.4%...his 36 caught stealings tied the league lead and set a club record...Benito Santiago had 34 in both 1993 and 1994...tied a Marlins record with 3 doubles on June 6 at Houston...tied a team mark with 6 RBI on June 23 at Cincinnati, also setting a career high with 9 total bases...had a career-high 10-game hitting streak, June 25-July 6

(.361, 13-for-38)...tied another club record with 4 walks, Sept. 2 at Houston...saw his playing time shortened when he was twice hit on the right hand by a pitch, one of which required a three-week stint on the disabled list...suffered a fracture of the fifth metacarpal after being hit by pitch from Rockies' Bret Saberhagen...diagnosed with a fractured bone in his right hand and went on the DL from Aug. 8 to Sept. 1...later, was hit by a Chuck Ricci pitch on Sept. 18 at Philadelphia and could not play for the last two weeks of the season...the pitch did not produce any fracture but reaggravated the previous injury and produced a severe bruised right flexor muscle.

1994: Started the 1994 season at AA Portland before being called up in May when Benito Santiago served a four-game suspension...had his contract purchased from Portland on May 6 and made his major league debut that night vs. the Phillies...went 2-for-3 with 3 runs and an RBI, including a home run in his second ML at-bat off Curt Schilling...was the first Marlins farm product to reach the majors, as well as the third player from the 1992 draft (Jeffrey Hammonds and Rick Helling)...went on to hit safely in each of his first four games (5-for-11) with a home run, double and 4 RBI before returning to Portland on May 10...threw out Kevin Young of Pittsburgh on May 9 to retire the only runner attempting to steal during his stint with Florida...named to Baseball America and USA Today's Minor League All-Star teams, tying a Marlins organizational record with 28 homers...those 28 long balls tied for the Double A lead and tied for third in all of minor league baseball.

1993: Reported to the Marlins' inaugural Spring Training camp as a non-roster invitee before being assigned to Kane County...named to the Class A and Midwest League All-Star teams by Baseball America...led the Midwest League in total bases (230) and RBI (94) and tied for the lead in games played (135)...led all league catchers in games played, putouts (852), assists (140) and total chances (1,004)...named Organizational Player of the Month for April...tabbed as the league's top prospect by Baseball America.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman at the University of Miami, Charles was named a first team All-American by The Sporting News and second-team All-American by Collegiate Baseball in 1992...was a two-time Golden Spikes Award finalist...tied the UM freshman record with 11 homers in 1990...named to the Freshman All-America team by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball...became the ninth player in Hurricanes baseball history to have his jersey number (#23) retired as he was honored on February 10, 2002...joined coach Ron Fraser (#1), Doug Shields (#5), Mike Fiore (#12), catcher and coach Stanley "Skip" Berkman (#15), first baseman Orlando Gonzalez (#20) and pitchers Randy Guerra (#25), Neal Heaton (#26) and Stan Jakubowski (#29).

PERSONAL: Charles Edward Johnson, Jr....he and his wife, Rhonda, their two sons, Brandon and Beau, and their dog, Shaq, reside in Plantation Acres, Florida...was the starting catcher for the United States Olympic Team in Barcelona, Spain in 1992...hit .242 as the starting catcher for the United States National Team at the 1991 Pan American Games in Havana, Cuba...member of the gold-medal winning USA Junior National Team at the 1988 World Junior Championships in Australia...was a three-time all-state selection as a catcher at Ft. Pierce Westwood High School...named Gatorade Player of the Year for the State of Florida in 1989...every Saturday night at Pro Player Stadium, Charles hosted a group of 50 kids in his "CJ's Catches" program...provides transportation, t-shirts, tickets and food vouchers for a hot dog and soda to all of his "Catches"...donated $100 for every basestealer he threw out in 2001 as a part of his "Thou Shall Not Steal" program...the money went to the Florida Marlins Community Foundation's Cornerstones for Kids...is a strong supporter of the Janita McGriff Foundation, founded in memory of his 29-year old cousin who lost her life to breast cancer...the foundation purchases school supplies for needy children as well as assist families in need as they deal with cancer...distributed toys to kids at the Florida Marlins-African-American Council of Christian Clergy's "Dreams Come True" toy distribution during Christmas, 2001...also taught kids fundamentals of baseball at the Liberty City Optimist Club's Baseball Celebration....signed by Marlins scout Gary Hughes.

TODD JONES 59

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 230 B/T: S/R Age: 34 (35 on April 24)
Born: April 24, 1968 in Marietta, Ga.
Residence: Pell City, Ala.
Major League Service: 9.089
Contract: Signed through 2003

SIGNED to a free agent contract, Jan. 11, 2002...Rockies picked up his option Oct. 29, 2002.

CAREER: One of the league's top closers from 1997 to 2001, Jones flourished in his new role as the Rockies' set-up man in 2002 and will again be counted on in that capacity this season...the nine-year major league veteran has 607 games to his credit, all in relief...that total ranks 21st among active pitchers...over the past two years, Jones has made 148 appearances, including a Rockies single-season record 79 a year ago...ranks ninth among active hurlers with 184 career saves...in a five-year span from 1997-2001, only five players saved more games (Hoffman, Rivera, Nen, Shaw, Percival)...has converted 184-of-228 save opportunities (81%)...in his time in Detroit, Jones saved 142 games, the second most in Tigers history...broke Detroit's single-season club record with 42 saves during his lone all-star campaign of 2000...is the only Tiger to ever save 30 games in three different seasons...his 39 saves with Houston still ranks eighth in Astros history...entering his 15th professional season, Jones owns a 3.75 lifetime ERA at the major league level.

July with 8 straight games of shutout ball (9.0 ip) before giving up 9 runs in 2.2 innings...then worked 12 consecutive scoreless outings July 27-Aug. 24 (13.0 ip, 5 h, 2 bb, 14 k), even retiring 14 consecutive batters at one point...preserved a 1-0 lead in the eighth inning of back-to-back appearances on Aug. 9 vs. Chicago and Aug. 13 at Florida...suffered the loss in two straight games against the Giants in late August, Aug. 26th & 27th...yielded runs in only three of his 12 appearances in September but those amounted to 10 runs in 12.1 innings...made his career-high 70th appearance on Sept. 9 at Houston, then broke the club record in the season finale, Sept. 29 at Arizona.

2001: Jones combined with Detroit and Minnesota to post 13 saves, the fewest for the righthander since 1994 (5)...spent the first half of the 2001 campaign with Detroit...after giving up 3 earned runs in his first outing of the season, he settled down to go 2-1 with a 3.45 ERA (15.2 ip, 6 er) and 10 saves, from April 6 to May 23...picked up his first save of the year on April 6 at Chicago (1.0 ip, 0 h), his first of three consecutive appearances with a save...recorded career strikeout No. 500 on April 25 vs. Baltimore...on July 28, Todd was traded to Minnesota in exchange for pitcher Mark Redman...gave up just one earned run in his first 10 outings with the Twins (8.0 ip), Aug. 1-21...won his only decision with Minnesota, Aug. 3 vs. Kansas City...had a 2.08 ERA (13.0 ip, 3 er) during the month of August...posted both of his saves with the Twins in August (Aug. 18, Aug. 31)...stranded 16 of 29 (55%) inherited runners and first-batters-faced were 20-for-63 (.317) with 9 strikeouts.

2000: Saved a career-high 42 games, establishing a new Tigers single-season club record...broke the 27-year old mark held by John Hiller (38 in 1973)...became the only Tiger ever to post three 30-plus save seasons...the 42 saves tied for first in the American League (Derek Lowe), earning Todd the first Rolaids Relief Man Award in Tigers history...was named to his first career All-Star team...finished 60 games, fourth best in the AL...recorded the first save in Comerica Park history, April 11 vs. Seattle...saved all 10 opportunities in May with a 2.00 ERA in being named Tigers Pitcher of the Month...from May 2-21, did not allow an earned run in nine straight appearances (7.0 ip)...earned a save in six consecutive appearances, May 12-24...allowed just two runs all month, both in the same game, May 24 vs. Cleveland...those pair of runs would be the only ones allowed by Jones from May 2 to July 29, a span of 29.2 innings and 31 games...was also named Tigers Pitcher of the Month in June, posting a 0.00 ERA with 7 saves in 10 games...gave up just 5 hits in 10.1 ip in June...posted a season-high 4 strikeouts, July 8 at Milwaukee...played in the All-Star game July 11 at Atlanta...pitched one inning in the Mid-Summer Classic, retiring all three batters...recorded 9 saves in 12 appearances in July en route to being named pitcher of the month for the third consecutive month...was solid again in August, earning 7 saves while giving up just 3 earned runs in 13.1 innings (2.03 ERA)...on August 23, Todd earned his 125th save as a Tiger, tying him with John Hiller for second place on the club's all-time saves list...passed Hiller on Sept. 1 at Texas...posted his 39th save on Sept. 17 vs. Boston, setting the new team record...earned his 42nd and final save, Sept. 29 vs. Minnesota.

1999: Jones' 30 saves ranked eighth in the AL...joined Guillermo Hernandez and Mike Henneman as the only Tigers with 20-or-more saves in three seasons...joined Hernandez as the only Tiger ever to post two 30-plus save seasons....finished fourth in the league in games finished (62)...was 30-for-35 in save opportunities, a .857 success rate, seventh best in the league...ranked sixth in the circuit with 80 Rolaids relief points...opponents batted just .186 (13-for-70) with RISP, 10th best among AL relievers...recorded his 100th career save on April 22 vs. Boston...on Sept. 27, Jones struck out Carlos Beltran for the final out at Tiger Stadium, also earning him his 30th save...converted 20 of his last 22 save opportunities...collected a season-high 9 saves in September/October.

1998: Saved 88% of his opportunities (28-of-32), eighth in the AL... was 10th in the Rolaids relief standings with 70 points...first batters hit just .117 (7-for-60) against Todd, the best mark in the AL and third in the majors...his 4.97 ERA was the highest of his career...began the season with seven straight scoreless outings (7.0 ip)...posted a season-high 3 strikeouts twice, both against the Red Sox (July 17 vs. Boston & Sept. 13 at Boston).

1997: In his first season as a Tiger, Todd set a then-career high with 31 saves, which tied him for fourth in the AL...10 of his saves came in one-run games...his .861 save percentage was fifth best in the league...earned his first American League save on April 5 at Chicago...was named Rolaids Reliever of the Month for July (1-0, 1.29 ERA, 10 saves)...named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for September, where he was 3-1 with a 2.84 ERA (12.2 ip, 4 er) and 7 saves in 11 appearances.

1996: Jones became the Astros closer out of spring training and went on to save a team-high 17 games, despite missing the later portion of the season on the disabled list...was 6-1 with 16 saves at the All-Star break but would only throw 15.1 innings in the second half of the season...went on the DL with right shoulder tendinitis on July 19 and was activated on Aug. 12...then was on the DL again from Aug. 18-Sept. 12 with the same ailment...pitched for one game with Tucson on a rehab assignment...was traded to the Tigers following the season on Dec. 10.

1995: Set career highs in wins (6), games (68), innings (99.2) and strikeouts (96)...his innings and strikeouts ranked second among NL relievers...inherited the closer role when John Hudek was injured on June 23...had a season high 5 strikeouts that day vs. Chicago...returned to setup duty after Houston acquired Mike Henneman on Aug. 10...had a 14.2 scoreless innings streak from Aug. 30 to Sept. 26.

1994: Posted a career high 2.72 ERA in his first full season in the majors...tied for third among NL relievers with 72.2 innings...had a career high five-game win streak, June 11 to Aug. 3.

1993: Began season at Tucson (AAA)...had a 19.2 scoreless-inning-streak, June 3-July 2 . . . recalled July 7 and made major league debut, July 7 vs. Pittsburgh...recorded first major league save, August 18 vs. Florida...earned first major league victory, Sept. 7 vs. New York ...from July 7-Aug. 18, was 0-0 with a 0.74 ERA (24.1 ip, 2 er)...rated Houston's Best Prospect by Baseball America.

1992: Began season at Jackson...led the league in games (61) and was second in saves (25) and games finished (48)...selected to Texas League post-season All-Star team...recorded his first professional save, April 16 at Shreveport...promoted to Tucson, September 1 and made three appearances at AAA to close out the season.

1991: Began season at Osceola...was promoted to Jackson, July 9.

1990: Tied for club lead in wins (12), starts (27) and innings pitched (151.1) with Osceola.

1989: Began his pro career with Auburn, where he averaged 12.87 strikeouts per nine IP (71 K's, 49.2 ip).

COLLEGE: Todd attended Jacksonville State (AL) University...was rated as one of the top five power pitchers in the 1989 draft by Baseball America.

PERSONAL: Todd Barton Jones...he and his wife Michelle have a son Alexander (10/7/94) and daughter Abigail (5/22/97)...is a 1986 graduate of Osborne (GA) High School where he played baseball and basketball...designates time and effort in support of DARE and the Boys and Girls Clubs...in 2002, Todd wrote a weekly column for The Sporting News called "The Closer"...signed by Houston scout Jug Deford...was the first round (27th overall) supplemental pick in by the Astros in 1989 as compensation for Type A free agent, Nolan Ryan.

GABE KAPLER 19

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 208 B/T: R/R Age: 27 (28 on July 31)
Born: July 31, 1975 in Hollywood, Calif.
Residence: Tarzana, Calif.
Major League Service: 4.009
Contract: Signed through 2003

ACQUIRED from Texas along with OF Jason Romano for OF Todd Hollandsworth and LHP Dennys Reyes, July 31, 2002.

CAREER: Kapler enters his ninth season as a professional, his fifth in the majors...after joining the Rockies last July, Gabe hit .311 in 40 games...has accumulated a 74% stolen base efficiency rate for his career (55/74)...owns the longest hitting streak in Rangers history, 28 games from July 17-Aug. 15, 2000...in 1998, he was the consensus Minor League Player of the Year with Lakeland.

2002: After being acquired from the Texas Rangers at the trade deadline, Kapler saw action in 40 of the Rockies final 55 contests, batting .311 (37-for-119) with 4 doubles, 3 triples, 2 homers and 17 RBI...with both clubs, he hit a combined .279 (88-for-315) with 16 doubles, 4 triples, 2 homers and 34 RBI in 112 total games...combined for a career best 10 outfield assists (7 with Texas, 3 with Colorado)...tied his career high with 4 triples (1999), 3 of which came with the Rockies...had 19 multi-hit games, including two 4-hit tilts, two 3-hit contests and 15 2-hit games...belted his first home run of the year on Aug. 25 vs. the Mets, the first bomb in his last 92 contests, 255 at-bats...his last homer prior to the Aug. 25th shot came Sept. 30, 2001 at Anaheim...started the season off by hitting safely in six of his first seven with Texas (.375, 9-for-24)...slowed after the hot start, batting .233 (10-for-43) the rest of the month...the slump continued into the beginning of May, when Kapler hit only .111 (3-for-27) in his first 11 tilts...snapped out of it by hitting safely in a season high eight games from May 14-22 (.400, 12-for-30)...recorded a career high 4 hits on May 15 vs. the White Sox and Sept. 8 vs. San Diego...placed on the 15-day disabled list June 24 with tendinitis in his left wrist...activated from the DL July 16 and would bat .240 (6-for-25) in his final 13 games as a Ranger before the trade...following the deal, he hit safely in seven of his first eight games and eventually 24 of his 40 Rockie contests...re-energized by his new surroundings, Kapler batted .347 (17-for-49) in August, the third highest monthly average of his career (.381 in April of 2001 and .395 in Sept. of 2000)...at the end of the month he had raised his season clip from .260 to .278...in the field, Kapler finished with a .985 fielding percentage, converting 191 of his 194 chances accepted...after committing two errors on May 6 against the White Sox, Kapler would play error free ball over his last 87 games...overall, he made 46 appearances in leftfield, 24 in center and 41 in right...just with Colorado, Gabe saw action in 15 games in left, one in center and 23 in rightfield...made his debut at first base for the Rangers July 30 vs. the Yankees.

2001: Set career highs for games (134), at bats (483), runs (77), RBI (72), walks (61), and steals (23)...led the Rangers in stolen bases, as he was successful on 23 of 29 attempts (79.3%), including 17 of last 21...had just one error in 344 total chances, a .997 fielding percentage, second in the AL...did not have an error in first 97 games before lone miscue on Aug. 17 at Toronto, then finished the season with 35 errorless contests...had a .383 (36-94) average in day games, second best among AL qualifiers...opened the season on the disabled list with a torn right quadriceps muscle, sustained while running to first base on March 22 vs. Philadelphia...sent to Tulsa on rehab assignment April 17...activated on April 22...batted .388 (19-49) with 9 RBI in first 13 games, including a 10-game hit streak, April 27-May 8 (16-for-38, .421)...belted his first career grand slam to kick off the streak, April 27 at Cleveland...batting .333 on May 30, Gabe hit just .126 (11-87) over the next 23 games, dropping to .244 on June 27...hitless in final 22 at bats of that span...came back to bat .331 (44-133) in his final 35 games...had 10 homers in his first 50 games, then went 35 contests without an HR before going yard on Aug. 2 at New York...matched his career high with 4 RBI on Aug. 2 at Yankee Stadium...stole 3 bases on Aug. 4 at Boston...posted his third career multi-homer game Sept. 26 vs. Seattle...batted leadoff for the first time in his career, Oct. 2 at Oakland.

2000: Started 82 games in center and 33 in right in his first season with the Rangers...his .302 average would have been the highest on the team but due to injuries, finished 11 plate appearances shy of qualifying at 491...ranked second on the club in doubles (32)...tied for second among AL outfielders with 4 double plays...tied Cleveland's Kenny Lofton for the league lead in outfield errors (10)...became the first player in club history to ever homer in his first two at bats as a Ranger with consecutive clouts on Opening Day, April 3 vs. Chicago...tore his right quadriceps muscle May 2 at Tampa Bay and was placed on disabled list two days later...activated on June 9 and hit .328 (116-354) the rest of the season...from July 17 to Aug. 15, Gabe posted a 28-game hitting streak, the longest streak in club history and longest in the majors in 2000...hit .375 (42-112) with 6 HR and 21 RBI over the stretch to raise his average from .241 to .289...during that streak, he had three 3-hit games, eight 2-hitters, and one hit on 17 occasions...also extended the streak with a hit in his final at bat three times....homered in four straight games, July 24-27 to tie the club record (sixth time)...named the AL Player of the Week, July 24-30...had an extra base hit in seven consecutive games, July 24-30, one shy of the club record...bothered by a sore left shoulder late in the season and did not play after Sept. 23 due to a slap lesion in the shoulder, missing the final seven contests.

1999: Finished third among A.L. rookies in home runs (18) and ninth in RBI (49)...began the season with Detroit but was optioned to Toledo on April 13 after batting .167 (1-6) in six games...hit .315 in 14 games with the Mud Hens before being recalled on April 28...hit his first major league homer in his first game after rejoining the club, April 30 at Tampa Bay off Albie Lopez...posted first 2-homer game, June 14 vs. Seattle...hit .301 (66-219) with 12 homers at Tiger Stadium but .183 (36-197) on the road.

1998: Named the Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today Baseball Weekly, The Sporting News and USA Today while playing for Jacksonville...was the Southern League MVP, leading the league in homers (28), RBI (146), hits (176), doubles (47), runs (113), extra-base hits (81) and total bases (319)...led all minor leaguers and set an all-time Southern League record in RBI...tied the league mark in doubles...finished sixth in batting average (.322), just missing the Triple Crown...named the Tigers' Minor League Player of the Year and was named Detroit's top prospect by Baseball America....played in both the Double A and Southern League all-star games...earned MVP honors in the SL All-Star game...named to the SL's post-season all-star squad...recalled by the Tigers Sept. 19...since the beginning of the MLB draft in 1969, no Tiger had been drafted and signed as late as the 57th round and played in the majors...made major league debut on Sept. 20 vs. Minnesota, earning first big league hit, a single, off Benji Sampson.

1997: Led the Florida State League in doubles (40) and total bases (262), tied for first in extra base hits (65), ranked second in games (137), third in hits (153), tied for third in home runs (19) and RBI (87), was fourth in slugging (.505) and tied for fourth in runs (87) at Lakeland...named to both the mid-season and post-season FSL all-star teams...drove in 6 runs vs. Kissimmee on May 6...went 5-5 at Sarasota on Aug. 23...played in the Hawaiian Winter League for Honolulu, helping the Sharks to the league title.

1996: Named to the South Atlantic League All-Star team at Fayetteville...led the league in hits (157), doubles (45) and extra-base hits (71), was second in homers (26), RBI (99) and slugging (.534) and placed fifth in batting (.300)...played for West Oahu in the Hawaiian Winter League.

1995: Opened his pro career with Jamestown in 1995, finishing second in the New York-Penn League with 19 doubles...tied for first on the team in RBI (34), was second in batting average (.288) and runs (38) and was third in hits (68).

COLLEGE: Played the 1995 season at Moorpark (CA) Community College and was named first team all-Western Conference...led Moorpark with 52 RBI, 19 doubles and 56 hits and tied for first in homers (7) while batting .337...attended Cal-State Fullerton in 1994 before transferring.

PERSONAL: Gabriel Stefan Kapler...Gabe and his wife, Lisa, were married on Jan. 17, 1999, and have two sons, Chase Ty (10/8/99) and Dane Rio (11/3/01)...graduated in 1993 from Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif., where he played baseball...was the recipient of the 2000 Harold McKinney Good Guy Award from the Dallas-Fort Worth BBWAA...with both the Tigers and Rangers, purchased 50 tickets to each Sunday home game for use by youth groups...is an avid weightlifter and promoter of physical fitness and has appeared on the covers of several bodybuilding magazines...modeled for Rangers 2000 and 2001 merchandise catalogs...had a weekly radio show on KTCK Radio in Dallas.

2001: Neagle finished second to Mike Hampton on the Rockies for wins (9), starts (30), innings pitched (170.2) and led the club in strikeouts (139)...averaged 7.3 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched, his best strikeout to inning ratio since 1994 when he posted 8.0 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...the 139 K's were the fifth most in franchise history...consistent all season, Neagle worked at least 5.0 innings in 27 of his 30 starting assignments and allowed three or fewer earned runs in 19 of his 30 starts...was also solid with the bat, hitting at a .196 clip with a pair of homers including the only grand slam by a major league pitcher during the 2001 season...Rockies were 16-14 in the 30 games that Neagle started...was very effective at Coors Field going 6-2 in 15 home starts with a 5.70 ERA (79.0 ip, 50 er)...won his first four decisions at Coors Field but the team was even better as the Rockies were 8-0 in Denny's first eight starts at home...for the season the club wound up 11-4 when Neagle started at Coors...after not walking a batter in 24.0 spring innings, Neagle made his Colorado debut on April 4 at Coors Field vs. St. Louis, allowing 3 earned runs in 5.0 ip in getting the win...at Qualcomm Stadium on April 19, Denny combined with three relief pitchers to blank the Padres 4-0...it was Neagle's second win of 2001 and the 100th of his National League career...also picked up his first hit as a Rockie in the game, a fifth inning double...the win April 19 in San Diego was not only a milestone for Denny, but with Hampton and Kane Davis combining on a shutout the previous day, it gave the Rockies consecutive shutouts for the first time in club history...ran his record to 4-2 with consecutive start victories May 11 vs. Montreal and then May 17 vs. his former club, the Braves, at Turner Field...won his fifth start in seven decisions, June 8 over St. Louis, but strained his right hamstring scoring a run in the bottom of the fifth inning and was forced to the sidelines...went on the disabled list the next day where he remained through June 23...came off the DL June 24 to defeat Arizona for his sixth win on the season and improved his home mark to a perfect 4-0...lost his first four decisions after the break, the longest losing streak of his career...allowed a then-career high 9 runs in 5.1 innings vs. the Dodgers on July 21...snapped his four game losing streak with an 8-3 victory over the Marlins at Coors Field August 18 (7.0 ip, 2 er)...on Sept. 29 vs. the Brewers, Neagle became the first Rockies hurler to belt a grand slam...the fourth inning blast off Milwaukee's Jimmy Haynes traveled 392 feet to the Rockies bullpen in rightfield, and gave Colorado a 13-6 lead...it was Neagle's second career slam, his first since 1995.

2000: Neagle won 10 of his 12 decisions for the Reds, then went to the Yankees in a July 12 deal and earned his first World Series ring...combined with Cincinnati and New York, Denny went 15-9 with a 4.52 ERA (209.0 ip, 105 er), with 81 walks and 146 strikeouts in 34 games, 33 starts...at the time of his trade, the lefty was tied for fourth in the NL with an .800 winning percentage (8-2) and ninth in ERA (3.52)...went 7-7 with a 5.81 ERA in 16 games, 15 starts, for the AL East Champions...won a career-high 11 consecutive decisions from Aug. 30, 1999 to June 3, 2000...won his last six 1999 decisions, and his first five in 2000, all five at Cinergy Field...during the 20 appearances (19 starts) over the streak, he compiled a 2.93 ERA (95.1 ip, 31 er)...on April 20 at Cinergy, he embarked on a scoreless streak that would reach 21.0 innings, second best in his career to a 26.2 scoreless streak in 1997...the stretch ended May 7 vs. St. Louis on Shawon Dunston's fourth-inning fielder's choice...got his 1,000th career strikeout, April 4 vs. Milwaukee...won in his New York debut, July 18 vs. the Phillies...posted his 100th career win on July 23 vs. Tampa Bay, a 4-hit complete game (1 run)...on Sept. 7 at Kansas City, he did not allow a walk over 8.0 innings...it marked his longest effort without a walk since June 16, 1998 vs. Florida...on Sept. 17 vs. Cleveland, the Indians handed Denny his first September loss since Sept. 28, 1997...the September winning streak covered 11 consecutive starts...over the last 15 years, only Randy Johnson owns a longer September streak, 19 straight decisions from 1993-99, the modern record...in the Oct. 1 finale at Baltimore, he made his first relief appearance since Oct. 4, 1999, his third since 1993. Postseason: Denny with the Yankees made his second career World Series appearance...in the Fall Classic vs. the Mets, he pitched in one game, a Game 4 start at Shea in a no decision (4.2 ip, 2 h, 2 r, 2 er, 2 BB, 3 K)...in the championship series vs. the Mariners, he started Games 1 and 5...in Game 1 at Yankee Stadium, he allowed only 2 runs and 3 hits, including an Alex Rodriguez homer in a 2-0 loss...in Game 5, he left after 4.2 innings leading 2-1, but 2 more runs were charged to him in a 6-2 loss...it marked his 10th career championship series game...for the fourth time in his career, Neagle did not pitch in his club's division series.

1999: In his first season with the Reds, Denny went 9-5 with a 4.27 ERA in 20 games, 19 starts...over his last seven starts, he was 6-0 with a 2.20 ERA (49.0 ip, 12 er)...in September, Neagle was named NL Pitcher of the Month for the first time in his career (5-0, 2.00 ERA)...began the season on the DL with a strained left quad and left shoulder weakness...made his Reds debut April 21 vs. the Mets...returned to the DL May 20 with left shoulder tendinitis...after one Triple A rehab start, the Reds activated him July 30...over his final 13 starts after the second stint on the DL, he was 9-2 with a 3.11 ERA (84.0 ip, 29 er). Postseason: Neagle made his only relief appearance in the one-game playoff vs. the Mets (2.1 ip, 2 h, 1 r, 1 er, 3 BB, 2 K).

1998: The lefty was 16-11 with a 3.55 ERA, 5 CG, and 2 shutouts for the NL East Champion...helped Atlanta become the second team ever with five 16-game winners (Glavine 20, Maddux 18, Smoltz 17, Millwood 17), joining the 1902 Pirates...on Sept. 26 vs. the Mets, he made his first relief appearance in five years and recorded his first relief win since Aug. 25, 1993...in eight of his 11 losses, his club scored two or less. Postseason: He did not pitch in the NLDS sweep of the Cubs...in the NLCS, he earned Atlanta's first win in the series, 8-3, in Game 4.

1997: Set career highs with 20 wins, a 2.97 ERA, 34 starts, 4 shutouts, 233.1 innings and 172 strikeouts...Neagle, whose 20 wins led the league, finished third in the NL Cy Young voting and earned Braves MVP honors by the Atlanta BBWAA...he also made his second trip to the all-star game...ranked among NL leaders with an .800 winning pct. (second), 4 shutouts (tied, second) and 1.9 BB/9 IP (third)...from July 28-Aug. 12, he built a career-long 26.2 scoreless innings streak. Postseason: Neagle fired 12.0 scoreless innings in two NLCS games...in Game 4 at Florida, he tossed a 4-hit shutout (1 BB, 7 K).

1996: After Steve Avery went on the DL, the Braves dealt for Neagle Aug. 28...he was 14-6 with a 3.05 ERA with the Pirates prior to the trade. Postseason: In Game 2 of the NLCS, he threw 1.0 scoreless inning of relief...in his Game 4 start, he got a no decision (6.2 ip, 2 h, 2 er)...in Game 1 of the World Series, he pitched another 1.0 scoreless inning in relief...got the start in Game 4 of the Fall Classic, a no decision (5 ip, 5 h, 3 r, 2 er).

1995: The first-time all-star tied for the NL lead with 31 starts and 209.2 ip...registered the NL's third-best walks-per-nine innings ratio (1.9)...on June 23 vs. Montreal, he hurled a 2-hitter for his first major league shutout...on June 27 at Chicago, he hit a grand slam off Jim Bullinger, his second career HR.

1994: Was 9-10 on the year with 2 complete games with the Pirates...on April 6 at Candlestick, he no-hit the Giants over the first 5.0 ip, but sustained a 4-2 loss...on June 8 vs. the Giants, he turned in his first complete game...on May 22 vs. Montreal, he singled off Pedro Martinez for his first big-league hit...belted his first home run off Willie Banks on July 25 vs. the Cubs.

1993: Opened the year in relief and made seven appearances before his first start, June 3 at San Francisco...notched wins in each of his first two starts...optioned to Buffalo July 26, he spent a week at Triple-A before Pittsburgh recalled him Aug. 3...the next day at Wrigley, he earned his season's only save.

1992: Obtained by the Pirates March 17, he pitched two relief games, then made his first start on April 21 at Montreal...earned his first major league win on May 2 at Houston...on June 9 at the Vet, he picked up his first big-league save. Postseason: In the NLCS vs. Atlanta, he appeared twice, both in relief.

1991: Made his major league debut as a starter on July 27 vs. Milwaukee...left after Candy Maldonado's fourth-inning line drive shot off his elbow...went on the disabled list July 31-Aug. 12...pitched his first career relief game Aug. 13...recalled again by the Twins Sept. 7.

GREG NORTON 14

★ INFIELDER / OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 B/T: S/R Age: 30 (31 on July 6)
Born: July 6, 1972 in San Leandro, Calif.
Residence: Denver, Colo.
Major League Service: 5.065
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED to a free agent contract, Jan. 5, 2001...re-signed to a one-year deal, Nov. 16, 2001...re-signed to a one-year non-guaranteed contract, Dec. 13, 2002.

CAREER: Since joining the Rockies prior to the 2001 season, no major league player has driven in more runs in the pinch than Greg Norton (24)...over the last two years, only Lenny Harris (43) has more pinch hits than Norton's 32...owns a .214 (36-for-168) career average as a pinch hitter, .248 (32-for-129) with 5 homers as a Rockie...his 32 pinch hits with Colorado rank as the third most in franchise history behind only John Vander Wal (79) and Terry Shumpert (45)...the switch-hitter is batting .253 (294-for-1162) from the left side of the plate, as opposed to a .214 (48-for-224) mark from the right...has hit 49 of his 53 career home runs and driven in 174 of his 195 career RBI as a left-hander...entering his 11th season and sixth in the majors, Norton has played every infield position and even outfield but is most comfortable at first or third base.

2002: The Rockies' main threat off the bench, Norton played in 113 games for Colorado, batting .220 (37-for-168) with 7 homers and 37 RBI...led the team in pinch hits (15), PH at-bats (66), pinch homers (2) and pinch RBI (13)...his pinch RBI tied for the ML lead, his hits were the third most and his AB's were the second most in the big leagues...was under .200 much of the year but hit at a .273 clip (21-for-77) with 2 HR and 17 RBI over the final three months...tied for the NL lead with a pair of grand slams...hit his first career grand slam on May 13 vs. Florida as a pinch hitter off Gary Knotts...it was his fourth career pinch-hit homer and just the sixth PH grand slam in club history...the last Rockie to accomplish the feat was Jeff Reed on Aug. 16, 1998 vs. Philadelphia...hit his second PH clout of the year and fifth of his career on May 24 vs. San Francisco...then, belted his second career grand slam just about a week later, May 30 at San Diego...the slam came off Bobby Jones in the first inning, the only runs for the Rox in a 4-2 win...batted .364 with the bases loaded (4-for-11)...had 19 RBI with the bases juiced, tying Todd Helton for fourth in the NL...injured his groin while running out a grounder on June 29 at Seattle...placed on the disabled list July 1 with a strained right hamstring...played in three games on a rehab assignment at Colorado Springs (1-for-12) before being activated July 18...hit a PH single in his first game back that night at Arizona...drove in the go-ahead run as a pinch hitter on three separate occasions in the second half...in Pittsburgh July 31, he put Colorado ahead 6-4 in the sixth with a two-out, bases loaded single...on August 19 at Atlanta, he gave the squad a 6-5 lead with a two-out double in the ninth off John Smoltz that scored Juan Uribe...it was only the sixth time Smoltz had been scored on in his previous 35 appearances...on Sept. 13 vs. Los Angeles, Greg forced home the game-winning run in the seventh inning when he drew a bases loaded walk...in the field, he played defense in 40 games at four different positions: 22 at 3B, 15 at 1B, two in LF and one at SS...was the club's primary choice to spell both Helton at first base and Todd Zeile at third base, starting five and 20 games at the corner positions respectively...took 58 chances (55 PO, 3 A) at 1B without committing an error...made five errors at third base...also saw time in left field, making two starts...in spring training, Norton set a Rockies spring record with a .489 batting average (22-for-45).

2001: Appeared in 117 games for Colorado and finished with a career high .267 average (60-for-225)...set a club record for most homers by a switch hitter (13)...had 17 pinch hits on the year, ranking him third in the NL...trailed only Lenny Harris (21) of the New York Mets and Arizona's David Dellucci (18)...had 11 RBI as a pinch hitter, tied for fourth most in the NL...notched the first three pinch hit home runs of his career, as he was the only Rockie to have more than one PH homer in 2001...his first career pinch homer came in the eighth inning on June 8 vs. St. Louis, a two run homer in a 9-1 Rockie win...belted his second HR in the pinch, July 7 vs. Anaheim, a leadoff clout in the eighth inning...the third of his pinch hit homers came on August 5 vs. Pittsburgh, a solo shot on a 2-0 count to right...played outfield for the first time in his career on April 8 vs. San Diego as a defensive replacement in leftfield...on April 15, Greg posted his first NL homer off Curt Schilling in his first outfield start...tied his career high with 4 RBI on May 3 at Philadelphia...made 14 consecutive starts (April 27-May 12) at third when Jeff Cirillo went on the DL with left rib cage spasms...recorded his first career outfield assist on May 23 at Los Angeles, gunning down Alex Cora at third...had a pair of 3-hit games at the end of the year, Sept. 9 vs. SF and Oct. 2 at Arizona, tying his career high...made starts at four different positions ...had 24 appearances, 20 starts, at third base...as a left fielder, he made 13 starts, but appeared in 22 games...filled in at first base on 13 occasions, with five starts...batted .391 (9-for-23) with a pair of homers and 3 RBI while at first...made consecutive starts at first base in Texas on July 13 and 14...Greg made four appearances, one start, in RF...his only start in RF came on June 29 vs. Arizona.

2000: Completed his fifth major league season, and final year with the White Sox, the 2000 AL Central Division Champions...batted .244 with 6 homers and 28 RBI in 71 games...made 56 starts, 45 at third base, 10 at first and one as the designated hitter...in April, he batted .333 (20-for-60), tied for third on the club behind Frank Thomas and Josh Paul...on April 18 in an 18-11 win vs. Seattle, Greg tied his career best with 4 RBI...had a season-best 3 hits on two occasions: the April 18 game vs. Seattle, April 28 at Comerica Park and May 17 at Yankee Stadium (all 3-for-4 efforts)...compiled an eight-game hitting streak, the longest of his career, April 23-May 1 (12-for-26, .462)...on April 24 vs. Baltimore homered from the right side, his first such homer since May 18, 1998 vs. Seattle...dating back to June 20, 1998, his previous 24 homers came from the left side of the plate...after suffering a left ankle sprain May 23 vs. the Yankees, he missed the next six games through May 29...after Game 1 of an Aug. 8th doubleheader with Seattle, the White Sox optioned him to Charlotte (AAA)...in his first minor league action in three years, he batted .289 with 5 homers and 17 RBI in 29 games...Chicago recalled him from Charlotte Sept. 5...Norton got a start the next day, Sept. 6 vs. Texas, and homered and drove in 3 runs in Chicago's 13-1 win...in spring training, his .461 average ranked third in White Sox exhibition history. Postseason: Did not see action in the division series vs. Seattle.

1999: Enjoyed the best season of his career, setting lifetime highs in most offensive categories...from the left side of the plate, he batted .265 (96-for-362) and .203 (15-for-74) right-handed...hit all 16 homers and 47 of his 50 RBI left-handed...earned AL Player of the Week honors for May 24-30 (.423, 11-for-26, 5 HR, 8 RBI and a league-leading 29 total bases)...all 5 homers came during a series at Tiger Stadium, May 27-30...his .361 September average was a career high for any month...was 27-for-80 (.338) in his final 23 games.

1998: In his first full season with the Sox, made his first Opening Day roster, shaking off spring training chicken pox...he played mostly first base (79 games), and also made his ML debut at second...batted .297 at home and .164 on the road, and hit .238 left-handed, compared to .231 right-handed...Chicago was 45-27 (.625) in his 72 starts.

1997: Greg made two round-trips between Nashville (AAA) and the White Sox...in 18 major league games, he made six starts, all at third base...made 33 appearances left-handed and one right-handed...at Triple-A, he paced the American Association in slugging (.534) and finished third in home runs (26).

1996: Recalled from Nashville (AAA) Aug. 17, he made his major league debut the next day at Milwaukee...scored a run as a pinch runner for Harold Baines...registered hits in each of his first two ML plate appearances, Aug. 19 at Detroit...hit his first ML homer, Sept. 14 at Boston off Mike Maddux.

1995: At Birmingham (AA), he led Southern League third basemen in fielding (.938)...earned his club's MVP honors in the Arizona Fall League.

1994: With South Bend (A), Norton turned in an 18-game hitting streak, July 22-Aug. 11.

1993: Norton made his pro debut at rookie-level Sarasota, before a promotion to Hickory (A).

COLLEGE: A second-team All-Big Eight selection, he led the University of Oklahoma with a .370 average in 1993...Greg also hit 5 homers and drove in 60 runs in 55 games that season before the White Sox drafted him.

PERSONAL: Gregory Blakemoor Norton...he and his wife, Jaena, were recently married on Feb. 1 , 2003...is a graduate of Bishop O'Dowd High School in Oakland, Calif....in 1992, he was an all-star in the Cape Cod League...signed by White Sox scouts Doug Laumann and Dave Owen...in December of 2001, Greg was one of three Rockies to dance in the annual "Rockies Night at the Nutcracker," ballet production.

PABLO OZUNA 1

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 186 B/T: R/R Age: 28 (29 on Aug. 25)
Born: Aug. 25, 1974 in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Residence: Boca Chica, Dominican Republic
Major League Service: 1.117
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Florida, along with C Charles Johnson, OF Preston Wilson and LHP Vic Darensbourg, in exchange for LHP Mike Hampton, OF Juan Pierre and cash considerations, Nov. 18, 2002.

CAREER: Acquired from the Marlins this offseason, Ozuna will compete for a starting spot at second base…enters his seventh year as a professional, a career that's included an MVP season in the Midwest League in 1998…was also named to Baseball America's first team Minor League All-Star Team in '98 and was a key player in a trade that sent Edgar Renteria to St. Louis…sat out all of 2001 after undergoing left wrist surgery…is a career .324 (743-for-2292) hitter at the minor league level with 185 stolen bases…has played in 48 major league games heading into this year, batting .296 with 5 extra-base hits.

2002: Ozuna had four stints with the Marlins in 2002, April 2-8, May 17-27, June 15-July 11 and September 1 through the rest of the season…in 34 contests with Florida, Pablo batted .277 (19-for-47) with 2 doubles, 2 triples and 3 RBI…played 10 games at second base, including six starts, and one game in the outfield…batted .389 (7-for-19) as a pinch hitter with 2 RBI…his 7 pinch hits ranked second on the team to only Tim Raines' 14…spent most of his season with AAA-Calgary, batting .326 (85-for-261) with 16 doubles, 7 homers and 33 RBI…made Florida's Opening Day roster as a replacement for the injured Charles Johnson…played in just one game, April 5 at Philadelphia, going 1-for-1 with a single before being optioned to AAA-Calgary on April 8…remained with the Cannons until being recalled May 17…played in three games as a pinch hitter before again being sent down to Triple A on May 27…recalled for a third time to replace an injured Oswaldo Mairena on June 15…spent almost a month at the big league level and went 3-for-8 (.375) with a run scored and 2 RBI in 13 games…played centerfield for the first time in his ML career on July 1 vs. Chicago…connected on a 2-run pinch-hit triple July 4 vs. the Mets, his first career triple and RBI…optioned to Triple A July 11…rejoined the Marlins when the rosters expanded on Sept. 1 and spent the last four weeks of the season in the majors…hit .257 (9-for-35) over his final 17 games…went 2-for-5 on Sept. 11 at Philadelphia, his third career multi-hit game, but first since Sept. 30, 2000.

2001: Missed the entire season after having left wrist surgery on April 30…was diagnosed with a TFCC tear (tendon/cartilage complex in the wrist) and buildup of scar tissue in the left wrist…surgery was performed by Dr. Brian Fingado at Holy Cross Hospital in Ft. Lauderdale….played for Estrellas in the Dominican League during the offseason and hit .301 with 2 homers and 12 RBI in 32 games.

2000: Called up by the Marlins twice during his 2000 season…first recalled from AA-Portland on April 22 to replace an injured Luis Castillo…recalled again Sept. 5 and remained with the club the rest of the year…in his first major league action, he batted .333 (8-for-24) with a double, stolen base and 2 runs scored in 14 games…made his ML debut on April 23 vs. the Phillies…started at second base and went 1-for-4, recording his first career hit off Robert Person (infield single)…posted his first multi-hit game off Kevin Brown and the Dodgers on April 30…also stole his first base in that contest…concluded his season by going 3-for-4 with his first run and double on Sept. 30 vs. Philadelphia…for Portland, he was named to the Eastern League's Postseason All-Star Team… finished second on the squad and seventh in the league with a .308 batting average and his 35 stolen bases ranked fifth…rated the No. 62 prospect in baseball and the Marlins' No. 9 prospect by Baseball America.

1999: Spent the entire year with Portland (AA), appearing 117 games…had five multi-hit contests in a row May 5-9, hitting .545 (12-for-22) with 3 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI…. had two 14-game hit streaks, June 18-July 2 (.406, 24-for-59) and August 9-24 (.338, 22-for-65).

1998: A first team shortstop on Baseball America's 1998 Minor League All-Star team, Ozuna was named the Midwest League's MVP and St. Louis' Organizational Player of the Year…was a Midwest League mid-season and postseason all-star and tabbed as the league's best hitting prospect by Baseball America…won the league batting title with a .357 average and led the circuit in runs (122) and hits (192)…his average ranked second among all Class A players and his runs tied for second…on the league leaderboard, he was second in total bases (266), tied for second in triples (10), seventh in stolen bases (62), tied for third in slugging (.494) and fourth in on-base percentage (.400)…was the Topps Minor League Player of the Month in May, batting .392 (47-for-120)…broke a single-game stolen base record for Peoria with 5 on July 1 vs. Wisconsin…was successful on all five tries, including a game-tying steal of home in the seventh inning...became the first Chiefs player to record two 5-hit games, July 16 at Clinton and July 20 vs. Fort Wayne.

1997: Named to the Appalachian League All-Star Team, Pablo hit .323 with 5 homers and 24 RBI in 56 games for Johnson City.

1996: Played his first season of professional ball with the Dominican Summer League Cardinals.

PERSONAL: Pablo Jose Ozuna...he and his wife, Lorena, have a son, Estalin (7/23/96)...was scouted and signed by Roberto Diaz of the Cardinals.

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 185 B/T: R/R Age: 30
Born: Nov. 22, 1972 in Zanesville, Ohio
Residence: Zanesville, Ohio
Major League Service: 3.128
Contract: Signed through 2003

ACQUIRED from New York Mets along with RHP Mark Corey and OF Robert Stratton in exchange for OF Mark Little and RHP John Thomson, July 31, 2002.

CAREER: Payton looks to open the 2003 campaign just as he finished 2002, as one of the hottest hitters in baseball...the former Georgia Tech star hit .338 (77-for-228) after the All-Star Break last summer, including a .335 mark with Colorado (57-for-170)...primarily a centerfielder, Payton made 25 of his 41 starts for the Rox in leftfield and enters spring training as the projected starter at that position...owns a .494 (43-for-87) lifetime average at Coors Field, tops among all players with at least 80 at-bats in the ballpark...now in his 10th pro season, Jay's career has included two league MVP campaigns–Eastern League in 1995 and NY-Penn League in 1994.

2002: After being acquired from the New York Mets at the trade deadline, Payton hit safely in 29 of 47 games for Colorado, compiling a .335 (57-for-170) average with 14 doubles, 4 triples, 8 homers and 28 RBI...combined with both teams to hit a career-best .303 (135-for-445)...was one of the better second half hitters in all of baseball, posting a .338 (77-for-228) average after the All-Star Break, 10th highest in the majors...after coming over from the Mets on July 31, Jay was in the starting lineup the following day as the team's leftfielder in Pittsburgh...went 2-for-5 with a run scored and stolen base...from there, he would go on to hit safely in seven of his next nine starts (.389, 14-for-36)...in his first 24 games as a Rockie, Jay posted a .409 (38-for-93) average, hitting safely in all but four starts...from Aug. 6-27, he batted .425 (34-for-80)...prior to heading west, Payton hit .351 (26-for-74) for the Mets in July with a season-best eight-game hitting streak, July 15-22 (14-for-29, .483)...outdid his .351 July average the following month by hitting at a .374 (40-for-107) clip in August, the highest monthly average of his career (min. 50 AB)...named National League Co-Player of the Week (Jason Schmidt) for the first time in his career, Aug. 19-25...over the seven-day stretch, he batted .375 (12-for-32) with 3 homers and 12 RBI...tied a career-high with 5 RBI on Aug. 22 vs. Montreal and then drove in 4 the next evening vs. the Mets...on Sept. 2 vs. Arizona, Jay scored a career-high 4 runs and tied the franchise record with 3 doubles...for the year, he totaled 33 multi-hit games, 18 two-hitters, 12 three-hitters and the three-four hitters...had homers in back-to-back games on three separate occasions, all coming from Aug. 17-27 when he connected on a total of 7 homers in 11 games...recorded his first career multi-homer game May 3 in Houston...batted .339 (76-for-224) in his home parks, including a .473 (35-for-74) mark at Coors...committed only one error in 971.1 innings...the miscue came July 30 vs. Houston...all of his action with the Mets came in centerfield, where he compiled a .994 fielding percentage with 6 outfield assists...for Colorado, he made starts in left (25), center (15) and one in right without committing an error...combined, he had a .996 (261/262) fielding percentage and set a career-high with 9 OF assists...his only rightfield start came in Houston, Sept. 11...in the game, Payton strained his right oblique muscle and was forced to leave in the third inning...he would miss the next six games before seeing action as pinch hitter Sept. 19 vs. St. Louis.

2001: Despite missing nearly two months due to an injury, Payton still made 90 starts in centerfield...opened the year with a hit in each of his first three games, starting 5-for-his-first-12...homered in back-to-back games May 2 vs. Houston and May 4 vs. Arizona...hit safely in nine straight, April 28-May 7 (18-for-34) until injuring his right hamstring in the May 7th game at Colorado...placed on the 15-day disabled list May 8 with a strained right hamstring...activated from the DL on June 26 and started in centerfield that afternoon at Wrigley...hit safely in his first two games off the disabled list to give him a season best 11-game hitting streak (.465, 20-for-43)...struggled in June and July, hitting .167 in both months but came back to put on a strong performance to finish off the season...was hitting only .232 (58-250) after the games of Aug. 23rd but compiled a .306 (34-111) average over his last 30 contests with 18 runs, 6 2B, 4 HR and 14 RBI...hit safely in 24 of those 30 games...also hit safely in 18 of his last 21 contests...on Oct.

5, was hit by a pitch in the eighth inning by Montreal's Scott Strickland...suffered a non-displaced fracture of the fifth metacarpal of his left hand...wore a splint for 10 days and did not play the rest of the year.

2000: Finished third in the National League Rookie-of-the-Year voting behind Atlanta's Rafael Furcal and the Cardinals' Rick Ankiel...among NL rookies, Payton ranked first in hits (142), multi-hit games (39) and slugging percentage (.447)...his home runs (17), extra-base hits (41), batting average (.291), and on-base percentage (.331) ranked second among first-year players in the NL...also tied for third with 62 RBI and 23 doubles and was fourth with 63 runs scored...had 7 assists from the outfield, second best among rookies...the 17 home runs were the most by a Mets rookie since Darryl Strawberry had 26 in 1983...hit safely in a career-best 14 games from June 20-July 5, batting .370 (20-for-54) with 2 doubles, 2 home runs, 6 RBI and 5 walks...belted his first career grand slam vs. Montreal (Mike Thurman) in the first inning on Sept. 29 at Shea...his 4 RBI that day were also a career-best. Postseason: Played in all 14 postseason contests for the NL pennant winners, batting a combined .228 (13-for-57)...had the game-winning single in the top of the 10th inning in Game Two of the NLDS at San Francisco, a 5-4 Mets win...hit the game-winning single in the top of the ninth inning in Game Two of the NLCS at St. Louis, a 6-5 Mets victory...was 7-for-21 (.333) in the World Series against the Yankees with a home run and 3 RBI...the home run was a three-run shot off Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game Two at Yankee Stadium...the long ball pulled the Mets within a run at 6-5 but the club wound up losing by that score.

1999: Began the year on the DL, recovering from left shoulder surgery in January...activated and optioned to Norfolk (AAA) June 8...after a rehab assignment at St. Lucie, then moved back to Norfolk where he hit .389 with 8 HR and 35 RBI...placed on the DL again from July 10-Aug. 19 with an oblique strain...recalled from the Tides on Sept. 1 and played in 13 games with the Mets, hitting .250 (2-for-8).

1998: Started the year with Norfolk (AAA) before being recalled by the Mets on May 11...did not appear in a game and was optioned back on May 13...recalled again Sept. 1 and made his major league debut that night at San Diego in leftfield, as part of a double switch...went 2-2 with a run scored...started his first game on Sept. 4 in LF vs. Atlanta (0-for-3)...played 82 games at the Triple A level overall...placed on the DL May 26 (right hamstring) and was activated on June 13...returned to the DL with the same injury on June 23 and was activated July 20 and assigned to St. Lucie (A)...assigned back to the Tides on July 24...following the season, underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder Jan. 6, 1999...the procedure, performed by Dr. James Andrews, consisted of labral repair and a capsular stabilization.

1997: Sat out the entire season after undergoing a second surgery to repair the medial collateral ligament in his right elbow on March 19 in Los Angeles...the surgery was performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum.

1996: Battled injuries but still hit over .300 at three different levels of the Mets Farm System...placed on Norfolk's disabled list April 29...then had surgery to remove bone spurs from his right elbow May 20 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in Manhattan...the surgery was performed by Dr. David Altchek...after his rehab assignment, played for both St. Lucie and Binghamton before going back to finish the year at Triple A.

1995: The Eastern League's MVP and Rookie-of-the-Year, Payton won the league batting title with a .345 mark...voted to the EL's mid-season and postseason All-Star teams...selected to the Topps/National Association of Professional Baseball League's Class AA Post-Season All-Star team...shared NY's Doubleday Award (MVP) with Eric Ludwick...finished second in the league with a .535 slugging...compiled a league-best and Binghamton club record 25-game hitting streak, June 4-June 29 (45-102, .441)...it was the third longest streak in the minor leagues in 1995...promoted to Norfolk (AAA) on July 13...on Sept. 22, underwent reconstructive surgery on his right elbow to repair the medial collateral ligament...the surgery was performed at the Hospital for Special Surgery by Dr. David Altchek and Dr. David Dines.

1994: Selected the New York-Penn League's Most Valuable Player in his first season as a pro...led the NYPL in hitting (.365) and was fourth with a .439 on base...named the Doubleday Award winner.

COLLEGE: Jay was an All-American and an Academic All-American at Georgia Tech...as a junior in 1994, Payton led the nation with 102 RBI...batted .434 (129-for-297) with 20 home runs and 8 stolen bases in 67 games...he, along with teammates Nomar Garciaparra and Jason Varitek, helped the Yellow Jackets to the College World Series where they advanced to the title game before losing to Oklahoma.

PERSONAL: Jason Lee (Jay) Payton...graduated from Zanesville (OH) High School in 1991 where he played baseball, soccer and basketball...played basketball against the Cleveland Cavaliers' Jimmy Jackson...toured Japan in the fall of 1998 and 2000 with the Major League All-Stars.

BEN PETRICK 6

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200 B/T: R/R Age: 25 (26 on April 7)
Born: April 7, 1977 in Salem, Ore.
Residence: Hillsboro, Ore.
Major League Service: 2.046
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the second round of the 1995 June draft.

CAREER: Petrick was drafted in the second round of the 1995 free agent draft, one round after the Rockies selected Todd Helton...once tabbed as the club's third-best prospect as a catcher by Baseball America, Ben moved over to outfield last summer...after switching positions, he raised his season average .48 points from .163 to .211...opens spring training as an outfielder but should continue to see time behind the plate as well...entering his ninth season as a professional, Petrick looks to make his third consecutive Opening Day roster.

2002: Started the season as the No. 2 catcher, appearing on Colorado's Opening Day roster for the second consecutive year...ironically, Ben would wind up finishing the season with more starts in leftfield (13) than behind the dish (12)...batted .211 (20-for-95) with 3 doubles, a triple, 5 homers and 11 RBI in 38 games, 25 starts...was first optioned to Triple A May 6, recalled July 5, optioned down again August 1 and was one of the five called-up when the rosters expanded Sept. 1...in his first stint with the big league club (April 1-May 5), Ben started in 12 of the teams 31 games, all behind the plate...started his 139th game at catcher on April 19, passing Brent Mayne for the fourth most in franchise history...final start behind the plate was May 4...prior to being optioned to Colorado Springs on May 6th, he was sporting a .163 (7-for-43) average and was in the midst of a three-game hit streak...for the Springs, saw action in 38 contest in the outfield as opposed to eight behind the plate...recalled July 5 and made his debut in leftfield two days later vs. San Diego...after switching over to the outfield, he raised his season average .48 points from .163 to .211...tallied his first homer of the year July 15, a solo shot off Oliver Perez in the second inning...in his next appearance, a start in LF vs. Arizona on July 18, he added another solo homer off Brian Anderson...during his second stay with the Rockies, he hit safely in four straight games from July 15-23 (4-for-10)...optioned back down Aug. 1 and saw action in 27 Triple A games, batting .352 (32-for-91)...called-up for the third and final time by the club Sept. 1 and finished out the remainder of the season in the majors...on Sept. 18 vs. St. Louis, Ben connected on his first multi-homer game of the year, the third of his career...also added a double in the contest, giving him a career-high 10 total bases...homered the following night, the second time in 2002 Petrick homered in consecutive games and sixth time of his career...hit in a season-high five games from Sept. 12-21, batting .467 (7-for-15)...hit .333 (8-for-24) with 2 doubles, 3 homers and 5 RBI in September...batted .122 points higher after the All-Star Break, .271 to his .149 opening clip...committed only three errors from the field, two from behind the plate and the other in LF, for a combined .973 (107/110) fielding percentage.

2001: Caught four of the seven complete games for the Rockies in 2001...logged more time than any other Rockie catcher, 608.2 innings...threw out 11 of 57 baserunners (19.3%)...became the team's primary catcher after Brent Mayne was traded to Kansas City on June 24....started 23 of the next 31 games for the Rockies before going on the disabled list Aug. 2 with right bicep tendinitis....after missing 24 games, was recalled Sept. 1...homered May 26 in San Francisco, the first-ever HR by a Rockie at Pac Bell...in June, batted .308 (16-for-52) in 17 games with 2 doubles, 6 homers and 14 RBI...had 9 go-ahead RBI, the fourth highest total on the club, behind Helton (31), Walker (24) and Cirillo (13)...recorded his first career pinch hit on Sept. 7 vs. SF, a game-winning single in the 12th inning...played first base for the first time in his career June 26 vs. San Diego.

2000: Opened at Triple-A and made two tours with the Rockies...went to spring training on the 40-man roster for the first time... optioned to Colorado Springs March 27...recalled April 19 to replace an injured Scott Servais ...it marked Petrick's second major league tour (Sept. 1999)...that night, he started, batting eighth at Arizona, and doubled on his first pitch off Brian Anderson....optioned back to Triple A on April 30...was with Colorado from July 16 through season's end...from Aug. 18-Sept. 5, Ben started 15 of the Rockies' 17 games, batting .379 (22-for-58) with 2 homers and 9 RBI....on Sept. 20 vs. the Padres, he drove in a career-high 4 runs without a hit, going 0-for-3...had two RBI groundouts, a sac fly and drew a bases-loaded walk...threw out 18.8% (6/32) of his baserunners...spent the first two weeks, and from May 1-July 15, at Colorado Springs (AAA).

1999: Played for three clubs on three levels, including his first major league tour...combined at the three stops to bat .313 (129-for-412) with 27 HR and 98 RBI in 123 games...began the year at Carolina but spent two weeks

(April 26-May 6) on the DL with a sprained left wrist...hit for the cycle May 9 vs. Huntsville...five days later, he left for Triple-A...Rockies recalled him Sept. 1 and he made his major league debut that afternoon, vs. Pittsburgh, batting eighth at catcher...in his first major league plate appearance, he doubled in a run off Jason Schmidt...reached safely in his first four big-league trips (double, single and two walks), going 2-for-3 on the day...hit safely in seven straight starts, Sept. 10-20...on Sept. 17 vs. LA, hit his first major league home run, a solo shot off Mike Maddux...recorded his first multi-HR game, Sept. 22 vs. Arizona...made 18 starts at catcher in September.

1998: In his first Double-A stint (New Haven) he battled a sore left wrist for much of the first two months...a pitch jammed fingers on his left (glove) hand April 29...then, three days later he was hit on the left wrist while batting...returned to the lineup May 11 but after four games he missed another week of action with lingering soreness in his left wrist.

1997: Threw out 31% (38 of 84) of base stealers and the Salem staff had a 3.89 ERA, best in the system.

1996: At age 18, Ben played his first full season of pro ball and was a Baseball America's postseason all-star.

1995: The 38th overall pick, Petrick signed late and had a September stint in the Arizona Instructional League.

PERSONAL: Benjamin Wayne (Ben) Petrick...lettered in baseball, basketball and football at Glencoe (Ore.) High School...as a football player, was named the 1994 Oregon Offensive Player of the Year after he led the state in rushing and helped his squad to a state championship...was also a two-time state Player of the Year in baseball...turned down several Pac-10 football scholarships to sign with Colorado...signed by Greg Hopkins.

STEVE REED 39

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 212 B/T: R/R Age: 37
Born: March 11, 1966 in Los Angeles, Calif.
Residence: Golden, Colo.
Major League Service: 10.014
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED to a one-year, non-guaranteed contract, Jan. 23, 2003.

CAREER: An original Rockie, Steve Reed returns to the Mile High City where he was one of the club's top pitchers from 1993-97...Reed's 3.68 career ERA with the Rockies still stands as the all-time franchise record, while his 329 appearances rank second...the right-hander enters the season needing just 28 appearances to break Curtis Leskanic's club record (356)...a 10-year major league veteran, Steve has appeared in 671 games overall at the big league level, placing him ninth among active pitchers...Reed and Dan Plesac are the only ML pitchers to have appeared in 50 or more games in each of the last 10 years...no pitcher has enjoyed more success at Coors Field, as the righty's 3.18 ERA at Coors is the best of any active hurler (min. 80.0 ip)...signed as a non-drafted free agent by San Francisco in 1988, Steve pitched five seasons in the Giants organization until the Rockies selected him in the third round of the 1992 Expansion Draft (60th overall)...was a member of Colorado's inaugural ballclub in 1993 and a part of the 1995 Wild Card team...since leaving Denver after the 1997 season, Reed has pitched with the Giants (1998), Indians (1998-2001), Braves (2001), Padres (2002) and Mets (2002).

2002: Posted a career-best 2.01 ERA (67.0 ip, 15 er) in 64 combined appearances with the Mets and Padres...that ERA ranked fourth among NL relievers and eighth among all major league relievers...with San Diego, he was 2-4 with a 1.98 ERA (41.0 ip, 9 er) and one save in 40 games...was then dealt to New York at the trade deadline and went 0-1 with a 2.08 ERA (26.0 ip, 6 er) in 24 outings...recorded a 1.62 ERA (33.1 ip, 6 er) at his home ballparks...issued 14 walks in his 67.0 ip of work, a 1.88 walks-per-nine innings ratio...made San Diego's Opening Day roster as a non-roster invitee and went on to become the club's most effective reliever in the first half...held opponents scoreless in 32 of his 40 outings with the Padres...allowed just 2 earned runs over his first 16 appearances, covering 19.0 innings (9 h, 3 BB, 24 K)...not only did he have a 0.95 ERA through his first 16 games but limited the opposition to a .150 average against...gave up just 4 earned runs in his first 20 outings and 22.1 ip (1.61 ERA)...did not walk a batter until his 10th appearance on May 4...posted a 13.0 inning scoreless streak, April 16-May 19...had a season-best 1.38 ERA (13.0 ip, 2 er) in May...picked up his lone save on July 16 vs. Colorado, just his second save since 1997...at the time of his trade, he led the club with 11 relief holds and stranded 24 of 29 inherited runners (83%)...moved on to the Big Apple and pitched shutout ball in 19 of his 24 appearances with the Mets...went 8 games and 8.2 innings without allowing a run from Aug. 25 to Sept. 12...stranded 10 of 14 inherited runners with New York and combined with the two teams, allowed only 9 of 43 inherited runners to score, stranding 79%.

2001: Split the season between Cleveland and Atlanta, combining to go 3-3 with a 3.55 ERA in 70 games...it was the fourth time he's surpassed 70 appearances but first since 1998...finished 1-1 with a 3.62 ERA in 31 games for Cleveland before being dealt to Atlanta on June 23...for the NL East Champion Braves, he was 2-2 with a 2.48 ERA...took the loss in his first appearance of the season April 7 vs. Baltimore, but rebounded to finish April with a 1-1 record and a 1.50 ERA...did not allow a run in nine games (11.2 innings) April 9-May 2...earned his lone victory with Cleveland on April 21 vs. Detroit....on July 18 at Cincinnati, he recorded the game's final out to notch his first save since 1997...after the trade, he stranded 23 of 27 baserunners (85%) and limited right-handed hitters to a .148 average (12-for-81)...did not allow a run in his first eight appearances with Atlanta from June 23 to July 8...also worked 11 straight scoreless outings, Aug. 2-24...finished strong down the stretch, recording a 1.42 ERA (6.1 ip, 2 r, 1 er) during the month of September...lowered his ERA from 4.13 on Sept. 4 to 3.48 at year's end. Postseason: Pitched in one game in the LDS vs. Houston, retiring his only batter faced...

2000: Although missing the 60-game plateau for the first time since his rookie campaign, Steve pitched in 57 contests for Cleveland to mark his eighth straight season with 50 or more appearances...did not allow a run in 35 of his 57 outings...ranked fourth among American League relievers by allowing only 17% (6-of-36) of inherited baserunners to score...posted a 6.04 ERA prior to the All-Star break, but just a 2.60 ERA after...had a 2.77 ERA (13.0 ip, 4 er) in both May and August...made his 500th career appearance on June 4 at St. Louis...retired 18 straight batters at one point in July...over his last 14 appearances, he compiled a 2.57 ERA (14.0 ip, 4 er) with 11 strikeouts from Aug. 22 through the end of the season...tossed 8.2 scoreless innings to finish the year.

1999: In his first full year in the American League, Reed went 2-0 with a 4.34 ERA...was 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA before being sidelined with a strep infection in late May...did not pitch from May 23-31...after a tough June and July, during which he combined on a 4.74 ERA in 25 games, he came back to post a 2.84 ERA in August...worked scoreless relief in 43 of 63 appearances...was out of action from Sept. 8-19 with right elbow tendinitis...returned to pitch in four more regular-season games. Postseason: Appeared in a pair of post-season contests before being shut down after Game 4 of the Division Series vs. Boston with a strain of the flexor pronator muscle/tendon in his right forearm, an injury that hindered him for much of the season's second half.

1998: Began the year with San Francisco where he compiled a 1.48 ERA in 50 appearances...the 50 games tied him for the NL lead at the time of his trade...was then dealt to Cleveland one week before the deadline...he went just 2-2 with a 6.66 ERA in 20 AL outings...posted a career-best 22.1 scoreless innings streak between the two clubs, June 27 to Aug. 1...made just six September appearances for the Tribe due to numbness in the fingers of his right hand...had an arteriogram on Sept. 10 that revealed a small blood clot in his right wrist...placed on medication to dilate his arteries...worked a scoreless inning Sept. 17 vs. Minnesota...had a second arteriogram on Sept. 19 at St. John's West Shore Hospital...doctors placed a catheter in his right arm from above the elbow down to the wrist to dissolve the clot...took the mound again Sept 25 at Minnesota. Postseason: Went 1-0 with a 11.57 ERA in five post-season appearances for the AL Central Champions...earned his first post-season win in the fourth and final game of the Division Series vs. Boston...was given a clean bill of health, including the blood clot, after a December visit to the Cleveland Clinic.

1997: Recorded a career-high 6 saves in his fifth and last season with the Rockies, all of which came in May...ranked third on the team with 63 appearances...limited the opposition to a .219 batting average...assumed the Rockies' closer role for May and pocketed 2 wins, 6 saves and stranded 15-of-18 baserunners during the month...finished the year with a 2.08 ERA in September (8.2 ip, 2 er)...ended his Rockies tenure by signing with San Francisco as a free agent on December 24.

1996: Reached the 70-game level for the second straight year, leading the NL with 22 relief holds...had a stretch of 12.2 consecutive scoreless innings, July 23 to Aug. 16...closed the year by allowing only 1 earned run in September, spanning nine outings and 9.2 ip...inherited 48 baserunners, allowing 15 to score.

1995: Set career bests in outings (71) and strikeouts (79), and led the staff by limiting opposing hitters to a .203 composite average...ranked second on the Rockies with a 2.14 ERA...his season ERA stood at 1.66 as late as Aug. 14 and he had a sub-2.00 ERA until allowing 3 runs in his last two outings...ended the year on a three-game winning streak, including back-to-back wins Sept. 15-16 vs. Florida in the team's stretch drive to the playoffs...at the plate, singled on June 27 off San Francisco's Shawn Barton at Candlestick Park for his first career hit. Postseason: Worked in three of the four Division Series games against the Braves and did not allow a run in 2.2 innings.

1994: Led the major leagues with 61 appearances in the strike-shortened campaign...his best work came in the first half, giving up 11 earned runs in 35.1 innings (2.08 ERA)...had a 10-game, 10.0 inning scoreless streak, May 21-June 6...earned the save in Colorado's 1-0 win on May 8 at San Diego and then in the Rox's rain-shortened 1-0 victory at Mile High on Aug. 10 vs. Atlanta.

1993: Won a career-high 9 games in the Rockies' inaugural season...ranked second on the staff in both wins and games (64)...was the winning pitcher in the first-ever game between expansion clubs Colorado and Florida on April 23 in Denver...optioned to Triple-A Colorado Springs on May 12...recalled on June 14 and posted a 1.13 ERA through July 19...recorded his first big league save July 11 vs. St. Louis...despite a road ERA of 1.60, 7 of his 9 wins came at home.

1992: Set a then-minor league record by recording 43 saves for AA-Shreveport and AAA-Phoenix to win Minor League Baseball's Rolaids Relief Man of the Year honors...ranked third in both the Texas League and Pacific Coast League in saves despite spending only half a season in either circuit...made his major league debut Aug. 30 vs. Chicago, retiring his only batter faced...worked scoreless relief in each of his first six big league appearances...earned his first ML win in the Oct. 2 season finale at Cincinnati.

1991: Made his Triple-A debut with a team-high 41 appearances for Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League...began the season with AA-Shreveport, where he earned the promotion by recording a 0.83 ERA in 15 games.

1990: Advanced to AA-Shreveport, where his posted 3 wins, 8 saves and a team-best 1.64 ERA in 45 games, all but one in relief.

1989: Earned a spot on the Midwest League All-Star team with a 1.05 ERA and 26 saves for Clinton (A)...held opponents to a .171 batting average...promoted to Single-A San Jose for two games at the end of the year.

1988: Named Pioneer League Rolaids Relief Pitcher of the Year, going 4-1 with a league-best 13 saves and a 2.52 ERA for Rookie-level Pocatello in his pro debut after signing with the Giants as a non-drafted free agent.

COLLEGE: Attended Lewis & Clark (OR) College, where he helped win back-to-back NAIA titles in 1987 and 1988...among his teammates at Lewis & Clark was former big league catcher Steve Decker.

PERSONAL: Steven Vincent Reed...he and his wife, Terry, make their off-season home in the Golden, Colo....has two sons, Dylan (3/10/94) and Logan (9/27/96)...graduated from Chatsworth (CA) High School.

RENE REYES 65

★ INFIELDER / OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 213 B/T: S/R Age: 25
Born: Feb. 21, 1978 in Margarita, Venezuela
Residence: Margarita, Venezuela
Major League Service: None
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED as a non-drafted free agent, Aug. 29, 1996.

CAREER: Reyes is the only two-time league MVP in Rockies organizational history, earning the honors with the Arizona Rookie League in 1998 and South Atlantic League in 2001…a .326 career minor league hitter, Rene has already won two batting titles in his five professional seasons…recently rated as the third best prospect in the Rockies system by Baseball America behind Aaron Cook and Chin-hui Tsao…initially a catcher his first year as a pro (Guacara of the Venezuelan Summer League, 1997), the switch-hitter has primarily played first base (207 games) and outfield (139 games) throughout his career.

2002: In his first season at Double A, Reyes led Carolina with a .292 (133-for-455) batting average, 10th best in the Southern League…ranked second in the league in extra-base hits (51), third in doubles (33) and total bases (216) and fourth in slugging (.475)…set a career high with 14 home runs…after hitting .264 (62-for-235) during his first three months of the season, Rene caught fire down the stretch, batting .331 (39-for-118) with 5 homers and 19 RBI in July and then .314 (32-for-102) with 2 homers and 8 RBI in August…hit safely in 19 of his last 25 games, including an 11-game hit streak, Aug. 13-26 (.390, 16-for-41)…on the year, played 75 games in the outfield (53 RF, 17 LF, 5 CF) and 41 games at first base…hit for the cycle on June 10 at Greenville, going 4-for-4 with 3 RBI…became just the fourth Rockie minor leaguer to accomplish the feat, joining Scott Seal (8/3/00), Ben Petrick (5/9/99) and Neifi Perez (8/25/96)…belted a grand slam on June 24 at Jacksonville…played for Caracas of the Venezuela Winter League following the season and finished third in the league with a .346 batting average (44-for-127).

2001: Reyes was named South Atlantic League MVP, winning the league batting title with a .322 (156-for-484) average…the SAL's Postseason All-Star first baseman, Rene ranked second in the league with 156 hits…stole 53 bases, the fifth highest single-season total in franchise history…the 53 SB finished fifth in the SAL at season's end…in the final two months of the year (July and August) Reyes combined for a .355 average (70-for-197) with 8 doubles, 4 homers and 24 RBI.

2000: Missed the entire season after undergoing surgery on his right knee to clean up cartilage…officially on the disabled list from April 6-Sept. 29.

1999: Split the season with Asheville (A) and the Tucson Rockies (R)…combined at the two stops to hit .354 (91-for-257) with 47 runs scored, 10 doubles, 5 triples, 4 homers and 39 RBI…began the year in the Arizona League before moving on to the Single A ranks…finished the year with a 9-game hit streak with the Tourists, Aug. 29-Sept. 6 (.447, 17-for-38).

1998: Led Tucson to the Arizona Rookie League Championship, earning league MVP honors…led the league in average (.429), hits (76), RBI (39), total bases (108) and on-base percentage (.493)…was second in slugging percentage (.610), third in homers (5) and fourth in runs scored (40)…the All-Star first baseman posted the best HR/AB ratio in the circuit (1/35.40) and struck out only 15 times in 177 at-bats, the best strikeouts-per-plate appearance average (1/13.40).

1997: In his first professional season, Rene played in the Venezuelan Summer League for Guacara…his primary position was catcher.

PERSONAL: Rene Reyes…lettered in baseball and basketball at Nueva Esparta High School and was the team home run champion his senior year…signed by Jorge de Posada.

2002: Justin Speier in 2002 was the Rockies go-to guy with runners on base, and the right-hander excelled better than any reliever in baseball...Speier stranded a major-league best 33-of-35 (.943) inherited runners...that not only led all relievers in 2002 but was the best percentage of any reliever since the statistic was first recorded in 1987...the previous record for a pitcher with at least 30 baserunners was 93.5% (29/31) by Dennis Eckersley in 1992...Justin pitched out of an inherited bases-loaded jam on four occasions, May 27 at San Diego, June 8 at Toronto, Aug. 12 at Florida–saving Jason Jennings in what turned out to be a 1-0 Rockies win–and on Sept. 14 vs. LA to preserve a 2-1 lead...stranded 24 consecutive runners from May 27-Aug. 19...when entering a game with at least one inherited runner on, Speier retired 26 of 31 batters faced, allowing just 3 hits in 29 at-bats (.103) with 2 walks...the league hit .161 (5-for-31) off Justin with two outs and runners in scoring position, .217 (13-for-60) overall w/RISP...for the year, the righty appeared in a career-high 63 games, going 5-1 with a 4.33 ERA (62.1 ip, 30 er) and one save...the 5 wins led the Rox relief corps...ranked second on the team with 18 relief holds, 11 of which came in one of Jose Jimenez's club-record 41 saves...retired 47 of 63 first batters faced...limited righties to a .197 average (26-for-132)...was impressive on the road, going 1-0 with a 2.10 ERA (30.0 ip, 7 er) and his lone save...posted a 4-1 record with a 6.40 ERA (32.1 ip, 23 er) at Coors Field...opened the year on the disabled list with inflammation of the right knee...placed on the 15-day DL March 31, Speier went on a rehab assignment at AAA-Colorado Springs before being reinstated May 6...joined the club in Montreal and tossed 2.0 scoreless innings in his 2002 debut May 9...allowed just 2 earned runs in 12.0 innings (1.50 ERA) during his first month of action...did not allow a hit to a left-hander until May 21 (Kotsay) and lefties went just 1-for-18 (.056) vs. Justin to start the year...earned his first victory May 21 vs. SD and went on to win his first five decisions of 2002...recorded his first career save May 28 at Qualcomm, getting Deivi Cruz to pop out with two runners on...had thrown in 146 games and 204.0 ip as a major leaguer without a save...yielded just 2 runs in his first 10 appearances and was unscored upon in 22 of his 26 apps at the All-Star Break...posted a 9.0 scoreless innings streak to end the first half, June 21-July 5 (9 G, 3 h, 2 BB, 10 K)...owned a 3.00 ERA (27.0 ip, 9 er) at the break but allowed 21 runs in 35.1 ip (5.35) during the second half...struck out career batter No. 200 on July 19 vs. Milwaukee (Ryan Thompson)...did not give up a home run in 36 appearances from May 17 to Aug. 6 (33.2 ip)...had that string snapped Aug. 8 vs. Cincinnati and would then give up 5 HR in his next 11 games...allowed just his second inherited runner to score on Aug. 24 vs. the Mets, his first since May 25th...won his career-high fifth straight decision in his longest outing of the year, Sept. 15 vs. LA (2.1 ip, 0 h, 0 r)...yielded a season-high 5 runs in his only loss of 2002, Sept. 18 vs. St. Louis...that loss, his first since Sept. 26, 2001.

2001: Combined with Cleveland and Colorado, Speier was 6-3 with a 4.58 ERA in 54 games...began the year with the Indians, appearing in 12 games (2-0, 6.97 ERA) before being traded to the Mets for a player to be named on May 19...placed on waivers by the Mets after not making a single appearance and the Rockies claimed Justin on May 29...pitched in nine games for the Rox before being designated for assignment on June 25...had his contract purchased July 22 after 11 appearances with AAA-Colorado Springs and spent the rest of the season in the big leagues...was the Rockies most effective long man out of the bullpen over the last two months of the year...averaged 1.93 walks-per-nine innings (12/56.0), third best among NL relievers...tied for seventh among NL relievers in runners allowed / nine innings at 10.3 (64/56.0 ip)...allowed 7-of-20 inherited runners to score...retired 31-of-42 first batters faced (.738)...tied a club record by striking out five consecutive hitters, June 18-21...became just the third Rockies reliever to accomplish the feat, joining Gabe White who did it just six days earlier on June 16, and Darren Holmes, June 1, 1993 vs. Pittsburgh...the strikeout streak covered three appearances, June 18 (Merced), June 20 (Vizcaino, Bagwell, Berkman) and June 21 (Grace)...recorded his first NL win on Aug. 17 vs. Florida, allowing just one hit in 3.1 ip....recorded wins in back-to-back games, Sept. 23rd & 24th...was the only Colorado pitcher to record W's in back-to-back games in 2001 and the first Rockie to win on consecutive nights since Gabe White on May 13-14, 2000...had the longest outing of his career earlier in the season with the Tribe, tossing 4.2 innings on May 17 at Texas.

2000: Began the year at Triple A Buffalo...recalled to Cleveland, May 25 and spent the last four months in middle relief for the Indians...his 68.1 innings ranked second on the Tribe to Steve Karsay (76.2 ip)...struck out 9.1 batters per 9.0 innings (69 K)...won his first major league game on June 18 at Detroit, striking out a career-best 7 hitters in 3.2 ip...posted a 2.00 ERA (27.0 ip, 6 er) in the first half of the season...made 13 appearances for Buffalo, recording 9 saves...pitched at the Indians' major league camp during spring training but was optioned to AAA on March 25.

1999: Went to spring training with the Marlins but was dealt to Atlanta near the end of camp on April 1...was optioned to Richmond and appeared in two games...recalled on April 14...in his first 13 games with the Braves, he allowed just 6 earned runs in 17.0 innings with 16 strikeouts...then gave up 12 runs in his next six appearances (11.2 ip)...optioned back to Richmond on June 27 and was there for the duration of the 1999 season...major league hitters batted .248 vs. Speier (28-for-113) but 8 of those hits were home runs..

1998: Began the season at Chicago's Triple A affiliate Iowa...his 12 saves ranked fourth among all organizational relievers...had a 9.1 scoreless innings streak, April 10-24...made his major league debut with the Cubs on May 27 vs. Philadelphia...threw 1.1 ip in that debut, allowing 2 hits and 2 earned runs in his only game with Chicago...traded May 31 to Florida...debuted with the Marlins, Aug. 2 vs. Cincinnati, giving up 3 runs in 2.0 innings...pitched 3.0 hitless ip on Aug. 20 vs. Los Angeles...had a 2.60 ERA for Ponce of the Puerto Rican Winter League.

1997: Split the season between Orlando (AA) and Iowa (AAA)...had nearly a 3-to-1 strikeout to walk ratio (72 K, 24 BB)...struck out a career high 7 on July 5 against Mobile (2.2 ip)...was promoted to Triple A Iowa on Aug. 12 and did not allow a run (8 games, 12.1 ip)...from Aug. 24-30, was named American Association's Pitcher of the Week...allowed Sean Casey's game-winning three run homer in Game Three of the American Association Championship...following the season, he threw in the Arizona Fall League where he was named the leagues All-Prospect Team after tying for the AFL lead with 8 saves.

1996: For Single A Daytona, he went 2-4 with 13 saves and a 3.76 ERA in being named as a mid-season Florida State League All-Star...promoted to Orlando on July 3...was 4-1 with a 2.05 ERA in 24 games at Double A...added 6 saves for a combined 19 with both teams.

DENNY STARK 41

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 210 B/T: R/R Age: 28
Born: Oct. 27, 1974 in Edgerton, Ohio
Residence: Edgerton, Ohio
Major League Service: 1.060
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

ACQUIRED from Seattle, along with LHP Brian Fuentes and RHP Jose Paniagua for INF Jeff Cirillo, Dec. 15, 2001.

CAREER: One half of the Rockies outstanding rookie duo a year ago, Denny Stark begins his second season with Colorado, his eighth in professional baseball...enters the year with a .706 career winning percentage (12-5)...his .733 winning percentage in 2002 led all major league rookies and ranked fourth in the NL behind only Randy Johnson (.828), Wade Miller (.789) and Curt Schilling (.767)...Stark's overall numbers last year were obviously solid, but it was his ability to pitch well in Coors Field that set the right-hander apart...Denny compiled an exceptional 8-1, 3.21 (84.0 ip, 30 er) record at the hitter-friendly ballpark, setting franchise marks in both home ERA by a starter and home winning percentage...among active pitchers, only Steve Reed (3.18) owns a lower career ERA at Coors than Denny's 3.21 slate (min. 80.0 ip)...has worked at least 6.0 innings in 10 of his 12 career starts in the Mile High City, taking a shutout into the sixth inning or later on three occasions (May 23, 2002 vs. Florida, Aug. 6, 2002 vs. Cincinnati, Sept. 12, 2002 vs. LA)...what's more, the opposition has hit just .210 off him in Denver...Denny went 7-1 against teams with a winning record in 2002, including a 4-1 mark against playoff clubs...has yet to lose in eight career starts when the game-time temperature is under 70 degrees, going 4-0 with a 2.14 ERA (46.1 ip, 11 er)...acquired by the Rockies last offseason, the Edgerton, Ohio, native has appeared in 41 games at the major league level, including 23 starts...in 105 career minor league games, Stark was 38-27 with a 3.10 ERA, averaging 8.4 strikeouts per nine innings...at the plate, the righty hit .171 (7-for-41) in his first season in the National League with a home run off Kevin Millwood on May 18.

BEST CAREER ERA AT COORS FIELD ACTIVE PITCHERS (Min. 80.0 IP)

Pitcher	ERA	IP	ER
Steve Reed	3.18	121.2	43
Denny Stark	3.21	84.0	30
Jose Jimenez	3.96	116.0	51
Darren Holmes	4.06	130.2	59
Frank Castillo	4.37	80.1	39

2002: Denny Stark teamed with Jason Jennings to produce one of the most prolific NL rookie pitching duos in almost 20 years...Denny was 11-4 with a 4.00 ERA (128.1 ip, 57 er) in 32 games, 20 starts in his first season with the Rockies...the 11 wins ranked second on the team to only Jennings (16), as the two combined for the most victories by an NL rookie tandem since Tom Browning (20) and Ron Robinson (7) won 27 for the 1985 Reds...received one third place vote for NL Rookie of the Year, an award his teammate won in a landslide...Stark's .733 winning percentage led all major league rookies and ranked fourth in the NL behind only Randy Johnson (.828), Wade Miller (.789) and Curt Schilling (.767)...among NL rookies, he ranked third in batting average against (.225), seventh in ERA, tied for sixth in wins and ninth in starts...at Coors Field, Stark compiled an exceptional 8-1, 3.21 (84.0 ip, 30 er) record, setting franchise marks in both home ERA by a starter and home winning percentage, .889 (min. 7 decisions)...the opposition hit just .210 off Stark at Coors, as opposed to a .254 average on the road...worked at least 6.0 innings in 10 of his 12 starts in Denver...away from home, Denny was 3-3 with a 5.48 ERA (44.1 ip, 27 er)...for the year, he worked 6.0 or more innings in 12 of his 20 starts...was at his best against the best, going 7-1 vs. teams with a winning record, including a 4-1 mark against playoff clubs...as a starter, Stark was 10-4, 4.21 ERA (113.1 ip, 53 er)...also made 12 relief appearances, compiling a 1-0, 2.40 (15.0 ip, 4 er) mark with one relief hold and one blown save...gave up 12 runs in relief but only 4 of those earned...retired 8 of 12 (.667) first batters faced and allowed only 1 of 7 inherited runners to score...with the bat, Denny hit .171 (7-for-41) with 4 runs, 3 doubles, a home run and 4 RBI...the Rockies, 11-9 in his 20 starts...began the year with AAA-Colorado Springs after battling for the final spot in the rotation during spring training...after seven Triple A starts, Stark was recalled on May 13 and made his Rockies debut that night against the Marlins...faced just two over the minimum, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings while allowing 2 hits with 2 walks and 2 strikeouts for his first NL victory...both hits given up were singles and only two Marlins reached as far as second base (both on steals)...left after 76 pitches and the Rockies leading 6-0 in a 7-3 final...won his second game in as many starts, defeating the Braves by the same score on May 18...only made one mistake on the day, allowing a home run to his counterpart Kevin Millwood...but that was the only run the righty would give up and he then got even with Millwood in the fifth...in Denny's fourth major league plate appearance, he hammered a two-run home run to left, giving the Rockies the lead for good...won his third game in as many starts on May 24, defeating the Giants 8-5 at Coors...became just the fifth pitcher in club history to win his first three starts in a Rockies uniform, joining Brian Bohanon (5 wins, 4/8-5/3/99), Roger Bailey (4 wins, 8/17-9/2/95), Jason Jennings (3 wins, 8/23-9/3/01) and Bryan Rekar (3 wins, 7/19-7/29/95)...suffered his first losing decision as a Rockie in his next start, walking a career high 7 in an 11-3 loss at San Diego on May 29...made one more start in the first half, a no decision June 3 against the Dodgers at Coors, despite leaving with a 4-2 lead in the seventh...moved into the bullpen after Shawn Chacon was activated on June 7...made 12 relief appearances, including all three games in the Yankees series (June 18-20), the first time in his career he's thrown in three consecutive contests...notched his first career relief win June 20, as all four of his previous ML wins came as a starter...had one blown save opportunity, June 23 vs. Tampa Bay, when an error led to a run that tied the game in the sixth...returned to the rotation when Denny Neagle was sent to the 'pen prior to the All-Star Break...in his first start back, July 15 at Qualcomm, Stark allowed just one hit over 6.0 innings in 5-0 combined shutout...extended his career-best scoreless innings streak to 10.2 ip by holding Milwaukee hitless over the first 4.0 innings in his next start on July 20...Richie Sexson broke up the no-hitter, shutout, and scoreless streak with one swing, a solo HR to leadoff the fifth...Denny still gave up just 3 runs in 6.1 ip for his second straight win...improved to 6-0, 2.30 ERA at Coors Field with a win on Aug. 6 vs. Cincinnati, this time taking a shutout into the sixth inning until a Adam Dunn HR with two outs...finally suffered his first home defeat to the Cubs on Aug. 11, yielding a season-high 4 home runs...was 2-0 in his last three starts in August, allowing just 5 earned runs in 16.0 ip...tossed 5.0 scoreless ip in a victory Aug. 17 at Atlanta and then upped his record to 7-1 at Coors Field with a 14-6 win Aug. 22 vs. Montreal...capped off his rookie campaign with a strong September...went 2-1 with a 3.93 ERA (34.1 ip, 15 er), earning Rockies Player of the Month honors...posted his 10th win on Sept. 12 vs. LA at Coors, marking the first time in club history that two rookies won 10 games in the same season...recorded his 11th and final victory in probably his most dominant performance, Sept. 24 at Dodger Stadium...held LA to just 1 hit and no runs over 7.0 innings in Colorado's seventh 1-0 victory in franchise history...allowed a walk and a single in the first but didn't let an LA runner reach as far as second base the rest of the game...received the loss in the season finale at Arizona on Sept. 29, snapping his four-game winning streak...with Colorado Springs, Stark was 1-2 with a 3.82 ERA (37.2 ip, 16 er) ...made his debut with the Sky Sox on April 4 against Oklahoma, a no decision in a 5-3 loss...won his only game in his very next start, April 9 vs. Portland where he gave up just one run in 6.0 full innings...did not get a decision in his last three starts but allowed just 6 runs in his final 18.0 ip (3.00 ERA).

2001: Stark spent most of the season with Triple A Tacoma where he led the Pacific Coast league with 14 wins (14-2) and a 2.37 ERA in 24 starts...named a postseason Triple A All-Star by Baseball America...was recalled to Seattle on June 29...earned his first major league victory in his first start of the season, June 30 at Anaheim...tossed 5.2 innings, allowing 8 hits and 3 earned runs while striking out 4 in the Mariners' 5-3 victory...suffered his first ML loss in his very next start, July 5 at Texas (3.0 ip, 9 er)...optioned to AA-San Antonio July 5 and after one starting assignment, was moved back to Tacoma...recalled again to Seattle on Sept. 14...pitched three innings of relief Sept. 22 at Oakland, allowing 3 hits and 3 runs...made his third and final start of the year and his only home start, Oct. 6 against the Rangers, going 3.0 innings, striking out 2 and giving up just one hit...with the Mariners, he had a 1-1 record with a 9.20 ERA (14.2 ip, 15 er).

2000: Appeared in just eight games with New Haven, having his year cut short with a shoulder injury...in eight starts, he was 4-3 with a 2.19 ERA...lost a 1-0 complete game in the second game of a doubleheader on April 20 at Norwich...placed on the DL on May 20 for the remainder of the season with a right shoulder strain.

1999: Made his ML debut as a September call-up after spending majority of season with New Haven (AA)...recalled from New Haven Sept. 1...made his major league debut Sept. 15 at Tampa Bay...was touched for 3 hits, 3 runs, 2 earned, in just .1 ip...worked 2.0 innings Sept. 30 in Texas, his longest outing with Seattle ...tossed 1.2 scoreless innings in the season-finale, Oct. 3 in Oakland (2 hits, 1 strikeout)...with the Double-A Ravens, he was 9-11 with a 4.40 ERA in 26 starts...two of last three starts with New Haven were complete games...tossed a 3-0 complete-game shutout, allowing just 3 hits and no walks while striking out 12 on Aug. 27 at Portland.

1998: Threw just eight games and 29.1 innings as he was slowed by tendinitis in his right bicep...made five starts with Lancaster, compiling a 1-2 mark...had issued a league-high 17 walks through April 22...placed on disabled list April 26 with a stress fracture of the right humerus...reinstated July 30...went on a rehab assignment at Peoria Aug. 17-Sept. 24, pitching in three games.

1997: Spent most of the year with Wisconsin where he was named to the Midwest League mid-season All-Star team...had a 1.97 ERA (91.1 ip, 20 er) in 16 games, 15 starts...from May 8-30, allowed just 5 earned runs over five games...retired the final 20 batters (12 on strikeouts) June 20 at Peoria in complete-game win...was promoted to Lancaster July 2 and appeared in three games (16.2 ip, 6 er).

1996: The Mariners' fourth round selection in the 1996 June draft, he began pro career with Everett.

COLLEGE: Attended the University of Toledo where he pitched for three years (1994-96)...during his final season of '96, he led all Mid American Conference pitchers with 90 strikeouts in 95.1 innings...started 15 games and had a 9-7 record but was 7-1 in his last eight decisions...was the victorious pitcher in the Rockets' defeat of Kent in the MAC Tournament...majored in physical education and health.

PERSONAL: Dennis Stark...graduated from Edgerton High School in Edgerton, Ohio in 1993...was named all-league and all-state in baseball and basketball...scored 1,000 career points for the Edgerton hoops team, one of only six students in school history to do so.

CHRIS STYNES 7

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 5-10 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R Age: 30
Born: Jan. 19, 1973 in Queens, N.Y.
Residence: Deerfield, Beach, Fla.
Major League Service: 5.170
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED to a one-year, non-guaranteed contract, Jan. 7, 2003.

CAREER: Chris Stynes joins his fifth different organization since 1995 and his sixth overall…originally selected by Toronto in the third round of the 1991 draft, Chris played in the Blue Jays farm system from 1991-94, before moving on to Kansas City (1995-96), Cincinnati (1997-2000), Boston (2001) and the Cubs (2002)…has seen action at six different positions during his major league career: third base, second base, shortstop and all three outfield spots…is a lifetime .493 (34-for-69) hitter at Coors Field, second to only Jay Payton among players with at least 60 at-bats in the ballpark…has led off a game with a home run on three different occasions, two of those coming during the same series in Denver (April 10-12, 1998)…is a .301 career pinch hitter (31-for-103) with 2 home runs and 18 RBI…the 30-year old is 8 hits shy of career No. 500.

2002: Stynes was the Cubs' Opening Day starter at third base and went on to hit .241 with 5 homers and 26 RBI in 98 games…played in 40 games at third base (36 starts) and 20 games at second base (10 starts)…batted .320 with runners in scoring position (16-for-50) and led the club with 12 pinch hits (12-for-39, .308)…in the field, he committed 5 errors in 118 total chances, a .958 fielding percentage…hit .218 (24-for-110) prior to the All-Star Break but came back to bat .271 (23-for-85) in the second half…was hitting just .229 through the end of July but then posted a .304 mark (14-for-46) in August to raise his average .20 points to .249…had a season-high 5-game hitting streak to end the month, Aug. 26-31…went 7-for-13 (.538) over the five games with 3 RBI…played in only 14 games in September and batted .182 (4-for-22)…for the year, Chris had nine multi-hit games, including a season-high 3-hit effort on April 16 at Montreal (3-for-4, RBI)…hit his first homer of the season the next day, a solo shot off the Expos' Tomo Ohka…recorded a 2-run, game-winning pinch hit single on June 15 vs. the White Sox off Mark Buehrle.

2001: Played in 96 games with Boston, appearing at third base (46 G, 44 GS), second base (43 G, 40 GS) and in leftfield (three starts)…surpassed the 100-hit mark for the second consecutive season, batting .280 (101-for-361) with 19 doubles, 8 homers and 33 RBI, 14 of which came with two outs…in the No.1 spot of the batting order, he hit .292 (35-for-120)…went on the disabled list early in the year with a strained right hamstring (April 6-24)…then went on the DL again after being hit in the face by Seattle's Aaron Sele on May 9…was on the DL from May 10 to June 7 with a fractured left cheekbone…after a rehab assignment at AAA Pawtucket, Stynes was activated in time for the June 7th game vs. Detroit and went 2-for-4 with 2 runs…was 9-for-19 (.474) in his first five games back…had three 4-hit games, all coming nearly a month apart: June 15 at Atlanta, July 15 at Montreal and Aug. 25 at Texas…in the July 15th game at Olympic Stadium, he recorded his first career multi-homer game, going 4-for-5 with 3 runs scored, 2 homers and 4 RBI…recorded a season-high 10-game hitting streak, July 28-August 8, batting .410 (16-39).

2000: Enjoyed the best season of his major league career, setting personal bests in average (.334), runs (71), hits (127), doubles (24), home runs (12) and RBI (40)…that .334 average would have tied for fifth in the NL had he qualified…of his 119 games, he played 77 at third base (72 starts), 15 at second (7 starts), six games in leftfield (4 starts) and two in rightfield…became the Reds' starting third baseman July 5, replacing the injured Aaron Boone…from that point on, he hit .315 in 72 games with 9 homers and 28 RBI…started the stretch with an 11-game hitting streak, July 5-July 18, batting .563 (27-48) with nine multi-hit affairs…belted a home run in four straight games, July 5-8…in the July 8th contest vs. Cleveland, he went 5-for-6 with 4 runs scored…the 5 hits set a new career high while the 4 runs tied it, as he had another 4-run game July 13 at Colorado…hit his second career pinch homer June 16 at Qualcomm off Matt Whiteside…led off the July 25th game vs. Houston with a home run off Jose Lima, marking his third career game-opening home run…on Sept. 24, he erased a 3-1 deficit by hitting a game-ending walkoff homer off Octavio Dotel to give the Reds a 4-3 win vs. the Astros.

1999: Used mostly as a pinch hitter with the Reds, appearing in 73 games with 24 starts (20 at 2B, 4 at 3B)…went 24 at-bats without a hit, covering two months from April 10 to June 13…snapped the hitless spell with a seventh inning single on June 13 vs. Cleveland…batted .333 (23-for-69) after the All-Star Break…recorded his first career pinch homer Aug. 17 at Cinergy, a 12th-inning 3-run shot off Pittsburgh's Mike Williams for a 7-4 victory.

1998: Appeared at six different positions during his first full season in the majors...played 64 games in leftfield (48 starts), 22 at third base (11 starts), 20 in rightfield (12 starts) and 11 games at second base (6 starts)...also made two appearances in both centerfield and at shortstop...committed 2 errors in 204 combined chances...as a pinch hitter, he batted .313 (5-for-16) with 3 RBI...stole a career high 15 bases in 16 attempts...during a four-game series at Colorado, April 10-13, he went 11-for-20 with 9 runs scored and a pair of game-opening homers...homered to lead off the April 10th (Darryl Kile) and April 12th (Pedro Astacio) contests...had 4 hits in the April 10th game and scored 4 runs in the April 12th affair...hit an inside-the-park home run on June 6 vs. Cleveland off Jaret Wright.

1997: Began the year in Kansas City's Farm System before being acquired by the Reds in a midseason deal...in his first 49 NL games, he batted .348 with 6 homers, 28 RBI and 11 steals...opened the year with the Royals' Triple A affiliate, Omaha...joined the Reds' Indianapolis (AAA) affiliate after the July 15 trade...recalled on Aug. 8 and started his Reds career with a 10-game hitting streak (.488, 20-41)...in his second game, Aug. 10 vs. LA, he went 4-for-4 with his first major league homer (off Mark Guthrie)...combined to bat .285 in 103 Triple-A games.

1996: Had three stints with the Royals, hitting .293 in 36 games...stole 4 bases on May 12 at Seattle, including home plate...singled in the first inning off Randy Johnson, then stole second, third and home as part of a double steal with Joe Vitiello...spent most of the year at Omaha, where he was a Triple A All-Star, hitting .356 with 10 homers.

1995: Saw his first major league action with the Royals, playing in 22 games after being acquired in a spring training trade with Toronto...made his major league debut as a pinch hitter on May 19 at Oakland...recorded his first hit June 4, a single off Milwaukee's Sid Roberson...overall, had three stints with the big league club.

1994: Earned Southern League postseason all-star honors with AA-Knoxville...led the league in at-bats (545), hits (173) and total bases (237), while finishing runner up for the batting title (.317)...fanned just 36 times in 584 plate appearances for a league-best ratio of 1 every 16.2 TPA...was the MVP of the Double-A all-star game, going 3-for-5 with 3 RBI...selected to Baseball America's Double-A All-Star Team.

1993: Ranked fourth in the Florida State League in both hits (151) and total bases (21) for Dunedin (A)...led the league third basemen in fielding percentage (.938).

1992: In his first year at Single A, Chris finished second in the South Atlantic League with 36 doubles for Myrtle Beach...posted the league's second best strikeouts-per-plate appearance ratio, one every 12.4 PA.

1991: Began his pro career in the Gulf Coast League, where he ranked second in the league in RBI (39), hits (67), doubles (15) and total bases (96)...led the league third basemen in fielding percentage (.957) and assists (138).

PERSONAL: Christopher Desmond Stynes....graduated from Boca Raton (Fla.) High School in 1991...his grandfather, Joe Stynes, was a professional football (soccer) player in Ireland...is single and makes his offseason home in Deerfield Beach, Fla...signed by Blue Jays scout Chris Buckley.

JUAN URIBE 4

★ INFIELDER ★

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 173 B/T: R/R Age: 23 (24 on July 22)
Born: July 22, 1979 in Bani, Dominican Republic
Residence: Palienque, Dominican Republic
Major League Service: 1.089
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SIGNED as a non-drafted free agent, Jan. 15, 1997.

CAREER: Juan Uribe enters his seventh professional season, all in the Rockies organization...looks to keep the starting shortstop job he's had since late July of 2001 but will be pushed by several candidates in spring training...his career got off to a hot start, as he hit .300 in 72 games as a rookie in 2001 and .373 through April of 2002...but the Dominican native batted just .211 (98-for-464) in his final 129 games a year ago, finishing with a .240 average...already has 18 career triples, tied for the fourth most in franchise history...he equaled the single season club record with 11 in 2001.

2002: After making his first career Opening Day start, Juan became a pillar at shortstop for the Rockies, starting 150 games...finished the year with a .240 (136-for-566) batting average, the fourth lowest such average in the National League among qualifiers...the bookend months of the season proved to be his most productive stints at the plate, batting .373 in April and .314 in September...his April average was the highest on the team, and the fourth highest in the NL...throughout the month, he hit safely in 23 of the 26 games he saw action in, including 12 multi-hit contests...April and September were the only two months Uribe batted over .300...his third highest average came in August when he hit .202 (21-for-104)...excluding his 38-for-102 performance over the first month of the season, Juan batted .211 (98-for-464) in his final 129 games...compiled a career-long 17-game hit streak, April 16-May 5...throughout the streak, he batted .368 (25-for-68) with 5 doubles, a triple and 6 RBI...fell six-games short of the franchise record 23-game hitting streak, but did tie Larry Walker for the club season high...with the glove, Juan proved to be one of the most exciting shortstops in the game...did commit 27 errors, tied for the second most in the NL, but Uribe converted 766 successful chances for the Rockies...his 766 putouts and 793 chances accepted were tops among all shortstops in the majors...also had a hand in turning 119 double plays, the most of any big league shortstop...averaged 3.45 assists per nine innings, the second most among SS in the majors...only Jack Wilson of the Pittsburgh Pirates had more, averaging 3.53...struckout a team high 120 times, the fourth highest single-season strikeout total in franchise history...only Andres Galarraga has fanned more times (157 in 1996, 146 in 1995 and 141 in 1997)...had 38 multi-hit games, the third most on the team...had 29 two-hitters, eight three-hitters and one four-hit contest...the 4-hit game came Sept. 13 vs. Los Angeles, tying a career high...in the contest, Uribe had a single, double and triple, missing the cycle by a home run...got the first hit of the season for Colorado, a single to right in the first inning of the opener, April 1 at St. Louis.

2001: Juan appeared in 72 games over three stints in his first big league season, batting .300 (82-for-273) with 8 homers with 53 RBI...he and Juan Pierre tied the club single season record with 11 triples, set by Neifi Perez in 1999 and 2000...that total ranked second in the NL (Jimmy Rollins, 12) and third in the major leagues...the 11 triples came in only 273 at-bats, averaging one every 24.8 AB...the major league record-holder for triples, Owen Wilson in 1912, hit 36 triples in 583 at-bats, one every 16.2 AB...Uribe's .302 average was second among NL rookies, behind only Albert Pujols' .329 and his 53 RBI ranked fourth....despite playing less than half of the season, he was still third among rookies in slugging percentage (.524) and fourth in multi-hit games (25), extra-base hits (34) and total bases (143)...recalled on April 8 to fill the roster spot vacated by Perez, who was placed on the 15-day DL with a torn ligament in his left thumb...made his major-league debut the same day vs. San Diego as a pinch hitter, going 0-for-1...his first start came the following day, April 9, when he got the nod at short in St. Louis but went 0-for-4...on April 11, Juan recorded his first career hit, a single off the Cardinals' Matt Morris and scored his first run in a 3-2 loss...was optioned to AAA-Colorado Springs when Perez was activated on April 23...recalled again on May 19 and saw action in only one game as a pinch runner before being optioned down on May 23...recalled for the last time on July 25 when Perez was traded to Kansas City and Juan became the everyday shortstop from that day on...started 59 of the remaining 61 games...on Sept. 24 vs. San Diego, Juan went 4-for-4 with a triple, 3 RBI and 2 runs...with the glove, Juan finished with a .983 fielding percentage...he turned 45 double plays, had 108 putouts, 184 assists and committed only 5 errors...notched

5 triples in a 10-game span from September 8-28...in the season's final game, Oct. 7 at San Diego, Uribe went 3-for-5 with a pair of homers, a double, 5-RBI, 3 runs scored and 10 total bases...hit a homer and a double in the second inning, tying three franchise records in the process; most hits in an inning (2), most extra-base hits in an inning (2) and most total bases in an inning (6)...prior to the season, Uribe was tabbed by Baseball America as the No. 2 prospect in the entire organization.

2000: Uribe played the full season at Salem in the advanced Single-A Carolina League...posted career highs in hits (124), homers (13), RBI (65), runs (64), triples (7), steals (22) and strikeouts (100)...tied for the team lead in games (134) and finished second in HR...Colorado Springs' Phil Hiatt (136) was the only organizational player to see more games than Uribe...was third in the league both in triples and games played...over a 16-game stretch from June 6-24, he went 30-for-67 (.448) with 2 homers and 17 RBI...belted a grand slam on Aug. 24 vs. Frederick and also had a career-high 5 RBI in the win.

1999: In the leadoff slot for Asheville, he went 38-for-97 (.392)...was 4-for-10 (.400) with the bases loaded...on May 4, after driving in 4 runs over his first 19 games, he hit a grand slam vs. Columbus...built a 15-game hitting streak, June 24-July 14 (.415, 22-for-53, 8 RBI).

1998: In his first season in the United States, Juan earned a ring for the Arizona Rookie League champions...he played exclusively at shortstop, and made 14 errors in 40 games (.927).

1997: Made his pro debut in his native Dominican Republic.

CORY VANCE 47

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 195 B/T: L/L Age: 23 (24 on June 20)
Born: June 20, 1979 in Dayton, Ohio
Residence: Vandalia, Ohio
Major League Service: 0.013
Contract: First year of a one-year contract, through 2003

SELECTED in the fourth round of the 2000 June Draft.

CAREER: The Rockies' fourth round selection in 2000, Vance unexpectedly received his first major league call-up in late September of last year and appeared in two games with one start...beginning his fourth year as a professional, the former Georgia Tech star debuted with the club's short-season A club at Portland after being drafted...moved up to High A Salem in 2001, then Double A Carolina in 2002 before joining the big league club for the last two weeks...one of only three southpaws on the 40-man roster, Cory was recently tabbed as the 23rd best prospect in the system by Baseball America.

2002: Spent the entire season with AA-Carolina and was actually getting ready to head to Arizona Fall League when he received his first major league call-up on Sept.17...appeared in two games during the final two weeks of the season, including his first major league start on Sept. 28 at Arizona...the left-hander was 0-0 with a 6.75 ERA (4.0 ip, 3 er), allowing 4 hits, 2 home runs, with 4 walks and 1 strikeout...made his major league debut in relief on Sept. 21 vs. Arizona at Coors Field...after retiring his first batter, Steve Finley, Cory yielded back-to-back solo homers to Mark Grace (2-0 count) and Damian Miller (2-1 count)...got Jay Bell to pop out but then walked Womack and gave up a single to McCracken before getting Spivey on a flyout to end the inning...went almost a week without any action until Clint Hurdle named Vance as the starter in place of Victor Santos on Sept. 28 at Arizona...in his first career start, Cory worked 3.0 innings, giving up 1 run on 1 hit with 3 walks and a strikeout...a hit batsman and two walks led to a run in the first but then the southpaw settled down to retire six of his last seven D'Backs before exiting after 56 pitches...the former Georgia Tech star finished his third season in the Rockies system...earned a spot in Carolina's rotation this spring and went on to be a key member of the Mudcats rotation that helped the team into the Southern League Playoffs...led Carolina in wins (10), innings (150.1) and tied for the team lead in starts (25)...was 10-8, 3.77 ERA (150.1 ip, 63 er) with 76 walks and 114 strikeouts...Cory's Double A debut got off to a slow start as he lost his first two decisions and was just 1-5 after his first nine starts with a 3.91 ERA (53.0 ip, 23 er)...broke the slump with a win on May 24 at Chattanooga and from that point on the left-hander went 9-3 with a 3.70 ERA (97.1 ip, 40 er) over his final 16 starts...earned a decision in seven straight outings from June 9-July 21 (5-2)...from July 16-Aug. 16, he went 4-0 in seven starts with a 2.20 ERA (45.0 ip, 11 er)...threw his lone complete game to finish off the stretch on Aug. 16 vs. Jacksonville...his final regular season outing was a loss on Aug. 25 at Huntsville, snapping the winning streak...the lefty started Game One of Carolina's Southern League Playoff series vs. Jacksonville...worked 7.0 innings, allowing 3 runs on 5 hits with 4 walks and 3 strikeouts but did not factor into the decision...the game was tied 3-3 at the time of Cory's departure but Carolina scored four runs in the bottom half of the eighth to take Game One by a 7-3 final...Jacksonville went on to win the series.

2001: Spent all of 2001 at High A Salem where he was 10-8 with a 3.10 ERA...led the Avalanche with 142 strikeouts and his 10 wins and 154.0 innings were second on the team to only Aaron Cook...was named a mid-season All-Star in the Carolina League...did not allow an earned run in three consecutive starts, July 20 vs. Myrtle Beach (8.0 ip, 1 r), July 25 at Myrtle Beach (7.1 ip, 0 r) and July 30 at Winston Salem (7.0 ip, 0 r).

2000: Vance made just three starts and four relief appearances for Portland (A) in his first professional season...was 0-2 despite allowing just 3 earned runs in 24.1 innings (1.11 ERA).

COLLEGE: Cory was a Freshman All-America pick by Collegiate Baseball magazine in 1998 after ranking second in the ACC and 20th nationally with a 11.47 strikeouts per 9 innings ratio...with 102 strikeouts, he became just the second freshman in Tech history to record 100 K's...went 9-3 as a sophomore with a 4.43 ERA, including a 5-1 record vs. ACC opponents...also picked off eight basestealers and opponents were only 4-for-14 trying to steal against him...was the ace of the Yellow Jackets staff as a junior in 2000, registering the decision in all 16 of his starts...was 13-3 with a 3.40 ERA and 5 complete games...the 13 wins led the ACC and were one shy of the school record of 14 set by Brad Rigby...he was named a first team all-ACC selection.

PERSONAL: Cory Wade Vance...was named the Ohio State Player of the Year out of Vandalia-Butler High School after going 11-1 with a 1.19 ERA and 144 strikeouts and also hitting .479 with 9 homers and 38 RBI as a senior...drafted by the Dodgers in the 11th round of the 1997 June draft but chose not to sign and enrolled at Georgia Tech that fall...also earned letters in baseball and basketball while in high school...pitched for the USA Junior National Team during the summer of 1997...signed by Ed Santa.

LARRY WALKER 33

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 235 B/T: L/R Age: 36
Born: Dec. 1, 1966 in Maple Ridge, B.C.
Residence: Evergreen, Colo.
Major League Service: 14.045
Contract: Fourth year of a six-year contract through 2005

ORIGINALLY SIGNED as a free agent, April 8, 1995.

CAREER: Larry Walker is now in his club-record ninth season as a Rockie, his 15th in the major leagues...is one of only 13 players in NL camps this spring that have remained with the same team since Opening Day 1995...'Walk' enters the season just 30 games away from breaking Dante Bichette's franchise record for most games played (1,018)...has made 902 career starts with Colorado (816 at RF, 53 at CF, 30 at LF, 3 at 1B), just 79 away from breaking Bichette's mark of 980...since signing as a free agent on April 8, 1995, Walker has hit .341 with 236 home runs, 533 extra-base hits, 2,236 total bases with a .636 slugging and .425 on-base percentage, all franchise records...needs just 82 hits and 78 RBI to become the career leader in both of those categories as well...in a Rockies uniform, Larry has averaged 150 hits, 33 doubles, 30 home runs and 97 RBI per year...since his National League MVP season of 1997, no major leaguer has posted a higher average than Larry's .353 mark...since 1999, no player has hit for a better average than Walker (.346)...batted at least .360 in three straight seasons from 1997-99, only the 10th player in MLB history to do so and first since 1931...his '97 MVP campaign will certainly be remembered as one of the greatest in NL history, as he came within four hits and 10 RBI of the league's first Triple Crown in 60 years...he also posted the fifth highest slugging percentage ever (.720), became the first NL player to total 400 bases since 1959 and just the third player to ever hit 40 home runs with 30 stolen bases and 200 hits...in 1999, the five-time All-Star became the first player since 1980 to win the percentage triple crown and his .043 margin of victory in the batting title was the 11th highest in ML history...has won three batting titles (1998-99, 2001), tied for the eighth most in the history of the National League...among active players with at least 3,000 plate appearances, he ranks fifth in career average (.317), seventh in slugging (.574) and 15th in on-base percentage (.398)...Walker is also among the top 25 active ballplayers in doubles–13th (410), RBI–13th (1133), runs scored–18th (1152) and hits–25th (1863)...his 335 career home runs rank 15th among active players and tied with Darryl Strawberry for 74th all-time...is a seven-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner, tied for the sixth most by an outfielder in NL history...owns a .986 career fielding percentage with 136 outfield assists, second among active players to only Barry Bonds (149)...holds the club record for OF assists, 82, and consecutive errorless games, 132 (May 23, 1996-July 13, 1997)...statistically, his best career month is June, where he leads all active players with a .342 average...Mike Piazza is second at .326...Walker is Major League Baseball's all-time Canadian-born leader in nearly every offensive category (games, AB's, runs, hits, 2B's, 3B's, HR's RBI, and walks)...needs just four stolen bases to surpass Terry Puhl (218) for most steals by a Canadian...his accomplished career has included 26 multi-homer games, 525 multi-hit games (351 as a Rockie) and 280 multi-RBI contests (187 as a Rockie)...the three-time Louisville Silver Slugger Award winner (1992, '97, '99) has 31 four-hit games, the fourth most by an active player...has still yet to record a five-hit game.

1996: Larry opened in center field and homered in his first '96 at-bat at Philadelphia (Sid Fernandez)...drove in his 500th career run on April 24 with a homer vs. Philly...on May 21 vs. Pittsburgh, Walker set a club record and career high with 13 total bases and established a personal best with 6 RBI...the next afternoon, he tied a club record with 2 triples, and with a double, set the NL record for consecutive extra-base hits with six...on June 8 vs. Atlanta, was 4-for-4 with 4 runs scored, including a pair of solo homers...the next afternoon, on June 9, he slammed into the Coors Field fence in pursuit of a Jeff Blauser drive and broke his left clavicle...hitting .283 with 14 homers at the time, he missed the next 60 games...upon activation Aug.15, he returned to right field.

1995: Walker's 36 home runs, 14 HBP, 72 extra-base hits, .607 slugging pct. and 300 total bases were second in the NL, and he finished seventh in the MVP balloting...in his April 26 Rockies debut, and Coors Field's inaugural game, he had 3 doubles, including one with two out in the ninth that sent the game into extra innings, an 11-9 win over New York...homered in four consecutive May games ...hit his 100th career homer, May 7 vs. Los Angeles off Hideo Nomo. Postseason: Larry was 3-for-14 (.214) for the Wild Card Champion Rockies...hit a game-tying 3-run homer off Tom Glavine in Game 2 of the inaugural National League Division Series vs. Atlanta.

1994: Diagnosed with a rotator cuff tear, he still stayed in the lineup at first base, taking strain off the shoulder, and tied for the NL lead in doubles (44)...hit .322 with 19 homers and 86 RBI in the strike-shortened season...on an infamous evening at Dodger Stadium April 24, Larry had a pair of "throwing" errors; Brett Butler led off the first with a double, which Walker fielded on the warning track, but when he turned to throw, the ball slipped out of his hand, bounced off his shoulder and landed at his feet...then, in the third inning, Larry made a running catch for what he thought was the final out but with Jose Offerman tagging on the play, Walker handed the ball to 9-year-old Sebastian Napier...Dr. Larry Coughlin operated on Larry Oct. 4 at Montreal's Queen Elizabeth Hospital, repairing a slightly torn right rotator cuff and labrum.

1993: Turned in the first 20/20 season of his career with 22 homers and 29 stolen bases...earned his second straight Rawlings Gold Glove, committing only six errors in 292 chances (.979) in the outfield...hit his first grand slam, Aug. 21 at Cincinnati off John Roper.

1992: In a breakout season, he earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove, and a Louisville Silver Slugger for offensive performance...played in the All-Star Game at San Diego and garnered AP and Sporting News postseason all-star honors...finished fifth in the NL MVP balloting...hit .301 for the Expos (159-for-528) with 23 homers and 93 RBI.

1991: Walker enjoyed the NL's best second half, hitting .338 in 72 games with 21 doubles, 10 HR and 41 RBI after the break...played first base for 39 games, including Dennis Martinez's July 28 perfect game at Los Angeles (16 putouts, one assist).

1990: Larry finished tied for seventh in Rookie of the Year balloting, although he wasn't classified as a rookie for a period during the season...the BBWAA reinstated that status in a vote at the All-Star Game, clarifying and modifying the rookie rule to once again classify Walker as a rookie...hit 19 home runs and stole 22 bases...struck out 112 times, still the most K's in his ML career.

1989: Montreal recalled him Aug.16 and he made his major league debut that night, starting in right field vs. San Francisco....in the contest, Larry walked three times and got his first hit (Mike LaCoss).

1988: Walker missed the entire season with a right knee injury, sustained during winter ball at Hermosillo (Mexico), Jan. 16...his leg was in a cast for eight weeks and he rehabbed for seven months.

1987: At Double-A Jacksonville, he earned Southern League postseason all-star honors and won the prestigious James "Tip" O'Neill Award as the top baseball player from Canada.

1986: A 19-year old at Burlington, Walker hit 29 homers in 95 games, leading the league with 74 RBI before earning a promotion to West Palm Beach in mid July.

1985: Signed as a non-drafted free agent Nov. 14, 1984, Walker began his pro career at Utica.

PERSONAL: Larry Kenneth Robert Walker...Larry and his wife, Angela, make their home in Evergreen...Larry has a daughter, Brittany Marie (9), and he and his wife also have two daughters Canaan Rose-Lynn (3) and Shayna Kaitlin (1)...graduated from Maple Ridge (B.C.) Senior Secondary School in 1984...grew up a hockey goaltender, playing for 13 years, and teaming with former Bruins all-star Cam Neely...tried out for the Junior A Regina Pats...was playing baseball for the Canadian National Junior Team when Expos scouts discovered him...his family includes brothers, Gary, Carey and Barry, and parents, Larry and Mary...Carey was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens as a goaltender in 1977...has donated a substantial sum to the Rockies Youth Fields of Dreams Program and has opened five Colorado facilities (Northglenn, Aurora, Thornton, Ft. Collins and Denver), more than any player in program history...he's also a founding member of the Youth Sports Association, a non-profit organization for kids...helps to fund YSA by asking for a $25 contribution per autograph...his current contract included a joint $3,333,333 donation to children's organizations in British Columbia and Colorado...signed by Jim Fanning and Bob Rogers of the Expos...is a nine-time winner of the James "Tip" O'Neill Award, presented annually by the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame & Museum (individual achievement while adhering to the highest ideals of baseball).

PRESTON WILSON 24

★ OUTFIELDER ★

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 213 B/T: R/R Age: 28 (29 on July 19)
Born: July 19, 1974 in Bamberg, S.C.
Residence: Miami, Fla.
Major League Service: 4.038
Contract: Signed through 2005

ACQUIRED from Florida, along with C Charles Johnson, LHP Vic Darensbourg and INF Pablo Ozuna in exchange for LHP Mike Hampton, OF Juan Pierre and cash considerations, Nov. 18, 2002.

CAREER: Preston Wilson and Bobby Abreu are the only major league players to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in each of the last three seasons...over those three campaigns, Preston has averaged 26 homers and 25 stolen bases per year...became just the 23rd big leaguer ever to post a "30-30" season in 2000...his 104 career home runs rank third on Florida's all-time HR list, behind Gary Sheffield (122) and Cliff Floyd (110)...the ninth overall pick in the 1992 June draft, Preston has 10 multi-homer games, 3 grand slams and 3 pinch-hit home runs,..projected as the Rockies starting centerfielder, Wilson owns a .983 career fielding percentage with 39 outfield assists...has struck out 611 times as a major leaguer, averaging just about one every four plate appearances (2372 TPA)...enters his 11th season as a professional, his fifth in the major leagues.

2002: Wilson hit 20 home runs for the fourth consecutive season, the first player in Marlins history to accomplish the feat...also stole 20 bases in 31 attempts, posting his third consecutive 20-homer, 20 steal season...now has three of Florida's "20-20" campaigns, more than any other player...for the year, Preston appeared in a career-low 141 games, batting .243 (124-for-510) with 22 doubles, 2 triples and 65 RBI...drew a career-high 58 walks, besting his previous high of 55 in 2000...collected three multi-homer games, giving him 10 for his career...recorded eight 3-hit contests and three 4-RBI games...hit his third career grand slam on Opening Night, April 2 at Montreal off Britt Reames, just the 26th Opening Day grand slam in the major leagues since 1900...it was the first Opening Day slam in Marlins history...recorded his first multi-homer game of the year on May 3 at Milwaukee, his second on June 1 vs. the Mets and his last on June 12 at Kansas City...hit safely in a season-best six straight games, Aug. 16-21, batting .391 (9-for-23)...to take it further, from July 25-Aug. 20, he hit .301 (25-for-83) with 3 doubles, 3 home runs and 7 RBI... belted his 100th career home run on August 16 at San Francisco...stole his 20th base of the year on Aug. 20 at Dodger Stadium, then hit his 20th home run Aug. 27 vs. the Mets...sat out nine straight games, Sept. 19-28, and did not start in Florida's final 10 games, Sept. 19-29, due to inflammation in his left big toe...did pinch hit in the season finale on Sept. 29 vs. Philadelphia and struckout.

2001: Hit .274 with 23 home runs and 20 stolen bases, becoming the first Marlin in team history to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases in consecutive seasons...is also the first player in club history to post three consecutive 20-homer campaign...ranked fifth among NL outfielders and set a Marlins single-season record with a .993 fielding percentage (2 errors in 301 chances)...led Florida with 12 outfield assists, tied for fifth in the NL...hit .335 (67-for-200) combined in April and May, the fifth best mark in the NL over the first two months...his .346 (26-for-104) average in May ranked eighth in the circuit...stole home on April 15 at Montreal, his second career steal of home and fifth in Marlins history...set a club record with eight straight hits, May 12 at San Diego through May 15 vs. San Francisco...had hits in his last three at-bats on May 12, went 4-for-4 on May 13 and doubled in his first at-bat May 15....saw his 258 consecutive games played streak end on June 14 at Boston due to a strained back suffered in Toronto...it was the second-longest streak in Marlins history, behind Jeff Conine's 307 straight games, April 5, 1993-May 28, 1995...prior to June 14, Wilson's last game missed was the second game of a doubleheader at Houston on August 27, 1999....placed on the 15-day disabled list July 2 after suffering a sprained ulnar collateral ligament in his left thumb while making a diving catch in center field on July 1 at Philadelphia...posted a career-high 13-game hitting streak, Sept. 1-21...hit .412 (21-for-51) over that span with 6 homers and 13 RBI, including four straight multi-hit games, Sept. 2-5.

2000: Named Marlins MVP by the South Florida chapter of the BBWAA, becoming just 23rd player in major league history to hit 30 home runs and steal 30 bases in the same season...overall, it marked the 38th "30-30" season in ML history...set career highs in runs (94), hits (160), doubles (35), homers (31), RBI (121) and stolen bases (36)...his 121 RBI set a single-season club record, bettering the 120 driven in by Gary Sheffield in 1996...joined Jeff Conine (1993-94) as the only Marlins to play in every game of a season, seeing action in all 161 contests...on the NL leaderboard, he finished tied for fourth in games, sixth in steals and eighth in RBI...set a club record with 187 strikeouts, tied for the second highest total in major league history behind Bobby Bonds' 189 in 1970...Bonds also fanned 187 times in 1969...hit his second career grand slam off Armando Benitez on May 6 vs. the Mets...matched a club record by hitting a homer in four straight games, May 10-13...drove in his 100th run of the year on Sept. 2 vs. Colorado, joining Moises Alou, Conine and Sheffield as the only Marlins players to surpass the 100-RBI total...completed the fourth steal of home in club history Sept. 29 vs. Philly...hit his 20th HR off Roger Clemens on July 14 against the Yankees in his 90th game, the second-fastest Marlin to reach the mark (Sheffield 68 in 1996).

1999: Finished runner up to Scott Williamson for the 1999 National League Rookie of the Year Award in voting by the BBWAA...received nine first-place votes and a total of 88 points, 30 behind the Reds' right-hander...honored by his peers as the NL's Outstanding Rookie of the Year at the Players Choice Awards, as well as being selected as The Sporting News' NL Rookie Player of the Year...named to both Baseball Digest's and Topps' All-Rookie Team...led all big league rookies in home runs (26) and slugging percentage (.502)...ranked in the top 10 among NL rookies in 15 categories...led all first year players with 10 outfield assists...set a club record with three pinch hit home runs (May 9 at Los Angeles, June 15 at Arizona and July 30 at Pittsburgh)...recorded the second longest hitting streak of any rookie, 10 games, May 20-30 (.462, 18-for-39)... reached base in 22 straight games June 29-July 24...belted his first major league grand slam on Aug. 16 at Dodger Stadium...recorded his first career multi-homer game May 25 at Wrigley.

1998: Began the year with the Mets' Triple A affiliate at Norfolk before getting his first recall May 7...made his major league debut that day vs. St. Louis and singled off Donovan Osborne in his first ML at-bat...collected 3 hits, including 2 doubles, in his second game on May 8 vs. the Cardinals...optioned back to Norfolk on May 18...four days later, he was traded to Florida in a deal involving Mike Piazza on May 22...reported to AAA-Charlotte before being recalled by the Marlins on Sept. 1...hit his first major league home run in his third start with Florida, Sept. 6 vs. Montreal off Javier Vazquez...on the disabled list with a left wrist strain, April 20-May 2...rated the 70th best prospect in the majors and third-best in the Mets farm system by Baseball America prior to the season.

1997: Split the year between St. Lucie (A) and Binghamton (AA)...hit a combined .266 (134-for-504) with 30 homers and 95 RBI...started the year at Single A before moving up to Double A on June 20.

1996: Went on the disabled list three times during the year...at St. Lucie, he suffered a broken right wrist during spring training and began the season on the DL, April 4-29...placed on DL again May 21 because of the wrist and underwent surgery May 24 to repair fracture of the hamate bone...the surgery was performed by Dr. Richard Eaton at Roosevelt Hospital in Manhattan...returned from DL July 13 and after injuring his right shoulder was placed on the disabled list on July 29 for the rest of the season.

1995: His 20 homers at Columbia ranked second in the Mets' system...on the disabled list April 7-May 3 with a strained ligament in his elbow...started the year 0-for-20 but rebounded to hit .282 the rest of the way, including a .352 mark in July...also had a 19-game hitting streak in the month.

1994: Hit just .228 for Columbia (A) but finished second on the team with 58 RBI...his 14 homers tied for fourth among Mets minor leaguers.

1993: Led Mets short-season players with 48 RBI, tied for first in runs (44) and second in hits (60).

PERSONAL: Preston James Richard Wilson...is the stepson of Mets coach and former player Mookie Wilson...is the godson of former Reds and Mets star George Foster...graduated from Bamberg Erhardt (SC) High School where he set a national record with 7 grand slams...named Baseball America's High School Player of the Year in 1992 and played for the U.S. National Junior Team that same year...is extremely active in community programs around the Miami area...was the recipient of the Florida Marlins 2001 All-Heart Award, presented to the player who best exemplifies the team's commitment to the South Florida community...founded "Preston's Pals", a charity organization that raises funds for youth organizations, as well as "Preston's Pride" and "Preston's Operation: Back to School," programs to provide for under-priviledged and at-risk children...serves as a spokesperson for the South Florida Blood Banks Sickle Cell Program...created a scholarship at his high school to help students pay for college...has also helped various programs such as the African American Council of Christian Clergy's "A Dream Come True" program, Marlins Youth Baseball Clinics, Sharon Robinson's "Breaking Barriers" program, Adopt-A-Classroom and Make-A-Wish Foundation.

RONNIE BELLIARD 10

★ INFIELDER ★

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 5-8 Wt: 197 B/T: R/R Age: 27 (28 on April 7)

Born: April 7, 1975 in Bronx, NY

Residence: Miami, Fla.

Major League Service: 3.163

SIGNED as a minor league free agent, Jan. 17, 2003.

CAREER: Belliard is a .263 major league batter in 489 games...joins his second organization, as he had played in Milwaukee's system ever since being drafted in the eighth round in 1994.

2002: Played second base (49 games) and third base (42 games) for Milwaukee...tied a career-best with 2 home runs on Sept. 2 at Wrigley in game one of a doubleheader...had three 3-hit games on the year...best month was April when he batted .271 (13-for-48) in 16 contests...was 6-for-23 as a pinch-hitter...made 10 errors, 6 at third base and 4 at second...did not commit an error from June 1-Aug. 1.

2001: Set a career mark with 11 home runs and equaled a career-high with 30 doubles previously set in 2000...was Milwaukee's Opening Day second baseman...on May 15 at Philadelphia, he went 4-for-7 with a club record-tying 3 doubles...had another 4-hit game and scored 4 runs on July 7 at San Francisco...posted a season-high 8-game hitting streak July 7-17, batting .429 (15-35)...recorded his first career multi-homer game on July 24 vs. Los Angeles...overall in July he hit .344 with 6 HR...suffered a high left ankle sprain on Aug. 8 at New York in an attempt to turn a double play...was placed on the 15-day disabled list Aug. 10...activated from DL on Sept. 30...ended the season in an 0-for-22 slump with his last hit being a home run off Atlanta's Jason Marquis Aug. 3 at Miller Park...made one error in his final 63 games.

2000: Established career-marks in nearly every offensive category including games (152), runs scored (83), hits (150), and doubles (30) while setting the Brewers' National League franchise record with career-high 9 triples...those triples tied him for eighth overall in Brewers history...hit in 10-or-more consecutive games twice during the season, including a career-high 13-game hitting streak, May 9-23.

1999: Belliard was named the Milwaukee Brewers Rookie of the Year...began the season at Triple A Louisville before being recalled on May 11...finished the season tops among National League rookies in almost every offensive category, including batting average (1st), runs batted in (6th), multi-hit games (4th), runs (6th), hits (4th), total bases (5th), doubles (2nd), triples (T-3rd), hitting streaks (T-5th), walks (1st), on-base percentage (1st), slugging percentage (3rd) and extra base hits (4th)...hit his first ML home run and drove in his first run with a solo shot May 15 vs. Florida off Brian Meadows in the fourth.

1998: Named to the International League All-Star team after batting .321 (163-for-507) for Louisville...led the Redbirds with 163 hits and was second on the team with 32 stolen bases...recalled by Milwaukee Sept. 12 and made his major league debut as a pinch-runner that day at Chicago-NL...singled as a pinch hitter for his first ML hit Sept. 16 at Cincinnati.

1997: Hit .282 (125-for-443) in 118 games with Tucson of the Pacific Coast League...had a 22-game hitting streak from July 27- August 21 in which he batted .347...compiled a .325 average with 19 doubles, 3 triples, 2 home runs and 31 RBI over last two months of the season.

1996: Assigned to Double A El Paso of the Texas League out of spring training...tied for fourth in the league in triples and stolen bases...posted a 23-game hitting streak, April 21-May 17, the longest streak in the league...named to the Texas League All-Star Team.

1995: Spent the entire season with Single A Beloit...slugged 13 homers and drove in 76 runs...tied for second on club with RBI total...ranked second on Snappers with 137 hits.

1994: In his first professional season, he had the sixth-best average in the Arizona Rookie League (.294) with Chandler.

PERSONAL: Ronald Belliard...is married (Candida) and has a daughter (Milenia).

RAUL CASANOVA 20

★ CATCHER ★

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 221 B/T: S/R Age: 30 (31 on Aug. 23)

Born: Aug. 23, 1972 in Humacao, Puerto Rico

Residence: Ponce, Puerto Rico

Major League Service: 5.153

SIGNED to a minor league contract on Dec. 27, 2002.

CAREER: Casanova returns to Colorado for his second tour of duty with the organization (2000 non-roster invitee)...originally drafted by Mets in eighth round of 1990 draft, Raul is a career .232 career hitter.

2002: Was the Opening Day starter for Milwaukee and went on to hit .184 (16-for-87) with a homer and 8 RBI...his lone clout was a grand slam on May 12 at Wrigley Field off Scott Chiasson...placed on the disabled list with a torn ulnar collateral ligament in his left elbow on May 16...went on a rehab assignment with AAA Indianapolis and hit .279 (12-for-43) in 14 games...activated from the DL on Aug. 23 and then designated for assignment the next day...signed by Baltimore Sept. 11 but appeared in only two games.

2001: Played in 71 games for the Brewers, setting a career high with 11 home runs...tied his career high with 3 hits on May 12 vs. Pittsburgh...added a pair of 4 RBI tilts, May 14 vs. Pittsburgh and July 2 vs. Houston...suffered torn cartilage in his left knee and was placed on the 15-day disabled list Aug. 11...transferred to the 60-day DL Aug. 25 and did not to play the remainder of the season...underwent arthroscopic surgery Aug. 27 performed by Dr. William Raasch at St. Michael Hospital in Milwaukee.

2000: Joined Milwaukee halfway through spring training, signing a minor league contract on March 25...split the season between Indianapolis (AAA) and the Brewers...had his contract purchased by Milwaukee April 14...designated for assignment on May 2...Raul's contract was again purchased on May 19 and he would remain a Brewer for the rest of the season...connected on his first career grand slam June 13 vs. Montreal off Steve Kline...hit his second career grand slam on Sept. 27 vs Cincinnati (Danny Graves), helping drive in a career high 5 runs...caught in 22 of the Brewers final 29 games.

1999: Opened the season on Detroit's disabled list after doctors found a benign tumor and fracture of his seventh rib during spring training...finished the season in Triple A after being outrighted to Toledo July 12...played winter ball in Puerto Rico and won the league batting title (.331) with Ponce.

1998: Made Detroit's Opening Day roster...suffered an abdominal strain April 24 and was placed on the disabled list...activated from the DL and sent to AAA Toledo...strained his left hamstring four days later and was again placed on the DL...missed the remainder of the season when he sustained a fractured wrist Aug. 2 in a rehab assignment with Toledo.

1997: Began the season at Triple A Toledo but finished as Detroit's primary catcher, starting 83 games including 48 of the Tigers 77 games after the All-Star break.

1996: Made two stops with the Tigers after being acquired on March 22 from San Diego...was first recalled May 24 and made his major league debut that day behind the plate vs. Cleveland...recorded his first big league hit off Kansas City's Tim Belcher on May 27...connected on his first home run May 29 off the Royals' Kevin Appier...on June 18 vs Oakland, fractured the hamate bone in his left wrist and remained on the disabled list until Aug. 13...optioned to Toledo and eventually recalled on Sept. 3...named by Baseball America as the Tigers' third best prospect.

1995: Limited to 89 games at AA Memphis by two ankle injuries...named San Diego's sixth-best prospect by Baseball America.

1994: At Rancho Cucamonga, was the Padres' Organizational Player of the Year...the California League All-Star led the league in average (.340) and hits (160)...was second in the league in RBI (120) and slugging percentage (.552), tied for second in total bases (260) and tied for third in home runs (23).

1993: Acquired by San Diego as the player to be named later in the Tony Fernandez deal on Oct. 26, 1992...appeared in 76 games at Class A Waterloo hitting .256 with 6 home runs and 30 runs batted in.

1992: In his final year in the Mets' system, he spent most of his season at Rookie Kingsport.

1991: Split his season between the Gulf Coast League Mets and the short-season Kingsport club.

1990: Reported to the Gulf Coast League at age 17 after signing his first contract.

PERSONAL: Raul and his wife Dali have two sons, Raulito and Roy, and reside in Puerto Rico...graduated from Ponce High School...has played winter ball in Puerto Rico in each of the last 11 off-seasons.

SIGNED as a minor league free agent, Dec. 31, 2002.

CAREER: Clontz sat out the entire 2002 season and has not made a major league appearance since April 30, 2000 with the Pirates...owns a 22-8 career ML record, including a 8-1 mark with the World Champion Braves in 1995.

2002: Brad was signed by San Diego prior to spring training and officially released from the club's Triple A affiliate, Portland, on March 26...did not pitch the rest of the year.

2001: Signed a minor league contract with Colorado Springs on March 27 and appeared in 21 games before being released July 1...did not walk a batter in his final seven appearances....returned to the Braves organization in August with Myrtle Beach (High A) of Carolina League...worked scoreless relief in six of nine appearances with the Pelicans...pitched in the Puerto Rican Winter League following the season and went 2-0 without allowing a run in three appearances for Bayamon.

2000: Went to spring training with the Pirates but was traded to Arizona during camp...released by the D'Backs March 29 at re-signed with Pittsburgh April 7...reported to AAA-Nashville before having his contract purchased by the Pirates April 20...worked a career-high 3.1 ip on April 26 vs. SD...placed on the 60-day disabled list due to an elbow injury May 11 (retro to May 1)...had arthroscopic surgery performed on his right elbow by Dr. James Andrews on May 17...returned Aug. 25 to throw in four games for AA Altoona.

1999: Made 56 appearances for the Pirates, posting a career-best 2.74 ERA (49.1 ip, 15 er)...signed with Pittsburgh two days after being released by the Red Sox near the end of spring training...earned 7 saves in 12 appearances for Nashville, and was tied for the Pacific Coast League lead in saves when he had his contract purchased by Pittsburgh...posted a 0.69 ERA in his first nine games with the Pirates...recorded a save Sept. 1 at Colorado, his first in the majors since Sept. 25, 1997.

1998: Pitched for the Braves, Dodgers and Mets organizations...opened spring training with Atlanta...signed with LA on April 9 and did not allow a hit nor a run in his first 9 games, 11.2 ip...acquired by the Mets on June 5, pitched one game before being optioned to AAA Norfolk...recalled in September, but was eventually shut down for the year to remove bone chips in his right elbow.

1997: Brad was 5-1 with a 3.75 ERA in 51 games for the Braves...optioned to AAA-Richmond twice where he did not allow an earned run in 22.0 innings overall (16 apps).

1996: Set a club record with 81 appearances, breaking Rick Camp's mark of 77 in 1980...did not allow a run in four postseason games for the NL champs, including three World Series games (1.2 ip) vs. NYY.

1995: Clontz was one of Atlanta's top relievers in his first major league season, giving up just one run in five postseason appearances for the World Champions...went 8-1 with a 3.65 ERA in the regular season...recorded his first ML save April 27 vs. San Francisco....earned his first win June 28 vs. Montreal, the start of an eight-game winning streak, third-longest in the NL in 1995...tossed 18.2 consecutive scoreless innings June 18-August 2...was 6-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 13 July appearances.

1994: Won the Minor League Rolaids Relief Man Award, saving 38 games at two levels...led the Southern League with a team-record 27 saves for AA-Greenville, being named the league's Most Valuable Pitcher...saved 11 games at Richmond (AAA)...won the Phil Niekro Award as the Most Outstanding Pitcher in the Atlanta chain and the organization's Minor League Player of the Year Award presented by USA Today...Baseball America named him a postseason Minor League All-Star.

1993: Went 1-7 despite a 2.75 ERA in for Durham (A)...was the Bulls' Pitcher of the Month in July.

1992: Needed only four games to graduate from the Rookie-level Appalachian League after making his pro debut with Pulaski...went 2-1 with a 3.91 ERA in 17 games with Single-A Macon.

COLLEGE: Played at Virginia Tech, where he went 12-3 with a 3.32 ERA in his final season of 1992.

PERSONAL: John Bradley (Brad) Clontz...attended Patrick County High School in Virginia.

ACQUIRED from Florida, along with C Charles Johnson, OF Preston Wilson and INF Pablo Ozuna in exchange for LHP Mike Hampton, OF Juan Pierre and cash considerations, Nov. 18, 2002.

CAREER: Darensbourg enters his 11th professional season but first outside the Marlins organization...has made at least 40 appearances in each of his first five years in the majors.

2002: Appeared in a career-low 42 games before being outrighted to Triple A Calgary on Aug. 30...went 1-2 for the second straight year with a 6.14 ERA (48.1 ip, 33 er), 26 walks and 33 strikeouts...recorded a 4.11 ERA (30.2 ip, 14 er) at home but only 9.68 (17.2 ip, 19 er) on the road...stranded only 10 of 21 inherited runners (48%)...first batters faced hit .314 off him (11-for-35)...began the season by allowing just 1 earned run and 1 hit over his first eight games and 4.2 innings (1.93 ERA)...from that point on, he gave up 32 earned runs in 43.2 innings (6.60 ERA)...was 1-2 with a 3.97 ERA in 31 games prior to the All-Star Break and 0-0 with an 11.30 ERA in 11 games after the Break...the opposition hit .275 against him in the first half but .362 in the second half...collected his lone win on May 3 at Milwaukee, his first victory since Aug. 9, 2001...struck out a season-best 4 batters on four occasions, the last coming on July 30 vs. St. Louis...dropped decisions on May 24 at Shea and June 25 vs. Philadelphia...allowed runs in seven of his final 10 outings (11.1 ip, 18 er), raising his ERA from 3.65 to 6.14...on Aug. 23 at San Diego, he gave up a career-high 8 runs, all earned, on 6 hits with 2 walks.

2001: Made 50 appearances for the fourth consecutive year, walking only 10 batters in 48.2 innings, a 1.8 BB/9IP ratio...averaged over 3 strikeouts for every walk (33/10)...was 1-1 with a 2.63 ERA (24.0 ip, 7 er) at home, but 0-1, 5.84 ERA (24.2 ip, 16 er) on the road...inherited a team-high 39 runners, stranding 23 (59%)...posted a 2.08 ERA in May, allowing 1 earned run in 4.1 ip...on July 17 vs. Baltimore, he earned his second career save, first since Sept. 6, 1998...won his only game on Aug. 9 vs. Arizona, his first win since Sept. 1, 2000 at Bank One...placed on the 15-day DL Aug. 20 with left shoulder inflammation...activated Sept. 17 and went on to record a 1.93 ERA for the month of September (4.2 ip, 1 er)...tossed 4.2 scoreless innings over five games to end the season, including three shutout appearances in October.

2000: Went 5-3 in 56 appearances for his first 5 victories of his career...his 4.06 ERA led the Marlins bullpen among players who had spent the whole year with the club...ranked fourth in the NL by allowing just 15.9% of inherited runners to score (7/44)...trailed only Milwaukee's Curtis Leskanic (9.7%, 3/31), Colorado's Mike Myers (14.1%, 9/64), Seattle's Rob Ramsay (14.7%, 5/34) and the Mets' Turk Wendell (15.0%, 6/40)...earned his first career win in his 124th career appearance, a 3-2, 14-inning victory over Pittsburgh on April 20...the win broke the longest string of appearances (123) without a win to begin a career in major league history...began the season with four straight victories over his first 32 games...then took three straight losses before breaking the skid with his fifth victory on Sept. 1 at Arizona.

1999: Appeared in 56 games for the Marlins with about a month-long stint at Calgary...on May 23 vs. Pittsburgh, Vic set a club record by losing his eighth consecutive decision dating back to 1998...was not scored upon in 15 of his first 16 appearances from April 5-May 5 when opponents hit .182 (4-for-22) and he recorded a 2.70 ERA...optioned to Triple A and made nine appearances before being recalled Aug. 22.

1998: In his first major league season, led NL relievers by allowing just 12.1% (4/33) of inherited runners to score...struck out 74 batters, the most in team history by a southpaw... led the club and finished third among NL rookies with 59 relief appearances....ranked third among NL relievers by holding the opposition to just a .149 average with runners on and ranked fifth by holding the league to a .148 average w/RISP...opponents hit .207 (52-for-251) overall, ranking him ninth among NL relievers (min. 54.0 ip)...tied a Marlins reliever record with 6 strikeouts on Sept. 24 vs. SF...made his ML debut on April 1 vs. the Cubs, tossing one scoreless inning with a strikeout...notched his first career save Sept. 6 vs. Montreal.

1997: Had two stints on the disabled list with AAA-Charlotte...placed on the DL April 25-June 21 with a broken left hand and then July 29-remainder of the season with a left shoulder strain.

1996: Began the year on Brevard County's DL (April 4-15) while rehabilitating from right elbow surgery...joined AAA-Charlotte in late April and had a win and two saves and was unscored upon in his first 11 games...his 47 relief appearances tied Miguel Batista for the organizational lead.

1995: Missed the entire season after undergoing arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips from his left elbow...placed on the disabled list May 3 and was activated on September 15.

1994: Led Portland (AA) with 10 wins...named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week, Aug. 22-28 (1-0, 1.72 ERA)...tossed a 6-hit shutout at Albany on August 28...closed the season with 17.2 scoreless innings.

1993: A Midwest League Postseason All-Star, Vic was the Marlins' Minor League Pitcher of the Year...finished second in the organization with 16 saves and led the league with 11.23 K / 9 IP...was the Organizational Pitcher of the Month for June when he posted a 3-0, 2.12 record.

1992: Debuted with Melbourne...named Organizational Pitcher of the Month for August (2-1, 0.82).

PERSONAL: Victor Anthony Darensbourg...he and his wife, Felicia, have two daughters, Paige (5/30/95) and Sydney Jacquelyn (1/29/01)...graduated from Los Angeles' Westchester High in 1989 and attended Lewis & Clark (CA) University...serves as co-chairman of the Marlins RBI program and donated $50 for every appearance...is the celebrity spokesperson for the Books and Bats Summer Reading program...also participates in the Marlins' Adopt-a-Classroom and MLBPA "Buses for Baseball" programs....signed by DeJon Watson.

SIGNED to a minor league contract, Jan. 24, 2003.

CAREER: Garces sports a .697 winning percentage (23-10), the highest of any reliever with at least 300.0 innings pitched…Paul Shuey (.629, 39-23) is second, followed by Danny Graves (.625, 35-21)…Rich won 13 consecutive decisions at one point in his career from Aug. 18, 1999-Aug. 17, 2000…the right-hander has appeared in 287 ML games out of the bullpen with no starts…enters his 16th season as a pro.

2002: Opened the season with Boston, pitching in 16 games before being placed on the 15-day disabled list with a strained right hamstring June 3…pitched in two games during his rehab assignment for the Gulf Coast Red Sox (4.0 ip, 0 er) before being recalled June 25…in his final 10 games with Boston, Garces posted a 1.08 ERA (8.1 ip, 1 er) while striking out 7…designated for assignment July 26 and was eventually released Aug.1…finished with a 7.59 ERA (21.1 ip, 18 er) in 26 games, his highest in a single professional year since a 8.33 ERA in 35 games with Triple A Portland during the 1993 season.

2001: Went 6-1 with the Red Sox, while posting a 3.90 ERA (67.0 ip, 29 er)…appeared in career game No. 200 on May 5 vs. Baltimore…roughed up a bit in May, allowing 11 earned runs in 12.1 innings (a 6.57 ERA), but rebounded in June with a 1.80 mark (10.0 ip, 2 er)…his only June runs allowed came via solo homers June 25 vs. Tampa, the first HRs allowed in his previous 23 outings (25.0 ip)…placed on the 15-day DL June 26 with a strained right hamstring and was recalled July 12.

2000: Pitched in 64 games for the Red Sox, going 8-1 with a 3.25 ERA (74.2 ip, 27 er)…became the first ever Boston reliever to start a season 8-0…including his 8-0 start, Garces notched 13 consecutive wins dating back into the 1999 season…the 13-game winning streak tied Ellis Kinder (1949) and Ike Delock (1958) for the third longest streaks in franchise history…earned his first and only loss of the season Sept. 2 vs. Seattle, his 57th outing of the year…held opponents to a .229 batting clip.

1999: Opened the year at AAA Pawtucket and pitched in 21 games prior to being recalled by the Red Sox…with Boston, Garces went 5-1 with a 1.55 ERA and 33 strikeouts…set a career high in innings pitched when he tossed 3.1 scoreless frames vs. the Yankees July 30…held opponents to a .171 average against.

1998: Spent time with Boston, Triple A Pawtucket and in the Gulf Coast League…went 1-1 with a 3.33 ERA (46.0 ip, 17 er) with the Red Sox…saved the May 8 contest vs. Kansas City, his first save since Oct. 1, 1990 vs. Seattle…saw stints on the disabled list on three separate occasions, eventually being transferred to the 60-day DL Sept. 12 with bone chips in his right elbow.

1997: Opened the season on the 15-day disabled list due to a right groin strain…recalled from his injury rehab and placed on the 25-man roster April 27…pitched in 12 games for Boston, earning a 4.61 ERA (13.2 ip, 7 er) and 0-1 record…again placed on the DL June 2 and eventually finished the remainder of the season at Triple A…with Pawtucket, he went 2-1 with a 1.45 ERA (31.0 ip, 5 er).

1996: Started the year at Triple A, but had his contract purchased April 27…earned his first major league win June 7 vs. Milwaukee…struckout a career high 7 on April 30 in just 3.0 innings of work…transferred to the 60-day disabled list Sept. 3 after originally going on the 15-day DL Aug. 24 with a strained latisimus muscle in his upper rib cage.

1995: Had his contract purchased by the Cubs from AAA Iowa June 27…pitched in seven games with Chicago before being claimed off waivers by Florida Aug. 9…closed the year out with the Marlins, appearing in 11 games…signed a minor league deal Dec. 13 with Boston following the season.

1994: Spent the entire year with Nashville (AA), going 4-5 with a 3.72 ERA in 40 games.

1993: Recalled by the Twins from Portland on April 20, pitching in three games before being optioned back down to Triple A for the remainder of the season May 14…ranked third in the PCL for most walks (64).

1992: For Double A Orlando, Rich was 3-3 with a 4.54 ERA (73.1 ip, 37 er) and 13 saves, the third most in Minnesota's farm system.

1991: Split time with both Portland (AAA) and Orlando (AA), seeing action in 10 games with both.

1990: Made his major league debut with the Twins on Sept. 18 vs. Kansas City (1.0 ip, 1 h, 1 BB)…pitched in five games for Minnesota, compiling a 1.59 ERA (5.2 ip, 1 er)…with Class A Visalia, he was named the California League's Best Prospect by Baseball America and All-Single A All-Star by Topps and Baseball America...led the league in saves (28), runners per 9 (8.23) and in relief points (84).

1989: Made 24 starts for Single A Kenosha...recorded a one-hitter Aug. 27 vs. Rockford.

1988: In his first professional season, he went 5-4 with a 2.29 (59.0 ip, 15 er) in 17 games for Rookie Elizabethton...in the league, he finished with the fifth most relief points (23) and was seventh in ERA.

PERSONAL: Richard Aron Garces...he and his wife, Lisabeth, and children, Genesis and Geder, make their offseason home in Maracay, Venezuela...played baseball, basketball and volleyball at Jose F. Rivas High School in Venezuela.

Born: Sept. 4, 1970 in Cirda, Puerto Rico
Residence: Cirda, Puerto Rico
Major League Service: 8.135

SIGNED to a minor league contract, Dec. 27, 2002.

CAREER: Luis has appeared 648 major league contests...enters his ninth season in the majors and 16th in professional baseball...is a career .406 (13-for-32) batter at Coors Field.

2002: Opened the season on the Brewers disabled list with a strain in his right quadriceps...was activated May 19 and went 0-for-8 before being released June 6...signed a minor league deal with Baltimore June 20...reported to Triple A Rochester and went on to bat .324 (22-for-68) with 6 doubles, 3 homers and 8 RBI...Baltimore purchased his contract July 12 and Luis would finish the season with the Orioles...appeared in 52 games for Baltimore, 18 starts, and batted .211 (23-for-109).

2001: With Milwaukee, Lopez made 51 starts, seeing action at second base (9), third base (33) and shortstop (9)...in 92 games, he posted a .270 (60-for-222) average and knocked in 18 runs...batted .296 in the second half of the season thanks to a .299 August average and a .346 clip in September...equaled his career mark with 4 hits July 7 at San Francisco.

2000: Made 28 starts at shortstop, 14 at second base and one at third base...committed 8 errors, 7 as a shortstop...set career highs in homers (6) and RBI (27)...connected on his first career pinch-hit homer on May 24 vs Atlanta...equalled his career-high in hits with 4 on Sept. 3 at Colorado.

1999: Spent the entire season with the Mets, batting .212 (22-for-104) with 2 homers and 13 RBI...had five starts at second base and 11 at shortstop...got off to a hot start, posting a .318 average in April.

1998: Spent his first full season with the Mets...established career highs in games played (117), at-bats (266), runs scored (37), doubles (13) and triples (2)...had a career-high seven-game hitting streak from July 22-29...made his first major league appearance in the outfield with a start in left April 30 vs. Colorado...tied his career in RBI with 4 on Sept. 7 vs Atlanta.

1997: Opened the season with San Diego, but was traded to Houston on March 16...was then traded March 31 to the New York Mets organization and reported to AAA Norfolk...had his contract purchased by the Mets June 2...with New York, Lopez saw action in 78 games and batted .270 (48-for-178) with a homer and 19 RBI...his lone home run came Sept. 14 vs Montreal.

1996: Opened the season on San Diego's 15-day disabled list recovering from "Tommy John surgery" on his right elbow the previous spring...was activated by the Padres on April 18...saw action in 54 games, before being placed on the DL with a strained left shoulder July 31...activated from the DL on Sept. 1.

1995: Suffered a torn ligament in his right elbow during a March 14 exhibition game vs. San Francisco and missed the entire season...underwent "Tommy John surgery" (transplanting a ligament from the forearm to elbow) in the spring and spent the rest of the year rehabilitating the arm.

1994: Opened the season with Triple A Las Vegas but was recalled by the Padres April 21...connected on his first career homer May 23 vs. San Francisco, a grand slam...became the second Padre to hit a grand slam for his first home run, joining Mike Corkins who did it the day Luis was born, Sept. 4, 1970.

1993: Began the season with AAA-Las Vegas...his 36 doubles were tied for third in the Pacific Coast League and tied for fourth in all of Triple A...recalled by the Padres on Sept. 6 and made his major league debut the following day vs. Florida...notched his first ML hit Sept. 9 off Atlanta's Mark Wohlers, the only Padres hit in the game.

1992: Spent the entire season with Triple A Las Vegas batting .233 (92-for-395) with 31 runs knocked in...played only shortstop throughout the season, 117 games, helping turn 70 doubleplays.

1990: Played in only 14 games at Single A Riverside before undergoing April surgery on his left knee.

1989: Spent the entire year with Single A Charleston of the South Atlantic League...committed a career-high 74 errors in his first full season.

1988: After signing with the Padres as a free agent, he appeared in 70 games for the Northwest League Champion Spokane Indians...in the league, he finished fourth in hits and third AB's.

PERSONAL: Luis Manuel Lopez...he and his wife Miltza have two daughters, Gabriela and Monica, and two sons, Luis and Fernando...graduated from San Jose High School in Caguas, Puerto Rico...played baseball, basketball, volleyball and soccer in high school.

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 225 B/T: R/R Age: 32 (33 on Sept. 9)

Born: Sept. 9, 1970 in Newark, NJ

Residence: Winter Springs, Fla.

Major League Service: 8.027

SIGNED to a minor league contract, Dec. 19, 2002.

CAREER: Miceli enters his 14th year of professional baseball, his ninth in the big leagues...owns a 2-to-1 strikeouts to walks ratio (454/225) as a major leaguer...has a career 3.46 ERA in eight playoff games, including 1.2 innings of scoreless work in the 1998 World Series...pitched for Colorado during the second half of the 2001 season.

2002: Opened the season in the Texas Rangers bullpen...pitched in nine games, 8.1 innings of work and compiled a 8.64 ERA...was released by Texas May 6 and didn't sign with another club until agreeing to terms with the Rockies Dec. 19.

2001: Spent time with both Florida and Colorado, compiling a 4.80 ERA (45.0 ip, 24 er) and 2-5 record...with Florida, he appeared in 29 games and allowed 19 earned runs in 24.2 innings of work...was released by the Marlins June 27 and then signed by the Rockies July 3...reported to AAA Colorado Springs and pitched in four games before having his contract purchased July 8...made his Rockies' debut that day, pitching a scoreless seventh...went on to post a 2.21 ERA (20.1 ip, 5 er) in 22 games for Colorado, the team's lowest second half ERA...did not allow an earned run in August (eight games) or September (four games), a total of 11.1 innings.

2000: Pitched in 45 games for the Marlins, securing a 4.25 ERA (48.2 ip, 23 er) with 40 strikeouts...led the team with 6 relief wins, the ninth most in the NL...held right-handed batters to a .216 average and allowed just one of his 14 inherited runners to score....gave up only 2 earned runs in his first 11 outings, 11.1 innings, and only 4 earned runs in his first 18 contests, 20.1 innings...placed on the 15-day disabled list May 31 due to inflammation of the flexor muscle in his right forearm...pitched in seven games during his rehab assignment for Melbourne and Brevard County, before being reinstated July 19.

1999: Led San Diego with 66 appearances and finished second on the squad to Trevor Hoffman in strikeouts (59) and games finished (28)...opened the season by going 4-2 with a 3.46 ERA (39.0 ip, 15 er) in his first 38 contests...had his best month in June when he didn't allow an earned run in eight games, 11.0 innings, holding opponents to a .088 batting average...at home, he posted a 2.65 ERA in 33 games, as opposed to his 6.61 ERA on the road.

1998: Appeared in a club-high 67 games in his first season with the Padres...held the opposition scoreless in 54 of his 67 appearances and stranded 21-of-31 inherited runners...led all NL relievers with 10 wins...at one point, worked 20.1 scoreless innings from July 12-Aug. 28, helping to lower his ERA from 4.01 to 2.71...did not surrender a run in 12.0 innings of action during August. Postseason: Saw work in eight games and compiled a 1-1 record with a 3.18 ERA...in the NLCS vs. Atlanta, he allowed one run on 4 hits in .2 ip...vs. the Yankees in the World Series, he threw 1.2 scoreless innings in two games.

1997: With the Detroit Tigers, Miceli set career highs in appearances (71) and strikeouts (79)...posted a 3.00 ERA from July 22 through the end of the season...had his best month in May, gathering a 1.54 ERA with 12 strikeouts...earned a win Aug. 21 at Milwaukee in his longest career relief outing (3.0 ip).

1996: Made his first and only career starts with Pittsburgh (9)...his first professional start came July 7 vs. St. Louis when he pitched in 4.0 innings, allowing 1 earned run...that start snapped a string of 306 career appearances in relief...set a career high with 9 strikeouts July 20 vs. Cincinnati...overall, worked in a personal best 85.2 innings...compiled a 2.14 ERA in his final 16 relief outings.

1995: Appeared in his first full season in the majors with the Pirates, converting a team and career high 21 saves, the most for a Pirate since Bill Landrum saved 26 in 1989...finished 51 games, tying him for the fifth most in the National League.

1994: Opened the season with AAA Buffalo and pitched in six games prior to being recalled by Pittsburgh April 22...was optioned down to Buffalo May 25 after appearing in 11 games for the Pirates...recalled again May 29 and then sent down for a final time June 16...called-up to Pittsburgh July 11 and remained on the big league club the remainder of the season...earned his major league victory July 19 vs. Atlanta and got his first ML save July 25 vs. Chicago-NL.

1993: Made his major league debut with the Pirates Sept. 9 vs. Colorado, retiring his only batter faced...opened the year with Kansas City's Double A affiliate Memphis before being traded to the Pittsburgh organization...reported to AA Carolina and went 0-2 before being recalled to the Pirates.

1992: Split time between Single A Appleton and Double A Memphis, being named Kansas City's Minor League Player of the Year...finished with a 1.92 combined ERA (61.0 ip, 13 er) and 4-1 record.

1991: Led Eugene (A) with 10 saves, the third most in the Northwest League...ranked fourth in games finished (21), relief average against (.158) and fifth in both runners per 9.0 ip (9.89) and relief points (28).

1990: In his first professional season, Miceli finished first in the league in games pitched with 27.

PERSONAL: Daniel Miceli...he and his wife Lisa have a daughter, Danielle (1/10/99)...is a graduate of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla.

KIT PELLOW 70

★ INFIELDER ★

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 205 B/T: R/R Age: 29 (30 on Aug. 28)

Born: Aug. 28, 1973 in Kansas City, Mo.

Residence: Olathe, Kan.

Major League Service: 0.048

SIGNED to a minor league contract, Nov. 11, 2002.

CAREER: Pellow appeared in 803 minor league games before making his major league debut last season with the Royals...a .276 career hitter in the minors, Pellow has posted 174 homers and 569 RBI since being drafted in 1996...in 2002, Kit became AAA-Omaha's all-time leader in HR (106) and RBI (337).

2002: Recalled by the Royals on Aug. 13, Pellow made his major league debut on Aug. 14 vs. the Yankees...got the start at first base and went 0-for-4 with a strikeout...in game No. 2 of his ML career, Aug. 18 at Tampa, Kit went 2-for-4 with a RBI...for the year with the Royals, he batted .238 (15-for-63) with a double, a homer and 2 RBI...his lone homer came in his third game, Aug. 20 at Toronto off Justin Miller...hit safely in eight of his first 10 games, including the Aug. 31st contest when he singled in the go-ahead run in a 4-2 win over the Mariners...opened the year at Triple A Omaha for the fourth consecutive season...in 105 games, he hit 27 homers and 76 RBI, becoming Omaha's all-time leader in each category (106 HR and 337 RBI)...it was the fourth time in as many years Pellow has connected on 20-or-more clouts...the 27 bombs were the most since he hit 35 in 1999...averaged a homer once every 14.89 AB's, the fourth best ratio in the Pacific Coast League...was batting .313 (15-for-48) in the month of August before being recalled.

2001: Spent the entire season with the Omaha Royals at the Triple A level, appearing in 129 games...hit a career-best .291 (141-for-484) with 15 doubles, 20 homers and 81 RBI...the 81 RBI paced the Royals and were the second most in his career.

2000: With Omaha, Pellow batted .249 (105-for-421) in 117 games...made 116 appearances at first base, marking the first action at 1B since his rookie season of 1996...he added 17 doubles, 22 homers and 75 RBI to his 2000 resume...the RBI were the most on the Omaha squad at year's end.

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 175 B/T: S/R Age: 24
Born: Feb. 2, 1979 in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico
Residence: Yauco, Puerto Rico
Major League Service: None

SELECTED by the Rockies in the 11th round of the 1997 June draft.

CAREER: Tino Sanchez is appearing in his first major league camp...has played nearly every position so far in his minor league career, including catcher, first base, third base and all three outfield spots.

2002: Tino hit .283 (77-for-272) and tied his career highs with 3 home runs and 27 RBI for AA Carolina...only Rene Reyes (.292) and Choo Freeman (.291) posted higher averages on the team...played 35 games in rightfield, 24 at catcher, eight in leftfield, four at second base, one at third base and two as the DH...as the club's catcher, he batted .306 (26-for-85) with all 3 homers and 16 of his 27 RBI...was a .312 (24-for-77) hitter with runners in scoring position...struggled throughout the first half and was batting just .237 at the end of June...then got red hot in July, hitting at a .377 (23-for-61) clip with 11 runs, 6 doubles, 2 homers and 10 RBI...closed out the month with a 5-for-7 effort on July 29 vs. Greenville, raising his average to .285...after going 3-for-5 on Aug. 7 at Tennessee, Tino increased that to a season-best .299...finished the year by going 11-for-32 (.344) over his final nine games.

2001: In his first year at the High A level, Sanchez set a career high with 3 HR and his 26 RBI fell one shy of his personal best 27 set in 1998...played 51 games at catcher, 23 at third base, 14 in leftfield, three in right, one at first base and three at DH...started the year with a .321 average (9-for-28) in April but then hit a combined .195 (25-for-128) in May and June...had 3 hits on five different occasions for Salem, including in back-to-back 3-hit contests June 27 vs. Wilmington and June 28 at Lynchburg...had a season-best six-game hitting streak July 27-Aug. 6, batting .474 (9-for-19) over the stretch with 2 of his 3 homers.

2000: Played mostly first base (41 games) with Single A Asheville...also played 11 games at catcher, two each in left and right field, one at third base and three as the DH...after hitting just .105 (2-for-19) in nine games in July, came back to bat .356 (16-for-45) in August with 6 RBI...belted his only home run and drove in 5 runs on May 20 vs. Charleston, W. Va.

1999: In his first season above the Rookie level, Tino hit just .168 (17-for-101) in 31 games for Colorado's short-season affiliate in Portland...all of his action came at catcher...had four multi-hit games, including a season-best 3 hits July 15 at Boise.

1998: Set career highs in average (.318), runs (40), doubles (15), triples (4) and RBI (27) in the Arizona Rookie League...also hit the first two home runs of his professional career.

1997: Opened his pro career with Mesa of the Arizona Rookie League, hitting .271 in 36 games.

PERSONAL: Agustin (Tino) Armando Sanchez...led his Connie Mack team in batting, RBI and steals his sophomore and junior years at Yauco High School in Puerto Rico.

MARK SWEENEY 25
★ OUTFIELDER / INFIELDER ★
– Non Roster Invitee –
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 215 B/T: L/L Age: 33
Born: Oct. 26, 1969 in Framingham, Mass.
Residence: Scottsdale, Ariz.
Major League Service: 5.130

SIGNED to a minor league contract, Jan. 21, 2003.

CAREER: Sweeney has seen action in 1,305 professional games, 576 in the big leagues...is a career .267 (84-for-315) hitter in the pinch with 6 homers and 43 RBI.

2002: Mark went to camp with the Mets after being acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers in a three-team, 11 player transaction Jan. 21, 2002, the same deal that brought Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani to Colorado...was released and then signed with the Padres mid-way through spring training...with San Diego, he batted .169 (11-for-65) in 48 games before being released July 13...signed with Triple A Portland Aug. 13, seeing action in one game before asking for his release Aug. 16.

2001: Opened the season with AAA Indianapolis and batted .287 (116-for-404) with 34 doubles, 6 homers and 69 RBI before being call-up by Milwaukee Aug. 1...at Triple A, he hit .312 in June and .349 in July, earning a promotion to the majors...with the Brewers he batted .258 (23-for-89) in 48 games.

2000: Began the year on Milwaukee's 15-day disabled list with a tear to the semitendinosis tendon in his right knee...activated from the DL on May 7...led the club with 10 pinch-hits, becoming just the eighth player in Brewer history to record 10-or-more hits off the bench...had 54 at-bats in the pinch, tying a franchise record (Bob Hamelin in 1998)...made only one start, coming in left field May 7 at Arizona...was placed back on the DL July 18 with tendinitis in his right rotator cuff...activated on August 14.

1999: Saw action in 37 games for Cincinnati, 36 of them coming in the pinch...as a pinch hitter, Mark ranked fourth in the National League with a .355 (11-for-31) average...led the Reds with 11 pinch hits and 2 PH home runs...after opening the season with Cincinnati, Mark was optioned to Indianapolis May 16...recalled on Sept. 1 when the rosters expanded.

1998: Posted career highs in games (122) and at-bats (192) with San Diego...his 45 hits and 8 doubles were both one shy of matching his personal bests...made 35 starts, including 19 in right field, 13 at first base, two in left field and one at designated hitter. Postseason: Used exclusively as a pinch hitter in eight post-season games...both of his hits came in the World Series vs. the Yankees, an eighth-inning RBI-single in Game 2 at Yankee Stadium and a single in Game 3 at Qualcomm.

1997: Led the major leagues with 22 pinch hits with St. Louis and San Diego...made a PH appearance in 73 contests, 23 as a Cardinal and 50 for the Padres...on Aug. 14 vs. Cincinnati, Mark notched the Padres only hit in a 2-0 loss, a one-out, seventh-inning single that broke up Mike Morgan's perfect game.

1996: In his first full big league season, Sweeney made 35 starts for St. Louis (26 in LF, six at 1B, three in RF)...ranked second on the club with 9 pinch hits and second in the NL with 7 PH walks.

1995: Acquired by St. Louis from Anaheim July 7...hit .368 (78-for-226) in 22 games for AAA Louisville before having his contract purchased by the Cardinals on Aug. 4...made his major league debut that same day, going 0-for-4 with a RBI...his first ML hit came the next day, Aug. 5, and his first homer was attained Aug. 10 at Los Angeles...in the pinch, Mark went 8-for-15 (.533) with a .588 on-base percentage...as a pinch hitter, had a seven-game hitting streak from Sept. 5-23, one game shy of the major league single-season pinch hitting record held by Dave Philley of the 1958 Phillies and Rusty Staub of the 1983 Mets.

1994: Hit .285 (140-for-344) with 8 home runs and 49 RBI to help Triple A Vancouver reach the Pacific Coast League Championship Series...was honored as the PCL Player of the Week, June 19-25.

1993: Combined to bat .356 (154-for-433) with 12 home runs and 79 RBI in a 117 combined games at Single A Palm Springs and Double A Midland.

1992: At Single A Quad City, Mark ranked second in the Midwest League with 14 homers...ranked third in the league with 76 RBI and tied for ninth with a .441 slugging percentage.

1991: Made his pro debut with Single A Boise and finished second in the league with 51 walks.

COLLEGE: Was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award as a senior at the University of Maine in 1991...batted .384 with 23 home runs, 80 RBI and 22 stolen bases in 65 games...graduated from Maine with a degree in business.

PERSONAL: Mark Patrick Sweeney...is a 1987 graduate of Holliston (MA) High School.

CHIN-HUI TSAO 71

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 177 B/T: R/R Age: 21 (22 on June 2)

Born: June 2, 1981 in Hua-Lien, Taiwan

Residence: Hua-Lien, Taiwan

Major League Service: None

SIGNED as a non-drafted free agent Oct. 7, 1999

CAREER: The first player from the Far East region to sign with the Rockies, Tsao was recently named by Baseball America as the second best prospect in the Colorado organization…the right-hander was rated No. 1 by the publication in both 2001 and 2002…is fully recovered from May, 2001 reconstructive elbow surgery that forced him to miss almost all of that season and half of last year…when healthy, few in the organization can compare…in his final five starts of 2002, Tsao went 3-1 with a 0.81 ERA for High A Salem…has struck out 266 batters in 220.2 innings as a professional (10.8 K/9 IP) and averages 4.5 strikeouts for every walk (266 K/59 BB)…was also a non-roster invitee with the Rockies in 2001.

2002: Recovering from surgery the previous summer, Tsao began the year with three rehab starts at short-season Tri Cities of the Northwest League, June 18-28…did not allow an earned run in any of his three outings, covering 11.0 innings with only 2 walks and 16 strikeouts…moved up to Salem and went 4-2 with a 2.09 ERA (47.1 ip, 11 er) in nine starts…made his High A debut July 4 at Lynchburg (2.0 ip, 3 h, 2 er, 1 BB, 0 K)…after giving up 4 runs in his first two starts (6.0 ip), he surrendered only 7 earned runs in his last seven outings and 42.1 innings (1.49 ERA)…posted a 19.0 scoreless innings streak, July 30-Aug. 15…struck out 10 with one walk in 7.0 shutout innings on Aug. 4 vs. Kinston…was named Rockies Pitcher of the Month for August, compiling a 3-1 record with a 0.81 ERA (33.1 ip, 3 er)…worked a season-high 8.2 innings on Aug. 20 vs. Winston-Salem, allowing just 1 earned run on 4 hits…then, in his final start of the year, Aug. 25 vs. Frederick, Tsao tossed 7.0 scoreless innings, surrendering just 3 hits with no walks and 4 strikeouts in a victory…combined at the two stops, the righty averaged 9.4 strikeouts per nine innings (61K/58.1 ip) and 2.2 walks per 9.0 ip (14BB/58.1).

2001: Saw action in only four contests with High A Salem before undergoing reconstructive right elbow surgery on May 23 at the Steadman Hawkins Clinic in Englewood, Colo…missed the rest of the year.

2000: The right-hander made his pro debut as a 19-year old and started the South Atlantic League All-Star Game (A)…his 2.73 ERA led all Rockies pitchers, the second lowest in the league…tied teammate Julio de Paula for tops in the system with 187 strikeouts…finished with a league-best 11.61 strikeouts per nine innings ratio…won his first pro appearance, an April 6 start vs. Piedmont, fanning 10 of the 20 batters he faced…struck out 13 in three different outings throughout the year…on May 19 vs. Charleston, WV, he took a no-hitter into the seventh, fanning 13 in a 7-2 win.

INTERNATIONAL CAREER: Tsao has represented his country in four major competitions: the International Baseball Association's Junior World Championships (1996-97, '99) and the 1999 Asia Cup, which qualified teams for the 2000 Olympics…at the '99 Junior World Championships, hosted by Taiwan, Tsao made three starts, going 3-0 and not allowing a run in 23.0 innings…struckout 30 and walked only one…the team's only amateur at the Asia Cup, he made three appearances without allowing a run (11.0 ip)…made his international debut at the 1997 World Juniors…in October of '97, he was selected to join Hideo Nomo and Ken Griffey, Jr. at a baseball clinic that toured the world.

PERSONAL: Chin-hui Tsao…signed by former Rockies Pacific Rim Coordinator Tim Ireland…the Rockies could not have signed the right-hander without the efforts of Ming Harber, a resident of Greeley, Colo., who had worked under Vice Chairman Charlie Monfort…Ming was instrumental in communication between Tsao's family and Rockies representatives in Taiwan…Tsao is his surname, the name on the back of his jersey…but when saying his name, use Tsao Chin-hui, pronunciation: sow, like now, CHEEN way.

JASON YOUNG 67

★ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER ★

– Non Roster Invitee –

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 214 B/T: R/R Age: 23 (24 on Sept. 28)

Born: Sept. 28, 1979 in Oakland, Calif.

Residence: Bodega, Calif.

Major League Service: None

SELECTED in the second round of the 2000 June draft (47th overall).

CAREER: In just two years as a professional, the former Stanford All-American has already pitched at all three of Colorado's top affiliates, High A Salem, Double A Carolina and Triple A Colorado Springs...many feel the right-hander could be in the Rockies big league rotation as early as this summer...recently named the club's fourth best prospect by Baseball America, Young has worked at least 6.0 innings in 32 of his 44 pro starts.

2002: Young continued his quick climb up the organization ladder, beginning the year in Double A before making the jump to Triple A in mid-June...combined at the two levels, Jason was 13-9 with a 3.74 ERA (168.1 ip, 70 er), walking 68 while striking out an organizational-best 150 batters...was a mid-season Southern League All-Star with AA-Carolina, going 7-4 with a 2.64 ERA (88.2 ip, 26 er) in 14 starts...at AAA-Colorado Springs, the righty was 6-5, 4.97 ERA (79.2 ip, 44 er)...opened his Double A career with a 21.0 scoreless innings streak over his first three starts...recorded wins over Huntsville in back-to-back outings to begin the year, allowing just 6 hits and no runs in 15.0 ip...finally gave up a run in the seventh inning of his third start, April 18 vs. Greenville...was the Rockies Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April, going 4-1 with a 0.79 ERA (34.0 ip, 3 er)...then went 3-3 in his last nine starts, posting a 3.79 ERA (54.2 ip, 23 er)...held the opposition to a .219 average as a member of the Carolina rotation...was promoted to Colorado Springs on June 21...earned the victory in his Triple A debut, June 22 vs. Las Vegas (5.0 ip, 3 r, 1 er)...struggled in the early going, posting a 3-4 record in his first eight starts, while allowing 33 earned runs in 46.1 ip (6.41 ERA)...rebounded down the stretch to go 3-1 with a 2.97 ERA (33.1 ip, 11 er) in his last five outings...fanned 11 in his final start, a win on Aug. 29 vs. Iowa...also participated in the All-Star Futures Game at Miller Park in Milwaukee on July 7...was USA's starting pitcher in the game, tossing a scoreless inning with 2 strikeouts.

2001: Jason made his pro debut with High A Salem, compiling a 6-7 record with a 3.44 ERA (104.2 ip, 40 er) in 17 starts prior to injuring his elbow in July...tied for first in the Carolina League in shutouts (1) and fifth in complete games (2)...notched his first professional shutout on May 5 vs. Wilmington, a 6-hitter with 9 strikeouts...recorded a season-high 12 strikeouts on July 4 at Lynchburg...made his last start of the year on July 12 against Winston-Salem (7.0 ip, 9 h, 3 er) before a tender right elbow forced him out for the remainder of the season...did return to pitch in the Arizona Fall League...following the season, Baseball America ranked him ninth in its Top 10 prospects of the Carolina League.

COLLEGE: Compiled a 21-5 record with 327 strikeouts in three seasons for the Stanford Cardinal (1998-2000)...in 2000, the first-team preseason All-American went 9-1 with a 3.73 ERA (115.2, 48 er) in 19 starts...fired 3 complete games, walked 42, fanned 120 and held opponents to a .224 average...started the National Championship game at the College World Series (4.0 ip, 4 h, 2 r, 2 er, 1 bb, 2 k) and left with the lead until LSU came from behind to win 6-5...a consensus All-American as a sophomore, he was also first team all-Pac-10 and his teammates voted him MVP...overall, he was 12-3 with a 3.43 ERA, setting a single-season school mark with a conference-leading 178 strikeouts and 154.2 innings...tossed 2 shutouts and 10 complete games in 21 starts.

PERSONAL: Jason Kariya Young...originally selected by Texas in the 29th round of the 1997 June draft, but opted to go to Stanford...a 1997 graduate of Berkeley (Calif.) High School, he was All-America as a senior and won two team MVP honors...signed by Tom Wheeler.

Jason Jennings
2002 National League
Rookie of the Year
2002 REVIEW

2002 Season-In-Review

QUICKLY: The Rockies completed their 10th season in the Mile High City, finishing 73-89 for the second straight year...were 47-34 at home, tied for the third best home record in club history...have failed to finish above .500 at Coors Field only once in eight years...on the flip side, Rockies went just 26-55 (.321) away from home, the club's worst road record in franchise annals...offensively, the Rockies posted their lowest numbers since 1995, yet still finished among the top five in nearly every category...the pitching staff enjoyed one of its best seasons in 10 years...Colorado's 5.47 ERA at Coors was the lowest home ERA in franchise history...the staff's 5.20 overall ERA was its best since 1998...after ranking among the worst fielding teams during the first half, Rockies were much better defensively after All-Star Break and bounced back to finish 10th in fielding percentage (.982)...Rox committed 68 errors in 88 games (0.8 avg) before the break, then made 44 errors in 74 games after (0.6 avg).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Jason Jennings capped off his outstanding rookie campaign by becoming the first player in Rockies history to win NL Rookie of the Year...Jason's 16 wins led all rookies and were the most by a first-year hurler in the NL since Tom Browning won 20 games in 1985...the former Baylor All-American fell just one victory short of tying the single-season club record of 17...throughout the year, Jennings compiled the third longest winning streak in club annals (7 games, 4/11-6/28), became one of only four Rockies to win five consecutive starts (8/1-8/23) and set a club record with 6.2 hitless innings to begin a game, Aug. 1 at Pittsburgh...recorded his 20th career victory in his 35th start, Sept. 8 at Qualcomm...with that win, he became just the fifth major league pitcher since 1976 to record 20 career victories in 35 or less starts...Jason left with the lead in five of his eight no decisions.

2002 NL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR VOTING

Player	Club	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Jason Jennings	Colorado	27	5	-	150
Brad Wilkerson	Montreal	2	14	5	57
Austin Kearns	Cincinnati	2	8	6	40
Kazuhisa Ishii	Los Angeles	1	2	5	16
Damian Moss	Atlanta	-	2	6	12

ROOKIE DUO: Rookie right-handers Jason Jennings and Denny Stark combined for 27 wins, the most by an NL rookie duo since Tom Browning (20) and Ron Robinson (7) won 27 for the 1985 Cincinnati Reds...throw in Aaron Cook's two wins and rookie pitchers combined for 29 of the team's 73 victories...only two NL staffs since 1975 have had rookies starters combine for 29 or more wins...the 1975 Giants' foursome of John Montefusco (15), Pete Falcone (12), Rob Dressler (1) and Greg Minton (1) combined for 29 and the 1984 Mets team of Dwight Gooden (17), Ron Darling (12), and Sid Fernandez (6) combined for 35.

EIGHT STRAIGHT BATTING TITLES: Rockies extended their major league record for most consecutive seasons leading the league in batting average to eight straight years...Rox hit .274, six points ahead of the Cardinals, .268...Colorado has now led every season since 1995 and actually doubled the previous NL record of four consecutive years set by the New York Giants from 1910-13...the AL mark is five seasons held by the Philadelphia A's, 1910-14.

WE TOLD YOU THESE GUYS COULD HIT: Rockies pitchers batted .254 (79-for-311), the best average by a pitching staff since the 1926 Reds (.260)...Mike Hampton led all big league hurlers with a .344 (22-for-64) average, .350 (21-for-60) not including his pinch-hit appearances...that .350 mark, the best by a pitcher since Orel Hershiser hit .356 for the Dodgers in 1993...Jason Jennings' .306 average was the best by a rookie pitcher since Clint Hartung hit .309 for the 1947 New York Giants...Hartung, however, also played 34 games in the outfield...therefore Jennings became the first exclusive pitcher to hit .306 or better in his first year since Eddie Lopat for the 1944 White Sox (.309)...Jennings' 11 RBI tied Kevin Millwood for the major league lead among pitchers. (Elias)

HURDLE NAMED FOURTH MANAGER: On April 26, Colorado's third manager in franchise history, Buddy Bell, was relieved of his managerial duties...Bell led the Rockies for a little over two seasons in which the club went 161-185 (.465)...that same day, the Rockies named hitting coach Clint Hurdle as manager for the remainder of the 2002 season.

HOT START UNDER THE NEW SKIPPER: Colorado went 6-0 in its first six games under new manager Clint Hurdle, tied for the sixth best winning streak following a mid-season managerial change in major league history...Joe Morgan holds the record when his Red Sox won their first 12 games, July 15-25, 1988. (research by Elias)

STILL SMOKIN': Colorado used that 6-0 homestand to propel it to one of the team's best stretches ever.

- ★ Rockies went 21-9 (.700) in Hurdle's first 30 games, matching the best 30-game stretch in Rockies history...had gone 21-9 over 30 games in 1997 (8/13-9/15/97 or 8/15-9/16/97) and in 2000 (5/12-6/17/00 or 5/13-6/18/00).
- ★ From April 26 to May 26, Colorado was 20-8 (.714), the best record in the NL over that span and second best in the majors behind Anaheim (21-5, .808).
- ★ Rox posted a 19-10 record during the month of May, setting a new club mark for most wins in a single calendar month...the previous record was 18 victories in August of 2000...the .655 winning percentage in May was the third best of any month in franchise annals (minimum 6 games)...had a higher winning pct. in April of 1997 (.708, 17-7) and May of 2000 (.680, 17-8).
- ★ Rockies reached a season-high four games over .500 (30-26) on June 1.

AS GOOD AS IT GETS: Hurdle's 6-0 start was the beneficiary of pitching unlike the club or Coors Field has ever seen...from April 26-May 2, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh managed just 11 runs in six games, a 1.8 average, by far the fewest runs allowed in a homestand of six or more games in club history...in those six contests, the Rockies pitching staff posted a 1.67 ERA (54.0 ip, 10 er) led by the starters who were 6-0 with a 1.08 ERA (41.2 ip, 5 er)...Rockies set a club record with 24.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 30-May 2...the starters went 28.0 consecutive innings without allowing a run from Jason Jennings' outing on April 28 until the seventh inning of John Thomson's start on May 2...the starting five averaged nearly 7.0 innings per start and did not allow more than two earned runs...included in this stretch, back-to-back shutouts for only second time in team history and first time ever at home.

HOMERLESS: The Rockies pitching staff held opponents without a home run at Coors Field for seven straight games from April 17-May 2...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest homerless drought by the opposition in Denver, breaking the previous mark of five games, May 25-June 5, 1994 at Mile High Stadium (Cincinnati 2, Pittsburgh 3).

MORE ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: Although the Rockies failed to reach 3 million in home attendance for the first time in team history, Colorado still drew 2,737,918 out to the ballpark, sixth best in the National League...all-time Coors attendance surpassed the 25 million mark on April 11, in just its eighth season...attendance research by ballpark is unavailable so to put it into perspective, of the current 29 other teams in baseball, no club reached 25 million in under 10 seasons...Los Angeles reached 25 million in their 12th year.

STREAK STILL ALIVE: The Rockies have scored at least one run in 287 consecutive home games, by far the best streak in the majors...the last opponent to blank the Rox at Coors were the Padres on July 4, 1999, a complete-game shutout by Andy Ashby.

INCOMPLETE: Colorado tied a major league record for fewest complete games in a single-season with one...Denny Neagle hurled the staff's only CG, 8.0 innings in a loss on Aug. 30 at San Diego...Rockies already own a share of that record, when Bryan Rekar tossed the club's lone complete game in 1995...the Devil Rays tied the mark in 2001...both of those were 9.0 inning complete games and thus the 2002 Rockies were the first team to go through a full season without a 9.0 inning CG...prior to Neagle's outing on Aug. 30, Colorado had gone 134 games without a complete effort, setting a new single-season NL record for consecutive incomplete games...the previous league mark was 127 done by the Brewers, May 16-Oct. 3, 1999...the major league record is 152, set by Tampa Bay from April 14-Oct. 7, 2001.

FIRST AND FOREMOST: Colorado led the National League with 124 first inning runs...Rox outscored the opposition 124-106 (+18) in the first frame, 78-54 (+24) at Coors Field.

THE LAW FIRM OF SPEIER, JONES & JIMENEZ: Jose Jimenez set a single-season club record with 41 saves, breaking the previous mark of 31 set by Dave Veres in 1999...a big reason for the closer's success came from right-handed set-up men Todd Jones and Justin Speier, who combined for 47 relief holds...Colorado was 15-6 when all three appeared in the same game...when Speier pitched the 7th, Jones the 8th and Jimenez the 9th, the Rockies were 7-3 and the trio allowed just 5 earned runs in 29.2 innings (1.52 ERA).

NO HIT BIDS: A Rockies starter took a no hitter into the seventh inning on three different occasions...first, it was John Thomson, who held Pittsburgh hitless for 6.1 ip on May 2 at Coors Field...Armando Rios broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out bloop single to left in the seventh...then, on May 31 at Pac Bell, Jason Jennings had a perfect game through 5.1 innings and a no-hitter thru 6.1 innings against the Giants...retired the first 16 Giant hitters in order until walking Torrealba with one out in the sixth and didn't give up a hit until Bonds singled with one out in the seventh...Jennings then set the club record for hitless innings to start a game, 6.2 ip on Aug. 1 at Pittsburgh...the no hit bid was erased by a Rob Mackowiak broken-bat, bloop single just out of the reach of Juan Uribe and Todd Zeile down the left field line.

BRONX BOMBERS INVADE COORS: The Rockies and Yankees combined for 70 runs, 95 hits and 15 home runs when they faced off at Coors Field, June 18-20...the 70 runs set a new Coors record for most runs scored in a three-game series, besting the 64 combined by the Rockies and Expos, May 1-3, 2000...the Rockies drew 146,530 paid attendance and 151,612 total tickets distributed during the series, both ballpark records...the 48,921 paid attendance for the series finale on June 20 was the largest paid crowd in Coors history other than the 1998 All-Star Game.

OVERTIME: Rockies played in three consecutive extra-inning games, June 20-22, a franchise first...not only that, but by winning all three of those consecutive extra-inning games, the Rockies tied a major league record, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...the mark has been done 27 times, most recently by the Reds, July 25-27, 1999...the NL record for most consecutive extra-inning games overall is four, shared by seven teams, last done by Milwaukee Sept. 15-19, 1999.

SHORT BUT NOT SO SWEET: It took just 1 hour and 55 minutes for Odalis Perez to one-hit the Rockies at Dodger Stadium on June 25...that 1:55 time of game tied a franchise record for shortest nine-inning game in team history...the record was set nearly seven years to the day, June 24, 1995 at San Diego...Rockies are now just 1-8 all-time in sub - 2:00 hour ballgames.

SOME LIKE IT HOT: Five of Colorado's 11 home games in July were played with a game-time temperature above 90 degrees...included in this stretch, a 97-degree scorcher on July 1 vs. San Francisco that tied the club record for hottest home game...the mark was originally set on June 26, 1994 also against the Giants at Mile High Stadium.

THE COMEBACK TRAIL: On June 21 vs. Tampa Bay, the Rockies overcame a 4-run deficit in the ninth inning to win 8-7 in the 10th...that comeback tied the club record for largest ninth inning deficit overcome in a victory...the mark was set May 18, 1996 vs. St. Louis when the Rockies scored 5 in the bottom of the ninth to defeat the Cardinals 9-8...all the runs came off Dennis Eckersley capped by a 3-run pinch-hit homer by John Vander Wal to win it.

MERRY MONTH OF MAY: The Rockies posted a 3.47 team ERA (264.1 ip, 102 er) during the month of May, the best earned run average in any one month in club history...in fact, it was only the third time a pitching staff has had an ERA under 4.00 in a single month, joining June of 1995 (3.65) and April of 1995 (3.86)...the 3.47 ERA this May finished runner-up to Atlanta in the NL for the month, and the Rockies 18 home runs allowed were the fewest in the circuit.

A RECORD DAY FOR THE LONG BALL: A total of 62 home runs were hit around the majors on July 2, the most ever in a single day in MLB history...the previous mark was 57 homers on April 7, 2000...the Giants and Rockies did more than their share to help the cause, combining for 10 long balls, tying a Coors Field record...it was the fifth time that two teams have combined to hit 10 homers in a game at Coors, the first since May 1, 2000 when the Expos and Rockies hit 5 each...the Giants themselves hit 7 bombs on July 2, the most the Rockies have ever allowed in one game.

HALL OF FAME GAME: In the midst of the Rockies season-long 13-game roadtrip at the end of the July, the team made a one-day stop in Cooperstown, NY, for the 56th annual Hall of Fame Game on July 29...in front of a sellout crowd of 9,781 at Doubleday Field, Rox pounded out a Hall of Fame record 18 runs on 24 hits to defeat the White Sox 18-10...Mark Little set a Hall of Fame record with five hits on his way to earning the game's MVP honors...earlier in the day, Greg Norton won the home run contest with 4 clouts.

AN ALL-STAR FIRST FOR COLORADO: Todd Helton's RBI single in the third inning of the All-Star Game was the first RBI by a Rockies player in Midsummer Classic history...Helton became just the third different Rockie to ever record a hit in an All-Star game...Dante Bichette had two, a pinch-hit single in 1994 and a double in 1996, and Ellis Burks has the other, a triple in the 1996 contest.

BASEBALL'S BEST FANS

Since breaking the all-time attendance mark in their first year of existence, the Rockies have continued to pace the entire league when it comes to drawing fans...in 10 years from 1993-2002, Colorado's home attendance has exceeded over 35 million, better than any team in baseball during that span.

HOW'S THIS FOR STREAKS

The Rockies enjoyed a 203-game home sellout streak from June 13, 1995 to Sept. 5, 1997...in the ensuing 203 dates, the club posted a 127-76 ledger for a .626 winning percentage...the streak finally came to a halt in Game Two of a doubleheader on Sept. 6, 1997 vs. St. Louis...by the way, Colorado still drew 44,288 that night and went on to have sellouts in nine of the remaining 10 home games to close out the 1997 campaign.

CYCLES

Rckies Cycles (4)

★ Dante Bichette ★

June 10, 1998 vs Texas (W, 9-8, 10 inn.)

After going hitless in first two at-bats, doubled, homered, tripled and hit the game-winning 10th inning RBI single.

★ Neifi Perez ★

July 25, 1998 vs. St. Louis (W, 5-2)

Doubled, tripled, bunt single and then homered on a 0-1 pitch in the seventh inning.

★ Todd Helton ★

June 19, 1999 vs. Florida (W, 11-10)

Cycled in only four trips to the plate...doubled, singled, homered and tripled off the RF wall in the 7th.

★ Mike Lansing ★

June 18, 2000 vs. Arizona (W, 14-5)

His four-inning cycle is believed to be the fastest in major league history...triple, homer, double, single.

Opponents Cycles (2)

★ John Mabry ★

May 18, 1996 vs. St. Louis (W, 9-8)

The 15th Cardinal to hit for the cycle and first since 1964 (Ken Boyer) to do it in natural order (single, double, triple, homer).

★ Craig Biggio ★

April 8, 2002 vs. Houston (L, 4-8)

Became the sixth player in Astros history to hit for the cycle...single, triple, homer, double...accomplished the feat in the Rockies 2002 home opener.

LOW RUN GAMES AT COORS

There has never been a 1-0 game at Coors Field…only twice has there ever been a 2-0 final…on June 16, 1995, Atlanta's Tom Glavine tossed a complete-game shutout in a 2-0 Braves victory…then, on Aug. 9, 2002, Denny Neagle, Todd Jones and Jose Jimenez combined on a five-hit 2-0 shutout of the Cubs…the latest a game has ever been scoreless at Coors came on Aug. 26, 1995, when the Rockies and Cardinals took a scoreless tie into the bottom of the eighth…Colorado scored 3 runs in the eighth and the game eventually ended in a 5-4 win for St. Louis.

—manager/coach
#—MLB retired No. 42 in 1997 to honor the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's first season with Brooklyn Dodgers.

TWO IN ONE

The city of Denver in 2002 boasted two Rookie of the Year winners in separate sports...the Rockies' Jason Jennings was the NL Rookie of the Year in baseball and the Broncos' Clinton Portis was the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in football...this marked the 11th time since 1980 that one city has had two Rookies of the Year in any of the four major sports.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Rockies franchise has never turned a triple play but an opponent has done it on two occasions.

On June 13, 1998 at Los Angeles, the Dodgers turned the first triple play ever against the Rockies. With no outs in the fifth, and runners on first and second, Kurt Abbott dropped a sacrifice bunt attempt. Pitcher Darren Dreifort picked up the ball and threw to second to force out Neifi Perez. Shortstop Jose Vizcaino, who received Dreifort's throw, fired to first to get Abbott. Second baseman Eric Young, who was covering first, then completed the play by throwing to third to get Jamey Wright (1-6-4-5).

Then, almost exactly one year later at Coors Field, on June 14, 1999, it happened again. This one, though, was more "routine." With Edgard Clemente at-bat and runners on first and second, Giants left-hander Shawn Estes induced a hot ground ball to third. Bill Mueller fielded it, stepped on his bag to force Angel Echevarria, and gunned it to second. Jeff Kent, the second baseman, made the pivot, forcing Henry Blanco at second, before completing the play by nailing Clemente at first, thanks to J.T. Snow's stretch (5-4-3).

The Making of the Rockies

August 8 – Baseball's new Basic Agreement permits the National League to expand by two teams.

1987

October 31 – U.S. Senators from eight states, including Colorado Sen. Tim Wirth, create a Congressional task force to investigate baseball expansion.

1989

June 15 – Baseball says it will announce a timetable for N.L. expansion within 90 days after a new Basic Agreement.

1990

August 14 – Denver-area voters pass a 0.1 percent sales tax to finance construction of a new ballpark, if MLB awards a team.

August 23 – Colorado's Baseball Advisory Committee, headed by Gov. Roy Romer, designates the Colorado Baseball Partnership to spearhead the formation of an ownership group.

September 18 – The N.L. Expansion Committee hears Denver's presentation.

December 18 – The N.L. unveils its short list of six potential expansion sites: Buffalo, Denver, Orlando, South Florida, Tampa-St. Petersburg and Wash., D.C.

January 25 – Denver's ownership group launches a season ticket drive, requesting a refundable deposit of $50 per seat.

March 13 – The Denver Metropolitan Major League Baseball Stadium District chooses its site: 20th and Blake.

March 15 – Ownership announces that the proposed park will be named Coors Field.

March 26 – The N.L. Expansion Committee visits Denver.

June 6 – Commissioner Fay Vincent announces that both leagues will share revenues generated by the $190 million expansion fee, and that both circuits will contribute players to the expansion draft.

June 10 – Vincent announces Denver and South Florida are the N.L.'s selections.

June 28 – The two leagues and the MLB Players Association compromise: A.L. teams will protect extra players in each draft round. Only eight A.L. teams will have to give up three players; the other six will give up players only in the first two rounds. With the agreement, a final expansion vote is scheduled for July 5.

July 5 – Major-league owners unanimously approve Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises. Colorado Baseball Partnership announces that the team will be called the Colorado Rockies and unveils the team logo.

February 14 – KOA-Radio (850 AM) signs a five-year contract, becoming the flagship station.

March 2 – Ownership chooses Tucson, Ariz. as the Rockies' spring training home. The agreement between the Rockies and the Pima County Sports Authority calls for the club to play its games at Hi Corbett Field.

March 19 – The club announces its 1993 ticket prices, seating locations, and season-ticket packages. The Colorado Rockies Foundation commits to providing at least 150,000 tickets in '93 to the less fortunate.

April 16 – KWGN-TV (Channel 2) signs a five-year agreement to become the Rockies' exclusive over-the-air television station.

June 1 – John Burke, a pitcher from the University of Florida and a native of Englewood, Colo., is selected in the first round of the MLB June Draft, the club's first-ever draft selection.

June 6 – The Rockies conduct a tryout camp at the University of Denver baseball field.

June 16 – Bend, Ore., hosts the first game in organization history, a Single-A Northwest League contest between the Bend Rockies and Boise Hawks. With the Rockies trailing 4-1 in the bottom of the eighth, catcher Will Scalzitti hits a grand slam to give his club a dramatic 6-4 win.

July 4 – The Rockies unveil their traditional 1993 uniforms (home, road, and Sunday alternate) at a Team USA-Team Cuba baseball game at Mile High Stadium before 61,165 fans. Included on the home uniform is purple pinstripes, making the Rockies the first team in major-league history to feature purple stripes. The club's road uniform is gray and the alternate is black. Also, the team improves its logo.

September 2 – Jerry McMorris, Oren Benton and Charles Monfort acquire all of the interests previously owned by non-Coloradoans. The local trio assumes control of the team.

October 16 – Ground is broken on the future site of Coors Field.

October 27 – The Rockies name Don Baylor their first manager.

November 9 – The Colorado Baseball Partnership completes its acquisition of the franchise by paying the $95 million franchise fee.

Nov. 9 – Rockies acquire pitcher Travis Buckley from the Montreal Expos in exchange for a player-to-be-named (Matt Connolly) in the club's first trade.

November 16 – The club signs free-agent Andres Galarraga.

November 17 – The Rockies select David Nied from the Atlanta Braves to open the MLB Expansion Draft in New York City. At the same time, over 20,000 fans fill Denver's Currigan Hall to watch the historic event. After the draft, Colorado trades Kevin Reimer and Jody Reed for Dante Bichette and Rudy Seanez.

January 26 – The Rockies restructure their front office. Jerry McMorris becomes Chairman, President and C.E.O.; Oren Benton and Charles Monfort become vice chairmen.

February 18 – Pitchers and catchers report to Tucson, Ariz. for the club's inaugural spring training. Position players report five days later.

March 6 – The Rockies win their first spring training game, 7-2, over San Francisco with David Neid on the mound.

April 5 – The club plays its first regular season game, against the Mets at Shea Stadium. Dwight Gooden tosses a three-hit shutout.

April 9 – Opening Day. The Rockies host Montreal at Mile High Stadium. Eric Young homers to lead off the bottom of the first, bringing the record-setting crowd of 80,227 to its feet. Colorado wins, 11-4, behind 37-year-old Bryn Smith, who blanks the Expos over seven innings.

September 17 – The Rockies surpass the 4 million mark in in their 71st date, breaking the single-season attendance record.

October 3 – The Rockies conclude their inaugural season with the most wins by a N.L. expansion club. Andres Galarraga wins the batting title, the first won by an expansion player and Venezuelan native.

November 2 – The club and the Denver Metropolitan Stadium District agree to expand Coors Field to approximately 50,200.

January 13 – Responding to fan requests, the club alters its uniforms. Names are placed on the back of the home jerseys, while the road uniform's lettering is changed from silver to purple.

June 26 – The Rockies claim one of the few major-league attendance records not yet in their possession, drawing 217,009 fans to a three-game series vs. the Giants.

July 17 – Colorado tops one of its own attendance records, drawing 259,113 to a four-game series against St. Louis.

August 7 – Again, the Rockies eclipse one of their own attendance marks, opening turnstiles for their 3 millionth fan in just the 52nd home date. It beat the 1993 season by one game (53 dates).

April 26 – The Rockies inaugurate Coors Field in dramatic fashion. Dante Bichette hits a game-winning three-run homer to beat New York in the 14th inning.

April 29 – The Rockies defeat the Houston Astros, 2-1, in Houston and claim sole possession of first for the first time in club history.

June 13 – Fans flow into Coors Field for the park's first of 203 consecutive sellouts.

June 16 – The Big Cat dedicates "Andres Galarraga Field" to the Boys and Girls Club of Denver.

June 26 – National League President Leonard Coleman announces that Coors Field has been selected to host the 1998 All-Star Game.

July 7 – National League manager, Felipe Alou, selects both Dante Bichette and Vinny Castilla to the All-Star squad, marking the first time the Rockies placed more than one representative in the contest. Castilla gets the starting assignment in place of an injured Matt Williams, becoming the first All-Star starter.

October 1 – The Rockies defeat the San Francisco Giants, 10-9, to claim the National League wild-card berth, becoming the first expansion team to reach postseason play prior to its eighth year of competition.

October 3 – Rockies host Atlanta for the first playoff game in franchise history. Braves won 5-4 in the National League Division Series opener.

October 6 – Colorado wins its first playoff game, 7-5 over the Braves in Game Three.

November 7 – Don Baylor claims the National League Manager-of-the-Year, for leading his third-year club to postseason play.

February 15 – The city of Tucson and the Rockies reach an agreement in principal to keep the city the spring training home of the franchise for the next 15 years.

May 11 – Florida Marlins pitcher Al Leiter no-hits the Rockies at Joe Robbie Stadium.

September 17 – The Dodgers' Hideo Nomo tosses the first no-hitter in Coors Field history.

1997

February 25 – The Rockies and KWGN-TV Channel 2 announce a five-year contract extension.

February 26 – The Rockies and FOX Sports Rocky Mountain reach a multi-year agreement for the cable rights to the club, beginning with seven telecasts in 1997, and expanding to 50 games each year for the remainder of the contract.

August 13 – In a pregame ceremony attended by Rachel and Sharon Robinson, the Rockies retire No. 42 in honor of Jackie Robinson's historic and heroic contributions to the game of baseball. His number adorns the rightfield wall in Coors Field, and is retired across baseball.

September 24 – Minor league pitcher Doug Million passes away after a severe asthma attack in Mesa, Ariz., where he was taking part in Instructional League.

September 29 – Oren L. Benton resigns as vice chairman.

October 22 – Rightfielder Larry Walker wins the franchise's first Gold Glove.

November 13 – Walker wins the National League's Most Valuable Player. He becomes the first Canadian and first Rockie to win the award. Walker is voted first on 22 of the 28 ballots submitted.

November 13 – Colorado loses two players in the MLB Expansion Draft: Quinton McCracken and Bryan Rekar to the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

June 10 – Dante Bichette becomes the first Rockie to hit for the cycle.

July 6 – Coors Field hosts the 69th annual major-league All-Star festivities. Ken Griffey, Jr. beats out Jim Thome to win the long-awaited home run derby.

July 7 – In the highest scoring All-Star game in history, the Americans beat the Nationals, 13-8. Roberto Alomar earns the MVP award.

Sept. 28 – The Rockies relieve the only manager in club history, Don Baylor, of his duties one day after the regular season.

October 7 – Colorado introduces Jim Leyland as the club's second manager.

April 4 – Colorado marks its seventh Opening Day with a historic game. The Rockies and Padres become the first teams to open a major league schedule outside of the U.S. or Canada, in Monterrey Mexico. Colorado wins, 8-2.

April 20 – Tragedy strikes nearby Columbine High School and the Rockies postpone two home games with the Montreal Expos.

August 20 – Bob Gebhard, the franchise's first and only general manager, resigns his post.

September 20 – Dan O'Dowd, 40, is named the second general manager in franchise history.

October 8 – The Rockies announce they have agreed to terms with Tsao Chin-Hui, from Taiwan, the franchise's first player from the Far East region.

January 19 – The Rockies introduce additions to their uniforms, as well as an alternate purple jersey, alternate home uniform and purple-billed cap.

June 28 – The Rockies and commissioner Bud Selig celebrate Coors Field's 20 millionth fan. Jeff Cirillo hits three homers and compiles a club-record 14 total bases in a 17-13 win.

July 4 – Mike Hampton is named the first all-star pitcher in franchise history.

August 6 – Coors Field hosts its first ever concert during the third annual "Evening of Stars and Fireworks." Performers included Toby Keith and Montgomery Gentry.

Aug. 14 – President George W. Bush attends the Rockies game against the Braves at Coors Field. Colorado won 5-4 in 10 innings.

Sept. 11 – In conjunction with Major League Baseball, the Rockies announced the postponement of all games from Sept. 11-16, after the terrorist strikes on New York, Pennsylvania and Washington D.C. It is the first league-wide postponement since World War II.

Oct. 18 – Executive Vice President Keli McGregor is named Rockies Club President.

April 26 – Buddy Bell is relieved of his managerial duties. Hitting instructor Clint Hurdle is named manager for the remainder of the 2002 season.

Nov. 7 – Clint Hurdle agrees to a two-year contract extension.

Nov. 4 – Jason Jennings becomes the first Rockie to be named NL Rookie of the Year. Jennings is the only player to appear on all 32 ballots and wins the award in a landslide with 150 points. Brad Wilkerson finishes runner-up with 57.

1995 National League Division Series

In 1995, Colorado earned a trip to the postseason in the franchise's third year of play, faster than any expansion club in major-league history. The first NL wild-card entry, the Rockies posted the best winning percentage of any third-year club, .535 (77-67).

The Rockies held a lead in all four games of the National League Division Series. In Game 1, Colorado left the bases loaded in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings in an eventual 5-4 loss. In Game 2, the Rockies took a 4-3 lead into the ninth, only to give up four runs in the top half and lost 7-4. Game Three in Atlanta was the site of the franchise's first-ever playoff win, a 7-5 victory in 10 innings. The Rox scored two in the top of the 10th, both coming with two outs on back-to-back RBI singles by Andres Galarraga and Vinny Castilla. Atlanta won the fourth and final game, 10-4 to eliminate the Rockies. The Braves went on to win the World Series.

Dante Bichette hit .588 (10-for-17) in the series with three doubles, while Vinny Castilla batted .467 (7-for-15) with three home runs and six RBI. Darren Holmes got the lone victory.

Dave Holliday

Special Assignment Scout

Dave Holliday begins his 10th year with the Rockies, his third as a Special Assignment Scout. He spent five years as a national cross-checker. From 1994-1995, he was a Midwest regional cross-checker. Prior to that, he was an area scout for the Pirates from 1990-93. He served as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State (1981-88), his second stint with OSU, after receiving his first assistant coaching position there in 1977. At Yavapai JC he was an assistant coach in 1979-80. From there, Dave spent one year as the head coach at Murray State JC before returning to the OSU staff. A 1973 graduate of Uniontown (Pa.) High School, Dave attended Grand Canyon University, earning a B.S. in physical education and an M.S. in exercise physiology. He and his wife, Sonya, have three children: Hailee, Hillary, and Heath. Dave's nephew, Matt Holliday, was the Rockies' seventh round draft choice in 1999 and spent last year with AA-Carolina. Address: Route 4, Box 535, Coalgate, OK 74538

Terry Wetzel

Special Assignment Scout

Terry Wetzel begins his third year with the Rockies. The Senior Director-Scouting for Kansas City from 1998-2000, Wetzel began his scouting career with the Royals in 1984 as an associate scout. A full-time scout for the Royals from 1989 to 1995, Wetzel was promoted to national crosschecker in 1996 and then after the 1997 season he became scouting director. Wetzel coached high school baseball and football in the Houston area. A native Nebraskan, he earned a bachelor's degree in education from Concordia University in Seward, Neb. He received his master's degree from Valparasio University in 1981. He and his wife, Patricia, have two children, Jenna and Ryan. Address: 14924 Walmer, Overland Park, KS 66223

INTERNATIONAL SCOUTING

DIRECTOR - LATIN AMERICA OPERATIONS

Rolando Fernandez begins his 11th season with the organization, and his third as Director-Latin America Operations. He spent four seasons as the roving Latin American Coordinator. Fernandez coached at the Rockies' club in the Arizona Rookie League from 1994-97 and at Visalia for half the '93 season. Before joining the Rockies, the former outfielder played three years in the Chicago Cubs organization. A 1990 graduate of Northwestern State University of Louisiana, Rolando has a bachelor's degree in advertising. Chicago selected him with its 44th pick in that year's June draft, where he went on to be named Most Valuable Player in the minor league spring training camp of 1991. 'Ro' has a daughter (Sofia Camille), and resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mike Gallego

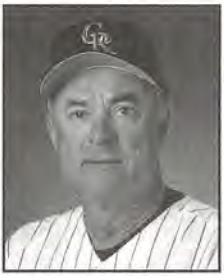
Roving Infield Coordinator

Mike Gallego returns to his duties as Minor League Roving Infield Instructor after spending most of 2002 as a coach with the major league club...began last season as a roving instructor before joining the big league staff on May 1 to replace Rich Donnelly, who had resigned...enters his fourth year overall with the Rockies and fifth year in coaching, as he worked as Boston's minor league infield instructor prior to joining Colorado in 1999...his 13-year major league career ended in spring training of 1998 after 1,111 games with Oakland, New York (AL) and St. Louis...hit .239 (700-for-2931) with 42 HR and 282 RBI for his career with his playing-time limited by seven injury disablements...a valuable utility infielder, he played in three straight postseasons with Oakland (1988-90)...in 1993, he won the Good Guy award from the N.Y. Press Photographer's Association and the N.Y. Baseball Writers...a second-round pick by Oakland in the 1981 June draft out of UCLA, he was elected into the school's Hall of Fame...Mike and his wife Caryn have twin sons, Nicholas and Joseph, and a daughter, Allison, and reside in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Jim Johnson

Roving Hitting Coordinator

Jim Johnson's long coaching career in professional baseball enters its 30th season in 2003...Johnson, 55, has managed and coached at nearly every level of the minor leagues, including 25 seasons with the Houston Astros organization...spent last year managing the St. Paul Saints of the Independant Northern League...prior to that, Jim was a member of the Dodgers organization, working as the minor league field coordinator (2001), hitting instructor (2000) and manager of AA-San Antonio in 1999...after an eight-year minor league playing career, Johnson began his coaching career in 1974 as a player/coach with the Astros' Southern League affiliate in Columbus, Ga....after three seasons, he retired from playing and was named manager of the club's Florida State League affiliate in 1977...was named Southern League Manager of the Year with Columbus in 1979 and then Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year with Tucson in 1980...assumed the role of Special Instructor of Sports Psychology for the Astros in 1986-87...from 1988-93, he was the Houston's minor league field coordinator...joined the Yankees organization in 1994 as their minor league defensive coordinator and hitting instructor for Tampa (A) of the Florida State League...worked with future All-Star Derek Jeter among others...in 1995, he managed at AA-Norwich and then on an interim basis for A-Greensboro in 1996...joined the Kansas City Royals for two seasons as minor league infield coordinator in 1997 and hitting instructor in 1998 before moving on to the Dodgers...the former infielder was an all-WAC performer for the University of New Mexico where he received his bachelor's degree in 1969...earned his masters from Arizona State in 1973...he and his wife, Joanne, have been married for 34 years and reside in Phoenix, Ariz....has two sons, Jace (28) and Josh (23)...Jace played in the Oakland, Boston, Kansas City and Arizona organizations.



Fred Kendall

Roving Catching Coordinator

Fred Kendall begins his new role as Colorado's Roving Catching Coordinator after spending the last three years as the club's big league bullpen coach and catching instructor…the 2003 season marks his fourth in the Rockies organization, as he was hired on Buddy Bell's inaugural staff in 2000…he was the first catching instructor in Rockies history…from 1996 to 1998, Fred was Bell's bullpen coach with the Detroit Tigers…before his stint in Detroit, Kendall managed four seasons in the White Sox system…he guided Utica (1992) and Hickory (1994) to their respective postseasons…during that '94 season, Hickory went 46-17 after July 1, en route to the White Sox organization's best record…the former catcher spent 12 seasons in the majors with the Padres, Indians and Red Sox…Fred's best overall season came in 1973, when he earned San Diego's MVP honors from the local chapter of the baseball writers…in 1976, he led NL catchers in games (146) and only Johnny Bench (.997) finished with a higher fielding percentage than his .994 mark…for two seasons (1975-76), he caught every game for San Diego ace Randy Jones, who won 42 games and a Cy Young Award during the period…after a brief tour in the American League, Kendall returned to San Diego to finish his career…he and his wife, Patricia, have three children: Michael, Jason and Kathy…Jason, the starting catcher for the Pittsburgh Pirates the last seven seasons and 1992 first-round draft pick, has already earned two all-star appearances.

Jim Wright

Roving Pitching Coordinator

Jim Wright returns to the Rockies minor league system after spending the 2002 season as the club's major league pitching coach…Rockie hurlers posted a record-low 5.47 ERA at Coors Field with Wright as the pitching coach last year…overall, he enters his seventh season in the organization as he was AAA-Colorado Springs' pitching coach from 1999-2001 and tutored the pitchers at AA-New Haven in 1997 and '98…prior to that, he coached in the Phillies Farm System from 1990-96, including part of the 1996 campaign as the major league pitching coach as a replacement for Johnny Podres who was ill…also made stops in Iowa, Pittsfield, Peoria and Quad Cities, where he got his start in coaching with the Cubs' farm system in 1984…the right-handed pitcher was drafted by Kansas City in the 1980 Rule V draft, despite missing the 1979 season with an arm injury…made his big league debut with the Royals on April 22, 1981…was 2-3 in 21 games, four starts, with the 1981 Royals…was up with the club again in 1982, pitching in seven games…spent his final year as a player in the Cubs system and retired after the 1983 season due to arm injuries… threw two minor league no-hitters,the first with Auburn in 1974 and the second in 1975 with Spartanburg…Jim and his wife, Pamela, and children, Jim, Coby, Megan, Ben and Emma, reside in Peoria, Ill.

*- took over as West Palm Beach's manager in June of 1995...the club finished 54-81 overall that season.

BOB MCCLURE

PITCHING COACH

Bob McClure is in his fifth season with the Rockies and second as the pitching coach at the Triple A level...spent his first three years tutoring the pitchers at High A Salem...possessing one of baseball's best pick-off moves during his playing days, McClure helps teach the lost technique to many of the Rockie southpaws throughout the Farm System...prior to joining the organization, Bob spent four years coaching his son's Sequoia High School baseball team in Redwood City, Calif....McClure, 50, coached on Florida's major league staff in 1994 after concluding his 17-year big-league career with the Marlins in 1993...the lefthander also pitched for the Royals, Brewers, Expos, Mets, Angels and Cardinals...he compiled a 68-57, 3.81 major-league record in more than 1,150 innings...one of his top seasons came in 1982 when he went 12-7, threw five complete games and helped Milwaukee to the World Series...he saved two of the Brewers' three wins in the Fall Classic and also earned a win in the ALCS...in 1989 he was 6-1 with a career-best 1.55 ERA in 48 appearances for the Angels...Bob and his wife, Shirley, and children Jake, Jessie and Adam reside in Stuart, Fla.

ALAN COCKRELL

COACH

Alan Cockrell has been handed his fifth different assignment with the club since he was hired in 1998...began the 2002 season as the Minor League Roving Hitting Coordinator before being named the club's major league hitting coach on April 29, just three days after Clint Hurdle was appointed manager...Cockrell, 40, was the sytem's roving hitting coordinator for all of 2001...he managed for two seasons prior to that, guiding High-A Salem to a 73-67 record in 2000 and leading Portland (short season A) to a 39-37 record in 1999...his first job with the club was as a professional scout in 1998...he also assisted the organization's rookie-league club on a part-time basis that first year as well...a former outfielder, Cockrell played 13 seasons, including three years (1994-96) in Colorado's system...he made his major-league debut with the Rockies as a September call-up in 1996...'AC' began his pro career in the Giants organization, who signed him as its first-round selection in the 1984 June draft after his All-America season at Tennessee in the spring...was also the Volunteers' starting quarterback for two years (1982-83), where he set single-season and career records for completions, attempts and passing yardage...a third-team All-American in 1983, Cockrell helped the Vols to the Citrus Bowl championship...the year before, he was named the Peach Bowl Offensive MVP, despite a loss to Iowa...Alan and his wife Tameson live in Colorado Springs, Colo., with children Madelyn and Beau.

2003 Policies

Please understand that we must work together to provide an environment that works efficiently with everyone involved, including the players and fans. We respectfully remind you that you are a guest in our park and ask that you have the courtesy to work within the guidelines of these policies. In order to sustain precedent, any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of your credential and bar future access to Coors Field. While within the park, members of the media, their agents and personnel, shall at all times be subject to the direction and/or supervision of the Colorado Rockies and the club's contractors. Please direct all questions regarding credential policies to the PR Hotline: (303) 312-2325.

Working Press Credentials

Season and daily press credentials are issued with the intention they will be utilized for the working press in order to provide coverage of the Rockies at Coors Field. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation's editor, producer or director on company letterhead at least 48 hours prior to the game requested. Members of the Media must have photo identification available at all times. THE COLORADO ROCKIES DO NOT CREDENTIAL FREELANCE WRITERS. An exception can be made if and only if, the writer is currently on assignment with a specific news organization. Faxed requests will be accepted only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the Rockies Public Relations office. It is the responsibility of the requesting affiliation to confirm receipt, and subsequent approval/denial of access to the game in question.

Photo Credentials

Season and daily photo credentials are issued only to photographers on assignment for legitimate news-gathering organizations and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests must follow the procedure outlined above. THE COLORADO ROCKIES DO NOT CREDENTIAL FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS. All flash photography is prohibited at Coors Field. Please be advised that priority in all photo bays will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. All mono- and tripods of any sort are strictly prohibited from the field at all times. Any use of photographs taken other than for news-gathering purposes or MLB officially licensed products will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions. As an opportunity to change locations mid-game, photographers are permitted to move along the warning track behind home plate between the first- and third-base photo bays at the conclusion of the fourth inning, but prior to the start of the fifth inning. Photographers are prohibited from stopping and photographing while changing photo bays. Still photographers wishing to gain access to the clubhouse must receive advance clearance from the Rockies PR Department. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from any photo bay or camera well at all times.

Press Dining

A press dining room is also located adjacent to the working press box on the "lower press" level, and is available to credentialed members of the media whom with access to the working press box. Press meals are $8.

Internet Media

Only licensees of Major League Baseball Enterprises have exclusive rights to simulate accounts, descriptions or pitch-by-pitch reproductions of Major League Baseball games on the Internet. No transmission by any other media, specifically including the Internet and any other online network, of any information about the game, including (but not limited to) any account, description, picture, video, audio, reproduction or other information concerning any MLB game will be permitted to originate from inside the ballpark (including from a camera feed already positioned within the ballpark). Reproduction of such accounts without a license from Major League Baseball Enterprises is a violation of the policies of MLB and the Colorado Rockies. A breach in such policy will result in revocation of credentials, and may be subject to litigation.

Live Transmissions
Affiliations not licensed by MLB and non-rightsholders of the Colorado Rockies and MLB (television, radio and internet sites) are prohibited from providing live telecasts, radio broadcasts, game simulations, pitch-by-pitch accounts, as well as from using live or taped material originating from inside the ballpark during a period commencing with the conclusion of batting practice and ending with the conclusion of the game. Live transmissions will be permitted until the conclusion of the club's rightsholder's (radio or television) post-game programming. RADIO STATIONS AND ASSIGNED CORRESPONDENTS FOR OUT-OF-TOWN REPORTS ARE PERMITTED TO GIVE INNING OR HALF-INNING SCORE UPDATES; HOWEVER AT NO TIME CAN THEY FILE REPORTS ONCE PLAY IS IN PROGRESS.

Roving Cameras
Any camera light in the seating area of the ballpark is strictly prohibited. If a photo light comes on during the game, umpires will stop play. Still photographers must shoot from either one of the photo bays (first- and third-base bags). With prior approval from the Rockies PR department, still photogs may shoot from the TV camera wells located in the outfield along the baselines & along the upper deck, space permitting. Interviews are not permitted in the ballpark during the game unless approved by the Rockies PR Department. If approved, interviews may only be conducted on the concourse between innings, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

Working Press Box
Seating in the lower press box is prioritized by daily print media, visiting public relations departments, visiting beat writers and area radio and television representatives not on the air during games. The upper press box consists of two television booths and four radio booths for live broadcasts. Keeping with MLB and club policy, no person under 18 is permitted into the press box on game days. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the working press box (upper and lower) prior or during the game.

Field Access
All members of the media with credentials allowing them access onto the field may conduct interviews at specific times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes before the beginning of the game. At no time are media permitted in fair territory or anywhere outside of the first- or third-base bags. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the field at all times. There is no access from behind home plate; please use the tunnels from dugout to clubhouse.

Batting Practice
Members of the media are prohibited from standing, photographing or conducting interviews from the circle of dirt surrounding the cage while batting practice for either team is in progress.

Cellular Phones
The use of cellular phones for radio interviews while on the field and in the clubhouse is strictly prohibited. Any and all telephone interviews must be arranged in advance with the Rockies Public Relations Department. An exception to the usage of a cellular phone for an interview is in the dugout, only after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member to be interviewed. All other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Rockies Public Relations Department.

Media Phones
Members of the press can make toll-free calls or use their calling cards on any of the 10 designated phones provided by the Rockies in the press box. These phones are installed for the use of all media in the press box for working conditions only. If members of the media feel there are not enough lines available, they should contact Qwest representative Laura Salava at 1-800-301-9220 or by e-mail at lsalava@qwest.com

Clubhouse Access
Members of the media must have a SPECIFIC working purpose to gain admittance to the clubhouse. All accredited press, radio and TV representatives shall have pre-game access to the clubhouse. The Rockies clubhouse is open 3 hours and 45 minutes prior to game-time and then closes 15 minutes prior to batting practice to allow for team stretching. The clubhouse will be closed 45 minutes prior to the start of the game. It will re-open up to 10 minutes after the game. Access to the visiting Coors Field clubhouse will be determined by the visiting club's policies.TV cameras are permitted in the clubhouse between 3:15-3:45 p.m. for a 7:05 p.m. start or 10:15-10:45 a.m. for a 1:05 p.m. start.

Autographs
Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Officials will revoke credentials immediately, no exceptions.

Ticket Requests
The Rockies PR Department will do all it can to provide tickets for the media on a limited basis. Please understand that media tickets are not guaranteed. They are a privilege reserved for media that cover the Rockies on a daily basis. A maximum of four tickets per affiliation, per series, can be requested. Ticket requests must be made a minimum of 24 hours in advance of the game in question. Requests will be accepted on letterhead and must be made by the affiliation's sports producer, director or editor. It is the requesting party's responsibility to confirm receipt of the request by the Rockies PR Department, as well as to confirm approval/denial of the said request. If media tickets are not picked up without prior notice of an inability to do so to the Rockies PR Department, the affiliation's ticket privileges will be revoked. The Rockies PR Department may also help media purchase tickets over the phone with a credit card, and the tickets will be available at media will-call.. Media tickets are generally available for pick up one hour in advance of the start of the game.

JEFF KINGERY
RADIO ANNOUNCER

For Jeff Kingery, broadcasting Rockies games is a dream come true.

Since age 15, his goal was to call the action for a major league team. A rare Dodgers fan growing up in San Francisco, Kingery caught the broadcasting bug listening to Vin Scully describe the exploits of Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale.

Jeff came to Colorado and KOA to broadcast the Denver Bears' Triple A games in 1981. This is his 11th season behind the mike for the Rockies.

Before joining the Rockies' broadcast team he was the voice of the NBA's Denver Nuggets for 11 seasons.

He enjoys playing guitar and was a founder and member of the rock band E.K.G. before the group's recent breakup. Kingery is active in the community working with the Denver Dumb Friends League, Recording for the Blind, Easter Seals and the Colorado Rockies Foundation.

Jeff and his wife Meryl live in Englewood with their dog Marlowe.

JACK CORRIGAN
RADIO ANNOUNCER

Jack Corrigan officially joined the Rockies Radio Network on Jan. 22, 2003. He will team up with Jeff Kingery for all 162 Colorado ballgames this season.

Corrigan joins the Rockies after 17 years in the Cleveland Indians television booth from 1985-2001. His 17 years of broadcasting Tribe games on TV was the longest tenure among television announcers in Indians history.

In addition to his work in baseball, Corrigan was involved with play-by-play and color commentary for the Cleveland Cavaliers telecasts and the MISL Cleveland Force. Since 1989, he has also been the "television voice" for college football and basketball games for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Mid-American Conference and the Patriot League.

A native Clevelander, Jack is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and Cornell University and has a master's degree in Speech from Kent State University. During the off-seasons, Jack coaches football at St. Ignatius, the eight-time Division I State Champions.

Jack and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Megan and Michael.

DREW GOODMAN

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Drew Goodman, one of the most versatile broadcasters in sports, begins his second season as the television play-by-play voice of the Rockies. He was recently named the 2002 Colorado Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Goodman is also the television play-by-play voice of the Denver Nuggets, making him one of the few broadcasters in the business that handles the primary play-by-play duties for two different major sports teams in the same season.

In addition to his baseball and basketball chores, Goodman has worked in some capacity with just about every sports team in the Rocky Mountain Region. The last four years, he has done play-by-play for Broncos' preseason games on KOA Radio and NFL regular season games for Fox Sports. He has also called Big 12 national and regional football games for FSN. He served as a studio host for the Colorado Avalanche for six years and has hosted various talk shows for KOA and KKFN Radio, including a five-year run as host of the Denver Broncos post-game show. In 1993, he was hired by NBC to work play-by-play for NFL broadcasts.

Although this is just his second year as the club's announcer, it will be his eighth as a member of the Rockies broadcasts. He hosted Rockies Pre-Game Report from 1996-2001 as well as Rockies Weekly With Buddy Bell in 2000-01.

Goodman's resume does not just include the four major sports. He called tennis action for Prime Sports' (now Fox Sports Net) initial year of ATP tour coverage in 1990 and still announces the MS Tennis Classic in Denver every year. In the fall of 1993, he did the play-by-play for the first ever ATP tennis event, the Beijing Open. For eight years, Goodman covered men's and women's World Cup and pro ski racing for ESPN and has also been involved with the coverage of track & field, gymnastics, wrestling and golf.

The New York native is a 1985 graduate of Ithaca College, where he played baseball. He and his wife, Kristi, are actively involved in Colorado Youth at Risk, an organization that helps re-direct the lives of troubled teens. They have two sons, Jacob (4) and Zachary (2).

GEORGE FRAZIER

COLOR ANALYST

Former Major League relief pitcher George Frazier begins his sixth campaign in the Rockies booth as color analyst.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Frazier provided his insights for Home Sports Entertainment, the Baseball Network, ESPN and the Minnesota Twins.

Frazier, 48, pitched 10 seasons in the big leagues from 1978 to 1987. He started his career with St. Louis, then moved on to the New York Yankees, Cleveland, Chicago (NL) and finished his career with Minnesota. He went 35-43 in 415 games with a 4.20 ERA and 29 saves. He made trips to the World Series with both the Yankees ('81) and the Twins ('87), earning a world championship ring in his final year as a player, with Minnesota.

Frazier was born in Oklahoma City and earned All-State honors in baseball at Hillcrest High School in Springfield, Mo., going 7-0 with a 0.14 ERA during his senior season. He then played collegiately at the University of Oklahoma, leading the Sooners to four consecutive trips to the College World Series. Milwaukee selected him in the ninth-round of the 1976 draft.

George, his wife Kay, and children, Mathew, 23, Brian, 21, Parker, 14, and Georgia, 9, reside in Tulsa, Okla.

MILE HIGH MEMORIES

Coors Field closed the curtain on a brief but very memorable two-year stint in Mile High Stadium. In 135 dates at Mile High, the Rockies drew 7,701,861 fans (57,051 per game).

After drawing 4,483,350 in the '93 inaugural, the Rockies were on pace to shatter that mark in '94, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840. Despite the year's abrupt end, in two seasons the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball; 21 times the crowd eclipsed 70,000.

Rockies Charities

The Colorado Rockies have two charities, the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation and the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, both of which continue to be two of the club's biggest priorities. Rockies' Charities work to raise funds for, and promote programs focusing on underprivileged and at-risk youth.

Over the past 10 years, the Colorado Rockies Charity Fund, the Colorado Rockies Foundation and the club in general have combined to raise more than $10 million in community contributions.

Every season the Rockies donate tickets to more than 150 non-profit organizations throughout the region. The team distributed 125,000 tickets last season, and over one million since the club's inception.

The Rockies Charity Fund was formed in 1993 to benefit local youth baseball and literary programs that combat alcohol and drug abuse. The Charity Fund is a partner of the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation, a national charitable trust that provides significant matching monies to supplement contributions to our local community. Grants are made to applicants from non-profit 501(c)3 organizations serving and addressing the community needs.

Literary Programs

The Rockies target literacy as a major community program. The summer reading program with the Denver Public Library works with more than 14,000 children in metro Denver. Since 1997, the Rockies have supported "Breaking Barrier," a curriculum designed by Sharon Robinson, daughter of baseball legend Jackie Robinson. Sharon's nine lessons teach positive values, teamwork and fun, using interesting baseball lessons.

County Support Programs

The ball club also supports programs for the disabled and those targeting special athletes. Since 1993, the Rockies have supported the Rocky Mountain Eagles, a "beep" baseball team for the visually impaired. What's more, the Rockies sponsor a wheelchair softball team, which gets many of its members from the Colorado Paralyzed Veterans of America. The Denver organization has hosted the national championship in the sport and has paved the way for new teams throughout the country. Members of the Rockies and the community also gather each year to honor outstanding individuals in the disabled community at the Hal O'Leary Awards Dinner.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI)

In 2001, the Rockies continued their involvement in the Revive Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) program. The program allows boys and girls 13-18 to compete in baseball locally, and often on a national level. RBI's goal is to encourage inner-city youth to focus on their eduction, and participate in baseball, thus avoiding other self-destructive options which often present themselves. National League President Leonard Coleman initiated the RBI program, which now involves nearly 10,000 participants in more than 40 cities.

The Care & Share Program

The program gives children living with serious illnesses the opportunity to be special guests at Coors Field. Care & Share participants spend time on the field before a game watching batting practice and meeting some of their favorite Rockies players. The Rockies team up with organizations including the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Starlight Foundation and Children's Hospital to select the participants.

The ROY Foundation

The entire Rockies family was deeply saddened by the passing of Michael McMorris before the 1996 season. Michael, the son of club chairman Jerry McMorris, lost a near-lifelong battle to cystic fibrosis. Inspired by Michael, many members of the Rockies organization established on their own time the R.O.Y. Foundation, a charitable wing to assist in the battle against CF. The foundation's mission is to honor the memory and courageous character of Michael and continue a long-term commitment to conquer and cure cystic fibrosis.

Reaching Out to Youth!

Rockies Wives

Rockies wives participate in a number of charitable activities throughout the season. Examples from 2002 include, holding a book drive for Denver Health's Reach Out And Read program, decorating birdhouses for the Botanical Gardens auction, painting pottery for a Denver Kids auction, and some dressed up for a fashion show for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Rockies Players and Coaches

Rockies players and coaches get involved in the community in many different ways, including monthly visits to the Children's Hospital, visits to Craig Hospital - a rehabilitation center, school visits, donating tickets to inner-city children and participating in clinics to help teach the game of baseball.

AUTOGRAPHS WITH A CAUSE

Larry Walker and Todd Helton are once again providing fans with an opportunity to receive autographs in exchange for a $25 contribution to the Youth Sports Authority (YSA).

- What is the YSA? It's a non-profit organization, bringing together private corporations, local governments, private citizens and public figures in an effort to provide community facilities, such as youth fields, and opportunities for children. The organization also provides scholarships for those in need. Walker is a founding member of YSA.
- How are the Rockies involved? Fans who don't know about YSA and send requests to Walker and Helton will be mailed a request for $25 per autograph. Those who resend their request with a check and postage will receive an authentic autograph. Fans can mail their checks (made payable to the YSA) directly to Walker or Helton, Coors Field, 2001 Blake, Denver, CO 80205.
- Need more information? Contact the Youth Sports Authority at 303/748-4945.

The Rockies Youth Fields Program

The Rockies Youth Fields Program is more than actual construction. It's an ongoing process which involves scouting new locations, organizing player donations, coordinating community resources and completing each new project.

The seeds of the program are planted during player contract negotiations, when signing players are asked to contribute a portion of their salary towards a new field to be named after them.

In 1998, the Rockies made it their mission to keep the legacy of the major league All-Star Game alive in the community. One of those endeavors was Coca-Cola All-Star Park in Lakewood, Colo. A replica of Coors Field on a 90-percent scale, the facility is the crown jewel of the fields program and represents the nation's premier youth baseball park. It received donations from dozens of entities, including the architects who designed Coors Field, HOK Sport.

Most fields have been photographed and displayed on a unique mural in the service level near the visiting clubhouse at Coors Field.

The following is a list of fields opened or under construction since the program began in 1995.

Medical Glossary

The following glossary was provided by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. It was also looked over by the Orthopaedic Center of the Rockies in Ft. Collins, Colo.

AC Joint—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abscess—An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion—Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Achilles Tendon—The tendon joining the muscles in the calf of the leg to the bone in the heel.

Aerobic—Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anaerobic—Exercise without oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome—Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 month of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament—A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (later ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram—A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope—An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration—The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy—To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis—Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion—The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Baker's Cyst—Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bennett's Fracture—A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Bone Scan—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury

Bursa—A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Capsule—Enclosing structure surrounding a joint, containing ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Chondral Fracture—Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia—Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Coccyx—The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Computed Tomography (CT)—Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction—A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Congenital—Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis—Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Contractures—Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Costochondral—Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryotherapy—A treatment with use of cold.

Cyst—Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement—Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease—Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament—Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side.

Deltoid—Muscles at the top of the arm, below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions.

Disc, Intervertebral—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction—An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; of times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis—Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Edema—Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion—Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS)—An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electromyogram (EMG)—Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis—Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride—"Cold spray" or "freeze", a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

External Rotation—Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia—Connective sheath of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fibula—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Fracture—Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb—Ulnar collateral ligament tear of the metacarpophalangeal joint (thumb).

Glenohumeral—The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. The type of joint that allows 360-degree motion, a "ball and socket" joint.

Glenoid—Scapula cavity into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury—A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury—A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury—A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Heat Cramps—Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Hematoma—Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Humerus—Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension—Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band—A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Impingement Syndrome—Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (Throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Intermittent Compression Pump—Therapeutic modality using an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, to disperse edema and swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation—Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane—Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions: to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Isokinetic Exercise—Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a preset limiting machine, such as Cybex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction—Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done (no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle stays the same).

Isotonic Contraction—A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule)—Glenoid cavity cartilage in the shoulder, a lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament—Fibrous tissue band that connects bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus—Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is the fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.

Mallet Finger—Finger tip injury in which the extensor tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO2)—Maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy—An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals—Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals—Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morton's Neuroma—Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe—A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis—Inflammation of the muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica—A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

Neuritis—Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process—Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum—The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic—Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans—A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Parasthesia—Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Peroneal Muscles—Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx—Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural in phalanges.

Phlebitis—Inflammation of a vein.

Plantar Fascia—the tight band of fibrous tissue beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis—Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion—Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica—Fold of the tissue in the joint capsule and common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax—A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE)—An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF)—An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Radius—Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Referred Pain—Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1)tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2)fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3)A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, and 4)a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SC Joint—Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac—Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum—Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula—Shoulder blade.

Sciatica—Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve—Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint—A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn—A corn, softened by moisture, found beneath the toes rather than the toe's upper surface.

Spleen—Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis—Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis—Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Strain—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture—A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray—A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid—Lubricates joints and tendons produced in synovium or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis—Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus—The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate—A pre-determined pulse obtained during exercise when circulation in working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals—Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis—Tendon and/or tendon sheath inflammation, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon—Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tenosynovitis—Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

Thoracic—Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome—A neurovascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph—An x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea—The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS)—An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process—Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius—Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Ulna—Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Zygoma—The cheekbone.

Items of Interest

Qualifications: For the batting title, 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games. For the ERA championship, at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. For the fielding championship, (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season; (2) an infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league; (3) a pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion. (NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Rawlings Gold Glove, selected by managers and coaches).

Rookie Rule: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (1) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (2) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

Save Rule: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or (b) he enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or (c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings (in the judgement of the official scorer).

Suspended Games: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of game.

National League Night Game: In the NL, any game with the official starting time fixed after 5 p.m. All games, with official starting times for 5 p.m., or earlier, shall be "day" games.

Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

Fielding Percentage: The sum of putouts and assists divided by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Magic Numbers: The number of games yet to be played, plus one, minus the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

On-Base Percentage: Sum of hits, walks and hit by pitches divided by the sum of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Slugging Percentage: Total bases divided by at-bats.

Player Limits: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it returns to 40.

Consecutive-Game Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Scoreless Innings Streak: According to the Elias Sports Bureau, a pitcher is not credited with a scoreless inning if he allows a run at any point of an inning and finishes that particular inning. The exception is, if he pitches one-third or two-thirds of an inning and then departs without being charged a run, then the .1 ip or .2 ip will be added to his scoreless streak.

Waiver Regulations: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m., eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

Earned Runs

An earned run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors (which include catcher's interference) and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached by errorless play. For the purpose of determining earned runs, an intentional base on balls, regardless of the circumstances, shall be construed in exactly the same manner as any other base on balls.

(a) An earned run shall be charged every time a runner reaches home by the aid of safe hits, sacrifice bunts, a sacrifice fly, stolen bases, putouts, fielder's choices, bases on balls, hit batters, balks or wild pitches (including a wild pitch on third strike which permits a batter to reach first base) before fielding chances have been offered to put out the offensive team. For the purpose of this rule, a defensive interference penalty shall be construed as a fielding chance. (1) A wild pitch is solely the pitcher's fault, and contributes to an earned run just as a base on balls or a balk.

(b) No run shall be earned when scored by a runner who reaches first base (1) on a hit or otherwise after his time at bat is prolonged by a muffed foul fly; (2) because of interference or obstruction or (3) because of any fielding error.

(c) No run shall be earned when scored by a runner whose life is prolonged by an error, if such runner would have been put out by errorless play.

(d) No run shall be earned when the runner's advance is aided by an error, a passed ball, or defensive interference or obstruction, if the scorer judges that the run would not have scored without the aid of such misplay.

(e) An error by a pitcher is treated exactly the same as an error by any other fielder in computing earned runs.

(f) Whenever a fielding error occurs, the pitcher shall be given the benefit of the doubt in determining to which bases any runners would have advanced had the fielding of the defensive team been errorless.

(g) When pitchers are changed during an inning, the relief pitcher shall not be charged with any run (earned or unearned) scored by a runner who was on base at the time he entered the game, nor for runs scored by any runner who reaches base on a fielder's choice which puts out a runner left on base by the preceding pitcher. NOTE: It is the intent of this rule to charge each pitcher with the number of runners he put on base, rather than with the individual runners. When a pitcher puts runners on base, and is relieved, he shall be charged with all runs subsequently scored up to and including the number of runners he left on base when he left the game, unless such runners are put out without action by the batter, i.e., caught stealing, picked off base, or called out for interference when a batter runner does not reach first base on the play. EXCEPTION: P1 walks A, and is relieved by P2. P2 allows B to single, but A is out trying for third. B takes second on the throw. C singles, scoring B. Charge run to P2.

(h) A relief pitcher shall not be held accountable when the first batter to whom he pitches reaches first base on four called balls if such batter has a decided advantage in the ball and strike count when pitchers are changed.

(1) If, when pitchers are changed, the count is 2 balls, no strike, 2 balls, 1 strike, 3 balls, no strike, 3 balls, 1 strike, 3 balls, 2 strikes, and the batter gets a base on balls, charge that batter and the base on balls to the preceding pitcher, not to the relief pitcher.

(2) Any other action by such batter, such as reaching base on a hit, an error, a fielder's choice, a force out, or being touched by a pitched ball, shall cause such a batter to be charged to the relief pitcher. NOTE: The provisions of 10.18 (h) (2) shall not be construed as affecting or conflicting with the provisions of 10.18 (g).

(3) If, when pitchers are changed, the count is 2 balls, 2 strikes, 1 ball, 2 strikes, 1 ball, 1 strike, 1 ball, no strike, no ball, 2 strikes, no ball, 1 strike, charge that batter and his actions to the relief pitcher.

DINGER
THE OFFICIAL MASCOT

Born April 16, 1994 at Mile High Stadium, Dinger begins his 10th season as the official mascot of the Rockies.
